CHAPTER 4.

An Act respecting the Revised Statutes of Canada.

WHEREAS it has been found expedient to revise, classify and consolidate the public general statutes passed by the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, and also certain public general statutes which were passed by the several legislatures of the Provinces of Canada before they respectively became a part thereof, and which are still in force, and relate to matters within the legislative authority of the Parliament of Canada; and whereas such revision, classification and consolidation have been made accordingly; and whereas it is expedient to provide for the incorporation therewith of the public general statutes passed during the present session, and for giving the force of law to the body of the Revised Statutes to result from such incorporation: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The printed Roll marked A and attested as that of the original roll said statutes, so revised, classified and consolidated as aforesaid, under the signature of the Governor General and that of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and deposited in the office of such Clerk, shall be held to be the original thereof, and to embody the several Acts and parts of Acts mentioned as to be repealed in the Schedule A annexed to the said roll; but the marginal notes thereon, and the references to former enactments at the foot of the several sections thereof, and the explanatory notes and tables inserted by the revisors, form no part of the said statutes, and shall be held to have been inserted for convenience of reference only, and may be omitted or corrected: and any misprint or error, whether of commission or omission, or any contradiction or ambiguity in the said Roll may also be corrected, but without changing the legal effect; and such alterations in the language of the said statutes as are requisite in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression, and do not alter the legal effect, may be made in the Roll hereinafter mentioned.

2. The Governor General may select such Acts and parts of Acts passed during the present session as he deems it advisable to incorporate with the said statutes contained in the said Roll marked A, and may cause them to be so incorporated therewith, adapting their form and language to those of the said statutes, but without changing their effect, inserting them in their proper places in the said statutes, striking out of the latter any enactments repealed or inconsistent with those so incorporated, altering the numbering of the chapters and sections, if need be, and adding to the said Schedule A a list of the Acts and parts of Acts of the present session so incorporated as aforesaid,—and also amending the said statutes in the particulars and to the extent in the schedule to this Act set forth.

3. As soon as said incorporation of such Acts and parts of Acts with the said statutes, and the said addition to the said Schedule A and amendments have been completed, the Governor General may cause a correct printed Roll thereof, attested under his signature and countersigned by the Secretary of State, to be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments,—which Roll shall be held to be the original thereof, and to embody the several Acts and parts of Acts mentioned as repealed in the amended Schedule A thereto annexed; but any marginal notes and references to former enactments which appear thereon shall be held to form no part of the said statutes, but to be inserted for convenience of reference only.

4. The Governor in Council, after such deposit of the said last mentioned Roll, may, by proclamation, declare the day on, from and after which the same shall come into force and have effect as law, by the designation of "The Revised Statutes of Canada."

5. On, from and after such day, the same shall accordingly come into force and effect as and by the designation of "The Revised Statutes of Canada," to all intents, as if the same were expressly embodied in and enacted by this Act, to come into force and have effect on, from and after such day:

2. On, from and after such day, all the enactments in the several Acts and parts of Acts in such amended Schedule A mentioned shall, so far as the same are within the legislative authority of the Parliament of Canada, stand and be repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of the said Schedule A:
3. The Acts and parts of Acts mentioned in Schedule C, annexed to the said Roll marked A, shall, so far as they constitute indictable offences, be repealed, from and after a day when the proper legislature makes provision for the punishment of the offence by fine or imprisonment, under "The British North America Act, 1867."

6. The repeal of the said Acts and parts of Acts shall not revive any Act or provision of law repealed by them; nor shall the said repeal prevent the effect of any saving clause in the said Acts and parts of Acts, or the application of any of the said Acts or parts of Acts, or of any Act or provision of law formerly in force, to any transaction, matter or thing anterior to the said repeal, to which they would otherwise apply.

7. The repeal of the said Acts and parts of Acts shall not affect—

(a.) Any penalty, forfeiture or liability, civil or criminal, incurred before the time of such repeal, or any proceedings for enforcing the same, had, done, completed or pending at the time of such repeal;

(b.) Any indictment, information, conviction, sentence or prosecution had, done, completed or pending at the time of such repeal;

(c.) Any action, suit, judgment, decree, certificate, execution, process, order, rule, or any proceeding, matter or thing whatsoever respecting the same, had, done, made, entered, granted, completed, pending, existing or in force at the time of such repeal;

(d.) Any act, deed, right, title, interest, grant, assurance, descent, will, registry, by-law, rule, order in council, proclamation, regulation, contract, lien, charge, status, capacity, immunity, matter or thing, had, done, made, acquired, established or existing at the time of such repeal; or—

(e.) Any office, appointment, commission, salary, allowance, security or duty, or any matter or thing appertaining thereto, at the time of such repeal:

2. Such repeal shall not defeat, disturb, invalidate or prejudicially affect any other matter or thing whatsoever, had, done, completed, existing or pending at the time of such repeal:

3. But every such—

(a.) Penalty, forfeiture and liability,

(b.) Indictment, information, conviction, sentence and prosecution,

(c.) Action, suit, judgment, decree, certificate, execution, process, order, rule, proceeding, matter or thing,

(d.) Act, deed, right, title, interest, grant, assurance, descent, will, registry, by-law, rule, order in council, proclamation, regulation, contract, lien, charge, status, capacity, immunity, matter or thing, (e.) Office, appointment, commission, salary, allowance, security and duty, and—
(f.) Matter and thing, may and shall remain and continue as if no such repeal had taken place, and, so far as necessary, may and shall be continued, prosecuted, enforced and proceeded with under the said Revised Statutes and other the statutes and laws having force in Canada, and subject to the provisions of the said several statutes and laws, as if no such repeal had taken place.

8. The said Revised Statutes shall not be held to operate as new laws, but shall be construed and have effect as a consolidation and as declaratory of the law as contained in the said Acts and parts of Acts so repealed, and for which the said Revised Statutes are substituted:

2. But if upon any point the provisions of the said Revised Statutes are not in effect the same as those of the repealed Acts and parts of Acts for which they are substituted, then, as respects all transactions, matters and things subsequent to the time when the said Revised Statutes take effect, the provisions contained in them shall prevail, but, as respects all transactions, matters and things anterior to the said time, the provisions of the said repealed Acts and parts of Acts shall prevail.

9. Any reference in any former Act remaining in force, or in any proclamation, order in council, instrument or document, to any Act or enactment so repealed, shall, after the Revised Statutes take effect, be held, as regards any subsequent transaction, matter or thing, to be a reference to the enactments in the Revised Statutes, having the same effect as such repealed Act or enactment.

10. The insertion of any Act in the said Schedule A shall not be considered as a declaration that such Act or any part of it was or was not in force immediately before the coming into force of the said Revised Statutes.

11. Copies of the said Revised Statutes, purporting to be printed by the Queen's Printer from the amended Rolls so deposited, shall be evidence of the said Revised Statutes in all courts and places whatsoever.

12. The laws relating to the distribution of the printed copies of the statutes shall not apply to the said Revised Statutes, but the same shall be distributed in such numbers and to such persons only as the Governor in Council directs.

13. This Act shall be printed with the said Revised Statutes, and shall be subject to the same rules of construction as the said Revised Statutes.
14. Any chapter of the said Revised Statutes may be cited and referred to in any Act or proceeding whatsoever, either by its title as an Act, or by its short title, or by using the expression "The Revised Statute respecting—" adding the remainder of the title given at the beginning of the particular chapter, or by using the expression "The Revised Statutes" or "The Revised Statutes of Canada, chapter " adding the number of the particular chapter in the copies printed by the Queen's Printer.

The revising officer may also appoint, for the purpose of serving papers, posting up notices and attending and keeping order at courts and sittings held by the revising officer, and doing such other duties as are assigned to him by the revising officer, a competent person as a bailiff and constable, who shall be subject to the orders of the revising officer, and shall be removable by him at pleasure. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 55.

REVISION OF LISTS.

15. On or as soon as possible after the first day of June in each year after the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, the revising officer, being duly sworn as hereinbefore provided, shall cause the list of voters of the preceding year to be compared with the last assessment rolls, and shall, with all the information that he can obtain from that or any other source, proceed to revise the lists of voters then in force under this Act for the electoral district or portion of an electoral district for which he is appointed, entering thereupon the names of all persons not already on such lists, and who, according to the provisions of this Act, are entitled to have their names so entered, indicating in the proper column thereof whether they are qualified in respect of real property, as owners, tenants, occupants or otherwise, and stating the numbers of the lots, portions of lots and concessions, streets or other available description of real property in respect of which they are qualified, and their post office addresses as nearly as can be ascertained by the said officer, or whether they are qualified in respect of income; and as to the sons of farmers, or other owners' sons as aforesaid, and voters on income, stating also in such lists in the proper columns thereof the residence and post office addresses of such persons as nearly as can be ascertained by him, and noting on the said lists the names of any persons who are dead or who are not, according to the provisions of this Act, entitled to be registered as voters, stating the reason of such note, and making any other verbal or clerical corrections which seem necessary; and he shall attest all such additions, erasures or corrections, with his initials, and sign such lists as such revising officer; and such assessment rolls as afore-said shall be \textit{prima facie} evidence of value. 49 V., c. 3, s. 10.

16. The revising officer shall not remove the name of any person entered on the list of voters from such list on the ground that the qualification of such person is incorrectly entered thereon, if it appears that such person is entitled to be registered on the list of voters as possessed of any of the qualifications set forth in this Act, but the revising officer shall retain the name of such person on the list and correct the same accordingly. 49 V., c. 3, s. 9.

17. After the completion of such preliminary revision of the said lists of voters the revising officer shall, for the purpose of making the final revision thereof, cause a sufficient number of copies of each of such lists, with the description of the polling district to which they respectively relate, to be printed, and he shall certify the same as such officer, and on or before the first day of September, in the year in which such lists are so revised, he shall publish the same by causing three copies thereof respectively to be posted up, one in each of three conspicuous public places in the polling district to which they respectively relate, and by delivering copies thereof to any persons applying for the same, upon payment therefor of a price proportionately sufficient to cover the price paid for printing the same, but such price shall not exceed ten cents for a copy of the list for each polling district, and to each of such copies shall be appended a notice in the form C in the schedule to this Act, appointing a time and place for the final revision of each such list as hereinafter provided:

2. The revising officer shall also deliver to the persons following, or transmit by registered letters, copies of such lists for polling districts to their last known addresses, that is to say: to each member of the council of every city, town, township or village in the electoral district, or portion of an electoral district, and to the clerk and treasurer thereof, and to each postmaster in every such municipality or polling district, one copy of every list relating to such municipality or polling district; to the sheriff, warden, clerk of the peace and judge of the county or district court of the county, union of counties or district, and in the Province of Quebec, of the Superior Court for Lower Canada of the district in which such electoral district or portion of an electoral district is situate for judicial purposes, one copy of each of such lists relating to such electoral district or portion of electoral district which is situate within such county, union of counties or judicial district; and ten copies of each of such lists to the member or each of the members of the House of Commons for the said electoral district or portion of an electoral district, and to members of the H. of C, and unsuccessful candidates.

Notice of final revision.

The revising officer shall also at the time of the publication of such lists, as in the next preceding section mentioned, publish the said notice in the form C, appointing the time and place for the said final revision, in a newspaper, if there is one published in the municipality or other division of the electoral district to which the polling district affected by such list belongs, by one insertion thereof in such newspaper. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 34, part.

2. Any person desiring to object or to add to, or in any way amend or correct such list on the final revision, shall have the right so to object or to apply for the said addition, amendment or correction to the revising officer, if he has, at least two weeks before the day fixed for such final revision, deposited with or mailed to the revising officer, by registered letter, at his office or place of address, a notice in the form D in the schedule to this Act; and in the event of any person desiring to object to any name on the said list, the person so objecting shall also give notice in writing at least two weeks before the day fixed for such final revision to the person whose name is objected to and in the like form as to the revising officer, by delivering such notice to such person, or by mailing the same by registered letter to his last known post office address:

Objections, &c., may be examined.

3. The revising officer shall exhibit to any person requiring to examine the same all notices of additions or objections or declarations in support thereof, deposited with or mailed to him under this section, and shall permit copies thereof to be taken. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 35, part;—49 V., c. 3, ss. 6 and 7.

Holding court for final revision of lists and proceedings thereat.

20. At the time and place named in the said notice he shall hold open court for the said final revision, and shall hear and dispose of any objection or complaint and any application to add to, amend or correct the said list, of which notice has been given as aforesaid, hearing the parties making the same, if they appear, and any evidence that is adduced before him in support of or in opposition thereto, and he shall either affirm or amend the list accordingly, as to him seems right and proper, attesting, with his initials, any changes, additions or erasures in the list:

2. If, at the time of the final revision, the person by whom any application to add to, amend or correct the list was made or notice of any objection or complaint was given, does not appear in support of the application, objection or complaint, or is desirous of withdrawing the same, the revising officer shall allow any other elector, who is desirous of so doing, to appear in support of such application, objection or complaint, or he may, without such substitution, hear any evidence that is available in support thereof and dispose of the matter accordingly. 48-49 V., c. 3, s. 8.

21. After the lists for the several polling districts in an electoral district have been so finally revised, they shall be certified in the form E in the schedule to this Act by the revising officer, and they shall be kept by him for the purposes of this Act, and a duplicate of each such list, certified as aforesaid, shall be transmitted forthwith by him to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery at Ottawa, who, on receipt of all the said lists for any electoral district, shall, in the then next issue of the Canada Gazette, insert a notice in the form F in the schedule to this Act,—on and after the publication of which notice the persons whose names are entered on the said lists as voters shall, subject to any correction or amendment made by any judgment on appeal, as hereinafter provided for, be held to be duly registered voters in and for such electoral district: Provided however, that in the event of any such appeal, such lists, after the publication of the last mentioned notice in the Canada Gazette, shall apply to every election for such electoral district or portion of an electoral district, taking place before such appeal has been disposed of and the result thereof communicated to the revising officer, subject to the provisions of "The Dominion Elections Act" with respect to the counting of the ballot of any voter whose right to have his name registered as a voter upon any such list and to vote, or the exclusion of whose name from any such list as a voter is the subject of an undecided appeal:

2. Every such list shall be so finally revised and certified and a duplicate thereof forwarded to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery at Ottawa, on or before the first day of November in each year. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 37, part, and s. 37, part; 49 V., c. 3, s. 15, part.

22. After the lists of voters have been so finally revised, or amended and corrected on appeal, if any such appeal takes place, and after they have been certified and brought into force as hereinbefore prescribed and until other lists are, in a future year, as herein provided, revised, amended and corrected on appeal, if any such appeal takes place, and are certified and brought into force in their stead, those persons only whose names are entered upon such lists as so revised, amended and corrected on appeal as aforesaid, if any, shall be entitled to vote at any election in the polling districts and electoral districts for which such lists are respectively made; and the said lists shall be binding on every judge and other tribunal appointed for the trial of any petition complaining of an undue election or return of a member to serve in the House of Commons of Canada. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 39.

23. Whenever the number of voters in any polling district, increases so as to exceed three hundred, or whenever the revising officer considers that the convenience of the voters would be promoted by a new and different sub-division, he shall, before proceeding to the final revision of the lists of voters in polling districts, then next required under this Act, by an order under his hand, in the form G in the schedule to this Act, divide every city, town, ward, parish, township or other municipal or corresponding division, or if there is no such municipal or corresponding division, any tract of land in which such polling district is situate, having, according to the lists of voters relating to it, more than three hundred voters therein, by well defined boundaries, such as streets, highways, side lines, concession lines or the like, into new polling districts, in such a manner as that the number of voters in the several polling districts in such electoral district, or portion of an electoral district, shall be as nearly equal as may be, and shall not in any one case exceed two hundred, and so again from time to time as like occasion requires, using for that purpose on all occasions the then last revised and corrected lists of voters in force under this Act:

2. The revising officer, after making such division shall forthwith publish such order by posting up in some public place in each polling district a copy thereof, certified by him; and the revising officer in his then next revision of such lists shall make such revision upon the basis of such new division into polling districts:

3. Polling districts in the Province of Prince Edward Island may comprise parts of several townships:

4. Each of such polling districts shall be numbered, with a local designation attached to such number, in and by the said order of the revising officer by which they are established, and such order shall forthwith, after the making thereof, be filed and thereafter kept by the revising officer for the purposes of this Act:
5. Immediately after such new division into polling districts, the revising officer shall prepare from the lists of voters as preliminarily revised by him, a separate list of voters for each such polling district, containing in alphabetical order the names of all voters qualified to be registered as voters and to vote in such polling district, and in the form B in the schedule to this Act, and he shall sign the same as such officer. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 41;—49 V., c. 3, s. 11.

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF REVISING OFFICERS.

24. The revising officer shall, for the purposes of the preliminary and final revisions of any lists of voters in polling districts, have all the powers of any court of record in the Province as to compelling the attendance of witnesses and their examination, the production of books and documents, and the taking of evidence under oath before him, at any court or sittings held by him for any such preliminary or final revision, and such officer shall have generally, for the purposes aforesaid, all the powers of any court of record in such Province. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 36, part.

25. The revising officer shall, on the application of any person who is supporting or opposing any objection, complaint or application which is to be considered at any of the courts or sittings for the final revision of any list of voters revised under this Act, issue a summons in the form H in the schedule to this Act, directed to any person required by such applicant as a witness thereat, commanding such person to attend at such court or sittings, and also commanding such person, if such applicant so desires, to produce any books or papers in the possession or power of such person, and to give evidence at such court or sittings relating to any matter connected with any such revision; and in the event of such person not so attending, after being served with such summons and paid or tendered, with such summons, his proper witness' fees, as hereinafter provided, the revising officer may punish such person as for a contempt of a court of record:

2. No such person shall be obliged to attend under any such summons unless he has been paid or tendered, with such summons, his proper witness' fees therefor, at the rates following, that is to say: if the witness is resident in the Province of Quebec, such fees shall be the same as are payable according to the tariff in force in the Superior Court of Lower Canada; if such witness is resident in the Province of Ontario, such fees shall be the same as are payable according to the tariff in force in any division court in the Province of Ontario; and if such witness is resident in any other Province of Canada, such witness' fees shall be the same as are payable in the county or division courts in such Provinces respectively.
3. Provided that every person, in respect of the placing of whose name on the list of voters an application has been made, or notice of an objection or complaint has been given, and every person who gives notice of any such objection or complaint, shall, if he is resident within the polling district, the list for which is sought to be amended, or within ten miles thereof, and is not absent from such limits, upon being served with a summons in the said form H, obey the same without being tendered or paid any allowance for his expenses:

4. If any person summoned as in the next preceding subsection provided, does not so attend in obedience to such summons, the revising officer may, in the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the reason of such non-attendance, or, if such person is an applicant to be placed on the list of voters, as to his right to be placed on such list, dismiss the objection or complaint, or strike the name of such person off the list of voters, or refuse to place his name thereon, as the case requires, or the revising officer may impose a fine not exceeding five dollars on such person, or he may do both.

26. The revising officer shall have power at any court or sitting held under this Act by him, to amend or give leave to amend, when he sees fit, any of the proceedings taken in reference to any list of voters, to direct notice to be given to other persons, in respect of any question arising in respect of any such list, and to adjourn any court or sittings, on the hearing of any objection, complaint or application, to a future day; and he shall not be bound by strict rules of evidence or forms of procedure, in force in any court of record, but shall hear and determine all matters coming before him as such revising officer in a summary manner, and so as in his judgment to do justice to all parties concerned.

27. The parties to any application before a revising officer may appear by solicitor, counsel or agent; and any elector may appear, in person or by agent, at any court or sitting of the revising officer in the electoral district in which he is such elector, in support of or in opposition to any objection, complaint or application; and the revising officer may award costs to or against any party to the application,—which costs shall only be for witnesses' fees and the expenses of summoning witnesses; and the said costs may be levied by order of the revising officer, by distress, in the same manner as distress is leviable upon a warrant on a conviction under the "Act respecting Summary Proceedings before Justices of the Peace." 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 44.

28. Whenever from illness or from other casualty a revising officer is unable to hold any sitting at the time appointed.
therefore, the clerk may adjourn the sitting to any hour on the following day to be named by him, and so from day to day until the revising officer is able to attend, or until other provision is made for the holding of such sitting. 49 V., c. 3, s. 16.

29. The revising officer shall keep at his office in the electoral district a list of the notices of objections, proposed additions, amendments or corrections, and notices of appeal hereinafter provided for, sent in to him, respecting the said lists of voters, under the provisions of this Act, which list, as well as the said notices, shall be open to inspection by any one desiring to inspect the same at any time before the said objections, proposed additions, amendments, corrections or appeals are disposed of by the revising officer or judge in appeal respectively. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 56.

30. If, at any time when the revising officer is required to furnish or certify any list of voters to any officer or person there is, with respect to such list, any appeal pending and undecided, or if there is any appeal with respect to such list in which the decision, if given, has not been notified to the revising officer, the revising officer shall furnish such list as then last revised, corrected and certified by him, noting thereon the names of all persons who have been retained on the list of voters, notwithstanding objection, the names of all persons who have been struck off the list of voters, and the names of all persons who have applied to be placed on the list of voters, and whose applications have been refused, and noting also thereon the names of all persons who have appealed from his decision; and such list shall serve and avail, according to the provisions of this Act, for the election with reference to which it is furnished; but whenever any appeal is decided, so as to require the correction of the list, and the formal order or judgment has been served upon him, he shall forthwith correct the list accordingly, and shall forthwith notify the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery of such formal order or judgment that he may correct the duplicate list in his hands accordingly, and the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery shall forthwith correct the same accordingly: Provided, that if the decision in appeal, requiring the correction of any list of voters, is notified to the revising officer by service of the formal order or judgment or otherwise, before the day of polling, a duly certified copy of the corrected list of voters, together with a copy of the formal order or judgment on appeal, as received by him, duly certified by such revising officer, shall be furnished before the said day by the revising officer to the returning officer, or to the deputy returning officer for the polling district, the list of voters for which has been corrected upon the said appeal, which copy shall contain the correction in question, certified as hereinbefore provided, in which case the election shall take place upon such corrected list if received in time by such deputy returning officer. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 47.

31. The revising officer shall furnish to the returning officer for his electoral district or portion of an electoral district, within forty-eight hours after demand of the returning officer therefor, one copy of the list of voters then in force for each polling district in the electoral district or portion of an electoral district, with a copy of the description of each such polling district, as contained in the order of the revising officer constituting the same, and then in force, each of which copies shall be duly certified by the revising officer. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 47, part.

32. The revising officer and the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery shall supply copies of the said lists to any person or persons applying for the same and paying therefor at the rate payable for copies of lists furnished under section seventeen of this Act. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 38.

PROVISIONS RESPECTING APPEALS.

33. In any case in which the revising officer is not also a judge of a court, as hereinbefore mentioned, any person who, under the foregoing provisions of this Act, has made any objection, complaint or application in respect of the list of voters for any polling district, or any person with reference to whom such objection, complaint or application has been made, who is dissatisfied with the decision of such revising officer in respect thereof, may give to the said revising officer or to his clerk, on the day of such decision, or within seven days thereafter, notice in writing of his intention to appeal from such decision, stating shortly in such notice the decision complained of, and at least one reason for appealing against it; and such person shall, within the same time, cause a copy of such notice to be served upon the party, if any, in whose favor such decision was given, either personally or by leaving it at his residence or place of business, or by mailing the same in a registered letter addressed to his last known post office address; and such revising officer shall forthwith after receiving the same transmit such notice, together with a copy of his decision appealed from to the court or judge, to whom such appeal is to be made, as herein- after provided, and he shall sign such decision as such revising officer, and he shall also, if so required, forthwith thereafter deliver to such appellant or to his solicitor, counsel or agent, and to the respondent, if any, or to his solicitor, counsel or agent, a certified copy of his said decision. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 49.

10. The returning officer shall, on receiving the writ of election, forthwith indorse thereon the date on which he receives the same, and before taking any further action thereon, he shall take the oath of office in the form B, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 10.

11. The returning officer, by a commission under his hand, and in the form C, in the schedule to this Act, shall appoint an election clerk, and may, at any time during the election, appoint, in the same manner, another election clerk, if the one so appointed resigns, or refuses or is unable to perform his duties as such clerk. 49 V., c. 24, s. 11.

12. The election clerk shall assist the returning officer in the performance of his duties, and act in his stead as returning officer, whenever the returning officer refuses or is disqualified or unable to perform his duties, and has not been replaced by another. 49 V., c. 24, s. 12.

15. At least fifteen days before the day fixed in the writ for the nomination of candidates the returning officer shall cause to be posted up in a conspicuous position, in at least ten of the most public places in the electoral district, a proclamation in the form E, in the schedule to this Act, in which proclamation shall be set forth the place and the day specified in the writ for the nomination. 49 V., c. 24, s. 15.
Another day may be fixed in cases specified.

16. Whenever from unforeseen accident, delays or otherwise, the proclamation cannot be posted up so as to leave the required delay between the posting up of the proclamation and the nomination day appointed by the Governor General, or whenever any candidate dies after being nominated and before the close of the polls, the returning officer may fix another day for the nomination of candidates,—which day shall be the nearest day possible after allowing the number of days required by the next preceding section between the posting up of the proclamation and the nomination day; and in every such case the returning officer shall, with his return, make to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery a special report of the causes which occasioned the postponement of the election. 49 V., c. 24, s. 16.

Report in such case.

Nomination of candidates.

17. At any time after the date of the proclamation, and before two of the clock in the afternoon of the day fixed for the nomination, any four or more electors may nominate a candidate by affirming to and signing, before a justice of the peace, or before the returning officer, and causing to be filed with the returning officer a nomination paper in the form F, in the schedule to this Act; and any votes given at the election for any other candidates than those so nominated shall be null and void. 49 V., c. 24, s. 17.

Consent of candidate.

18. No nomination paper shall be valid and acted upon by the returning officer unless it is accompanied by the consent in writing of the person therein nominated, except when such person is absent from the North-West Territories, when such absence shall be stated in the nomination paper; and—

Deposit to be made.

Unless a sum of two hundred dollars is deposited in the hands of the returning officer at the time the nomination paper is filed with him; and the receipt of the returning officer shall, in every case, be sufficient evidence of the production of the nomination paper, of the consent of the candidate and of the payment herein mentioned:

2. The sum so deposited by any candidate shall be returned to him in the event of his being elected, or of his obtaining a number of votes at least equal to one-half the number of votes polled in favor of the candidate elected,—otherwise it shall belong to Her Majesty for the public uses of Canada; and the sums so paid and not returned as herein provided, shall be applied by the returning officer towards the payment of the election expenses; and an account thereof shall be rendered by him to the Auditor General of Canada. 49 V., c. 24, s. 18.

Application of sum deposited.

Attestation of nomination paper.

19. The returning officer shall require the person, or one or more of the persons producing any such nomination paper, to make oath before him, that he or they know that the several persons who have signed such nomination paper... are electors duly entitled to vote; and that they have signed the same in his or their presence; and that the consent of the candidate has been signed in his or their presence, or that the person named as candidate is absent from the North-West Territories, as the case may be:

2. Such oath may be in the form G, in the schedule to Form of oath.
this Act; and the fact of its having been taken shall be stated on the back of the said nomination paper. 49 V., c. 24, s. 19.

20. Whenever only one candidate has been nominated within the time fixed for that purpose, the returning officer shall make his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery that such candidate is duly elected for the said electoral district,—of which return he shall send within forty-eight hours a duplicate or certified copy to the person elected; and such return shall be in the form H, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 20.

21. The returning officer shall accompany his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery with a report of his proceedings and of any nomination proposed and rejected for non-compliance with the requirements of this Act. 49
V., c. 24, s. 21.

22. Any candidate nominated may withdraw at any time after his nomination, and before the closing of the poll, by filing with the returning officer a declaration in writing to that effect, signed by himself; and any votes cast for the candidate who has so withdrawn shall be null and void; and if, after the withdrawal, there remains but one candidate, then the returning officer shall return as duly elected the candidate so remaining, without waiting for the day fixed for holding the poll, or for the closing of the poll if such withdrawal is filed on the polling day. 49 V., c. 24, s. 22.

23. If at the time fixed for receiving nominations there remain more than one candidate in nomination, the returning officer shall grant a poll for taking the votes of the electors. 49 V., c. 24, s. 28.

24. As soon as the time for receiving nominations has elapsed, or at any time thereafter, the returning officer, if required, shall deliver gratis to every candidate, or to the person who filed the nomination paper on his behalf, a certified list of the candidates nominated. 49 V., c. 24, s. 24.

25. If a poll is granted, the returning officer shall subdivide the electoral district into as many polling divisions as he deems necessary for the convenience of the electors; and he shall number, or otherwise designate them, and fix upon a suitable polling station in each such division. 49
V., c. 24, s. 25.
26. Whenever a poll has been granted it shall be held on the same day of the week as the nomination, in the fourth week thereafter, and shall be opened at the hour of nine of the clock in the forenoon, and kept open until five of the clock in the afternoon of the said day; and the votes at the several polling stations shall be given between the said hours of that day, and by open voting. 49 V., c. 24, s. 26.

27. Immediately after having granted a poll, the returning officer shall cause to be posted up at all places where the proclamation for the election was posted up, an election notice in the form I, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 27.

28. The Governor General may appoint enumerators to make lists of the electors in the electoral district; and if such appointments have not been made, the returning officer conjointly with any two justices of the peace, or with one justice of the peace and a notary public, or with any one of them resident in or near the electoral district and two electors of such district, neither of the number being a candidate, shall appoint under their hand a competent and reliable person to be enumerator for any one or more polling divisions of such district; and the returning officer shall see that no polling division is omitted to be included in some one of such appointments:

2. The enumerator shall, before acting as such, take the oath of office in the form J, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 28.

29. Each such enumerator, immediately after the nomination day, if a poll is granted, shall carefully compile a list of the persons qualified as electors to vote at the election then pending, for the polling division or each of the polling divisions for which he has been appointed; and he shall make three plainly written copies of the same, with the names of the voters alphabetically arranged, giving the occupation and residence of each voter, in the form K, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 29.

30. Each enumerator shall complete, date at his place of residence and sign the copies of the voters' list or lists as aforesaid, eight days before the polling day; two of the said copies for each polling division he shall forthwith post up in two of the most public places within such polling division, and the other he shall retain for revision. 49 V., c. 24, s. 30.

31. If any enumerator, at any time after posting up any voters' list, and before the polling day, is fully satisfied, from representations made to him by any credible person, that the name of any qualified voter has been omitted from the voters' list of the polling division to which such voter belongs, he shall add such name to the copy of the list in his possession below his own signature, and shall attest such addition by his initials; if the enumerator, in like manner, is fully satisfied that there is on the list the name of any person who is not qualified as a voter in such polling division, he may draw erasing lines through such name, and write his own initials opposite thereto in the column for “remarks”; and if the enumerator finds the occupation, addition or residence of any voter to be inaccurately stated in the list, he may make the necessary alteration and affix his initials thereto in like manner. 49 V., c. 24, s. 81.

32. Every enumerator, having revised and corrected such retained copy of each voters' list compiled by him, if he deems such correction necessary, as provided in the next preceding section, shall write at the foot of such copy and close to the last name thereon, on the day immediately preceding the polling day, a certificate in the form of the second certificate contained in form K, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 82.

33. The enumerator shall deliver the voters' list so certified forthwith, or before eight o'clock in the morning of the polling day, to the deputy returning officer for the polling division to which it relates; and such list, as received by such deputy returning officer, shall be the voters' list for such polling division, subject to be further corrected on the polling day as hereinafter provided. 49 V., c. 24, s. 83.

34. The returning officer shall cause to be posted up with the election notice, a notice of information to electors in the form L, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 34.

35. The returning officer shall secure at each polling station a room, building or other convenient place for the officers employed at the poll, with a window or door opening to the outside, and in winter, if possible, two rooms,—one for the officers and the other for the electors while voting. 49 V., c. 24, s. 35.

36. The returning officer shall, by a commission under his hand, appoint one deputy returning officer for each polling division comprised in the electoral district; but if the returning officer sees fit to act in the capacity of deputy returning officer for any polling division, he may dispense with appointing a deputy for such division and himself perform the duties of deputy returning officer therein, without taking any oath of office other than that which he is hereinbefore required to take. 49 V., c. 24, s. 36.
Chap. 7. North-West Territories Representation. 49 Vict.

Oath of office to be taken.

37. Every deputy returning officer shall, before acting as such, take an oath of office in the form M, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 37.

Poll book, &c., to be furnished.

38. The returning officer shall furnish each deputy returning officer with a poll book which shall be in the form N, in the schedule to this Act, and which shall contain as many columns showing the names of candidates as there are candidates duly nominated, and with at least five copies of the notice (form L) for the information of the electors. 49 V., c. 24, s. 38.

Appointment of poll clerk.

39. Each deputy returning officer shall forthwith appoint by commission under his hand a poll clerk, who before acting as such shall take the oath in the form O, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 39.

Agents of candidates.

40. Any person who produces to the deputy returning officer, at any time, a written authority from a candidate to represent him as an agent at a polling station, shall be recognized as such by the deputy returning officer, and if no such agent is nominated by the candidate, any two electors may, at their own request, be recognized as the agents of such candidate: Provided always, that any agent bearing a written authorization from the candidate shall always be entitled to represent such candidate in preference to, and to the exclusion of, any two electors who might otherwise claim the right of representing such candidate under this section. 49 V., c. 24, s. 40.

Who may remain where votes are recorded.

41. In addition to the deputy returning officer and his poll clerk, each candidate and his agent, or in such candidate's absence any two agents of such candidate, and no others, shall be permitted to remain in the room or place, or that part thereof where the votes are recorded. 49 V., c. 24, s. 41.

Duties of deputy returning officer when a poll is held.

42. The deputy returning officer shall,—

Chap. 7.

(e.) Administer either or both of the oaths hereinafter mentioned to any elector, if required, and when necessary direct that the voters' list be corrected accordingly;
(f.) When the poll is declared by him to be closed, immediately sum up with the poll clerk the votes received by each candidate, and sign on the poll book with the poll clerk the certificate hereinafter mentioned;
(g.) When the said certificate is signed, seal up the poll book and voters' list in one package and forward them to the returning officer as he directs. 49 V., c. 24, s. 42.

43. Every deputy returning officer may and shall, when he is required so to do by any candidate or agent of a candidate, administer to any elector either one or both of the oaths set forth in form P, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 43.

44. The deputy returning officer shall, while the poll is open, if required by any elector whose name is not on the voters' list, administer to such elector oath number one in the said form P; and such oath having been taken, the deputy returning officer shall at once cause such elector's name to be added to the voters' list, with the word "sworn" written thereafter. 49 V., c. 24, s. 44.

45. Every person whose name is on the voters' list, unless sworn as in the next preceding section provided, shall, before being permitted to vote, if required by any candidate, agent or elector, take the said oath number one; and if he refuses to take the same, erasing lines shall be drawn through his name on the voters' list, and the words "refused to be sworn" written thereafter. 49 V., c. 24, s. 45.

46. Every voter shall be entitled to vote whose name is on the voters' list and has not been erased therefrom in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Act or whose name is added to the said list as herein provided; but if any such voter, when required by the deputy returning officer, or by any candidate, agent or elector, refuses to take oath number two in the said form P, he shall not be permitted to vote, and if his name has been entered in the poll book, erasing lines shall be drawn through it, and the words "refused to take oath number two" written thereafter. 49 V., c. 24, s. 46.

47. Whenever the deputy returning officer does not understand the language of an elector claiming to vote, he may swear an interpreter, to be the means of communicating between him and such elector with reference to all matters required to enable such elector to vote. 49 V., c. 24, s. 47.

48. Any deputy returning officer, candidate, agent or poll clerk, who belongs to a polling division other than the one at which he is stationed on the polling day, shall be permitted to vote at the polling station where he is so stationed, provided he produces a certificate from the enumerator of the polling division to which he belongs, that he is a qualified voter in such polling division,—which certificate such enumerator shall give gratis to any qualified elector who is so stationed outside of his own polling division. 49 V., c. 24, s. 48.

49. In case any vote is recorded as provided in the next preceding section, in a different polling division to that in which the voter resides, the particular office or position which the voter is filling at the station at which he voted shall be entered opposite his name in the poll book in the column for "remarks." 49 V., c. 24, s. 49.

50. If the deputy returning officer is unable or fails to perform his duties, the poll clerk shall act in his place without taking any further oath of office, and he shall appoint another poll clerk who shall take the oath of office as such herebefore prescribed. 49 V., c. 24, s. 50.

51. The poll clerk shall write in the poll book the full name and the occupation and residence of each voter, and shall, opposite thereto, mark the figure 1 in the column for the candidate in whose favor the vote of such voter is given; and immediately the vote is recorded he shall write "voted" after the elector's name in the voter's list. 49 V., c. 24, s. 51.

52. The poll clerk shall make such additions, alterations, and erasures in the voters' list, and such entries in the poll book as the deputy returning officer directs him to make, as is required by any provision of this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 52.

53. At five o'clock in the afternoon of the polling day the deputy returning officer shall declare the poll closed; and immediately thereafter he and the poll clerk, in the presence of the candidates or their agents, shall sum up the votes given for each candidate, and shall enter in the poll book, immediately below the last name recorded, and shall sign a certificate in the form Q in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c 24, s 53.

54. A duplicate copy of the said certificate shall be made out and signed in the same manner, on a separate sheet of paper, which duplicate shall be kept by the deputy returning officer, after he has forwarded the poll book and voters' list to the returning officer; and if by any means the poll book should be lost or destroyed, he shall deliver the said duplicate certificate to the returning officer. 49 V., c. 24, s. 54.

55. Every poll clerk, on being requested so to do by any candidate or his agent, shall deliver, free of charge, to such candidate or agent, a copy of the certificate made by the deputy returning officer and himself at the close of the poll. 49 V., c. 24, s. 55.

56. The returning officer, at the place, day and hour appointed by his election notice, and after having received all the poll books, shall proceed to open them in presence of the election clerk, and the candidates or their representatives, if present, or of at least two electors, and to add together the number of votes given for each candidate from the poll books of the several polling divisions returned by the deputy returning officers; but if all the poll books are not received on the day named in the election notice, he may adjourn the final summing up of votes until every poll book, or in its absence, the duplicate certificate of the deputy returning officer and poll clerk, has been received. 49 V., c. 24, s. 56.

57. The candidate who, on the final summing up of the votes, is found to have a majority of votes, shall be then declared elected. 49 V., c. 24, s. 57.

58. When, on the final addition of votes by the returning officer, an equality of votes is found to exist between any of the candidates, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer shall give such additional or casting vote. 49 V., c. 24, s. 58.

59. The returning officer, after such final summing up, shall forthwith transmit his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery by mail, after having registered the same, and such return shall be in the form R, in the schedule to this Act. 49 V., c. 24, s. 59.

60. The returning officer shall forward to each of the respective candidates a copy of his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. 49 V., c. 24, s. 60.

61. The returning officer shall accompany his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery with a report of his proceedings, including the number shown in his final summing up of votes; he shall also forward to the said Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, by mail, after having registered the same, all the poll books and voters' lists of the several polling divisions. 49 V., c. 24, s. 61.
Chap. 7. North-West Territories Representation. 49 Vict.

62. The proclamation and other notices required to be posted up at any election under this Act, the poll books and all other documents herein mentioned, may either be printed or written, or partly printed and partly written. 49 Vict., c. 24, s. 62.

Proceedings not to be delayed.

63. The returning officer shall not delay proceeding with an election under this Act, unless he ascertains that the poll at any polling station has been so obstructed or so grossly neglected or mismanaged, that qualified electors have had no fair opportunity to record their votes,—in which case he shall not return any candidate elected, but shall report the proceedings in full to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. 49 Vict., c. 24, s. 63.

Copies of Act for returning officer and deputies.

64. One copy of this Act, and of such portions of "The Dominion Elections Act" as are hereinafter incorporated with this Act, and of such instructions, approved by the Governor in Council, as are necessary to carry out the elections according to the provisions of this Act (with a copious alphabetical index prefixed), for the returning officer, and one for each of his deputies, shall be transmitted, with the writ of election, to each returning officer. 49 Vict., c. 24, s. 64.

Personation defined.

65. Every one who, at an election of a member of the House of Commons under this Act, tenders a vote in the name of some other person, whether such name is that of a person living or dead, or a fictitious person, or having voted once at any such election, tends a vote at the same election, is guilty of personation, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding six hundred dollars, and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months. 49 Vict., c. 24, s. 65.

Recital.

66. Inasmuch as in view of the extension of the electoral franchise to the North-West Territories, as by this Act provided, and the specific provisions in that behalf herein enacted, and of the remoteness of certain portions of the said Territories, it may appear that allowances for fees and disbursements, similar to those provided by section one hundred and twenty-one of "The Dominion Elections Act," will be inadequate or insufficient for a fair and just but economical remuneration for the services performed, the Governor in Council may make a tariff of fees, costs and expenses, based, as nearly as may be, on the tariff of fees, costs and expenses in the said section set forth, to be paid and allowed to returning officers and other persons employed at or with respect to elections under this Act, and may, from time to time, revise and amend such tariff:

2. A copy of every such tariff, and of every amendment thereof, shall be laid before the House of Commons at the then next session thereof. 49 Vict., c. 24, s. 66.
67. Paragraphs (a), (b) and (h) of section two, sub-section one of section twenty, and sections sixty-six, sixty-seven, seventy-three to eighty-eight, both inclusive, ninety to ninety-nine, both inclusive, one hundred and one, one hundred and two, one hundred and four to one hundred and twenty, both inclusive, and one hundred and twenty-six to one hundred and thirty-one, both inclusive, of “The Dominion Elections Act,” are hereby incorporated with this Act, and shall be read as forming part thereof. 49 V., c. 24, s. 67.

68. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to affect or to modify in any manner whatsoever the provisions of section nine of “The Electoral Franchise Act.” 49 V., c. 24, s. 70, part.

69. This Act shall come into force upon, from and after such day as the Governor General, by proclamation, directs. 49 V., c. 24, s. 71.

"I solemnly swear (or if he is one of the persons entitled to affirm in civil cases, solemnly affirm) that I am unable to read and to understand the ballot papers so as to mark the same, (or) that I am incapacitated by physical cause (as the case may be) from voting without the assistance of the deputy returning officer."
2. Whenever the deputy returning officer does not understand the language spoken by any such elector claiming to vote, he shall swear an interpreter, who shall be the means of communication between him and such elector with reference to all matters required to enable such elector to vote:

3. The deputy returning officer shall enter in the poll-book opposite the names of the voters whose ballot papers have been so marked, in addition to what is required in the fifty-first section of this Act, the reason why each such ballot paper was marked by him. 41 V., c. 6, s. 8.

50. In the event of any person desiring to vote at any election whose name is registered on the list of voters for any polling district in the electoral district for which such election takes place, and whose right to have his name registered on such list as a voter and to vote, appears by the list of voters to be the subject of an undecided appeal under the provisions of "The Electoral Franchise Act," or of the Act passed in the session held in the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her Majesty's reign and intituled "An Act respecting the Electoral Franchise," the deputy returning officer shall number the ballot paper of such person, and shall place opposite to his name in the poll-book, a number corresponding to the number so placed upon such ballot paper:

2. In the event of any person desiring to vote at any election whose name has been excluded from the list of voters for any polling district in the electoral district for which such election takes place, and the exclusion of whose name from such list appears by the list of voters to be the subject of an undecided appeal under the provisions of "The Electoral Franchise Act," or the Act passed in the session held in the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her Majesty's reign and intituled "An Act respecting the Electoral Franchise," he shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote and the deputy returning officer shall receive his ballot paper and shall number the same and place opposite to the name of such person in the poll-book a number corresponding to the number so placed upon such ballot paper:

3. Every such person if required by the deputy returning officer, the poll clerk, one of the candidates or one of their agents, or by any elector present, shall, before receiving his ballot paper, take the oath of qualification in the form X, in the first schedule to this Act. 48-49 V., c. 40, s. 87, part; —49 V., c. 8, s. 20, part.

51. The poll clerk shall enter in the poll-book, to be kept by him as aforesaid, opposite the name of each elector voting, the word "Voted," as soon as his ballot paper has been deposited in the ballot box and he shall enter in the same book the word "Sworn" or "Affirmed" opposite the name of each elector to whom the oath of qualification has been administered, and the words "Refused to be sworn" or "Refused to affirm" opposite the name of each elector who has refused to take the oath or to affirm. 37 V., c. 9, s. 49.

52. No voter who has refused to take the oath of qualification required as aforesaid, when requested so to do, shall receive a ballot paper or be admitted to vote. 37 V., c. 9, s. 51.

53. No person shall vote more than once in the same electoral district at the same election, but each elector may vote for as many candidates as are required to be elected to represent the electoral district for which the election is held. 37 V., c. 9, s. 52.

54. If a person, representing himself to be a particular elector named on the list of voters, applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant, upon taking the oath in the form Y, in the first schedule to this Act, and otherwise establishing his identity to the satisfaction of the deputy returning officer, shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper, on which the deputy returning officer shall put his initials, together with a number corresponding to the number entered on the poll book opposite the name of such voter, and he shall thereupon be entitled to vote as any other elector:

2. The name of such voter shall be entered in the poll book, and a note shall be made of his having voted on a second ballot paper issued under the same name, and of the oath of qualification having been required and made, as well as of any objections made on behalf of any and which of the candidates. 37 V., c. 9, s. 53;—48-49 V., c. 40, s. 60.

55. A voter who has inadvertently dealt with the ballot paper given him, in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used, may, on delivering the same to the deputy returning officer, obtain another ballot paper in the place of that so delivered up. 41 V., c. 6, s. 9.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER CLOSE OF THE POLL.

56. Immediately after the close of the poll, the deputy returning officer shall, in the presence of the poll clerk and the candidates or their agents—and if the candidates and their agents or any of them are absent, then in the presence of such, if any, of them as are present, and of at least three electors,—open the ballot box and proceed to count the number of votes given for each candidate; and in doing so he shall reject all ballot papers which have not been supplied by the deputy returning officer, all those by which votes have been given for more candidates than are to be elected, and all those upon which there is any writing or mark by which the voter could be identified, other than the numbering by the deputy returning officer in the cases hereinbefore provided for:

2. The other ballot papers being counted, and a list kept of the number of votes given to each candidate, and of the number of rejected ballot papers, all the ballot papers indicating the votes given for each candidate respectively, except as in this section is hereinafter provided, shall be put into separate envelopes or parcels, and those rejected, those spoiled and those unused shall be put respectively into separate envelopes or parcels, and all such envelopes or parcels being indorsed so as to indicate their contents, shall be put back into the ballot box:

3. The deputy returning officer shall also, in counting the ballots, place in two separate envelopes or parcels the two classes of ballot papers, of persons whose right to have their names registered upon the list of voters and to vote at such election, and of persons the exclusion of whose names from the said list as voters are respectively the subjects of undecided appeals under "The Electoral Franchise Act," or the Act passed in the session held in the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her Majesty's reign and intituled "An Act respecting the Electoral Franchise," as hereinbefore mentioned, and shall keep a list of each of the said classes of ballots, and shall indorse the said envelopes or parcels so as to indicate their contents, and seal them and place them in the ballot box. 41 Vict., c. 6, s. 10; 48-49 Vict., c. 40, s. 81, part.

57. The deputy returning officer shall take a note of every objection made by any candidate, or his agent or any elector present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box, and shall decide every question arising out of the objection; and the decision of such deputy returning officer shall be final, subject to reversal on petition questioning the election or return:

2. Each objection to a ballot paper shall be numbered, and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper, and initialed by the deputy returning officer. 37 Vict., c. 9, s. 56.

58. The deputy returning officer shall make out a statement of the accepted ballot papers, of the number of votes given to each candidate, of the ballot papers counted which were deposited by persons whose right to be registered on the list of voters and to vote, and by persons the exclusion of whose names from the list of voters appeared by the said list to be the subjects of undecided appeals, as aforesaid, of the rejected ballot papers, of the spoiled and returned ballot papers, and of those unused and returned by him; and he shall make and keep a copy of such statement, and inclose in the ballot box the original thereof, together with the list of voters used by him, the poll-book and a certificate in such poll-book immediately following the name of the person last entered on such poll-book as having voted or applied for a ballot paper, of the total number of persons who voted, and shall also inclose in the ballot box such other lists and documents as have been used at such election:

2. The ballot box shall then be locked and sealed, and shall be delivered to the returning officer, or to the election clerk, who shall receive or collect the same, and if both of them are unable so to do, then to one or more persons specially appointed for that purpose by the returning officer, who shall, on delivering the ballot boxes to the returning officer, take the oath in the form Z, in the first schedule to this Act:

3. The deputy returning officer and the poll clerk shall respectively take the oaths in the forms AA and BB, in the first schedule to this Act, which shall be annexed to the statement above mentioned. 37 V., c. 9, s. 57.

59. The several deputy returning officers, on being requested so to do, shall deliver to each of the candidates, their agents or, in the absence of such candidates or agents, to the electors present representing the candidates, a certificate of the number of votes given for each candidate, and of the number of rejected ballot papers. 37 V., c. 9, s. 58.

DECLARATION OF RETURN BY RETURNING OFFICERS.

60. The returning officer at the place, day and hour appointed by his proclamation, and after having received all the ballot boxes, shall proceed to open them, in the presence of the election clerk, the candidates or their representatives, if present, or of at least two electors, if the candidates or their representatives are not present, and to add together the number of votes given for each candidate, from the statements contained in the several ballot boxes returned by the deputy returning officers of the ballot papers counted by them:

2. The candidate who, on the summing up of the votes, is found to have a majority of votes shall be then declared elected. 37 V., c. 9, s. 59.

61. Whenever, on the final addition of votes by the returning officer, an equality of votes is found to exist between any two or more of the candidates, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer shall give such additional or casting vote. 37 V., c. 9, s. 60.
62. If the ballot boxes are not all returned on the day fixed for adding up the number of votes given to the several candidates, the returning officer shall adjourn the proceedings to a subsequent day,—such subsequent day not being more than a week later than the day originally fixed for the purpose of adding up the votes. 37 V., c. 9, s. 62.

63. If the ballot boxes or any of them have been destroyed, lost, or for any other reason are not forthcoming within the delay so fixed, the returning officer shall ascertain the cause of the disappearance of such ballot boxes, and shall call on each of the deputy returning officers whose ballot boxes are missing, or on any other person having the same, for the lists, statements and certificates, or copies of the lists, statements and certificates of the number of votes given to each candidate required by this Act, the whole verified on oath,—which oath the returning officer is hereby authorized to administer; and if such lists or statements, or any of them or copies thereof, cannot be obtained, he shall ascertain, by such evidence as he is able to obtain, the total number of votes given to each candidate at the several polling places, and he shall return the candidate having the majority of votes,—and shall mention specially in his report to be sent with the return, the circumstances accompanying the disappearance of the ballot boxes, and the mode by which he ascertained the number of votes given to each candidate. 37 V., c. 9, s. 63.

RE-COUNT OR FINAL ADDITION BY JUDGE.

64. If, within four days after that on which the returning officer has made the final addition of the votes for the purpose of declaring the candidate or candidates elected, it is made to appear on the affidavit of any credible witness, to the judge of the county court of any county or union of counties or to the judge of any judicial district in which the electoral district or any part thereof is situated, or in the Province of Quebec to a Judge of the Superior Court ordinarily discharging his duties in any judicial district in which the electoral district or any part thereof is situated, that such witness believes that any deputy returning officer at any election in such electoral district in counting the votes—(1) has improperly counted; or (2) has improperly rejected any ballot papers at such election; or (3) that any person voted at such election whose name was included on any list of voters used at such election, or whose name was excluded from any such list, and whose right to have his name so included on the said list, or the exclusion of whose name from such list, as the case may be, appeared by such list to be the subject of an appeal pending and undecided under the provisions of "The Electoral Franchise Act,” or of the Act passed in the session held in the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her Majesty’s reign and intituled “An Act respecting the Electoral Franchise,” and that judgment has been rendered on such appeal deciding that such person was not entitled to have his name so registered upon the said list, or that the name of such person was properly excluded therefrom, as the case may be; or (4) that the returning officer has improperly summed up the votes,—and if the applicant deposits within the said time, with the clerk of the county or district court or with the prothonotary of the said Superior Court in the said judicial district, as the case may be, the sum of one hundred dollars as security for the costs, in respect of the re-count, or final addition, of the candidate appearing by the addition to be elected, the said judge shall appoint a time within four days after the receipt of the said affidavit by him to re-count the votes if the said application is made in respect of either of the first three grounds of application, or to make the final addition, if the said application is made in respect of the last-mentioned ground of application, as the case may be, and shall give notice in writing to the candidates or their agents of the time and place at which he will proceed to re-count the same, or to make such final addition, as the case may be, and shall summon and command the returning officer and his election clerk to attend then and there with the parcels containing the ballots used at such election, or the original statements of the deputy returning officers, as the case may be, and also with a duly certified copy of the formal order or judgment on any such appeal, as above mentioned, in respect of or in consequence of which such recount is to take place,—which command the returning officer and his election clerk shall obey:

2. If any such appeal in respect of any person whose name is entered on the poll book as having voted at such election is not decided before the expiration of the said four days allowed for the making of an application for a recount, the time for the making of such application for a recount on the ground of the result of the decision of any such appeal shall be extended for and until the expiration of six days after the decision of any such appeal:

3. The said judge, the returning officer and his election clerk, and each candidate and his agent appointed to attend such re-count of votes, or such final addition by the judge, or in case any candidate cannot attend, then not more than one agent of such candidate, and if the candidates and their agents are absent, then at least three electors, shall be present at such re-count or final addition of the votes:

4. At the time and place appointed, and in the presence of the said persons, if they attend, the said judge shall proceed to make such final addition according to section sixty of this Act, or to recount all the votes or ballot papers returned by the several deputy returning officers, as the case may be, and shall, in the latter case, open the sealed packets containing—(1) the used ballot papers which have been counted, including those classes of ballot papers deposited by persons hereinbefore mentioned, whose right to have their names registered on the lists of voters and to vote, or the exclusion of whose names from the said lists of voters appeared by the lists used at the election to be the subjects of undecided appeals; (2) the rejected ballot papers; (3) the spoiled ballot papers—and no other ballot papers:

5. The judge shall, as far as practicable, proceed continuously, except on Sunday, with such final addition or recount of the votes, allowing only time for refreshment, and excluding (except so far as he and the persons aforesaid agree) the hours between six o'clock in the afternoon and nine in the succeeding forenoon; and during such excluded time and recess for refreshments, the said judge shall place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the election close under his own seal and the seals of such other of the said persons as desire to affix their seals, and shall otherwise take precautions for the security of such papers and documents:

6. The judge shall, in the case of a recount, proceed to recount the votes according to the rules set forth in section fifty-six of this Act, and shall, if the said recount takes place in respect of the third ground of application for a recount hereinbefore mentioned, also open the said packages containing the ballot papers deposited by persons who voted at such election and whose right to have their names registered on the said lists and to vote, or the exclusion of whose names from the said lists as aforesaid appeared by the lists of voters used at the election to be the subject of an undecided appeal under the provisions of "The Electoral Franchise Act," or of the Act passed in the session held in the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her Majesty's reign and intitled "An Act respecting the Electoral Franchise," and shall ascertain for whom such of the said persons, in respect to whom it has been decided by any judgment on appeal, that they had no right to have their names so registered on any such list of voters or to vote, or that their names were properly excluded from the said lists of voters, voted at such election, and shall strike off the votes of such persons according to the judgments on appeal from the number of votes polled at such election for the candidate or candidates for whom such persons voted thereat, and shall verify or correct the ballot paper account and statement of the number of votes given for each candidate; and upon the completion of such recount, or as soon as he has so ascertained the result of the poll, he shall seal up all the said ballot papers in separate packets:

7. The judge shall forthwith certify the result of such final addition or recount to the returning officer, who shall then declare to be elected the candidate having the highest number of votes; and in case of an equality of votes the returning officer shall give the casting vote:

8. The returning officer, after the receipt of notice from the judge of such final addition or re-count of ballots, shall delay making his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery until he receives a certificate from the judge of the result of such final addition or re-count; and upon receipt of such certificate, the returning officer shall proceed to make his return in the form CC, in the first schedule to this Act:

9. If such re-count or final addition does not so alter the result of the poll as to affect the return, the judge shall order the costs of the candidate appearing to be elected to be paid by the applicant, and the said deposit shall be paid out to the said candidate on account thereof, so far as necessary; and the judge shall tax the costs on giving his decision; and if the deposit is insufficient, the party in whose favor costs are allowed shall have his action for the balance. 41 V., c. 6, s. 14;—48-49 V., c. 40, s. 37, part.

ELECTION RETURN AND PUBLICATION THEREOF.

65. The returning officer shall, immediately after the sixth day after the final addition by him, unless before that time he receives notice that he is required to attend before a judge for the purpose of a final addition or re-count by such judge of the votes given at the election, transmit his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, that the candidate having the largest number of votes has been duly elected, and shall forward to each of the respective candidates a duplicate or copy thereof, and such return shall be in the form CC, in the first schedule to this Act:

2. The returning officer shall accompany his return to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery with a report of his proceedings, in which report he shall make any observation he thinks proper as to the state of the ballot boxes or ballot papers as received by him:

4. Such return and report shall be sent through the post office, after being registered. 41 V., c. 6, s. 11, part.

66. The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery shall, on receiving the return of any member elected to the House of Commons, give notice in the next ordinary issue of the Canada Gazette of the name of the candidate so elected. 37 V., c. 9, s. 64.
Duty of Clerk of the Crown in Chancery as to retention of papers, &c.

67. Such rule shall be a rule in the nature of a side bar rule, and shall issue in vacation as well as in term, and may be obtained on the last as well as other days of term; and such rule or order shall be dated the day of the week, month and year on which the same was drawn up and need not specify any other time or date; and such rule or order may be obtained by the party requiring the same, his agent, attorney or solicitor, from the clerk of the court. 37 V., c. 10, s. 25.

Service of rule. 26. The rule or order for the production of documents shall not require personal service, and it shall be sufficient to serve the same upon the agent, attorney or solicitor of the party. 37 V., c. 10, s. 26.

Affidavit on production. 27. The affidavit on production to be made by the party who has been served with the rule or order for production, may be in the form or to the effect of the schedule to this Act, varied as the facts require. 37 V., c. 10, s. 27.

Penalty for disobedience. 28. Any party who neglects or refuses to obey a rule or order for the production of documents may be punished as for a contempt of court. 37 V., c. 10, s. 28.

TRIAL OF PETITIONS.

List of petitions at issue to be made. 29. The clerk of the court shall, as soon as possible, make out a list of all petitions presented under this Act, and which are at issue, placing them in the order in which they were presented, and shall keep at his office a copy of such list (hereinafter referred to as the election list), open to the inspection of any person making application; and such petitions, as far as conveniently may be, shall be tried in the order in which they stand on such list. 37 V., c. 10, s. 12.

All petitions relating to same election to be bracketed together. 30. When, under this Act, more petitions than one are presented relating to the same election or return, all such petitions shall, in the election list, be bracketed together, and shall be dealt with, as far as may be, as one petition; but such petitions shall stand in the election list in the place where the last presented of them would have stood if it had been the only one presented as to such election or return, unless the court otherwise orders. 37 V., c. 10, s. 42.

31. Every election petition shall be tried by one of the judges of the court, without a jury: and it shall be competent for the judge, on such trial, to decide any question raised as to the admissibility of the evidence offered, or to receive such evidence under reserve, and subject to adjudication at the final hearing:

2. The trial of an election petition shall take place in the electoral district, the election or return for which is in question: Provided always, that if it appears to the court that special circumstances exist, which make it desirable that the petition should be tried elsewhere than in such electoral district, the court may appoint such other place for the trial as appears most convenient:

3. Notice of the time and place at which an election petition will be tried shall be given in the prescribed manner, not less than fourteen days before that on which the trial is to take place:

4. The judge at the trial may adjourn the same from time to time, and from any one place to another, in the same electoral district, as to him seems convenient. 37 V., c. 10, s. 18.

32. The trial of every election petition shall be commenced within six months from the time when such petition has been presented and shall be proceeded with from day to day until such trial is over; but if at any time it appears to the court or a judge, that the respondent's presence at the trial is necessary, such trial shall not be commenced during any session of Parliament; and in the computation of any time or delay allowed for any step or proceeding in respect of any such trial, or for the commencement thereof as aforesaid, the time occupied by such session of Parliament shall not be included:

2. If, at the expiration of three months after such petition has been presented, the day for trial has not been fixed, any elector may, on application, be substituted for the petitioner on such terms as the court or a judge thinks just. 38 V., c. 10, s. 1 and s. 2, part.

33. The court or a judge may, notwithstanding anything in the next preceding section, from time to time enlarge the time for the commencement of the trial, if, on an application for that purpose supported by affidavit, it appears to such court or judge that the requirements of justice render such enlargement necessary:
No trial during term.

2. No trial of an election petition shall be commenced or proceeded with during any term of the court of which the judge who is to try the same is a member, and at which such judge is by law bound to sit. 38 V., c. 10, s. 2, part.

Reception and attendance of judge.

34. The judge shall be received and attended at the place where he is about to try an election petition under this Act, if he is not resident there, in the same manner, so far as circumstances will admit, as if he were about to hold a sitting of the Provincial court of which he is a member. 37 V., c. 10, s. 46.

Powers of the judge.

35. On the trial of an election petition and in other proceedings under this Act, the judge shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the same powers, jurisdiction and authority as a judge of one of the superior courts for the Province in which such election was held, sitting in term, or presiding at the trial of an ordinary civil suit, and the court held by him for such trial shall be a court of record. 37 V., c. 10, s. 48.

Inquiry as to corrupt practices.

36. Unless the judge otherwise directs, any charge of corrupt practices may be gone into, and evidence in relation thereto received, before any proof has been given of agency on the part of any candidate in respect of such corrupt practices. 37 V., c. 10, s. 37.

Witnesses summoned and sworn.

37. Witnesses shall be subpoenaed and sworn in the same manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as in cases within the jurisdiction of the superior courts in the same Province. 37 V., c. 10, s. 49.

Compelling attendance of witnesses.

38. On the trial of an election petition under this Act, the judge may, by order under his hand, compel the attendance of any person as a witness who appears to him to have been concerned in the election to which the petition relates; and any person who refuses to obey such order is guilty of contempt of court:

2. The judge may examine and re-examine any witness so compelled to attend or any person present, although such witness or person is not called and examined by any party to the petition; and after the examination of a witness as aforesaid by the judge, such witness may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner and respondent, or either of them. 37 V., c. 10, s. 50.

Witness not to be excused from answering any question put to him under this Act, touching or concerning any election, or the conduct of any person thereat, or in relation thereto, on the ground of any privilege, or that the answer to such question will tend to criminate such person; but no answer given by any person claiming to be excused on... the ground of privilege, or that such answer will tend to criminate himself, shall be used in any criminal proceeding against any such person, other than an indictment for perjury, if the judge gives to the witness a certificate that he claimed the right to be excused on the grounds aforesaid, and made full and true answers to the satisfaction of the judge. 37 V., c. 10, s. 52.

40. The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in appearing to give evidence at the trial of an election petition under this Act, according to the scale allowed to witnesses on the trial of civil actions in the superior courts in the same Province, may be allowed to such person by a certificate under the hand of the judge or of the clerk of the court; and such expenses, if the witness was called and examined by the judge, shall be deemed part of the expenses of providing a court, and in other cases shall be deemed costs of the party calling the witness, and shall be taxed against such party interested in the trial of such petition, as the judge determines. 37 V., c. 10, s. 53.

41. The judge may, in his discretion, employ a short-hand writer to take down the oral evidence given by witnesses at the trial of the petition; and the expense of employing such short-hand writer shall be costs in the case. 37 V., c. 10, s. 51.

42. On the trial of a petition under this Act complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat for any person, the respondent may give evidence to show that the election of such person was undue in the same manner as if he had presented a petition complaining of such election. 37 V., c. 10, s. 66.

JUDGE'S REPORT.

43. At the conclusion of the trial the judge shall determine whether the member whose election or return is complained of or any and what other person was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and other matters arising out of the petition, and requiring his determination,—and shall, except only in the case of appeal hereinafter mentioned, within four days after the expiration of eight days from the day on which he shall so have given his decision, certify in writing such determination to the Speaker, appending thereto a copy of the notes of the evidence; and the determination thus certified shall be final to all intents and purposes. 37 V., c. 10, s. 29;—38 V., c. 10, s. 3.

44. When any charge is made in an election petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election.
to which the petition relates, the judge shall, in addition to such certificate, and at the same time, report in writing to the Speaker, as follows:—

(a.) Whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at such election, stating the name of such candidate, and the nature of such corrupt practice;

(b.) The names of any persons who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice;

(c.) Whether corrupt practices have, or whether there is reason to believe that corrupt practices have extensively prevailed at the election to which the petition relates;

(d.) Whether he is of opinion that the inquiry into the circumstances of the election has been rendered incomplete by the action of any of the parties to the petition, and that further inquiry as to whether corrupt practices have extensively prevailed is desirable. 37 Vic., c. 10, s. 80;—39 Vic., c. 10, s. 1.

45. The judge may, at the same time, make a special report to the Speaker as to any matters arising in the course of the trial, an account of which ought, in his judgment, to be submitted to the House of Commons. 37 Vic., c. 10, s. 31.

PROCEEDINGS OF SPEAKER UPON JUDGE'S REPORT.

46. The Speaker shall, at the earliest practicable moment after he receives the certificate and report or reports, if any, of the court or judge, give the necessary directions and adopt all the proceedings necessary for confirming or altering the return, or except as hereinafter mentioned, for the issuing of a writ for a new election (for which purpose the Speaker may address his warrant, under his hand and seal, to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery), or for otherwise carrying the determination into execution, as circumstances require. 37 Vic., c. 10, s. 36, part.

47. The Speaker shall, without delay, communicate to the House of Commons the determination, report and certificate of the court or judge, and his own proceedings thereon; and when the judge makes a special report, the House of Commons may make such order in respect of such special report, as they think proper. 37 Vic., c. 10, s. 36, part.

48. When the judge, in his report on the trial of an election petition under this Act, states that corrupt practices have, or that there is reason to believe that corrupt practices have extensively prevailed at the election to which the petition relates, or that he is of opinion that the inquiry into the circumstances of the election has been rendered incomplete by the action of any of the parties to the petition, and that further inquiry as to whether corrupt practices have extensively prevailed is desirable, no new writ shall issue for a new election in such case except by order of the House of Commons. 39 V., c. 10, s. 2.

SPECIAL CASE.

49. When, upon the application of any party to an election petition duly made to the judge, it appears to such judge, that the case raised by the petition can be conveniently stated as a special case, such judge may direct the same to be so stated; and any such special case shall, as far as possible, be heard before such judge, who shall thereupon give such judgment as to justice appertains; and in case the decision is final the judge shall certify to the Speaker his decision on such special case, in the manner and within the time specified in section forty-three of this Act. 37 V., c. 10, s. 32.

APPEALS.

50. An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court of Canada under this Act by any party to an election petition who is dissatisfied with the decision of the court or a judge:

(a) From the judgment, rule, order or decision of any court or judge on any preliminary objection to an election petition, the allowance of which objection has been final and conclusive and has put an end to such petition, or which objection if it had been allowed would have been final and conclusive and have put an end to such petition: Provided always that, unless the court or judge appealed from otherwise orders, an appeal in the last mentioned case shall not operate as a stay of proceedings, nor shall it delay the trial of the petition;

(b) From the judgment or decision on any question of law or of fact of the judge who has tried such petition. 38 V., c. 11, s. 48, part;—42 V., c. 39, s. 10.

51. The party so desiring to appeal shall, within eight days from the day on which the court or judge has given such decision, deposit with the clerk of the court which gave such decision or of which the judge who gave such decision is a member or with the proper officer for receiving moneys paid into such court, at the place where the hearing of the preliminary objections or where the trial of the petition took place, as the case may be, in the Province of Quebec, and at the chief office of the said court, if in any other Province, the sum of one hundred dollars as security for costs, and also a further sum of ten dollars as a fee for making up and transmitting the record to the Supreme Court of Canada:

2. Upon such deposit being so made the said clerk or other proper officer shall make up and transmit the record of the case to the registrar of the Supreme Court of Canada, who shall set down the said appeal for hearing by the Supreme Court of Canada at the nearest convenient time and according to any rules of the Supreme Court of Canada in that behalf made under "The Supreme and Exchequer Courts Act:"

3. The party so appealing shall, within three days after the said appeal has been so set down as aforesaid or within such further time as the court or judge by whom such decision appealed from was given or by whom the petition was tried allows, give to the other parties to the said petition affected by such appeal, or the respective attorneys, solicitors or agents by whom such parties were represented on the hearing of such preliminary objections or at the trial of the petition, as the case may be, notice in writing of such appeal having been so set down for hearing as aforesaid and may in such notice if he so desires, limit the subject of the said appeal to any special and defined question or questions; and the appeal shall thereupon be heard and determined by the Supreme Court of Canada, which shall pronounce such judgment upon questions of law or of fact, or both, as in the opinion of such court ought to have been given by the court or judge whose decision is appealed from; and the Supreme Court of Canada may make such order as to the money deposited as aforesaid, and as to the costs of the appeal as it thinks just; and in case it appears to the court that any evidence duly tendered at the trial was improperly rejected, the court may cause the witness to be examined before the court or a judge thereof, or upon commission:

4. The registrar shall certify to the Speaker of the House of Commons the judgment and decision of the court upon the several questions as well of fact as of law, upon which the court or judge appealed from might otherwise have determined and certified his decision in pursuance of this Act, in the same manner as the said court or judge should otherwise have done, and with the same effect; and the judgment and decision of the Supreme Court of Canada shall be final.

38 V., c. 11, s. 25, part, and s. 48, part.

COSTS.

52. All costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition under this Act, and to the proceedings consequent thereon, with the exception of such costs, charges and expenses as are by this Act otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to or those opposing the petition, in such manner and in such proportions as the court or judge determines—regard being had to the disallowance of any costs, charges or expenses which, in the opinion of the court or judge, have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations or unfounded objections, on the part either of the petitioner or the respondent, and regard being had to the discouragement of any needless expense by throwing the burden of defraying the same on the parties by whom it has been caused, whether such parties are or are not on the whole successful:

2. The costs may be taxed in the prescribed manner, but according to the same principles as costs are taxed between parties in actions in the superior courts, and such costs shall be recoverable in the same manner as the costs in the said actions in the same Province, or in such other manner as is prescribed. 37 V., c. 10, s. 60.

53. If costs are awarded in favor of any party against any petitioner, such party shall, after the expiration of thirty days from the rendering of the decision by the judge, or, in case of an appeal, by the Supreme Court of Canada, upon the production of a certificate of taxation from the proper officer, be entitled to receive out of the deposit the amount taxed to him as aforesaid, if the aggregate of the costs taxed against the said petitioner, certificates whereof are within the said period of thirty days filed with the registrar, clerk or other proper officer, does not exceed the deposit, or if the total amount of the said certificates so filed as aforesaid exceeds the deposit, then his proportion thereof; and in the event last aforesaid, such party shall be entitled forthwith to issue execution, according to the practice in ordinary cases, against the petitioner's goods or lands, for the residue of the costs so taxed to him as aforesaid. 37 V., c. 10, s. 61.

54. In appeals under this Act, to the Supreme Court of Canada, the said court may adjudge the whole or any part of the costs in the court below to be paid by either of the parties; and any order directing the payment of such costs shall be certified by the registrar of the Supreme Court of Canada to the court in which the petition was filed, and the same proceedings for the recovery of such costs may thereupon be taken in the last mentioned court as if the order for payment of costs had been made by that court or by the judge before whom the petition was tried. 39 V., c. 26, s. 16.

55. If, on the trial of any election petition under this Act, it is determined that the election is void by reason of any act of an agent committed without the knowledge and consent of the candidate, and that costs should be awarded to the petitioner in the premises, the agent may be condemned to pay such costs; and the court or judge shall order that such agent shall be summoned to appear at a time fixed in such summons, in order to determine whether such agent shall be condemned to pay such costs:

2. If, at any time, so fixed, the agent so summoned does not appear, he shall be condemned, on the evidence already adduced, to pay the whole or a due proportion of the costs awarded to the petitioner; and if he appears, the court or judge after hearing the parties and such evidence as is adduced, shall give such judgment as to law and justice appertains:

3. The petitioner shall have process to recover such costs against such agent in like manner as he might have such process against the respondent; and no process shall issue against the respondent to recover such costs until after the return of process against such agent. 38 V., c. 10, s. 4.

WITHDRAWAL AND ABATEMENT OF ELECTION PETITIONS.

56. No election petition under this Act shall be withdrawn without the leave of the court or judge (according as the petition is then before the court or before the judge for trial) upon special application made in and at the prescribed manner, time and place:

2. No such application shall be made until the prescribed notice has been given, in the electoral district to which the petition relates, of the intention of the petitioner to make an application for the withdrawal of his petition:

3. On the hearing of the application for withdrawal, any person, who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates, may apply to the court or judge to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner so desirous of withdrawing the petition:

4. The court or judge may, if it or he thinks fit, substitute as petitioner any such applicant as aforesaid, and may also, if the proposed withdrawal is, in the opinion of the court or judge, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that, to the extent of the sum named in such security, the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner:

5. If no such order is made with respect to the security given on behalf of the original petitioner, security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition, and subject to the like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition, and within the prescribed time after the order of substitution:

6. Subject as aforesaid, a substituted petitioner shall stand in the same position, as nearly as may be, and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner:
7. If a petition is withdrawn, the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent, unless the court or judge otherwise orders:

8. When there are more petitioners than one, no application to withdraw a petition shall be made except with the consent of all the petitioners. 37 V., c. 10, s. 54.

57. In every case of withdrawal of an election petition under this Act, if the court or judge is of opinion that the withdrawal of such petition was the result of any corrupt arrangement or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other petition, the court or judge shall report such opinion to the Speaker, stating the reasons therefor and the circumstances attending the withdrawal. 37 V., c. 10, s. 55.

58. An election petition under this Act shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner, or of the survivor of several petitioners:

2. The abatement of a petition shall not affect the liability of the petitioner for the payment of costs previously incurred:

3. On the abatement of a petition, the prescribed notice of such abatement having taken place shall be given in the electoral district to which the petition relates; and within the prescribed time after the notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates, may apply to the court or judge, in the prescribed manner, and at the prescribed time and place, to be substituted as a petitioner:

4. The court or judge may, if it or he thinks fit, substitute as a petitioner any such applicant who is desirous of being substituted, and on whose behalf security to the same amount is given as is required in the case of a new petition. 37 V., c. 10, s. 56.

59. If before or during the trial of any election petition under this Act, any of the following events happens in the case of the respondent, that is to say,—

(a.) If he dies;

(b.) If the House of Commons has resolved that his seat is vacant;

(c.) If he gives notice to the court or judge in and at the prescribed manner and time, that he does not intend to oppose or further to oppose the petition;

(d.) If he is summoned to Parliament as a member of the Senate,—

Notice of such event having taken place shall be given in the electoral district to which the petition relates; and within the prescribed time after the notice is given any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates, may apply to the Controverted Elections.

A court or judge to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition or so much thereof as remains undisposed of, and such person shall, on such application, be admitted accordingly to oppose such petition or such undisposed of portion thereof, either with the respondent, if there is one, or in place of the respondent; and any number of persons, not exceeding three, may be so admitted; and if either of such events happens during the trial, the judge shall adjourn the same, in order that notice that such event has happened may be given as herein provided; and the person or persons so admitted shall be subject to the same liability as the respondent with respect to any costs thereafter incurred. 37 V., c. 10, s. 57.

A respondent who has given the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose or further oppose the petition, shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against such petition in any proceedings thereon, and shall not sit or vote in the House of Commons until the House has been informed of the report on the petition; and the court or judge shall, in all cases in which such notice has been given in the prescribed time and manner, report the same to the Speaker. 37 V., c. 10, s. 58.

When an election petition under this Act complains of a double return, and the respondent has given notice in the prescribed time and manner that it is not his intention to oppose the petition, and no party has been admitted, in pursuance of this Act, to oppose the petition, then the petitioner, if there is no petition complaining of the other member returned on such double return, may withdraw his petition, by notice addressed to the prescribed officer, and upon such withdrawal, the prescribed officer shall report the fact to the Speaker, and the House of Commons shall, thereupon, give the necessary directions for amending the said double return, in such manner as the case requires. 37 V., c. 10, s. 59.

RULES OF COURT.

The judges of the several courts in each Province respectively, or a majority of them, may, from time to time, make, revoke and alter general rules and orders (in this Act referred to as rules of court), for the effectual execution of this Act and of the intention and object thereof, and the regulation of the practice and procedure and costs with respect to election petitions and the trial thereof, and the certifying and reporting thereon:

63. Until rules of court have been made by the judges of the several courts in each Province in pursuance of this Act, and so far as such rules do not extend, the principles, practice and rules on which election petitions touching the election of members of the House of Commons in England were, on the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, dealt with, shall be observed so far as consistently with this Act they can be observed by the said courts and the judges thereof. 37 V., c. 10, s. 45.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

64. The court or a judge shall, upon sufficient cause being shown, have power on the application of any of the parties to a petition, to extend, from time to time, the period limited by this Act for taking any steps or proceedings by such party. 37 V., c. 10, s. 43

65. The travelling expenses of the judge, and all expenses incurred by the sheriff or other officer in consequence of any sitting for the trial of an election petition, and providing a court room and accessories, shall be defrayed in like manner as ordinary travelling expenses of the judge in the Province are payable by Canada. 37 V., c. 10, s. 47.

66. Every person who, according to the law of the Province in which the petition is to be tried, is entitled to practise as an attorney-at-law or solicitor, before the superior courts of such Province, may practise as attorney, solicitor or agent, and any person who, according to such law, is entitled to practise as a barrister-at-law or advocate before such courts, may practise as counsel, in the case of such petition, and all matters relating thereto, before the court or judge in such Province. 37 V., c. 10, s. 67;—38 V., c. 10, s. 7.

68. All elections shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and shall not be questioned otherwise than in accordance herewith. 37 V., c. 10, s. 63, part.

SUMMARY TRIAL OF CORRUPT PRACTICES AT ELECTIONS.

69. If, on the trial of an election petition relating to the election of a member of the House of Commons, it is determined that any person has been guilty of a corrupt practice within the meaning of this Act, or if, on such trial, there is in the opinion of the judge sufficient evidence available that any person has been guilty of such corrupt practice as aforesaid to warrant his being put on his trial, the judge shall order that such person shall be summoned to appear at a time and place to be fixed in such summons,—the time not being more than thirty days from the date of the summons, and the place being the nearest convenient court house or other available room,—in order to be summarily tried for the offence, which shall be specified in the summons. 39 V., c. 9, s. 1.

70. The judge may, by recognizance, bind such person to appear at the said time and place to be tried, and may, by recognizance, bind any person whom he considers necessary to be examined touching the matter, to attend at the said time and place, and give evidence upon the trial; and any such recognizance shall be of the same effect, and any forfeiture thereof shall be enforced in the like manner, and any refusal to enter into the same shall entail the same consequences, as if the recognizance had been given or required in any of the superior courts having criminal jurisdiction within the Province in which the election was held. 39 V., c. 9, s. 2.

71. The judge shall, forthwith after the issue thereof, report to the secretary of the Province in which the election was held, for the information of the Lieutenant Governor, and also to the Secretary of State of Canada for the information of the Governor General, the fact of the issuing of such summons. 39 V., c. 9, s. 3.

72. The county attorney, or other officer on whom in case the person had been charged with an indictable offence the like duty would have devolved, shall subpoena to attend at the trial the witnesses who, at the trial of the election petition, deposed to any facts material to the charge, and
73. The Attorney General of Canada shall instruct counsel to assist the local authorities in the due prosecution of the accused. 39 V., c. 9, s. 5.

74. If the accused, being duly served a reasonable time before the time fixed for the trial, or being bound by recognizance to appear to be tried, fails to appear at the time and place fixed for the trial, the trial may be proceeded with in his absence. 39 V., c. 9, s. 6.

75. The judge, or, if he is unable to attend, then at his request some other judge competent under this Act to try an election petition for any district of the Province within which the electoral district in question is situate, or being one of the judges of a superior court having criminal jurisdiction within such Province, shall, without a jury and in a summary manner, try the accused, and shall, after hearing the counsel for the prosecution and also (if the accused is present), such accused or his counsel, and also such evidence as is adduced on either side, give such judgment as to law and justice appertains. 39 V., c. 9, s. 7.

76. The judge shall be received and attended at the trial in the same manner, as far as circumstances admit, as if he were holding a sitting of the Provincial court of which he is a member. 39 V., c. 9, s. 8.

77. The travelling expenses of the judge and any expenses necessarily incurred by the sheriff or other officer in connection with the trial, shall be defrayed out of any moneys provided by Parliament for the purpose. 39 V., c. 9, s. 9.

78. The judge trying the accused is, for all the purposes of such trial and the proceedings connected therewith, or relating thereto, hereby constituted a court of record, under the name of "The Court for the summary trial of corrupt practices at Elections," and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the same powers, jurisdiction and authority as if he were sitting in any superior court having criminal jurisdiction within the Province; and the record of any such case shall be filed among the records of such superior court, as indictments are and as part of such records. 39 V., c. 9, s. 10.

79. Witnesses shall be summoned or subpoenaed and sworn in the same manner as nearly as circumstances permitting.

80. Any witness, summoned or subpoenaed to attend and give evidence at the trial, whether for or against the accused, shall be bound to attend, and remain in attendance throughout the whole trial; and if he fails so to do, he shall be held guilty of contempt of court and may be proceeded against therefor accordingly. 39 V., c. 9, s. 12.

81. Upon proof to the satisfaction of the judge of the service of the subpoena upon any witness who fails to attend, and that the presence of such witness is material to the ends of justice, he may, by his warrant, cause such witness to be apprehended and forthwith before him to give evidence and to answer for his disregard of the subpoena; and such witness may be detained on such warrant before the judge or in the common gaol with a view to secure his presence as a witness, or in the discretion of the judge he may be released on a recognizance with or without sureties conditioned for his appearance to give evidence and to answer for his default in not attending as for a contempt:

2. The judge may, in a summary manner, examine into and dispose of the charge of contempt against such witness, who, if found guilty thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ninety days, with or without hard labor, or to both. 39 V., c. 9, s. 13.

83. All fines recovered under this Act shall belong to Her Majesty for the public uses of Canada. 39 V., c. 9, s. 15.

84. No such summons, in respect of a corrupt practice, shall be issued or prosecuted if it appears to the court or judge that a criminal prosecution for the same matter against the same person has been tried before the issue of the summons. 39 V., c. 9, s. 16.

85. Upon the issue of any such summons, any criminal prosecution pending in any other court in respect of the same matter shall be stayed. 39 V., c. 9, s. 17.
S6. No person tried under the provisions of this Act for any such corrupt practice shall be subject to be otherwise criminally prosecuted in respect of the same matter; but nothing in this section contained shall affect any disqualification imposed on such person under the operation of any statute. 39 V., c. 9, s. 18.

CHAPTER 10.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever the House of Commons, by address, represents to the Governor General that a judge in his report on the trial of an election petition under "The Dominion Controverted Elections Act," states that corrupt practices have, or that there is reason to believe that corrupt practices have extensively prevailed at the election, or that he is of opinion that the inquiry into the circumstances of the election has been rendered incomplete by the action of any of the parties to the petition, and that further inquiry as to whether corrupt practices have extensively prevailed is desirable,—or whenever the House of Commons by address represents to the Governor General that a petition has been, within sixty days after the publication in the Canada Gazette of the receipt of the return to a writ of election, by the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery (if Parliament is sitting at the expiration of the period of sixty days, or, if Parliament is not then sitting, within fourteen days after the then next meeting of Parliament), presented to the House of Commons, signed by any twenty-five or more electors of the district, stating that no petition charging the existence of corrupt practices has been presented under "The Dominion Controverted Elections Act," and that corrupt practices have, or that there is reason to believe that corrupt practices have, extensively prevailed at the election, and having annexed thereto a solemn declaration under the statute in that behalf, signed by the petitioners, stating that they are such electors, and that the allegations of the petition are true to the best of their knowledge and belief,—and when the House of Commons, by such address, prays the Governor General to cause inquiry to be made under this Act by one or more judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, or by one or more judges competent under "The Dominion Controverted Elections Act," to try an election petition in the Province within which the district in question is situate, or by one or more persons named in such address,—such persons being county court judges, or being barristers-at-law or advocates of not less than seven years standing, and not holding any office or place of profit under the Crown,—the Governor General may appoint one or more of such judges or such person or persons, as the case may be, to be a commissioner or commissioners for the purpose of making inquiry into the existence of such corrupt practices; and if any of the commissioners so appointed die, resign or become incapable to act, the surviving or continuing commissioners or commissioner may act in such inquiry as if they or he had been solely appointed to be commissioners or a commissioner for the purposes of such inquiry; and all the provisions of this Act concerning the commissioners appointed to make any such inquiry shall be taken to apply to such surviving or continuing commissioners or commissioner, and in case a sole commissioner is originally appointed, then to such sole commissioner. 39 V., c. 10, s. 3.

Commissioners' oath of office.

2. Every commissioner shall, before taking any other step under this Act, take an oath in the form following, that is to say:—"I, A.B., do swear that I will truly and faithfully execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the 'Act respecting inquiries as to corrupt practices at elections of Members of the House of Commons,' according to the best of my knowledge and judgment. So help me God;" and every such oath shall be taken before a judge of the Supreme Court of Canada or before a judge competent to try an election petition for any district of the Province within which the district in question is situate. 39 V., c. 10, s. 4.

Secretary to commission.

3. The commissioners may appoint, and at their pleasure dismiss, a secretary, and so many clerks, messengers and officers as are thought necessary by the Minister of Justice for the purpose of conducting the inquiry to be made by them; and the remuneration of such persons shall be fixed by the Governor in Council. 39 V., c. 10, s. 5.

Proceedings of commissioners.

4. The commissioners shall, upon their appointment, or within a reasonable time afterwards, from time to time, hold meetings for the purposes of the inquiry at some convenient place within the district or within ten miles thereof, and may adjourn such meetings from time to time, and from place to place within the district or within ten miles thereof, as to them seems expedient; and they shall give notice of their appointment and of the time and place of holding their first meeting by publishing the same in two newspapers in general circulation in the district or the neighborhood thereof: Provided always, that they shall not adjourn the inquiry for any period exceeding one week, without the approbation of the Minister of Justice; and they may, with the approbation of the Minister of Justice, hold meetings for the purposes of deliberation, in the capital city of the Province within which the district is situate, or in the city of Ottawa, and adjourn the same, from time to time, as they deem proper. 39 V., c. 10, s 6.

Notice.

Provido: as to adjournments, and as to place of sitting.
5. The commissioners shall, by all such lawful means as to them appear best, with a view to the discovery of the truth, inquire into the manner in which the election, or if the report or petition has referred to two or more elections, the latest of such elections, has been conducted, and whether any corrupt practices have been committed at such election, and if so the nature and particulars of such corrupt practices; and if they find that corrupt practices have been committed at the election into which they are hereinbefore authorized to inquire, they may make the like inquiries concerning the latest previous election, and so, in like manner, from election to election as far back as they think fit; but if, upon inquiry concerning any election, they do not find that corrupt practices have been committed thereat, they shall not inquire concerning any previous election; and they shall, from time to time, report to the Governor General the evidence taken by them, and what they find concerning the premises; and especially they shall report with respect to each election the names of all persons whom they find to have been guilty of any corrupt practice thereat, with the particulars thereof, and all other things whereby in their opinion the truth may be better known touching the premises. 39 V., c. 10, s. 7.

6. Every report shall be laid before Parliament within fourteen days after such report is made, if Parliament is sitting at the expiration of the said period of fourteen days, or if Parliament is not then sitting, within fourteen days after the then next meeting of Parliament. 39 V., c. 10, s. 8.

7. The commissioners may, by a summons under their hands and seals, or under the hand and seal of any one of them, require the attendance before them, at a place and reasonable time specified in the summons, of any person whose evidence in their or his judgment may be material to the subject matter of the inquiry, and require any person to bring before them such books, papers, deeds and writings as appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters to be inquired into; and all such persons shall attend the commissioners, and shall answer all questions put to them by the commissioners touching the matters to be inquired into, and shall produce all books, papers, deeds, and writings required of them and in their custody or under their control according to the tenor of the summons. 39 V., c. 10, s. 9.

8. The commissioners, or one of them, shall administer an oath or an affirmation, where an affirmation would be admitted in a court of justice, to every person examined before them. 39 V., c. 10, s. 10, part.
Corrupt Practices at Elections.

9. No person called as a witness shall be excused from answering any question relating to any corrupt practice at the election forming the subject of inquiry, on the ground that the answer thereto may criminate or tend to criminate himself; Provided always, that when any witness answers every question relating to the matters aforesaid which he is required to answer, and the answer to which may criminate, or tend to criminate him, he shall be entitled to receive from the commissioners, under their hands, a certificate stating that he was, upon his examination, required by them to answer one or more questions relating to the matters aforesaid, the answer or answers to which criminated, or tended to criminate him, and had answered every such question; and if any information, indictment or penal action is at any time thereafter pending in any court against such witness in respect of any corrupt practices committed by him previously to the time of his giving his evidence, at any election concerning which he has been so examined, the court shall, on production and proof of such certificate, stay such proceedings, and may, in its discretion, award to him any costs to which he has been put: Provided, that no statement made by any person in answer to any question put by the commissioners shall, except in the case of an indictment for perjury, be admissible in evidence in any legal proceeding. 39 V., c. 10, s. 11.

10. If any person, on whom any summons has been served by the delivery thereof to him, or by the leaving thereof at his usual place of abode, fails to appear before the commissioners at the time and place specified therein, then if the commissioners are judges of any of the courts hereinbefore referred to, any of such commissioners and any court of which any one of them is a member, may proceed against the person so failing in the same manner as if he had failed to obey any writ of subpœna, or any process lawfully issuing from the court to which such judge belongs, or from such judge; and if the commissioners are not such judges, they may certify such default under their hands and seals, or under the hand and seal of any one of them, to any court or judge competent to try an election petition under "The Dominion Controverted Elections Act," in the Province within which the district in question is situate, whereupon such court or judge shall proceed against such person in manner aforesaid: and if any person so summoned to attend as aforesaid, or having appeared before the commissioners, refuses to be sworn or to make answer to any question put to him by them touching the matters in question, or to produce and show to them any papers, books, deeds or writings in his possession or under his control, which they deem necessary to be produced, or if any person is guilty of any contempt of the commissioners, or their office, the commissioners shall

11. The commissioners may, if they deem fit, award to any witness, summoned to appear before them, a reasonable sum for travelling expenses and maintenance, according to a scale which shall be fixed by the Governor in Council, and they shall certify to the Minister of Justice the name of any such witness, and the sum awarded. 39 V., c. 10, s. 13.

13. The commissioners shall have such and the like protection and privileges in case of any action brought against them for any act done or omitted to be done in the execution of their duty, as are given by any Act in force to justices of the peace acting in the execution of their office. 39 V., c. 10, s. 15.

14. Whenever it appears by the report of the commissioners under this Act that any person named by them has been guilty of a corrupt practice and has not been furnished by them with a certificate of indemnity, such report, with the evidence taken by the commissioners, shall be laid before the Attorney General of Canada, who shall, if in his opinion there is sufficient evidence available for a prosecution, certify such opinion to the Secretary of State, who shall thereupon communicate the report with the evidence to the Lieutenant Governor of the Province in which the election was held; and the Attorney General of Canada shall instruct counsel to assist in any prosecution which is thereon instituted by the local authorities charged with the administration of justice. 39 V., c. 9, s. 19.

15. The person or persons presenting a petition to the House of Commons under this Act, shall deposit with the accountant of the House the sum of one thousand dollars, and such petition shall not be received by the House of Commons unless such deposit has first been made; and there shall be attached to the said petition on its presentation a certificate, given under the hand of the said accountant, certifying that the said deposit of one thousand dollars has been duly made. 42 V., c. 6, s. 1.

16. Whenever, by the report of the commissioner or commissioners appointed to investigate and inquire into the matters set forth in such petition, it appears that the petition was not well founded, and that corrupt practices had not extensively prevailed within the electoral district referred to in the petition, at the election referred to therein, the said sum of one thousand dollars or so much thereof as is required for the purpose, shall be applied to pay the expenses of the inquiry, and the balance remaining after paying such expenses shall be paid to the person or persons who made such deposit. 42 V., c. 6, s. 2.

(a.) That at the time appointed for such examination he will, if the examination is for a place below that of a third-class clerk, be of the full age of fifteen years, and in other cases be of the full age of eighteen years, and if for the inside departmental division, that his age will not then be more than thirty-five years;

Provision in case of rejection.

37. When the Deputy Head of a department in which a vacancy occurs reports, for reasons set forth in such report,—

(a.) That the qualifications requisite for such office or employment are wholly or in part professional or technical;

(b.) That the requisite qualifications are not possessed by any person then in the service of that department; and—

(c.) That it would be for the public interest that the examination herein provided for should, as regards such vacancy, be wholly or partially dispensed with;
The Governor in Council may, without reference to the age of the person, if the Head of the department concurs in such report, select and appoint such person as is deemed best fitted to fill the vacancy, subject to such examination as is suggested in the report; and such appointment shall be made from the Civil Service, if any person employed therein is found available:

2. City Postmasters; Inspectors, Collectors and Preventive Officers in the Customs Department; Inspectors of Weights and Measures; Deputy Collectors and Preventive Officers in the Inland Revenue Department, may be appointed without examination and without reference to the rules for promotion herein prescribed:

3. 39. No promotion in either division of the Civil Service shall take place without special examination, under regulations made by the Governor in Council:

2. Except as herein otherwise provided, such examination shall be open to any person who holds a position below that to which the promotion is to be made in either division of the service of the department in which the vacancy to be filled by promotion exists; and shall be in such subjects as are determined from time to time for each department by the Governor in Council, and in such subjects, as by report of the Deputy Head of the department in which the promotion is to be made, concurred in by the Head of the department, are submitted to the board as best adapted to test the fitness of the candidates for the vacant office:

8. When the vacancy to be filled by promotion exists in the inside division, the examination shall not be open to per-

Head, concurred in by the Head of the department, that it is not necessary:

5. No such examination shall be required for the re-employment or promotion of excisemen who passed the de-division in the classes of—

(b.) First-class clerks;
(c.) Second-class clerks:

2. To the number so estimated shall be added such further number as the Deputy Head of the department deems necessary to compensate for any death, failure of health, or other contingency:

3. A similar estimate shall be made at the same time of the number of vacancies likely to occur in the second division, to which promotions can be made:

4. The numbers so estimated shall be those with reference to which the examinations for promotion shall be held, as herein provided. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 40.

41. Notice of each examination for promotion in the service shall be published in the English and French languages in the Canada Gazette at least one month before the examination is to be held; and such notice shall state the number of promotions expected in each class in each division. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 41.

42. Except as herein otherwise provided, when any vacancy occurs in one of the higher classes, in either division, the Head of the department shall select from the list of successful candidates for promotion, the person whom he considers best fitted for the office, having due reference to any special duties incident to such office, to the qualification and fitness shown by the candidates respec-

43. Every promotion so made shall be subject to a probation of not less than six months; but at any time during the first year the Head of the department may reject the person promoted, or he may be definitely accepted at any time during the second period of six months after his promotion:

1. If the person so selected is rejected he shall then return to the performance of the duties in which he was previously engaged. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 43.

44. When any clerk who is promoted on probation is rejected, the Head of the department shall select another in his stead from the candidates whose names still remain on the lists of qualified persons, made by the board. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 44.

45. During the period for which a clerk is promoted on probation the duties of the office previously held by him shall, if necessary, be performed by a person selected for that purpose by the Head of the department. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 45.

46. An exchange of positions between two officers serving in different departments, or in different divisions of the same department, and the filling of a vacancy in one department by a transfer from another division of the same department or from another department, may be authorized by the Governor in Council, to be made without examination of either officer; but such exchange or transfer shall be made without increase of salary of either of the persons exchanging or transferred; and no person shall be transferred from an outside to an inside division, whose age at the date of his first appointment exceeded thirty-five years. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 46.

3. The temporary and supernumerary clerks so employed shall be paid only out of money voted by Parliament for payment of the contingencies of the department, division or office of the service in which such clerks are employed, or out of money voted by Parliament for the construction of works upon which they are employed. 48-49 V., c. 46, s. 47.

An Act respecting the Superannuation of persons employed in the Civil Service of Canada.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Civil Service Superannuation Act." 46 V., c. 8, s. 18.

APPLICATION OF ACT.

2. The Civil Service, for the purposes of this Act includes and consists of—

(a.) All officers, clerks and employees in or under the several departments of the Executive Government who are paid a yearly salary, and to whom "The Civil Service Act" applies;

(b.) All such officers, clerks and employees of the second or outside division of the Civil Service, as the Governor in Council, from time to time, designates, and to whom "The Civil Service Act" does not apply, and who are paid a yearly salary and employed in an established capacity;

(c.) The permanent officers and servants of the Senate and House of Commons, and the permanent officers and servants employed in the Library of Parliament, who, for the purposes of this Act, shall be deemed to be in the Civil Service, saving all rights and privileges of either House in respect to the appointment or removal of its officers and servants;

(d.) All persons now contributing to the superannuation fund;

(e.) All persons to whom this Act is by some other Act declared to apply. 46 V., c. 8, s. 1.

SUPERANNUATION.

3. The Governor in Council may grant to any person who has served in an established capacity in the Civil Service for ten years or upwards, and who has attained the age of sixty years, or is incapacitated by bodily infirmity from properly performing his duties, a superannuation allowance calculated on his average yearly salary during the then last three years, and not exceeding the following rates, that is to say:

(a.) If he has served for ten years, but less than eleven years, an annual allowance of ten fiftieths of such average salary, and if for eleven years and under twelve years, an annual allowance of eleven fiftieths thereof, and in like manner a further addition of one fiftieth of such average salary for each additional year of service up to thirty-five years, when an annual allowance of thirty-five fiftieths may be granted; but no addition shall be made for any service beyond thirty-five years;

(b.) If the service has not been continuous, the period or periods during which such service has been interrupted shall not be counted, and the Order in Council made in any such case shall be laid before Parliament at its then current or next ensuing session. 46 V., c. 8, s. 2.

Breaks in service not to be counted.

Governor in Council may add to service of persons appointed on account of special qualifications.

4. The Governor in Council may, in the case of any person who entered the Civil Service after the age of thirty years, as being possessed of some peculiar professional or other qualifications or attainments required for the office to which he was appointed, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, add to the actual number of years' service of such person, such further number of years not exceeding ten, as is considered equitable, for reasons stated in the Order in Council made in the case; and such additional number of years shall be taken as part of the term of service on which the superannuation allowance of such person shall be computed; and the Order in Council in any such case shall be laid before Parliament at its then current or next ensuing session. 46 V., c. 8, s. 3.

5. The superannuation of every civil servant shall be preceded by an inquiry by the Treasury Board—

(a.) Whether the person it is proposed to superannuate is eligible within the meaning of this Act; and—

(b.) Whether his superannuation will result in benefit to the service, and is therefore in the public interest; or—

(c.) Whether it has become necessary in consequence of his mental or physical infirmity:

2. No civil servant shall be superannuated unless the Treasury Board reports that he is eligible within the meaning of this Act and that such superannuation will be in the public interest. 46 V., c. 8, s. 4.

6. A deduction towards making good the superannuation allowances hereinbefore mentioned, shall be made from the salary of every person in the Civil Service to whom this Act applies, at the rate of two per centum per annum on such salary, if it is six hundred dollars or upwards, and of one and a-quarter per centum per annum thereon, if it is less than six hundred dollars, and the sum so deducted shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada; but such deduction shall be made only during the first thirty-five years of service. 46 V., c. 8, s. 5.

7. The full superannuation allowance shall only be granted to persons who have been subject to the said deduc-tion during ten years or upwards,—the superannuation allowance of any person who has not paid it, or has paid it for a less period, being subject to a diminution of one per centum for every year less than ten during which he has not paid it; except that the superannuation allowance of any person hereafter retiring, shall not be subject to any such diminution by reason of his not having paid the abatement hereinbefore mentioned, during any year or years after his first thirty-five years of service. 46 V., c. 8, s. 6.

8. Retirement shall be compulsory on every person to whom the superannuation allowance hereinbefore mentioned is offered, and such offer shall not be considered as implying any censure upon the person to whom it is made; nor shall any person be considered as having any absolute right to such allowance, but it shall be granted only in consideration of good and faithful service during the time upon which it is calculated:

2. Nothing herein contained shall be understood as impairing or affecting the right of the Governor in Council to dismiss or remove any person from the Civil Service. 46 V.,
c. 8, s. 7.

9. If the Head of a department reports with respect to any person employed in his department, and about to be superannuated, from any cause other than that of ill-health or age, that the service of such person has not been satisfactory, the Governor in Council may, as to him seems fit, grant such person a superannuation allowance less than that to which he would have otherwise been entitled. 46 V.,
c. 8, s. 8.

10. If any person to whom this Act applies, is constrained, from any infirmity of mind or body, to quit the Civil Service before the period at which a superannuation allowance might be granted him, the Governor in Council may allow him a gratuity not exceeding one month's pay for each year of his service; and if any such person is so constrained to quit the service before such period, by reason of severe bodily injury, received without his own fault, in the discharge of his public duty, the Governor in Council may allow him a gratuity not exceeding three month's pay for every two years' service, or a superannuation allowance not exceeding Chap. 18.  Civil Service Superannuation Act.  49 VICT.

one-fifth of his average salary during the then last three years.  46 V., c. 8, s. 9.

11. If any person to whom this Act applies is removed from office in consequence of the abolition of his office for the purpose of improving the organization of the department to which he belongs, or is removed, or retired from office to promote efficiency or economy in the Civil Service, the Governor in Council may grant him such gratuity or superannuation allowance as will fairly compensate him for his loss of office, not exceeding such as he would have been entitled to if he had retired in consequence of permanent infirmity of body or mind, after adding ten years to his actual term of service. 46 V., c. 8, s. 10.

12. Every person who receives a superannuation allowance, and is under the age of sixty years, and is not disabled by bodily or mental infirmity, may be called upon to serve, if required, under penalty of loss of allowance.

13. Service in an established capacity in any of the departments of the Executive Government or offices of the Legislature of any of the Provinces now included in the Dominion of Canada, before such Province became a portion thereof, by any person who has thereafter entered the Civil Service, shall be reckoned in computing his period of service for the purposes of this Act. 46 V., c. 8, s. 12.

14. In any case of doubt the Governor in Council may, by general or special regulations, determine to what persons the provisions of this Act do or do not apply, and the conditions on which, and the manner in which, they shall apply in any case or class of cases. 46 V., c. 8, s. 13.

15. The allowances and gratuities granted under this Act shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada. 46 V., c. 8, s. 14.

REPORT OF SUPERANNUATIONS.

16. The Minister of Finance and Receiver General shall lay before Parliament, within fifteen days after the commencement of each session thereof, a statement of all superannuations and retiring allowances in the Civil Service within the year, giving the name and rank of each person.
superannuated or retired, his salary, age and length of service, the allowance granted to him on retirement, the cause of his superannuation and whether the vacancy has been subsequently filled, and if so, whether by promotion or by a new appointment, and the salary of the new appointee. 46 V., c. 8, s. 15.
CHAPTER 19.

An Act respecting Public Officers.

A.D. 1886.

H.E.R Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

COMMISSIONS.

1. The Governor in Council may make regulations declaring and determining what officers or classes of officers in the Civil Service, now or hereafter to be appointed under Orders in Council, shall receive commissions under the Great Seal or under the Privy Seal respectively, and what fee shall be paid thereon; and such commissions may be issued to the officers who have not received and are declared entitled to receive them; but nothing done under the provisions of this section shall affect any commission in force on the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, nor shall any regulation made under the same affect the validity of any commission issued before the said day. 49 V., c. 5, ss. 1 and 2.

2. Commissions issued under the foregoing provisions of this Act shall be recorded in the office of the Registrar General of Canada, and notice of the appointments shall be inserted in the Canada Gazette by the Secretary of State, and a list of such commissions issued during the year shall be laid before Parliament within the first fifteen days of its next ensuing session in each year. 49 V., c. 5, s. 3.

3. Upon the demise of the Crown, it shall not be necessary to renew any commission by virtue whereof any officer of Canada or any functionary in Canada held his office or profession during the previous reign; but a proclamation shall be issued by the Governor General, authorizing all persons in office as officers of Canada who held commissions under the late Sovereign, and all functionaries who exercised any profession by virtue of any such commissions to continue in the due exercise of their respective duties, functions and professions; and such proclamation shall suffice; and the Oath of allegiance to be taken.

2. Upon such proclamation being issued, and oath taken, each and every such officer of Canada and functionary shall continue in the lawful exercise of the duties and functions of his office or profession, as fully as if appointed de novo by commission derived from the Sovereign for the time being; and all acts and things bona fide done and performed by such incumbents in their respective offices, and in the due and faithful performance of their duties, functions and professions, between the time of such demise and the proclamation so to be issued—such oath of allegiance being duly taken—shall be deemed to be legally done, and valid accordingly. 31 V., c. 36, s. 1.

4. Nothing in the preceding section shall prejudice or in anywise affect the rights or prerogative of the Crown, with respect to any office or appointment derived or held by authority from it, or prejudice or affect the rights or prerogatives thereof in any other respect whatsoever. 31 V., c. 36, s. 2.

SECURITY BY PUBLIC OFFICERS.

5. Every person appointed to any civil office or employment, or commission in any public department of the Government of Canada, or to any office or employment of public trust, or wherein he is concerned in the collection, receipt, disbursement or expenditure of any public money under the Government of Canada, and who by reason thereof is required to give security, with surety or sureties, or otherwise, shall, within one month after notice of such appointment, if he is then in Canada, or within three months if he is then absent from Canada (unless he sooner arrives in Canada, and then within one month after such arrival), give and enter into a bond or bonds, or other security or securities, in such sum and with such sufficient surety or sureties as are approved of by the Governor in Council or by the principal officer or person in the office or department to which he is appointed, for the due performance of the trust reposed in him, and for his duly accounting for all public moneys intrusted to him, or placed under his control. 31 V., c. 37, s. 2.

6. Whenever any person is required, under this Act or under any other Act of the Parliament of Canada, or any other Act affecting officers of Canada, or by any order of the Governor in Council, to give bond or security for the due performance of the duties of any office to which he has been or is about to be appointed, such person may either solely, or together with any surety or sureties, as the case may be, give such security by bond to Her Majesty in the form A in the schedule to this Act, or to the like effect. 35 V., c. 19, s. 1.
7. Whenever a bond made according to the form A set forth in the schedule to this Act, or any other bond expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, or referring thereto, contains the form of words set forth in column "one" of the said form, such bond shall be construed and have the same effect as if it contained the form of words set forth in column "two" of the said form. 35 V., c. 19, s. 2.

8. Any recitals may be inserted prior to the condition of the bond, and the feminine gender may be substituted for the masculine, or the plural number for the singular, or vice versa, in any form in the first column of the said form, and corresponding changes shall, in such case, be taken to be made in the corresponding form in the second column; and any express exceptions or qualifications or additions, made, introduced or annexed in the first column, shall be taken to be made in the corresponding form in the second column. 35 V., c. 19, s. 3.

9. Any bond or part of a bond which does not take effect by virtue of the three sections of this Act next preceding, shall nevertheless be as effectual to bind the obligors therein, so far as the rules of law and equity will permit, as if the said sections had not been passed. 35 V., c. 19, s. 4.

10. Every surety in any such bond shall make the affidavit in the form B, in the schedule to this Act or to the effect thereof, before a justice of the peace, and every such bond or security shall be proved as to the due execution and delivery of the same, by an affidavit of the attesting witness, made before a justice of the peace; and every such bond or security, with the several affidavits thereunto annexed, shall be recorded at full length in the Department of the Secretary of State of Canada, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and the original bond or security and the affidavits thereunto annexed shall, after such registration, be deposited in the said Department of the Secretary of State of Canada:

2. Every such bond or security, and the affidavits thereunto annexed, shall be recorded and deposited as aforesaid, within one month after being entered into or given, if the person on whose behalf it is entered into or given, resides or is in Canada; and if he is absent from Canada, then within three months after being entered into or given, unless such person arrives sooner in Canada, and then within one month after such arrival. 31 V., c. 37, s. 3;—43 V., c. 3, s. 1, part.

11. The Secretary of State shall make an entry, and shall, if required, give a certificate, in writing, under his hand and seal, of every such bond or security brought by Secretary of State.
12. If any person, who, by reason of his appointment to or holding any such civil office, employment or commission in any public department, or of public trust as aforesaid, or who, by reason of being concerned in the collection, receipt, disbursement or expenditure of any public money as aforesaid, is required or bound to give any such security, or to register and deposit any such bond or security as aforesaid, neglects to give such security, or to cause such bond or security to be duly registered and deposited in the manner and within the period in this Act prescribed, he shall be liable to forfeit the appointment, office, employment or commission, in respect whereof such security should have been given and such bond or security registered and deposited as aforesaid; and his appointment or commission shall be void, from and after the time when the Governor General declares the same to be void under this Act; but such voidance shall not annul or make void any act or order, or other matter or thing done by such person during the time he actually held such appointment, office, employment or commission:

2. No such forfeiture shall take place by reason of any such bond or security not being registered or deposited, if the proper sureties have been given and the proper bond made out, and when the failure of registry and deposit have arisen from the loss of such bond or security in the transmission thereof from a distance; but in every such case a new bond or security, specifying the reason of such delay, shall be made out and signed, registered and deposited, within the like period, after the person giving such security receives notice of the loss (regard being had to the place where he then is), as is required by this Act, for the registry thereof, if such loss had not occurred. 31 V., c. 37, s. 5.

13. Every such person as aforesaid, who has given any bond or other security, with surety or sureties for the due execution of the trust reposed in him, or for duly accounting for public moneys coming to his hands, shall give notice, in writing, to the Secretary of State, or to the principal officer or person of the department to which he belongs, of the death, bankruptcy, insolvency, or residence out of Canada, of any surety or person bound for or with him in any such security:

2. Such notice shall be given within one month after the delay for fact comes to the knowledge of such person as aforesaid, if he then is or resides in Canada, or within three months if he is out of Canada,—unless he sooner arrives in Canada, and then within one month after such arrival; and any person who neglects to give such notice within such period as aforesaid, shall forfeit, to the use of Her Majesty, one-fourth part of the sum for which the surety so dead, bankrupt, insolvent or resident out of Canada, became security, recoverable in any court of competent jurisdiction, at the suit of the Crown:

3. Every such person who, upon the death, bankruptcy, insolvency or residence out of Canada of any surety, neglects to give the security of another surety, to be approved in like manner as such surety dying or becoming bankrupt, insolvent or resident out of Canada, was approved, within such period from his having given notice of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency, or residence out of Canada of the former surety, as is by this Act limited for giving, registering and depositing the original security, or neglects to register and deposit the bond or security of such new surety, within such period from his having given the security of such new surety as is, by this Act, limited for the registering and depositing of the original bond or security (the same regard being had to the place in which the person then is), shall be liable to forfeit the appointment, office, employment or commission, in respect whereof such new security ought to have been given, and such new bond or security registered and deposited as aforesaid; and his appointment or commission shall be void from and after the time when the Governor General declares the same to be void in like manner, and under and subject to such provisions as aforesaid. 31 V., c. 37, s. 6.
14. When any person has become surety to the Crown for the due accounting for public moneys, or the proper performance of any public duty, by any such person as aforesaid, such surety, when no longer disposed to continue such responsibility, may give notice thereof to his principal, and also to the Secretary of State; and all accruing responsibility on the part of such person as such surety shall cease at the expiration of three months from the receipt of the last of such notices, or upon the acceptance by the Crown of the security of another surety, whichever first happens; and the principal shall, within one month from the receipt of the last of such notices, give the security of another surety, and register and deposit the bond of such new surety, or in default of so doing, shall be liable to forfeit and be deprived of the appointment, office, employment or commission in respect whereof such new security ought to have been given, and such new bond or security registered and deposited as aforesaid; and his appointment or commission shall be void from and after the time when the Governor General declares the same to be void, in like manner, and under and subject to such provisions as aforesaid. 31 V., c. 37, s. 7.

15. The Governor in Council may remit the forfeiture or penalty in any case in which the failure to give security or to register and deposit any bond or security under this Act, has not arisen from any wilful neglect of the person bound to give, register or deposit the same:

2. If it appears to the Governor in Council that the period hereinbefore limited for giving the security of a new surety as aforesaid is, in consequence of particular accidents, casualties or circumstances, insufficient, or that, by reason of the distance or loss of letters or illness, or the refusal of any surety to give the security, or of such surety not being deemed eligible and being rejected, or any other accident or casualty, further time will be necessary to enable the security of such new surety to be given,—the Governor in Council may allow such further period for giving the security of such new surety as appears to him reasonable and proper:

3. Such extended period shall in no case exceed two months beyond the period allowed by this Act; and the precise period proposed to be allowed, together with the special grounds for allowing the same, shall be either entered in the book in which the original security has been registered, or indorsed on the back of the original bond or other security itself; and the person required to give the security of such new surety, shall not be subject to any forfeiture or penalty for not giving the same within the time limited by this Act, if he gives it within the extended period so allowed as aforesaid. 31 V., c. 37, s. 8.

16. The Governor in Council may approve of the security given, or the affidavit of qualification filed by any public officer of Canada, although the same has been given or filed after the time limited by this Act; and in such case the office or commission of such public officer shall be deemed not to have been voided by such default, but to have remained and to remain in full force and effect. 31 V., c. 37, s. 9.

17. No act of any public officer of Canada, whose security has been given, registered or deposited, or whose affidavit of qualification has been filed after the time limited by this Act, shall by such default be void or voidable. 31 V., c. 37, s. 10.

18. When the securities of the principal and sureties have been executed at different times (whether they were taken in one and the same bond, deed or other instrument, or in different ones), the period limited for registering and depositing such securities, shall be estimated from the time of execution thereof, by the person who was the last to execute the bond, deed or other instrument, or the last bond, deed or other instrument, as the case may be. 31 V., c. 37, s. 11.

19. No neglect, omission or irregularity, in giving or receiving the bonds or other securities, or in registering the same, within the periods or in the manner prescribed by this Act, shall vacate or make void any such bond or security, or discharge any surety from the obligations thereof. 31 V., c. 37, s. 12.

20. All bonds or other securities hereby required to be registered and deposited, shall be registered and deposited by the proper officer, notwithstanding the period prescribed for registering and depositing the same has expired; but no such registering and depositing of any such bond or other security shall be deemed to waive any forfeiture or penalty, or shall exempt the person on whose behalf the same are registered and deposited from any forfeiture or penalty under any of the provisions of this Act. 31 V., c. 37, s. 13.

21. Nothing in any of the preceding sections of this Act as to the giving of security shall apply to or affect any officer of any department, with respect to which special provision is made by law, for the giving of security by its officers, and the exacting of security from them, unless such special provision does not extend or apply to such officer. 31 V., c. 37, s. 14.

22. The Governor in Council may direct that whenever any public officer of Canada is required to give security as security of aforesaid, for the due performance of the trust reposed in him, and for his duly accounting for all public moneys intrusted to him or placed under his control, or for the due fulfilment in any way of his duty, or of any obligation undertaken towards the Crown, the bond or policy of guarantee of any incorporated or joint stock company, incorporated and empowered to grant guarantees, bonds, covenants or policies, for the integrity and faithful accounting of public officers or other like purposes, and named in the Order in Council, may be accepted as such security, upon such terms as are determined by the Governor in Council. 31 V., c. 37, s. 16.

23. The Secretary of State shall cause to be prepared, for the information of the Parliament of Canada, within fifteen days after the opening of every session thereof, a detailed statement of all bonds or securities registered as aforesaid at his office, and of any changes or entries that have been made in reference to the names and residence of any sureties, and of the amounts in which they have become severally liable, since the period of the previous return submitted to the said Parliament. 31 V., c. 37, s. 15.

ment. 41 V., c. 7, s. 9.

24. The Auditor General may, from time to time, make orders and rules for the conduct of the internal business of his office, and may prescribe regulations and forms for the guidance of principal and sub-accountants in making up and rendering their periodical accounts for examination: Provided always, that all such rules, regulations and forms shall be approved by the Treasury Board previously to the issue thereof:

2. In any case in which the Auditor General deems it necessary to report for the information of the Governor in Council, such report shall be made through the Minister of Finance and Receiver General. 41 V., c. 7, s. 15.

26. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, appoint the times and mode in which any officer or person employed in the collection or management of, or the accounting for any part of the revenue, shall account for and pay over the public moneys which come into his hands,—and may determine the times and mode in which, and the officer by whom, any licenses on which any duty is payable, are to be issued: Provided, that such accounts and payments shall be.

27. The Minister of Customs, the Minister of Inland Revenue, the Postmaster General, and all other Ministers, deputies of Ministers, officers, clerks or persons charged with the receipt of public moneys, shall cause the gross revenues of their several departments or offices to be paid at such times and under such regulations as the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, from time to time, prescribes, to an account to be called "the account of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General," at such bank or banks as are determined by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General; and daily accounts of such moneys so deposited shall be rendered to the Auditor General in such form as the Treasury Board prescribes. 41 V., c. 7, s. 27.

28. Every officer of the Customs or of the Inland Revenue or otherwise employed in the collection of the revenue, receiving money for the Crown, shall deposit the same to the credit of the account of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, from time to time, in such bank as the said Minister appoints; and every such officer shall keep his cash book written up daily; and all the books, accounts and papers of such officer shall, at all times during office hours, be open to the inspection and examination of any officer or person whom the Minister of Finance and Receiver General authorizes to inspect or examine the same; and daily accounts of such moneys so deposited shall be rendered to the Auditor General in such form as the Treasury Board prescribes: Provided, that where such money is received at a place where there is no bank into which it can conveniently be paid, the same shall be paid over in such manner as the Minister of Finance and Receiver General directs; and accounts of such money shall be rendered to the Auditor General in such form as the Treasury Board prescribes. 41 V., c. 7, s. 28.

PROCEEDINGS AS TO VOTES OF MONEY.

29. When any sum of money has been granted to Her Majesty by a resolution of the House of Commons or by an Act of Parliament, to defray expenses for any specified public services, the Governor General may, from time to time, under his sign manual, countersigned by a member of the Treasury Board, authorize and require the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to issue out of the moneys appropriated for defraying the expenses of such services, and in his hands, the sums required, from time to time, to defray such expenses, not exceeding the amount of the sum so voted or granted. 41 V., c. 7, s. 29.
30. When any sum of money has been granted to Her Majesty by a resolution of the House of Commons or by an Act of Parliament, to defray expenses for any specified public services, and as soon as the Governor General has issued his warrant authorizing the payment of such sum or sums as are required to defray such expenses, the Minister of Finance and Receiver General may, from time to time, on the application of the Auditor General, cause credits to be issued in favor of the deputy heads, officers, clerks or other persons connected with the several departments or services charged with expenditure of the moneys so authorized. Such credits shall issue on the several banks authorized to receive public moneys and statements in duplicate of moneys drawn for under such credits, together with the cheques paid by the banks in connection therewith, shall be rendered at such times and under such forms and once in each month or more often, as the Treasury Board directs, one duplicate of such statement together with the cheques to be rendered to the Auditor General, and the other duplicate to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General; whereupon the Auditor General, being satisfied of the correctness of the statement, may request the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to cause cheques to be prepared to reimburse the banks for such advances under such credits to cover the expenditures made or authorized,—such cheques being signed by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General and countersigned by the Auditor General or their respective deputies or officers thereunto duly authorized; but no such credit shall issue in favor of any officer or other person in excess of any appropriation authorized by an Act of Parliament. 41 V., c. 7, s. 30.

31. The Auditor General shall see that no cheque issues for the payment of any public money for which there is no direct parliamentary appropriation, or in excess of any portion of such appropriation, the expenditure of which has been authorized by the Governor in Council; and he shall report to the Governor in Council through the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, any case in which a sub-accountant has expended money out of the proceeds of any accountable credit, for any purpose for which there is no legislative authority or beyond the amount for which there is such authority. 41 V., c. 7, s. 31.

32. No cheque for public money shall issue except upon the certificate of the Auditor General that there is parliamentary authority for the expenditure, save only in the following cases:

(a.) If, upon any application for a cheque, the Auditor General has reported that there is no parliamentary authority for issuing it, then upon the written opinion of the Attorney General of Canada, that there is such authority, citing it, the Chap. 29.  Consolidated Revenue and Audit.  49 Vict.

Minister of Finance and Receiver General may authorize the Deputy Minister of Finance and Receiver General to prepare the cheque, irrespective of the Auditor General’s report;

(b.) If, when Parliament is not in session, any accident happens to any public work or building which requires an immediate outlay for the repair thereof, or any other occasion arises when any expenditure not foreseen or provided for by Parliament is urgently and immediately required for the public good, then upon the report of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General that there is no parliamentary provision, and of the Minister having charge of the service in question that the necessity is urgent, the Governor in Council may order a special warrant to be prepared, to be signed by the Governor General for the issue of the amount estimated to be required, which shall be placed by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to a special account, against which cheques may issue from time to time, in the usual form, as they are required:

(c.) If the Auditor General has refused to certify that a cheque of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General may issue, on the ground that the money is not justly due, or that it is in excess of the authority granted by Council, or for any reason other than that there is no parliamentary authority, then upon a report of the case prepared by the Auditor General and the Deputy of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, the Treasury Board shall be the judge of the sufficiency of the Auditor General’s objection, and may sustain him or order the issue of the cheque in its discretion:

2. The Auditor General shall in all such cases prepare a statement of all such legal opinions, reports of Council, special warrants and cheques issued without his certificate, and of all expenditure incurred in consequence thereof, which he shall deliver to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to be by him presented to Parliament not later than the third day of the session thereof then next ensuing. 41 V., c. 7, s. 32.

33. No payment shall be authorized by the Auditor General in respect of work performed, or material supplied by any person in connection with any part of the public service of Canada, unless, in addition to any other voucher or certificate which is required in that behalf, the officer, under whose special charge such part of the public service is, certifies that such work has been performed, or such materials supplied, as the case may be, and that the price charged is according to contract, or if not covered by a contract, is fair and just. 41 V., c. 7, s. 33.

35. The Minister of Finance and Receiver General shall cause an account to be prepared and transmitted to the Auditor General, on or before the thirty-first day of October in every year, showing the issues made from the Consolidated Revenue Fund in the financial year ended on the thirtieth day of June preceding, for the interest and management of the public funded and unfunded debt, for the civil list, and all other issues in the financial year, for services directly under his control; and the Auditor General shall certify and report upon the same with reference to the Acts of Parliament, under the authority of which such issues have been directed; and such accounts and reports shall be laid before the House of Commons by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, on or before the thirty-first day of January, in the following year, if Parliament is then sitting, and if not sitting, then within one week after Parliament is next assembled. 41 V., c. 7, s. 34.

36. The Deputy of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General shall prepare and submit to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General the public accounts to be annually laid before Parliament, such accounts to be countersigned by the Auditor General. 41 V., c. 7, s. 85.

37. The public accounts shall include the period from the thirtieth of June in one year to the thirtieth of June in the next year, which period shall constitute the financial year; all estimates submitted to Parliament shall be for the services coming in course of payment during the financial year; and all balances of appropriation which remain unexpended at the end of the financial year, shall lapse and be written off: Provided, that upon cause being shown to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council, he may, by Order in Council to be made before the first of August of each year, extend the time for finally closing the account of any appropriation, for a period of not more than three months from the end of the financial year,—after the expiration of which extended time, and not before, the balance of such appropriation shall lapse and be written off. 41 V., c. 7, s. 36.

Grants comprised in the Appropriation Act for the year ending thirtieth June then last, or of any other Act, shall be prepared by the several departments, and be transmitted for examination to the Auditor General and to the Deputy of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and when certified and reported upon, as hereinafter directed, they shall be laid before the House of Commons; and such accounts shall be called the “Appropriation Accounts” of the moneys expended for the services to which they respectively relate; and the Treasury Board shall determine by what departments such accounts shall be prepared and rendered to the Auditor General, and the Auditor General shall certify and report upon such accounts, as hereinafter directed; and each account shall be examined under the direction of the Auditor General, by such officer or clerk in his office as he directs; and such officer or clerk shall certify to the due examination of such account, and the Auditor General shall certify that the account has been examined under his direction and is correct. 41 V., c. 7, s. 37, part.

39. The Treasury Board shall direct that the department charged with the expenditure of any vote, under the authority of the Governor in Council, shall prepare the appropriation account thereof. 41 V., c. 7, s. 37, part.

40. The department charged with the duty of preparing the appropriation account of a grant shall, if required so to do by the Auditor General, transmit to him, together with the annual appropriation account of such grant, a balance sheet so prepared as to show the debtor and creditor balances in the ledger of such department on the day when the said appropriation account was closed, and to verify the balances appearing upon the annual appropriation account: Provided always, that the Auditor General may, if he thinks fit, require the said department to transmit to him, in lieu of such balance sheet, a certified statement showing the actual disposition of the balances appearing upon the annual appropriation account on the last day of the period of such account. 41 V., c. 7, s. 38.

41. The Treasury Board may alter the period at or to which any accountant for public moneys, public officer, corporation or institution, is required to render any account or to make any return, whenever in its opinion such alteration will facilitate the correct preparation of the public accounts or estimates for the financial year. 41 V., c. 7, s. 39.

42. The deputy heads of the several departments or the officers, clerks or other persons charged with the expenditure of public moneys, shall respectively audit the details of the accounts of the several services in the first instance, and be responsible for the correctness of such audit. 41 V., c. 7, s. 40.

43. Every appropriation account, when rendered to the Auditor General, shall be accompanied by an explanation showing how the balances on the grants included in the previous account have been adjusted, and shall also contain an explanatory statement of any excess of expenditure over the grants included in such account; and such statement, as well as the appropriation account, shall be signed by the proper officer of such department. 41 V., c. 7, s. 41.

44. Every appropriation account shall be examined by the Auditor General, on behalf of the House of Commons; and in the examination of such accounts, the Auditor General shall ascertain, first, whether the payments which the accounting department has charged to the grant are supported by vouchers or proofs of payment; and, second, whether the money expended has been applied to the purposes for which such grant was intended to provide: Provided always, that whenever the Auditor General is required by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to ascertain whether the expenditure included, or to be included, in any appropriation account, or any portion of such expenditure, is supported by the proper authority, the Auditor General shall examine such expenditure with that object, and shall report to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General any expenditure which appears upon such examination, to have been incurred without such authority; and if the Minister of Finance and Receiver General does not, thereupon, see fit to sanction such unauthorized expenditure, it shall be regarded as being not properly chargeable to a Parliamentary grant, and shall be reported to the House of Commons, in the manner hereinafter provided. 41 V., c. 7, s. 42.

45. The Auditor General shall, in order that such examinations may, as far as possible, proceed pari passu with the cash transactions of the several accounting departments, have free access, at all convenient times, to the books of account and other documents relating to the accounts of such departments, and may require the several departments concerned to furnish him, from time to time, or at regular periods, with accounts of the cash transactions of such departments respectively up to such times or periods. 41 V., c. 7, s. 43.

46. In conducting the examination of the vouchers relating to the appropriation of the grants for the several services sanctioned by the Appropriation Act of the year, or by any Act of Parliament, the Auditor General shall test the accuracy of the additions and computations of the several items of such vouchers; but if he is satisfied that the accounts bear evidence that the vouchers have been completely checked, examined and certified as correct in every respect, and that they have been allowed, and passed by the proper departmental officers, he may admit the same as satisfactory evidence of payment in support of the charges to which they relate: Provided always, that if the Minister of Finance and Receiver General desires any such vouchers to be examined by the Auditor General in greater detail, the Auditor General shall cause such vouchers to be subjected to such further examination in detail as the Minister of Finance and Receiver General thinks fit to prescribe. 41 V., c. 7, s. 44.

47. If, during the progress of the examination by the Auditor General hereinbefore directed, any objection arises to any item to be introduced into the appropriation account of any grant, such objections shall, notwithstanding such account has not been rendered to him, be immediately communicated to the department concerned; and if the objections are not answered to his satisfaction by such department, they shall be referred by him to the Treasury Board, and the Treasury Board shall determine in what manner the items in question shall be entered in the annual appropriation account. 41 V., c. 7, s. 45.

48. In reporting as hereinbefore directed for the information of the House of Commons, the result of the examination of the appropriation accounts, the Auditor General shall call attention to every case in which cheques have been issued without his certificate,—or in which it appears to him that a grant has been exceeded,—or that money received by a department from other sources than the grants for the year to which the account relates has not been applied or accounted for according to the directions of Parliament,—or that a sum charged against a grant is not supported by proof of payment,—or that a payment so charged did not occur within the period of the account, or was for any other reason not properly chargeable against the grant. 41 V., c. 7, s. 46.

49. If the Minister of Finance and Receiver General does not, within the time prescribed by this Act, present to the House of Commons any report made by the Auditor General on the appropriation accounts, or any other accounts, the Auditor General shall forthwith present such report. 41 V., c. 7, s. 47.

50. Besides the appropriation accounts of the grants of Parliament, the Auditor General shall examine and audit, if required so to do by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and in accordance with any regulations which are prescribed for his guidance in that behalf by the Treasury Board, the following accounts, viz: the accounts of all receipts of revenues forming the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada; the accounts current with the several banks and financial agents of Canada; the accounts relating to the issue or redemption of loans; the accounts with the several Indian tribes, known as the Indian Fund; the accounts with the several Provinces forming the Dominion of Canada; the accounts with the Government of the United Kingdom,—and any other public accounts which, though not relating directly to the receipts or expenditure of the Dominion of Canada, the Treasury Board directs him to examine and audit. 41 V., c. 7, s. 48.

51. The accounts which, by the next preceding section, the Minister of Finance and Receiver General is empowered to subject to the examination of the Auditor General, shall be rendered to him by the departments or officers directed so to do by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General; and the expression "Accountant" when used in this and the following sections of this Act, with reference to any such accounts, means the department or officer that is so required by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to render the same; and every public officer into whose hands public moneys, either in the nature of revenue or fees of office, are paid by persons bound by law or regulation so to do, or by subordinate or other officers whose duty it is to pay such moneys, wholly, or in part, into the account of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, or to apply the same to any public service, shall, at such times and in such form as the Treasury Board determines, render an account of his receipts and payments to the Auditor General; and the Clerk of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada shall inform the Auditor General of the appointment of every such officer. 41 V., c. 7, s. 49.

52. The Auditor General shall examine the several accounts transmitted to him with as little delay as possible, and when the examination of each account is completed he shall make a statement thereof in such form as he deems fit, and if it appears from the statement so made up of any account, being an account current, that the balance thereon agrees with the accountant's balance, or if it appears from any account rendered by an accountant, as well as from the statement of such account by the Auditor General that the accountant is "even and quit," the Auditor General shall sign and pass such statement of account so made up by him as aforesaid: Provided always, that in all other cases, the Auditor General after having made up the statement of account as hereinbefore directed, shall transmit the same to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, who, having considered such statement, shall return it to him, with his certificate attached thereto, directing him to sign and pass the account, either conformably to the statement thereof, or with such alterations as he deems just and reasonable; and a statement of the account made up by the Auditor General in accordance with such certificate from the Minister of Finance and Receiver General shall then be signed and passed by the Auditor General: Provided further, that a list of all accounts which the Auditor General has signed and passed (such list to be so prepared as to show thereon the charge, discharge and balance of each account respectively,) shall be submitted by him to the Treasury Board twice in every year, that is to say, not later than the first week of February, and the first week of August. 41 V., c. 7, s. 50.

58. As soon as any account has been signed and passed by the Auditor General, he shall transmit to the accountant a certificate, in which the total amounts of the sums forming, respectively, the charge and discharge of such account, and the balance, if any, remaining due to or by such accountant, shall be set forth; and every such certificate shall be signed by him, and shall be valid and effectual to discharge the accountant, as the case may be, either wholly or from so much of the amount with which he was chargeable, as he appears by such certificate to be discharged from: Provided always, that when any account, not being an account current has been signed and passed by the Auditor General with a balance due thereon to the Crown, he shall not make out or grant any such certificate as aforesaid until the accountant satisfies him, either that he has discharged the full amount of such balance, and any interest which is, as hereinafter provided, payable thereon, or that he has been relieved from the payment thereof, or of so much thereof as has not been paid, by an Order in Council passed on a report from the Treasury Board. 41 V., c. 7, s. 51.

59. Whenever the Auditor General is required by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to examine and audit the accounts of the receipt, expenditure, sale, transfer or delivery of any securities, stamps, Canadian or other Government stock or annuities, provisions or stores, the property of Her Majesty, he shall, after the examination of such accounts has been completed, transmit a statement thereof, or a report thereon to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, who shall, if he thinks fit, signify his approval of such accounts: and the Auditor General on receipt of such approval shall thereupon transmit to the accountant a certificate in a form to be, from time to time, determined by the Auditor General, which shall be to such accountant a valid and effectual discharge from so much as he thereby appears to be discharged from. 41 V., c. 7, s. 52.
55. The Auditor General may examine any person on oath or affirmation on any matter pertinent to any account submitted to him for audit; and such oath or affirmation may be administered by him to any person whom he desires to examine. 41 V., c. 7, s. 53.

56. The Auditor General may apply to any judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada, or to any judge of a superior court of any Province of Canada, for an order that a subpoena be issued from the court, commanding any person therein named to appear before him at the time and place mentioned in such subpoena, and then and there to testify to all matters within his knowledge relative to any account submitted to him, and (if so required) to bring with him and produce any document, paper or thing which he has in his possession relative to any such account as aforesaid; and such subpoena shall issue accordingly upon the order of such judge; and any such witness may be summoned from any part of Canada whether within or without the ordinary jurisdiction of the court issuing the subpoena; and any reasonable travelling expenses shall be tendered to any witness so subpoenaed at the time of such service. 41 V., c. 7, s. 54.

57. If, by reason of the distance at which any person, whose evidence is required by the Auditor General, resides from the seat of government, or for any other cause, the Auditor General deems it advisable, he may issue a commission, under his hand and seal, to any officer or person therein named, empowering him to take such evidence, and report the same to him; and such officer or person, being first sworn before some justice of the peace faithful to execute the duty intrusted to him by such commission, shall, with regard to such evidence, have the same powers as the Auditor General would have had if such evidence had been taken before him, and may, in like manner, apply to and obtain from any judge of any of the courts aforesaid, a subpoena for the purpose of compelling the attendance of any person, or the production of any document, paper or thing before him: and such subpoena shall issue accordingly on the application of the Auditor General to compel such attendance, or the production of any document, paper or thing before such commissioner. 41 V., c. 7, s. 55.

58. Every person summoned, in the manner hereinbefore provided, to attend before the Auditor General or any commissioner appointed as aforesaid, who fails, without valid excuse, to attend accordingly,—or, being commanded to produce any document, paper or thing in his possession, fails to produce the same,—or refuses to be sworn or to answer any lawful and pertinent question put to him by the Auditor General or by such commissioner,—shall, for each such offence, forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars to the Crown, for the public uses of Canada, to be recovered in any manner in which debts due to the Crown are recoverable, and may likewise be dealt with by the court out of which the subpoena issued, as a person who has refused to obey the process of such court, and who is guilty of a contempt thereof. 41 V., c. 7, s. 56.

59. Every accountant, on the termination of his charge as such accountant, or in the case of a deceased accountant, his representatives shall, forthwith, pay over any balance of public money then due to the Crown in respect of such charge, to the public officer authorized to receive the same; and whenever it appears to the Auditor General that balances of public money have been improperly and unnecessarily retained by an accountant, he shall report the circumstances of such cases to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, who shall take such measures as to him seem expedient for the recovery, by legal process or by other lawful ways and means, of the amount of such balance or balances, together with interest upon the whole or upon such part of such balance or balances, for such period of time and at such rate as to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General appears just and reasonable. 41 V., c. 7, s. 57.

LIABILITY OF ACCOUNTANTS,—CIVILLY.

60. Every officer or person who refuses or neglects to transmit any account, statement or return, with the proper vouchers, to the officer or department to whom he is lawfully required to transmit the same, on or before the day appointed for the transmission thereof, shall, for such refusal or neglect, forfeit and pay to the Crown, for the public uses of Canada, the sum of one hundred dollars, recoverable, with costs, as a debt due to the Crown, and in any court and in any way in which debts to the Crown are recoverable: and in any action for the recovery of such sum, it shall be sufficient to prove, by any one witness or other evidence, that such account, statement or return ought to have been transmitted by the defendant, as alleged on the part of the Crown; and the burden of proof that the same was so transmitted shall rest upon the defendant. 41 V., c. 7, s. 58.

61. Whenever the Minister of Finance and Receiver General has reason to believe that any officer or person has received money for the Crown, or for which he is accountable to the Crown, or has in his hands any public money applicable to any purpose, and has not paid over or duly applied and accounted for the same,—he may direct a notice to such officer or person or to his representatives in case of his death, requiring him, within a time to be therein named, from the service of such notice, to pay over, or apply and account for such money to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, or to the officer mentioned in the notice, and to transmit to him the proper vouchers that he has so done. 41 V., c. 7, s. 59.

62. If any officer or person fails to pay over, apply or account for any such money, and to transmit such vouchers as aforesaid within the time limited by the notice served on him,—the Minister of Finance and Receiver General shall state an account as between such officer or person and the Crown in the matter to which the notice relates, charging interest from the service thereof, and shall deliver a copy thereof to the Attorney General of Canada; and such copy shall be sufficient evidence to support any information or other proceeding for the recovery of the amount therein shown to be in the hands of the defendant, as a debt due to the Crown, saving to the defendant the right to plead and give in evidence all such matters as are legal and proper for his defence; and the defendant shall be liable for the costs of such information or proceeding, whatever the judgment therein is, unless he proves that before the time limited in such notice, he paid over or applied and duly accounted for the money therein mentioned, and transmitted the proper vouchers with such account, or unless he is sued for the same in a representative character, and is not personally liable for such money, or to render such account. 41 V., c. 7, s. 60.

63. Whenever any such officer or person as aforesaid has transmitted an account, either before or after notice as aforesaid, but without vouchers or with insufficient vouchers for any sum for which he therein takes credit,—the Minister of Finance and Receiver General may notify such officer or person, in the manner mentioned in the next preceding section but one, to transmit vouchers or sufficient vouchers within such period as the Minister of Finance and Receiver General deems fit after the service of the notice; and if such vouchers are not transmitted within that time, the Minister of Finance and Receiver General may state an account against such officer or person, disregarding the sums for which he has taken credit, but for which he has transmitted no vouchers or insufficient vouchers, and may deliver a copy of such account to the Attorney General of Canada; and such copy shall be sufficient evidence to support an information or other proceeding for the recovery of the amount therein shown to be in the hands of the defendant,—saving to the defendant the right to plead and give in evidence all such matters as are legal and proper for his defence; but such defendant shall be liable for the costs of the information or proceeding, whatever the judgment therein is, unless the vouchers by him transmitted within the time limited by the notice served on him, or

64. If, at any time, it clearly appears, by the books or accounts kept by or in the office of any officer or person employed in the collection or management of the revenue, or in accounting for the same, or by his written acknowledgement or confession, that such officer or person has, by virtue of his office or employment, received moneys belonging to Her Majesty, and amounting to a sum certain, which he has refused or neglected to pay over to the officer duly appointed to receive the same, and in the manner and at the time lawfully appointed,—then, upon affidavit of the facts, by any officer cognizant thereof, and thereunto authorized by the Governor in Council, made before a justice or judge of any court having jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount of the sums so ascertained as aforesaid, such justice or judge shall cause to be issued against and for the seizure and sale of the goods, chattels and lands of the officer or person so in default as aforesaid, such writ or writs as might have issued out of such court, if the bond given by him had been put in suit, and judgment had been thereupon obtained in favor of Her Majesty, for a like sum, and any delay by law allowed between judgment and execution had expired; and such writ or writs shall be executed by the sheriff or other proper officer; and such sum as aforesaid shall be levied under them with costs, and all further proceedings shall be had, as if such judgment as aforesaid had been actually obtained. 41 V., c. 7, s. 62.

65. If, in any case, the true value for duty of any goods, as finally determined under this Act or as determined in any action or proceeding to recover unpaid duties, exceeds by twenty per centum, or more, the value for duty as it appears by the bill of entry thereof, there shall be levied and collected upon the same, in addition to the duty payable on such goods, when properly valued, a sum equal to one-half of the duty so payable; and if the owner or importer refuses or neglects to pay the said duty and additional sum, the goods shall be seized and forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 102.

9. Whenever any dispute arises as to whether any or what duty is payable on particular goods, and there is no previous decision in the matter by any competent tribunal, or there are decisions inconsistent with each other, the Governor in Council may declare the duty payable on the kind of goods in question, or that such goods are exempt from duty; and any Order in Council containing such declaration and fixing such duty, if any, and published in the Canada Gazette, shall, until Parliament otherwise provides, have the same force and effect as if such duty had been fixed and declared by statute. 46 V., c. 12, s. 11.
10. All invoices of goods shall be made out in the currency of the country whence the goods are imported, and shall contain a true statement of the value of such goods; and in computing the value for duty of such currency, the rate thereof shall be such as has been ordered and proclaimed, from time to time, by the Governor in Council, who is hereby empowered to make such order; and the rate ordered shall be based upon the actual value of the standard coins or currency of such country as compared with the standard dollar of Canada in so far as such comparative values are known; and whenever the value of a currency has not been proclaimed, or whenever there is no fixed standard value, or whenever from any cause the value of such currency has become depreciated, there shall be attached to the invoice of the goods imported the certificate of some Consul resident in such place or country, shewing the extent of such depreciation, or the true value of the currency in which such invoice is made out, then and there, as compared with the standard dollar of Canada: Provided however, that whenever the value of a depreciated currency is dependent upon the rate of exchange on London, it shall be optional with the importer, with the consent of the collector of Customs, to compute the value for duty at the rate of exchange certified by the bank through which the same is drawn, as current at the time and place when and whence the goods were exported to Canada: Provided also, that when the currency value is so determined at the time of entry, either by a Consul's certificate, or by the certificate of the bank as hereinbefore provided, such rate or value shall be final and not open to any re-adjustment by reason of the subsequent production of any certificate not corresponding in rate or value with that adopted. 46 V., c. 12, s. 12, part.

11. Whenever duties are imposed according to any specific quantity or to any specific value, the same shall be deemed to apply in the same proportion to any greater or less quantity or value, and to any fractional part of such specific quantity. 46 V., c. 12, s. 13.

12. Whenever duties are charged according to the weight, tale, gauge or measure, such allowances shall be made for tare and draft upon the packages as are prescribed by regulation made by the Governor in Council; but when the original invoice of any goods is produced, and a declaration of the correctness thereof made as hereinafter provided, the tare according to such invoice shall be deducted from the gross weight of the goods instead of the allowances aforesaid, subject to such further regulations as are made, from time to time, by the Governor in Council. 46 V., c. 12, s. 64.

13. On each and every non-enumerated article which bears a similitude, either in material or quality, or the use to which it may be applied, to any enumerated article chargeable with duty, the same rate of duty shall be payable which is charged on the enumerated article which it most resembles in any of the particulars before mentioned. 46 V., c. 12, s. 6.

14. If any non-enumerated article equally resembles two or more enumerated articles on which different rates of duty are chargeable, the duty on such non-enumerated article shall be the same as that on the enumerated article which it resembles, paying the highest duty. 46 V., c. 12, s. 7.

15. On all articles manufactured from two or more materials, the duty shall be that charged on the article, if there is a difference of duty, which is charged with the highest duty. 46 V., c. 12, s. 8.

16. If an article is enumerated in the tariff under two or more names or descriptions, and there is a difference of duty, the highest duty provided shall be charged and collected thereon. 46 V., c. 12, s. 9.

17. Spirits and strong waters, from whatsoever substance distilled or prepared, having the flavor of any kind of spirits or strong waters, subject to a higher duty than whiskey, shall be liable to the duty imposed on spirits or strong waters of which they have the flavor. 46 V., c. 12, s. 10.

18. Goods derelict, flotsam, jetsam or wreck, or landed or saved from any vessel wrecked, stranded or lost, brought or coming into Canada, shall be subject to the same duties and regulations as goods of the like kind imported are subject to. 46 V., c. 12, s. 60.

19. If the duties on such goods are not paid within eighteen months from the time when the same were delivered to the proper officer, as hereinafter mentioned, the same may be sold in like manner, and for the same purposes as goods imported may, in such default, be sold; and if they are sold for more than enough to pay the duty and charges thereon, the surplus shall be paid over to the person entitled to receive it. 46 V., c. 12, s. 62.

20. The collector or any appraiser may take samples of any goods imported, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any and what duties are payable on such goods; and such samples shall be disposed of as the Minister of Customs directs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 65.

or from any vessel having dutiable goods on board brought costwise, nor shall bulk be broken within three leagues of the coast, until due entry has been made of such goods, and warrant granted for the unlading of the same; and no goods shall be so unladen (unless for the purpose of lightening the/vue/ in crossing over or getting free from a shoal, rock, bar after the arrival of the vessel within three leagues of the

as to facilitate the unlawful unlading of any part thereof, or if any part thereof is fraudulently staved, destroyed or thrown overboard, or any package is opened, it shall be deemed a breaking of bulk; and all goods unladen contrary to this Act shall be seized and forfeited; and if bulk is broken contrary to this Act, the master shall forfeit two hundred dol-ars, and the vessel may be detained until the said sum is paid, or satisfactory security is given for the payment thereof; and unless payment is made or security is given, within thirty days, such vessel may, at the expiration thereof, be sold to pay the said sum. 46 V., c. 12, s. 16.

22. The Governor in Council may, by regulation from time to time, appoint the ports and places of entry for the purposes of this Act, and may, in like manner, increase or diminish the number, or alter the position or limits thereof.
46 V., c. 12, s. 17.

23. All goods imported into Canada, whether by sea, land, coastwise, or by inland navigation, whether dutiable or not, shall be brought in at a port of entry where a Custom House is lawfully established. 46 V., c. 12, s. 18.

24. In the case of every vessel bound for any sea-port in Canada, from any port out of Canada, the collector or proper officer of such Canadian port may cause such vessel to be boarded by an officer of Customs detailed by him for such service, at any place within three marine miles of the anchorage ground, and such officer may demand from the master or purser of such vessel a correct copy of the report inwards intended by such master or purser to be presented at the Custom House on arrival; and such boarding officer may remain on board the vessel until she anchors; and the copy of the report so received by him shall be deposited by him at the Custom House as the vessel's report inwards, for comparison with that to be presented by the master or purser in person. 46 V., c. 12, s. 26.
25. The master of every vessel coming from any port or place out of Canada, or coastwise, and entering any port in Canada, whether laden or in ballast, shall go without delay, when such vessel is anchored or moored, to the Custom House for the port or place of entry where he arrives, and there make a report in writing to the collector or other proper officer, of the arrival and voyage of such vessel, stating her name, country and tonnage, the port of registry, the name of the master, the country of the owners, the number and names of the passengers, if any, the number of the crew, and whether the vessel is laden or in ballast, and if laden, the marks and numbers of every package and parcel of goods on board, and where the same was laden, and the particulars of any goods stowed loose, and where and to whom consigned, and where any and what goods, if any, have been laden or unladen, or bulk has been broken, during the voyage, what part of the cargo and the number and names of the passengers which are intended to be landed at that port, and what and whom at any other port in Canada, and what part of the cargo, if any, is intended to be exported in the same vessel, and what surplus stores remain on board,—as far as any of such particulars are or can be known to him. 46 V., c. 12, s. 25.

26. The master or person in charge of any vessel, whether laden or in ballast, arriving by inland navigation in any port or place of entry in Canada, from any place beyond the inland limits of Canada, and having any goods therein (whether any duty is payable on such goods or not) shall go without delay, when such vessel is anchored or moored, directly to the Custom House for such port or place of entry, and make a report in writing, in such form as is appointed for that purpose by competent authority, to the collector or other proper officer, of the arrival of such vessel, stating in such report the marks and numbers of every package and parcel of goods in such vessel, or in the charge and custody of such person, from what place the same are respectively brought, and to what place and to whom they are consigned or belong, as far as such particulars are known to him; and he shall then and there produce such goods to the collector or other proper officer, and shall declare that no goods have been unladen from such vessel or have been put out of his possession, between the time of his coming within the limits of Canada and of his making his report and affidavit, and shall further answer all such questions concerning such vessel or goods as are demanded of him by such collector or officer. 46 V., c. 12, s. 27.

27. The master shall, at the time of making his report, if required by the officer of Customs, produce to him the bills of lading of the cargo, or true copies thereof, and shall make and subscribe an affidavit referring to his report and declaring that all the statements made in the report are true; and shall further answer all such questions concerning the vessel and cargo, and the crew, and the voyage, as are demanded of him by such officer, and shall, if required, make the substance of any such answer part of his report. 46 V., c. 12, s. 28.

28. If any goods are unladen from any vessel before such report is made, or if the master fails to make such report, or makes an untrue report, or does not truly answer the questions demanded of him, as provided in the next preceding section, he shall incur a penalty of four hundred dollars, and the vessel may be detained until such penalty is paid. 46 V., c. 12, s. 29.

29. All goods not reported, found on board of any vessel or landed, shall be seized and forfeited, unless it appears that there was no fraudulent intention,—in which case the master shall be allowed to amend his report; but the necessary discharging of any goods for the purpose of lightening the vessel in order to pass any shoal, or otherwise for the safety of such vessel, shall not be deemed an unlawful landing or breaking of bulk. 46 V., c. 12, s. 30.

30. If the contents of any package intended for importation into another port, or for exportation, are unknown to the master, the officer may open and examine it, and cause it for that purpose to be landed if he sees fit; and if any prohibited goods are found therein, all the goods in such package shall be seized and forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 31.

31. If any goods are brought in any decked vessel, from any place out of Canada to any port of entry therein, and not landed, but it is intended to convey such goods to some other port in Canada in the same vessel there to be landed, the duty shall not be paid or the entry completed at the first port, but at the port where the goods are to be landed, and to which they shall be conveyed accordingly under such regulations and with such security or precautions for compliance with the requirements of this Act, as the Governor in Council, from time to time, directs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 45.

32. The conductor of every railway train carrying freight arriving at any port in Canada, from any foreign port, shall come directly, and before bulk is broken, to the Custom House at such port, and report all merchandise on board his train or in any particular car belonging to such train, stating the marks and numbers of every package and parcel of goods on board, and where the same was laden, and where and to whom it is consigned, and what part thereof, if any, is intended to pass in transitō through Canada to some port or place in the United States, or to be transhipped at some other port in Canada, to be exported to a port or place out of Canada; and if any goods are unladen before such report is made, except by written permission of the collector or proper officer of Customs, or if the conductor fails to make such report, or makes an untrue report, or does not truly answer any questions put to him respecting the same, he shall incur a penalty of four hundred dollars. 46 V., c. 12, s. 33.

33. The person in charge of any vehicle, arriving by land in any place in Canada, and containing goods, whether any duty is payable on such goods or not, and the person in charge of any vehicle so arriving, if the vehicle or its fittings, furnishings or appurtenances, or the animals drawing the same, or their harness or tackle, is or are liable to duty, and every person whosoever so arriving in Canada from any port or place out of Canada, on foot or otherwise, and having with him or in his charge or custody, any goods, whether such goods are dutiable or not, shall come to the nearest Custom House or to the station of the nearest officer of Customs, before unlading or in any manner disposing of the same, and make a report in writing to the collector or proper officer of Customs, stating the contents of each and every package and parcel of goods, and the quantities and values of the same; and shall also then answer all questions respecting such goods or packages, and the vehicle, fittings, furnishings and appurtenances, and animals, and the harness or tackle appertaining thereto, as the said collector or proper officer of Customs requires of him, and shall then and there make due entry of the same, in accordance with the law in that behalf. 46 V., c. 12, s. 34.

34. Every importer of goods by sea or from any place out of Canada shall, within three days after the arrival of the importing vessel, make due entry inwards of such goods, and land the same; and every importer of goods imported by inland navigation in a decked vessel of one hundred tons burthen or more, shall, within twenty-four hours of the arrival of the importing vessel, make due entry inwards of such goods, and land the same; and every importer of goods imported by inland navigation in any undcked vessel, or in any vessel less than one hundred tons burthen, or by land, shall, forthwith, after the importation of such goods, produce the same to the proper officer and make due entry thereof. 46 V., c. 12, s. 40.

35. The person entering any goods inwards shall deliver to the collector or other proper officer, an invoice of such goods shewing the place and date of purchase and the name or style of the firm or person from whom the goods were purchased, and a full description thereof in detail, giving the quantity and value of each kind of goods so imported, and a bill of entry thereof, in such form as is appointed by competent authority, fairly written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, and in duplicate, containing the name of the importer,—and if imported by water, the name of the vessel and of the master, and of the place to which bound, and of the place, within the port, where the goods are to be unladen,—and the description of the goods, and the marks and numbers and contents of the packages, and the place from which the goods are imported, and of what country or place such goods are the growth, produce or manufacture. 46 V., c. 12, s. 41.

36. Unless the goods are to be warehoused in the manner by this Act provided, the importer shall, at the same time, pay down, or cause to be so paid, all duties upon all goods, entered inwards; and the collector or other proper officer shall, immediately thereupon, grant his warrant for the unloading of such goods, and grant a permit for the conveyance of such goods further into Canada, if so required by the importer. 46 V., c. 12, s. 42.

37. In default of such entry and landing, or production of the goods, or payment of duty, the officer of Customs may convey the goods to a Customs warehouse, or some secure place appointed by the collector for such purpose, there to be kept at the risk and charge of the owner;—and if such goods are not duly entered within one month from the date of their being so conveyed to the Customs warehouse, or other appointed place, and all charges of removal and warehouse rent duly paid at the time of such entry, the goods shall be sold by public auction to the highest bidder, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied, first to the payment of duties and charges; and the overplus, if any, after discharging the vessel's lien, or other charges for transportation, shall be paid to the owner of the goods or to his lawful agent:Provided always, that if the same cannot be sold for a sum sufficient to pay the duties and charges if offered for sale for home consumption, or the charges if offered for sale for exportation, such goods shall not be sold, but shall be destroyed. 46 V., c. 12, s. 43.

38. The quantity and value of any goods shall always be stated in the bill of entry thereof, although such goods are not subject to duty, and the invoice thereof shall be produced to the collector. 46 V., c. 12, s. 49.

39. If the importer of any goods whereon an ad valorem duty is imposed, or the person authorized to make the declaration required with regard to such goods, makes and subscribes a declaration before the collector or other proper officer, that he cannot, for want of full information, make perfect entry thereof, and takes the oath in such cases provided, then the collector or officer may cause such goods to be landed on a bill of sight for the packages and parcels thereof, by the best description that can be given, and to be seen and examined by such person and at his expense, in the presence of the collector or other proper officer, or of such other officer of the Customs as is appointed by the said collector or other proper officer, and to be delivered to such person, on his depositing in the hands of the collector or officer a sum of money sufficient in the judgment of the collector or officer to pay the duties thereon; and if the importer does not complete a perfect entry within the time appointed by the collector, the money so deposited shall be taken and held to be the duty accruing on such goods, and shall be dealt with and accounted for accordingly. 46 V., c. 12, s. 79.

40. Such sight entry may be made as aforesaid and the goods may be delivered, if such importer or person as aforesaid makes oath or affirms that the invoice has not been and cannot be produced, and pays to the collector or proper officer aforesaid a sum of money sufficient in the judgment of such collector or officer to pay the duties on such goods; and such sum shall then be held to be the amount of such duties. 46 V., c. 12, s. 80.

41. No entry shall, except in cases in which it is otherwise provided herein, or by regulation of the Governor in Council, be deemed perfect unless a sufficient invoice of the goods to be entered, duly certified in writing thereon as correct by the person, firm or corporation from whom the said goods were purchased, has been produced to the collector, and duly attested as required by this Act. 46 V., c. 12, s. 81.

42. With the bill of entry of any goods, there shall be produced and delivered to and left with the collector an invoice of the goods, as provided in the next preceding section, attested by the oath of the owner, and if the owner is not the person entering such goods, then verified by the oath of the importer or consignee, or (subject to the provision hereinafter made) other person who may lawfully make such entry and verify such invoice in the form or to the effect of the oath or oaths prescribed by the Governor in Council in that behalf,—which oath or oaths shall be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed on such invoice, or on the bill of entry, as the case may be, or shall be annexed thereto, and shall in either case distinctly refer to such invoice so that there can be no doubt as to its being the invoice to which such oath is intended to apply, and shall be subscribed by the person making it and certified by the signature of the person before whom it is made; and the bill of entry shall also contain a statement of the quantity and value for duty of the goods therein mentioned, and shall be signed by the per-
As to cases where there are more than one owner of the goods.

43. If there are more than one owner, importer or consignee of any goods, any one of them cognizant of the facts may take the oath required by this Act; and such oath shall be sufficient unless the goods have not been obtained by purchase in the ordinary way, and some owner, resident out of Canada, is the manufacturer or producer of the goods, or concerned in the manufacture or production thereof,—in which case the oath of such non-resident owner, or one of them, if there are more than one, cognizant of the facts shall be requisite to the due attestation of the invoice. 46 V., c. 12, s. 82.

44. The invoice of any goods produced and delivered to the collector, with the bill of entry thereof, shall, if required by the collector, be attested by the oath of the owner or one of the owners of such goods, and shall also be verified by the oath of the importer or consignee or other person who may, under this Act, lawfully make entry of such goods and verify such invoice, if the owner or one of the owners is not the person entering such goods, and shall also, if required by the collector, be attested by the oath of the non-resident owner being the manufacturer or producer of such goods, in the case mentioned in the next preceding section, although one of the owners is the person entering the goods and verifying the invoice on oath. 46 V., c. 12, s. 83.

45. If the owner, importer or consignee of any goods is dead or a bankrupt or insolvent, or if for any cause his personal estate is being administered by another person, his executor, curator, administrator or assignee, or person administering as aforesaid, may, if cognizant of the facts, take any oath and make any entry which such owner, importer or consignee might otherwise have taken or made. 46 V., c. 12, s. 84.

46. No person other than the owner, consignee or importer of the goods of which entry is to be made, shall be allowed to take any oath connected with the entry, unless there is attached to the bill of entry therein referred to, a declaration by the owner, consignee or importer of the said goods, or his attorney and agent duly appointed to transact business with the collector, pursuant to the provisions in that behalf of this Act, to the same effect as the oath, distinctly referring to the invoice presented with such bill of entry, and signed by such owner, importer or consignee, or by his attorney and agent appointed as aforesaid, either in presence of the agent making the entry, or of a justice of the peace or notary public, who shall attest the signature. 46 V., c. 12, s. 89.
47. Such declaration shall be kept by the collector; and if there is any wilfully false statement in such declaration, the goods shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture in the same manner and with the same effect as if such false statement were contained in the oath, and the person making such false statement shall be subject to the same penalties, forfeitures and punishments as if he had himself taken the oath and had made such false statement therein; but such written declaration may be dispensed with under the order of the Governor in Council, when it is deemed advisable, in the interests of commerce, to dispense therewith. 46 V., c. 12, s. 90.

48. The collectors of Customs at all ports in Canada, shall retain and put on file, after duly stamping the same, all invoices of goods imported at such ports respectively—of which invoices they shall give certified copies or extracts, whenever called upon so to do by the importers,—and such copies or extracts so duly certified by the collector or other proper officer and bearing the stamp of the Custom House at which they are filed, shall be considered and received in all courts of justice as primà facie evidence of the contents thereof; and the collector shall be entitled to demand for each certificate a fee of fifty cents before delivering the same; but in no case shall an invoice be shown to or a copy thereof given to any person other than the said importer, or an officer of Customs, except upon the order or subpoena of a court of justice. 46 V., c. 12, s. 95.

GOODS DAMAGED OR LOST.

49. If any goods imported by water, or partly by water and partly by land, on which duties (ad valorem or specific, or both) are payable, receive damage during the voyage of importation between the actual departure of the vessel in which they are laden from the foreign port of exportation and the actual arrival of the goods at the port of destination in Canada, whereby such goods have become lessened in value, an abatement may be made, in the manner hereinafter provided, in the duty payable upon such goods, or if duty has been paid thereon, a refund of a part of such duty may be made proportionate to the damage sustained. If the claim therefor is made in due form and is properly substantiated at the first landing from such vessel of the said goods, and while they are in the custody of the Crown, or as soon after such first landing as they can be examined: Provided always, that such examination is completed and certified by the collector of Customs, Customs appraiser or other proper officer, who shall assess such damage within ten days of such landing. 46 V., c. 12, s. 53.
If imported by railway or other land conveyance.

50. If any goods imported by railway, or by any other vehicle,—on which goods duties (ad valorem or specific, or both), are payable, receive damage during the course of transportation, after they are laden on such railway or other vehicle, and before they arrive at the port of destination in Canada, whereby they become lessened in value, an abatement may be made in the manner hereinafter provided in the duty payable upon such goods, if the claim for such abatement is made in due form within ten days of the arrival of such goods at the port of destination in Canada, and is substantiated in the same manner as is provided in the next preceding section. 46 V., c. 12, s. 54.

Time for claim.

51. The collector of Customs or appraiser or other proper officer whose duty it is to examine and assess the amount of damage sustained in course of importation, shall do so with all possible despatch on being notified so to do, and shall certify the exact cause and extent of such damage with reference to the value of the goods in the principal markets of the country whence imported, and not according to the value in Canada. 46 V., c. 12, s. 55.

Duty of collector or appraiser.

Certificate.

52. The collector or appraiser shall not regard as evidence of the existence or amount of damage any price realized at an auction or forced sale of the goods,—nor shall he estimate nor shall any damage be allowed which has originated from decay, dampness or other cause existing before the voyage commenced and which has rendered the goods unfit to withstand the ordinary risks of the voyage of importation,—nor shall he estimate nor shall any allowance be made for or duty refunded for rust on iron or steel or any manufacture thereof, except on polished Russia iron and Canada plates, and on such only to the extent of fifty per cent.,—nor shall any allowance be made for stains or injury to any packages holding liquids, or the labels thereon, unless the contents of such packages have, at the same time, received actual specific damage by the admixture therewith of water or other foreign substance. 46 V., c. 12, s. 56.

What shall not be regarded as evidence of damage.

53. When the collector or appraiser has ascertained the percentage of damage, such percentage shall be deducted from the original value of the goods, and duty shall then be levied and collected on such reduced value at an ad valorem rate which shall be equivalent to the rate of specific or specific and ad valorem duty which should have been collected upon such goods if they had not been so damaged. 46 V., c. 12, s. 57.

No allowance in certain cases.

54. Whenever any vessel is entered at the Custom House at any port in Canada, on board of which there are any goods on which any duty has been levied or collected or on which any duty has been deposited, and thereafter the said goods... are lost or destroyed before the same are landed from such vessel, or from any vessel or craft employed to lighten such vessel,—then, on proof being made on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before and to the satisfaction of the collector or proper officer of the Customs at the place, who shall administer the oath, that such goods, or any part thereof, specifying the same, have been so lost or destroyed before the landing of the same, the duties on the whole or the part thereof so proved to be lost or destroyed shall, if the same have been paid or deposited, be returned to the owner or his agent. 46 V., c. 12, s. 58.

55. An allowance may be made for deterioration by natural decay during the voyage of importation, upon perishable articles, such as green fruits and vegetables, imported into Canada; but in assessing the same, and in estimating the damage by breakage upon brittle goods, such as crockery, china, glass and glassware, under the provisions of this Act, such allowance or damage shall only be made and allowed for the amount of loss in excess of twenty-five per cent. of the whole quantity damaged, and only if claim is made therefor and the loss or damage certified upon examination made by the appraiser or proper officer of Customs, within three days of the landing or arrival of such goods at the port of destination thereof; and if the duty has been paid on the full value thereof, a refund of such duty may be allowed and paid on application to the Minister of Customs, in the proportion and on fulfilment of the conditions hereinbefore specified, but not otherwise. 47 V., c. 30, s. 4.

APPRAISERS.

56. The Governor in Council may appoint one or more appraisers to be called Dominion Customs appraisers, with jurisdiction at all ports and places in Canada; and may also appoint Customs appraisers with jurisdiction at such ports and places in Canada as are designated in the Order in Council in that behalf; and every such appraiser shall, before acting as such, take and subscribe the following oath of office before any collector or other person duly authorized to administer such oath:

"I, A. B., having been appointed an appraiser of goods, wares and merchandise, and to act as such at the port of (or as the case may be) do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully perform the duties of the said office without partiality, fear, favor or affection, and that I will appraise the value of all goods submitted to my appraisement, according to the true intent and meaning of the laws imposing duties of Customs in Canada; and that I will use my best endeavors to prevent all fraud, subterfuge or evasion of the said laws, and more..."
"especially to detect, expose and frustrate all attempts to "undervalue any goods, wares or merchandise on which any "duty is chargeable. So help me God.

—46 V., c. 12, s. 66.

57. If no appraiser is appointed in any port of entry, the collector there shall act as appraiser, but without taking any special oath of office as such; and the Minister of Customs may, at any time, direct any appraiser to attend at any port or place for the purpose of valuing any goods, or of acting as appraiser there during any time,—which such appraiser shall accordingly do without taking any new oath of office; and every appraiser shall be deemed an officer of the Customs.

46 V., c. 12, s. 67.

VALUATION FOR DUTY.

58. Whenever any duty ad valorem is imposed on any goods imported into Canada, the value for duty shall be the fair market value thereof, when sold for home consumption, in the principal markets of the country whence and at the time when the same were exported directly to Canada. 46 V., c. 12, s. 68.

59. Such market value shall be the fair market value of such goods in the usual and ordinary commercial acceptation of the term, at the usual and ordinary credit, and not the cash value of such goods, except in cases in which the article imported is, by universal usage, considered and known to be a cash article, and so bond fide paid for in all transactions in relation to such article; and all invoices representing cash values, except in the special cases herein referred to, shall be subject to such additions as to the collector or appraiser of the port at which they are presented appear just and reasonable, to bring up the amount to the true and fair market value, as required by this section. 46 V., c. 12, s. 69.

60. If any difficulty arises in determining the fair market value for duty of goods imported into Canada, which are the manufacture or production of foreign countries or of Great Britain, such as musical instruments, sewing machines, agricultural machines or implements, medical preparations, commonly called patent medicines, and other similar goods, the prices of which are published by the manufacturers or producers, or persons acting on their behalf, the Governor in Council may, from time to time, fix and determine a certain rate of discount which may be deducted from such published prices of any such manufactures or productions, and the remainder of such published prices, after deducting such rate of discount, shall be deemed and taken to be the fair market values for duty of any such manufactures or productions as are specified in such Order in Council. 37 V., c. 6, s. 9.

61. In determining the dutiable value of goods, except when imported from Great Britain and Ireland, there shall be added to the cost, or the actual wholesale price, or fair market value, at the time of exportation, in the principal markets of the country from whence the same have been imported into Canada, the cost of inland transportation, shipment and transhipment, with all the expenses included, from the place of growth, production or manufacture, whether by land or water, to the vessel in which shipment is made, either in transit or direct to Canada, subject to such regulations as are made by the Governor in Council: Provided, that in case of any dispute respecting the proper amount of such inland transportation charges, the Minister of Customs may determine the same, and his decision shall be final in that respect:

2. When any manufactured article is imported into Canada in separate parts, each such part shall be charged with the same rate of duty as the finished article, on a proportionate valuation, and when the duty chargeable thereon is specific, or specific and ad valorem, an average rate of ad valorem duty, equal to the specific or specific and ad valorem duty so chargeable, shall be ascertained and charged upon such parts of the manufactured article. 48-49 V., c. 61, s. 11.

62. The Governor in Council shall, from time to time, establish such regulations, not inconsistent with law, as are required to secure a just, faithful and impartial appraisal of all goods imported into Canada, and just and proper entries of the actual or fair market value thereof, and of the weights, measures or other quantities thereof, as each case requires; and such regulations, whether general or special, so made by the Governor in Council, shall have the full force and authority of law; and the appraisers of Canada and every one of them, and every person who acts as such appraiser, or the collector of Customs, as the case may be, shall, by all reasonable ways and means in his or their power, ascertain, estimate and appraise the true and fair market value and wholesale price, (any invoice or affidavit thereto to the contrary notwithstanding), of the goods at the time of exportation, and in the principal markets of the country whence the same have been imported into Canada, and the proper weights, measures or other quantities, and the fair market value or wholesale price of every of them, as the case requires. 42 V., c. 15, s. 10.

63. No refund of duty paid shall be allowed because of any alleged inferiority or deficiency in quantity of goods imported and entered, and which have passed into the custody of the importer under permit of the collector of Customs, or because of the omission in the invoice of any trade discount, or other matter or thing, which might have the effect of reducing the value of such goods for duty, unless the same has been reported to the collector of Customs within ten days of the date of entry, and the said goods have been examined by the said collector or by an appraiser, or other proper officer of Customs, and the proper rate or amount of reduction certified by him after such examination; and if such collector or proper officer reports that the goods in question cannot be identified as those named in the invoice and entry in question, no refund of the duty or any part thereof shall be allowed; and all applications for refund of duty in such cases shall be submitted, with the evidence and all particulars, for the decision of the Minister of Customs, who may order payment on finding the evidence sufficient and satisfactory. 42 V., c. 15, s. 11.

64. Whenever a drawback of duties has been allowed by the Government of the country where the goods were manufactured, the amount of such drawback shall be taken and considered to be a part of the fair market value of such goods; and in cases where the amount of such drawback has been deducted from the value of such goods upon the face of the invoice under which entry is to be made, or is not shown thereupon, the collector of Customs, or proper officer, shall add the amount of such deduction or drawback and collect and cause to be paid the lawful duty thereon. 46 V., c. 12, s. 70.

65. No deduction of any kind shall be allowed from the value of any goods imported into Canada, because of any drawback paid, or to be paid thereon, or because of any special arrangement between the seller and purchaser having reference to the exportation of such goods, or the exclusive right to territorial limits for the sale thereof, or because of any royalty payable upon patent rights but not payable when goods are purchased for exportation, or on account of any other consideration by which a special reduction in price might or could be obtained: Provided, that nothing herein shall be understood to apply to general fluctuations of market values. 46 V., c. 12, s. 71.

66. No deduction from the value of goods contained in any invoice shall be allowed on account of the assumed value of any package or packages, where no charge for such package or packages has been made in such invoice; and where such charge is made the Customs officer shall see that the charge is fair and reasonable, and represents no more than the original cost thereof. 46 V., c. 12, s. 72.

67. No deduction from the value of goods in any invoice shall be made on account of charges for packing, or for straw, twine, cord, paper, cording, wiring or cutting, or for any expense incurred or said to have been incurred in the preparation and packing of goods for shipment, and all such charges and expenses shall, in all cases, be included as part of the value for duty. 46 V., c. 12, s. 73.

68. The Governor in Council may provide that in the cases and on the conditions to be mentioned in the Order in Council, goods bona fide exported to Canada from any country, but passing in transit through another country, shall be valued for duty as if they were imported directly from such first mentioned country. 46 V., c. 12, s. 74.

69. The standards or instruments by which the colors and grades of sugar are to be regulated, and the classes to which sugars shall be held to belong, with reference to duty chargeable thereon, shall be selected and furnished, from time to time, to the collectors of such ports of entry as are necessary, by the Minister of Customs, in such manner as he deems expedient; and the decision of the appraiser, or of the collector of a port where there is no appraiser, as to the class to which any sugar belongs, and the duties to which it is subject, shall be final and conclusive, unless upon appeal to the Commissioner of Customs, within thirty days, such decision is, with the approval of the Minister, changed; and the decision of the Commissioner with such approval shall be final. 46 V., c. 12, s. 75.

70. The value for duty on which any ad valorem duties on sugar, molasses, melado, syrup of sugar, or sugar cane, syrup of molasses or of sorghum, concentrated melado or concentrated molasses, and sugar candy, shall, unless otherwise provided, be calculated and taken, shall include the value of the packages containing the same, and the shipping and other charges on such articles; and the value for duty shall be the value of the goods “free on board,” at the place or port whence last exported direct to Canada; and the Governor in Council may declare what charges shall be included in such value so defined. 48 V., c. 18, s. 1, part;— 46 V., c. 12, s. 77.

71. If the importer, owner, consignee or agent is dissatisfied with the first appraisement, any appraiser, or any collector acting as such, or the persons to be selected as hereinafter mentioned, to examine and appraise any goods, may call before him or them and examine upon oath any owner, importer, consignee or other person, touching any matter or thing which such appraiser, collector or persons deem material in ascertaining the true value of any goods imported, and may require the production on oath of any letters, accounts, invoices or other papers or account books relating to the same in the possession of such owner, importer, consignee or other person. 46 V., c. 12, s. 96.

72. Every person called, as provided in the next preceding section, who neglects or refuses to attend, or declines to answer, or refuses to answer in writing, if required, to any interrogatories, or to subscribe his name to his deposition or answer, or to produce any such papers or account books, as provided by the next preceding section, when required so to do, shall incur a penalty of fifty dollars; and if such person is the owner, importer or consignee of the goods in question, the appraisement which the appraiser or collector acting as such shall make thereof, shall be final and conclusive. 46 V., c. 12, s. 97.

73. If the owner, importer or consignee of the goods in question, wilfully swears falsely in any such examination, the goods shall be seized and forfeited; and all depositions or testimony in writing taken under either of the two sections next preceding shall be filed in the office of the collector at the place where the same are made or taken—there to remain for future use or reference. 46 V., c. 12, s. 98.

74. If the importer, owner, consignee or agent, having complied with the requirements of this Act, is dissatisfied with the appraisement made, as aforesaid, of any such goods, he may forthwith give notice in writing to the collector of such dissatisfaction,—on the receipt of which notice the collector shall select two discreet and experienced persons, familiar with the character and value of the goods in question, to examine and appraise the same, agreeably to the foregoing provisions; and all invoices, entries and other papers connected with the appraisement, and all evidence taken by or before the appraiser, or collector of Customs acting as such, and by or before the said persons, shall be transmitted without delay to the commissioner of Customs, who, after due examination of the same, shall decide and determine the proper rate and amount of duty to be collected and paid; and his decision shall be final and conclusive, and the duty shall be levied and collected accordingly. 46 V., c. 12, s. 99.

75. The said persons appointed to appraise shall each be entitled to the sum of five dollars, which shall be paid by the person dissatisfied with the first appraisement, if the value ascertained by the second appraisement is equal to or greater by whom to be paid. than that ascertained by such first appraisement, or if the value ascertained by such second appraisement exceeds by ten per cent., or more, the value of the goods for duty as appears by the invoice and bill of entry thereof; otherwise the same shall be paid by the collector out of any public moneys in his hands, and charged in his accounts. 46 V., c. 12, s. 100.

76. Every person chosen to make an appraisement required under this Act, who, after due notice of such choice has been given to him in writing, declines or neglects to make such appraisement, shall, for so refusing or neglecting without good and sufficient cause, incur a penalty of forty dollars and costs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 101.

WAREHOUSING.

77. The warehousing ports already established and such ports of entry as the Governor in Council, from time to time, appoints, shall be warehousing ports. 46 V., c. 12, s. 116.

78. The importer of any goods into Canada may, subject to such rules and regulations as are, from time to time, prescribed by the Governor in Council in that behalf, enter the same for exportation, on giving security by his own bond with one sufficient surety, for the exportation of the same goods, or may warehouse the same on giving such security by his own bond for the payment of the amount of all duties on such goods, and the performance of all the requirements of this Act with regard to the same at such ports or places as aforesaid, and in such warehouses as are, from time to time, appointed by the Governor in Council in that behalf, and the penalty of the said bond shall be double the amount of the duty to which such goods are subject. 46 V., c. 12, s. 117.

79. The owner of any warehoused goods may remove the goods under the authority of the collector or other proper officer from any warehousing port to any other warehousing port in Canada, or from one warehouse to another in the same port, under good and sufficient bonds to the satisfaction of such officer. 46 V., c. 12, s. 119.

80. Upon entry of goods at any frontier port or Custom House, under the authority and with the sanction of the collector or other proper officer of Customs at such port or Custom House, and under bonds to his satisfaction, and subject to such regulations as are made in that behalf by the Governor in Council, the importer may pass the goods on to any port in any other part of Canada. 46 V., c. 12, s. 120.
81. No transfer of the property in goods warehoused shall be valid for the purposes of this Act unless the transfer is in writing signed by the importer or his duly authorized agent, or is made by process of law, and unless such transfer is produced to the collector or other proper officer of the proper port and is recorded by him in a book kept for that purpose in the Custom House:

2. No such transfer of less than a whole package shall be valid, and no more than three transfers of the same goods shall be allowed before entry thereof for duty or for exportation. 46 V., c. 12, s. 121.

82. Upon any such transfer of goods in warehouse being lawfully effected as before provided, the proper officer may admit new security to be given by the bond of the new owner of the goods, and may cancel the bond given by the original bonder of such goods, or may exonerate him to the extent of the new security so given; and the new owner of any such goods shall then be deemed to be the importer thereof for the purposes of this Act. 46 V., c. 12, s. 122.

83. During the regular warehouse hours, and subject to such regulations as the collector or other proper officer of Customs at any warehousing port sees fit to adopt, the owner of any warehoused goods may sort, pack, re-pack or make any lawful arrangements respecting the goods warehoused, in order to the preservation or lawful disposal thereof, and may take therefrom moderate samples, without present payment of duty or entry. 46 V., c. 12, s. 118.

84. Duties shall be payable in all cases on the quantity and value of goods in the warehouse, as ascertained and stated on first entry, or as originally warehoused. 46 V., c. 12, s. 132.

other proper officer, they shall be seized and forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 134.

88. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make regulations for the ex-warehousing of goods, either for consumption, removal, exportation or ship's stores, in any quantity not less than a whole package as originally warehoused, unless the said goods are in bulk, and then in quantities not less than one ton in weight, except when a less weight is the balance remaining of the original entry thereof for warehouse. 46 V., c. 12, s. 135.

89. If, after any goods have been duly entered, or landed to be warehoused, or entered and examined to be re-warehoused, and before the same have been actually deposited in the warehouse, the importer further enters the same or any part for home use or for exportation as from the warehouse, the goods so entered shall be considered as warehoused or re-warehoused, as the case may be, although not actually deposited in the warehouse, and may be delivered and taken for home use or for exportation. 46 V., c. 12, s. 136.

90. All warehoused goods shall be finally cleared, either for exportation or home consumption, within two years from the date of the first entry and warehousing thereof; and, in default thereof, the collector or other proper officer may sell such goods for the payment, first of the duties, and secondly of the warehouse rent and other charges; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner or his lawful agent; and the collector or other proper officer may charge or authorize the occupier of the warehouse to charge a fair warehouse rent, subject to any regulation made by the Governor in Council in that behalf. 46 V., c. 12, s. 123.

91. The collector may, if he sees no reason to refuse such permission, permit an importer to abandon to the Crown any whole package or packages of warehoused goods, without being liable to pay any duty on the same; and the same shall then be sold and the proceeds shall belong to the Crown: Provided, that if such goods cannot be sold for a sum sufficient to pay the duties and charges, the same shall not be sold but shall be destroyed. 46 V., c. 12, s. 124.

92. The Governor in Council may, by regulation, dispense with or provide for the cancelling of bonds for the payment of duties on goods actually deposited in a Customs warehouse, on such terms and conditions and in such cases as he thinks proper. 46 V., c. 12, s. 125.

93. The importer of any cattle or swine may slaughter and cure and pack the same (or if such cattle or swine are imported in the carcase, may cure and pack the same) in bond;
and the importer of any wheat, maize or other grain, may grind and pack the same in bond, providing such slaughtering, curing, grinding or packing is done and conducted under such regulations and restrictions as the Governor in Council, from time to time, makes for that purpose; but the said regulations shall not extend to the substitution of other beef, pork, flour or meal for the produce of such imported cattle or swine, wheat, maize or other grain. 46 V., c. 12, s. 130.

94. The importer or owner of any sugar, molasses or other material from which refined sugar can be produced, may refine the same in bond, provided such refining is done and conducted under such regulations and restrictions as the Governor in Council, from time to time, makes for that purpose. 46 V., c. 12, s. 181.

95. No person shall make, nor shall any officer of Customs accept, any bond, note or other document for the purpose of avoiding or deferring the actual payment of duties legally accruing on goods imported into Canada, or arrange for deferring payment of such duties in any way, unless such goods are entered for warehouse and duly deposited therein according to the laws and regulations governing the warehousing of such goods. 46 V., c. 12, s. 126.

96. If any goods entered to be warehoused are not duly carried into and deposited in the warehouse, or, having been so deposited, are afterwards taken out of the warehouse without lawful permit, or, having been entered and cleared for exportation from the warehouse, are not duly carried and shipped, or otherwise conveyed out of Canada, or are afterwards re-landed, sold, used or brought into Canada, without the lawful permission of the proper officer of the Customs, such goods shall be seized and forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 128.

97. The master of every vessel bound outwards from any port in Canada to any port or place out of Canada, or on any voyage to any place within or without the limits of Canada, coastwise or by inland navigation, shall deliver to the collector or other proper officer an entry outwards under his hand, of the destination of such vessel, stating her name, country and tonnage, the port of registry, the name of the master, the country of the owners and the number of the crew; and before any goods or ballast are taken on board such vessel the master shall show that all goods therein imported, except such as were reported for exportation in the same vessel, have been duly entered; except that the proper officer may issue a stiffening order that such goods or ballast as are specified therein may be laden before the former cargo is discharged; and before such vessel departs, the master shall bring and deliver to the collector or other proper officer, a content in writing under his hand, of the goods laden, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees of the goods, with the marks and numbers of the packages or parcels of the same, and shall make and subscribe a declaration to the truth of such content as far as any of such particulars can be known to him. 46 V., c. 12, s. 141.

98. The master of every vessel, whether in ballast or laden, shall, before departure, come before the collector or other proper officer, and answer all such questions concerning the vessel, and the cargo, if any, and the crew, and the voyage, as are demanded of him by such officer, and, if required, shall make his answers or any of them part of the declaration made under his hand; and thereupon the collector or other proper officer, if such vessel is laden, shall make out and give to the master a certificate of the clearance of such vessel for her intended voyage with merchandise or a certificate of her clearance in ballast, as the case may be; and if there is merchandise on board, and the vessel is bound to any port in Canada, such clearance shall state whether any and which of the goods are the produce of Canada, and, if the goods are such as are liable to duties, whether the duties thereon have been paid; and in such case the master shall hand the clearance to the collector at the next port in Canada at which he arrives, immediately on his arrival. 46 V., c. 12, s. 142.

99. If any vessel departs from any port or place in Canada without a clearance, or if the master delivers a false content, or does not truly answer the questions demanded of him, or if, having received a clearance, such vessel adds to her cargo, or takes another vessel in tow, or performs any work without having mentioned in the report outwards the intention so to do, the master shall incur a penalty of four hundred dollars; and the vessel shall be detained in any port in Canada until the said penalty is paid. 46 V., c. 12, s. 148.

100. The Governor in Council may, by regulation, dispense with any of the requirements of the two sections next preceding which he deems it inexpedient to enforce, with regard to vessels engaged in the coasting trade or inland navigation. 46 V., c. 12, s. 144.

102. All goods or merchandise exported by sea, by land or by inland navigation, shall be reported at the nearest Custom House, or, if exported from any place where no Custom House is established, they shall be reported within twenty-four hours of the time of such export, at the nearest Custom House, according to such regulations as are established by the Governor in Council from time to time. 46 V., c. 12, s. 19.

103. Upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the Customs warehouse, either by sea or by land, or inland navigation, as the case may be, the person entering the same shall give security by bond in double the duties of importation on such goods, and with a sufficient surety, approved by the collector or other proper officer, that the same shall, when the entry aforesaid is for exportation by sea, be actually exported, and when the entry aforesaid is for exportation by land or inland navigation, shall be landed or delivered at the place for which they are entered outwards, or shall in either case be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the collector or other proper officer, and that such proof or certificate that such goods have been so exported, landed or delivered, or otherwise lawfully disposed of, as the case may be, as shall be required by any regulation of the Governor in Council, shall be produced to the collector or other proper officer within a period to be appointed in such bond; and if any such goods are not so exported, landed or delivered, or otherwise lawfully disposed of, or are fraudulently re-landed in or brought into Canada, in violation of this Act and of the said bond, they shall be seized and forfeited, together with any vessel, boat or vehicle in which they are so re-landed or imported. 46 V., c. 12, s. 137.

105. Warehoused goods may be delivered as ship's stores for any vessel of the burden of fifty tons or upwards, bound on a voyage to a port out of Canada, the probable duration of which voyage out and home will not be less than thirty days,—also for any vessel bound for and engaged in the deep sea fishing,—proof being first made by affidavit of the master or owner, to the satisfaction of the proper officer, that the stores are necessary and intended for the purposes aforesaid: Provided, that the Minister of Customs may define and limit the kind, quantity and class of goods which may be so delivered as ship's stores:

107. The owner, shipper or consignor of any goods who refuses or neglects to make report and entry of the articles shipped or laden by them respectively, as required by section one hundred and one or by the next preceding section, shall incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars for each such offence. 46 V., c. 12, s. 147.

108. The Governor in Council may, by regulations from time to time made in that behalf, require such further information with regard to the description, quantity, quality and value of goods exported from Canada, or removed from one port to another in Canada, to be given to the proper officer of the Customs, in the entry of such goods outwards or otherwise, as he deems requisite for statistical purposes, whether such goods are exported or removed by sea, land or inland navigation. 46 V., c. 12, s. 148.

110. If the owner of any goods is resident more than ten miles from the office of the collector at the port of shipment, he may appoint an agent to make his entry outwards and clear and ship his goods,—but the name of the agent and the residence of the owner shall be subjoined to the name in the entry and shipping warrant; and the agent shall make the declaration on the entry which is required of the owner, and shall answer the questions that are put to him; and any trading corporation or company may appoint an agent for the like purpose. 46 V., c. 12, s. 150.

COASTING VOYAGES.

111. The Governor in Council may, by regulation, declare any trade or voyage on the seas, rivers, lakes or waters, within or adjacent to Canada, whether to or from any place within or without Canada, to be a coasting trade or a coasting voyage within the meaning of this Act, whether such seas, rivers, lakes or waters are or are not, geographically or for the purposes of other Acts or laws, inland waters; and all carrying by water which is not a carrying by sea or coastwise, shall be deemed to be a carrying by inland navigation; and the Governor in Council may, from time to time, with regard to any such coasting trade, dispense with such of the requirements of this Act as he deems inexpedient to enforce in any case or class of cases, or may make such further regulations as he deems expedient; and any goods carried coastwise, or laden, water-borne or unladen, contrary to such regulations or to any provision of this Act, not dispensed with by such regulations, shall be seized and forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 37.

112. No person shall be entitled to the benefit of the next preceding section who has sold any of such goods except such as it has been necessary to sell to defray the expense of repairs and charges of the vessel, or as have been authorized by the collector of Customs to be sold; and if goods are sold for payment of repairs and charges they shall be subject to duty, and shall be warehoused, or the duties thereon paid by the purchaser. 46 V., c. 12, s. 59, part.

164. Fresh fish, coin or bullion may be landed without entry or warrant, as may also goods in any stranded or wrecked vessel, provided they are duly reported and entered as soon as possible after being safely deposited on shore, and that the landing is in presence of an officer of the Customs or Receiver of Wreck, or other person authorized to act as such receiver under “The Wrecks and Salvage Act.” 46 V., c. 12, s. 35.

165. If a vessel which has live stock or perishable articles on board arrives after business hours, the collector or any officer at the port may permit the master to unlade the same before report; but report shall in such case be made as soon as possible after the next opening of the Customs office. 46 V., c. 12, s. 36.

166. The surplus stores of vessels arriving in Canada shall be subject to the same duties and regulations as if imported as merchandise; but if the owner or master desires to warehouse the same for re-shipment for the future use of the vessel, the collector may permit him so to do. 46 V., c. 12, s. 50.

167. The burden of proof that the proper duties payable with respect to any goods have been paid, and that all the requirements of this Act with regard to the entry of any goods have been complied with and fulfilled, shall, in all cases, lie upon the person whose duty it was to comply with and fulfil the same. 46 V., c. 12, s. 113.
168. Although any duty of Customs has been overpaid, or although, after any duty of Customs has been charged and paid, it appears or is judicially established that the same was charged under an erroneous construction of the law, no such overcharge shall be returned after the expiration of three years from the date of such payment, unless application for repayment has been previously made. 46 V., c. 12, s. 240.

169. No refund of duty shall be allowed after the lapse of fourteen days from the time of entry, for any alleged misdescription of goods by the importer; and if any error of the kind is discovered by the importer while unpacking his goods, he shall immediately and without further interference with the goods, report the facts to the collector in order that the same may be verified. 46 V., c. 12, s. 241.

170. No person, unless he is authorized by the Governor in Council, shall import any goods, wares or merchandise from any port or place out of Canada in any vessel which has not been duly registered and has not a certificate of such registry on board. 46 V., c. 12, s. 38.

171. Fire-arms and munitions of war shall not be imported except from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unless upon application to, and permission given by the Minister of Customs. 31 V., c. 7, s. 8.

172. Vessels entering the Gut of Annapolis may be reported and entered, and the duties on goods therein imported paid, either at the port of Digby or Annapolis. 46 V., c. 12, s. 51.

173. Vessels entering the Great Bras d'Or or Little Bras d'Or shall be reported and entered at such place as the Minister of Customs, from time to time, directs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 52.

174. Whenever the collector of Customs at any port is satisfied that in such port, as well as in the adjacent city or town and its vicinity, there does not exist an extraordinary, infectious, contagious or epidemic disease, which could be transmitted by the vessel, her crew or cargo, he may grant to any vessel requiring a bill of health a certificate under his hand and seal, attesting the fact aforesaid, for which he shall be entitled to ask and receive a fee of one dollar. 46 V., c. 12, s. 152.

ARTICLES SEIZED—HOW DEALT WITH.

175. If any goods, property or vehicle, subject or liable to forfeiture under this Act, or any other law relating to the Customs, are stopped or taken by any police or peace officer or any person duly authorized, such goods, property or vehicle shall be taken to the Custom House nearest to the place where the same were stopped or taken, and there delivered to the proper officer authorized to receive the same, within forty-eight hours after the same were stopped or taken.
46 V., c. 12, s. 182.

176. If any such goods, property or vehicles are stopped or taken by such police or peace officer, on suspicion that the same have been feloniously stolen, such officer shall carry the same to the police office to which the offender is taken, there to remain until and in order to be produced at the trial of the said offender; and in such case the officer shall give notice in writing to the collector or principal officer of Her Majesty's Customs, at the port nearest to the place where such goods have been detained, of his having so detained the said goods, with the particulars of the same; and immediately after the trial, all such goods shall be convoyed to and deposited in the Custom House or other place appointed as aforesaid, and proceedings relative to the same shall be had according to law. 46 V., c. 12, s. 183.

177. Whenever any vessel, vehicle, goods or thing have been seized or detained under any of the provisions of this Act or of any law relating to the Customs, or when it is alleged that any penalty or forfeiture has been incurred under the provisions of this Act or of any law relating to the Customs, the collector or the proper officer shall forthwith report the circumstances of the case to the Commissioner of Customs.
46 V., c. 12, s. 218.

178. The Commissioner may thereupon notify the owner or claimant of the thing seized or detained, or his agent, or the person alleged to have incurred the penalty or forfeiture, or his agent, of the reasons for the seizure, detention, penalty or forfeiture, and call upon him to furnish within thirty days from the date of the notice, such evidence in the matter as he desires to furnish: such evidence may be by affidavit or affirmation, made before any justice of the peace, any collector of Customs, any commissioner for taking affidavits in any court, or any notary public. 46 V., c. 12, s. 219.

179. After the expiration of the said thirty days, or sooner if the person so called upon to furnish evidence so desires, the Commissioner may consider and weigh the circumstances of the case, and report his opinion and recommendation thereon to the Minister of Customs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 220.

180. The Minister may thereupon give his decision in the matter, respecting the seizure, detention, penalty or forfeiture, and the terms, if any, upon which the thing seized or detained may be released or the penalty or forfeiture remitted; and if the owner or claimant of the thing seized or detained

or the person alleged to have incurred the penalty signifies in writing, by himself or his agent, his acceptance of the decision, he shall be bound thereby, and the terms thereof may be enforced and carried out; and in any action, suit or proceeding to recover any money claimed by virtue of such decision the person accepting the same shall not be at liberty to set up that the thing seized was not liable to seizure or detention, or that he had not incurred any penalty or forfeiture. 46 V., c. 12, s. 221.

181. If the said owner or claimant or person, or his agent, within twenty days after being notified of the decision, gives to the Minister of Customs notice in writing that such decision will not be accepted, or if such twenty days elapse without such decision being accepted, proceedings for the condemnation of the thing seized, or for the enforcement of the penalty or forfeiture, may be taken without delay. 46 V., c. 12, s. 222.

182. If the said decision is accepted as by this Act provided, and if the terms thereof are not forthwith complied with, the Minister of Customs may elect either to enforce the terms of the decision or to take proceedings for the condemnation of the thing seized, or for the enforcement of the penalty or forfeiture. 46 V., c. 12, s. 223.

183. If a condition of the decision is that the thing seized or detained shall be released upon payment of a sum of money, and if such money is not paid forthwith after acceptance of the decision, and if the Minister elects to enforce the decision, such thing may be sold and the net proceeds applied towards payment of such sum, and the balance, if any, shall be handed over to the person entitled thereto: and if such net proceeds are not sufficient to pay such sum the person accepting the decision shall be liable to pay the amount of the deficiency, and the same may be recovered from him as a debt due to Her Majesty. 46 V., c. 12, s. 224.

184. If after acceptance of the decision the person thereof to pay any sum of money as a penalty or forfeiture, does not forthwith pay the same, the amount thereof may be recovered from him as a debt due to Her Majesty. 46 V., c. 12, s. 225.

185. Whenever any goods have been seized or detained under any of the provisions of this Act, or of any law relating to the Customs, the importer or exporter thereof, and the owner or claimant thereof, shall, immediately upon being required so to do by the collector or other proper officer of Customs of the port where the seizure or detention took place, produce and hand over all invoices, bills, accounts and statements of the goods so seized or detained, and of all other goods imported into Canada by him at any time within three years next preceding such seizure or detention; and shall also produce for the inspection of such collector or other officer, and allow him to make copies of, or extracts from, all books of account, ledgers, day-books, cash books, letter books, invoice books, or other books wherein any entry or memorandum appears respecting the purchase, importation, cost, value or payment of the goods so seized or detained, and of all other goods as aforesaid. 46 V., c. 12, s. 214.

186. If any person required under the next preceding section to produce and hand over invoices, bills, accounts and statements, or to produce for inspection books of account, ledgers, day books, cash books, letter books, invoice books and other books, or to allow copies or extracts to be made therefrom, neglects or refuses so to do, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars, and not less than two hundred dollars. 46 V., c. 12, s. 215.

187. Any collector of Customs may, as may also any court or judge having competent jurisdiction to try and determine the seizure, with the consent of the collector at the place where the things seized are, order the delivery thereof to the owner, on the deposit with the collector in money of a sum equal at least to the full duty paid value (to be determined by the collector) of the things seized and the estimated costs of the proceedings in the case; and any sum or sums of money so deposited shall be immediately deposited in some bank appointed for that purpose by competent authority, to the credit of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, there to remain until forfeited in due course of law or released by order of the Minister of Customs; and if such seized articles are condemned, the money deposited shall be forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 204.

188. If the thing seized is an animal or a perishable article, the collector at whose port the same is, may sell the same so as to avoid the expense of keeping it or to prevent its becoming deteriorated in value: and the proceeds of such sale shall be deposited in some chartered bank to the credit of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall abide the judgment of the court with respect to the condemnation of the thing seized, if proceedings for condemnation are taken in court, or shall become the property of Her Majesty, if the thing seized becomes condemned without proceedings in court: Provided always, that the collector shall deliver up such animal or perishable article to the claimant thereof, upon such claimant depositing with him a sum of money sufficient in the opinion of the collector to represent the duty paid value of the thing claimed, and the costs of any proceedings to be taken in court for the condemnation of the thing seized: and the money so deposited shall be paid into some chartered bank to the credit of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall be dealt with in the same manner as above provided for in the case of the proceeds of a sale of such thing. 46 V., c. 12, s. 205.

189. If notice of intent to claim has been given and the value of the goods or thing seized does not exceed one hundred dollars, and the prosecutor chooses to proceed under this section, he shall forthwith cause the goods to be valued by a competent appraiser; and if such appraiser certifies them to be under the said value, a summary information in writing may be exhibited in the name of the collector at or nearest to the place of seizure, or in the name of any officer authorized thereto by the Minister of Customs, before two justices of the peace, charging the articles seized as forfeited under some particular Act and section thereof to be therein referred to, and praying condemnation thereof; and the justices shall thereupon issue a general notice for all persons claiming interest in the seizure to appear at a certain time and place there to claim the articles seized, and answer the information, otherwise such articles will be condemned; and a copy of the notice shall, at least eight days before the time of appearance, be served upon the person from whose possession the things were taken, or shall be left at or affixed to the building or vessel in which they were seized, if any, and if there remaining, or at two public places nearest the place of seizure: if any person appears to answer the information, the justices shall hear and determine the matter in a summary manner and acquit or condemn the articles, but if no person appears, judgment of condemnation shall be given; and the justices on condemnation shall issue a warrant to the collector to sell the goods; and such two justices shall be deemed a court, and each of them a judge thereof for the purposes of this Act. 46 V., c. 12, s. 206.

190. Sales of goods forfeited or otherwise liable to be sold under this Act shall be by public auction, and after a reasonable public notice, and subject to such further regulations as are made by the Governor in Council; but in any case, the Minister of Customs may order vessels, goods, vehicles or things forfeited to be disposed of as he sees fit, instead of being sold by public auction. 46 V., c. 12, s. 212.

191. The proceeds, after deducting expenses, shall, unless it is otherwise provided, belong to Her Majesty for the public uses of Canada; but the net proceeds or any portion thereof, may be divided between and paid to the collector or chief officer of the Customs at the port or place where the seizure was made, and the officer or officers by whom the seizure was made, or the information given which led to the seizure, and any person who has given information or otherwise aided in effecting the condemnation of the thing seized, in such proportions as the Governor in Council in any case or class of cases directs and appoints: but nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or affect any power vested in the Governor in Council or the Minister of Customs to make and ordain any other plan or system for the redistribution of such net proceeds, or with regard to the remission of penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Act or any other law. 46 V., c. 12, s. 213.

FORFEITURES AND PENALTIES.

192. If any person, with intent to defraud the revenue of Canada, smuggles or clandestinely introduces into Canada any goods subject to duty, or makes out or passes or attempts to pass through the Custom House any false, forged or fraudulent invoice, or in any way attempts to defraud the revenue by evading the payment of the duty, or of any part of the duty on any goods, such goods shall be seized and forfeited; and every such person, his aiders and abettors shall, in addition to any other penalty or forfeiture to which he and they are subject for such offence, be liable on summary conviction before two justices of the peace to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars and not less than fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year and not less than one month, or to both. 47 V., c. 29, s. 2.

193. If any goods are unladen from any vessel or vehicle, or put out of the custody of the master or person in charge of the same, before report is made as required by this Act, or if such master or person fails to make such report, or to produce such goods, or makes an untrue report, or does not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall for each such offence incur a penalty of four hundred dollars; and if any such goods are not so reported and produced, or if the marks and numbers or other description of any package do not agree with the report made, such goods or package shall be seized and forfeited, and the vessel or vehicle and the animals drawing the same shall be detained until such amount is paid. 46 V., c. 12, s. 39.

194. All goods unladen or landed before due entry thereof and warrant for landing, shall be seized and forfeited, and every person concerned in landing or receiving or concealing goods so landed, shall, for each offence, incur a penalty of four hundred dollars. 46 V., c. 12, s. 44.

195. All goods shipped or unshipped, imported or exported, carried or conveyed, contrary to any regulation made by the Governor in Council, and all goods or vehicles and all vessels under the value of four hundred dollars, with regard to which the requirements of any such regulation have not been complied with, shall be seized and forfeited, and if such vessel is of or over the value of four hundred dollars, the master thereof shall, by such non-compliance, incur a penalty of four hundred dollars, and the vessel may be detained until the said penalty is paid, or satisfactory security is given for the payment thereof; and any such forfeitures and penalties shall be recoverable and may be enforced in the same manner, and before the same court and tribunal, as if incurred by the violation of any provision of this Act. 46 V., c. 12, s. 235.

197. Every person who knowingly harbors, keeps, conceals, purchases, sells or exchanges any goods illegally imported into Canada, whether such goods are dutiable or not, or whereon the duties lawfully payable have not been paid, shall, for such offence, forfeit such goods and shall incur a penalty equal to treble the value thereof. 46 V., c. 12, s. 155.

198. If any two or more persons in company are found together, and they or any of them have any goods liable to forfeiture under this Act,—every such person having knowledge of the fact, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable accordingly. 46 V., c. 12, s. 156.

PROCEDURE.

222. All penalties and forfeitures incurred under this Act or any other law relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, may, in addition to any other remedy provided by this Act or by law, be prosecuted, sued for and recovered with full costs of suit, in the Exchequer Court of Canada or in any superior court or court of Vice-Admiralty, having jurisdiction in that Province in Canada where the cause of prosecution arises, or wherein the defendant is served with process; and if the amount of any such penalty or forfeiture does not exceed two hundred dollars, the same may, in the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, British Columbia, Manitoba and Prince Edward Island, respectively, also be prosecuted, sued for and recovered in any court having jurisdiction in the place where the cause of prosecution arises, or where the defendant is served with process. 47 V., c. 29, s. 1.

223. All penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act or by any other Act relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, shall, unless other provisions are made for the recovery thereof, be sued for, prosecuted and recovered with costs by Her Majesty’s Attorney General of Canada, or in the name or names of the Commissioner of Customs, or any officer or officers of the Customs, or other person or persons thereunto authorized by the Governor in Council, either expressly or by general regulation or order, and by no other person. 46 V., c. 12, s. 189.

224. All penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act or by any other law relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, may, in the Province of Quebec, be sued for, prosecuted and recovered with full costs of suit by the same proceeding as any other moneys due to the Crown, and all suits or prosecutions for the recovery thereof shall, in that Province, be heard and determined in like manner as other suits or prosecutions in the same court for moneys due to the Crown, except that in the Circuit Court the same shall be heard and determined in a summary manner; but nothing in this section shall affect any provisions of this Act, except such only as relate to the form of proceeding and of trial in such suits or prosecutions as aforesaid. 46 V., c. 12, s. 190.

225. Every prosecution or suit in the Exchequer Court of Canada, or in any superior court or circuit court or court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery or enforcement of any penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Act or by any other law relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation may be commenced, prosecuted and proceeded with in accordance with any rules of practice, general or special, established by the court for Crown suits in revenue matters, or in accordance with the usual practice and procedure of the court in civil cases, in so far as such practice and procedure are applicable, and wherever the same are not applicable, then in accordance with the directions of the court or a judge. 46 V., c. 12, s. 191, part.
226. The venue in any such prosecution or suit may be laid in any county in the Province notwithstanding that the cause of prosecution or suit did not arise in such county. 46 V., c. 12, s. 191, part.

227. Any judge of the court in which any prosecution or suit is brought for the recovery or enforcement of any penalty or forfeiture as aforesaid, may, upon being satisfied by affidavit that there is reason to believe that the defendant will leave the Province without satisfying such penalty or forfeiture, issue a warrant under his hand and seal for the arrest and detention of the defendant in the common gaol of the county, district or place until he has given security, before and to the satisfaction of such judge or some other judge of the same court, for the payment of such penalty with costs, in case judgment is given against him. 46 V., c. 12, s. 192.

228. In any declaration, information, statement of claim or proceeding in any such prosecution or suit, it shall be sufficient to state the penalty or forfeiture incurred, and the Act or section under which it is alleged to have been incurred, without further particulars; and the averment that the person seizing was and is an officer of the Customs shall be sufficient evidence of the fact alleged unless it is contradicted by some superior officer of the Customs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 193.

229. In every prosecution, information, suit or proceeding brought under this Act for any penalty or to declare or enforce any forfeiture or upon any bond given under it, or in any matter relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, Her Majesty, or those who sue for such penalty or forfeiture, or upon such bond, shall, if they recover the same, be entitled also to recover full costs of suit; and all such penalties and costs, if not paid, may be levied on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the defendant, in the same manner as sums recovered by judgment of the court in which the prosecution is brought may be levied by execution, or payment thereof may be enforced by capias ad satisfaciendum against the person of the defendant under the same conditions and in like manner. 46 V., c. 12, s. 194.

230. If, in any case, the Attorney General of Canada is satisfied that the penalty or forfeiture was incurred without intended fraud, he may enter a nolle prosequi on such terms as he sees fit, which shall be binding on all parties; and the entry of such nolle prosequi shall be reported to the Minister of Customs with the reasons therefor. 46 V., c. 12, s. 195.

231. In any prosecution, suit or other proceeding for the recovery of any penalty or in respect of any forfeiture as aforesaid, or for an offence against this Act or any other law relating to the Customs, or to trade or navigation, the averment that the cause of prosecution or suit arose, or that such offence was committed within the limits of any district, county, port or place, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of such limits, unless the contrary is proved. 46 V.,
c. 12, s. 196.

232. If, in any prosecution, information or suit respecting any seizure made under this Act or any law relating to the Customs, decision or judgment is given for the claimant, and if the judge or court before whom the cause has been tried or brought, certifies that there was probable cause for seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to any costs of suit, nor shall the person who made such seizure be liable to any action, indictment, or other suit or prosecution on account of such seizure; and if any action, indictment, or other suit or prosecution is brought against any person on account of his making or being concerned in the making of such seizure, the plaintiff, if probable cause is certified as aforesaid, shall not be entitled to more than twenty cents damages or to any costs, nor shall the defendant in such prosecution in such case be fined more than ten cents. 46 V.,
c. 12, s. 216.

233. If any prosecution or suit is brought for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act or any other law relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, and any question arises whether the duties have been paid on any goods, or whether the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully laden or exported, or whether any other thing has been done by which such penalty or forfeiture would be avoided,—the burden of proof shall lie on the owner or claimant of the goods, and not on the person bringing such prosecution or suit. 46 V., c. 12, s. 197.

234. All vessels, vehicles, goods and other things seized as forfeited under this Act or any other law relating to Customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be placed in the custody of the nearest collector, and secured by him, or if seized by any officer in charge of a revenue vessel, shall be retained on board thereof until her arrival in port, and shall be deemed and taken to be condemned, without suit, information or proceedings of any kind, and may be sold, unless the person in whose possession or custody they were seized, or the owner thereof or some person on his behalf, within one month from the day of seizure gives notice in writing to the seizing officer or other chief officer of the Customs at the nearest port, that he claims or intends to claim the same; and the burden of proof that such notice was duly given in any case shall lie upon the person so claiming. 46 V., c. 12,
s. 198.
235. Proceedings for the condemnation of the things seized may be commenced and prosecuted to judgment, even if no such notice has been given. 46 V., c. 12, s. 199.

236. So soon as proceedings have been commenced in any court, for the condemnation of anything seized, notice thereof shall be posted up in the office of the clerk, registrar or prothonotary of the court, and also in the office of the collector at the port at which the thing has been seized as aforesaid; and if the thing seized is a vessel, such notice shall also be posted on a mast thereof, or on some other conspicuous place on board. 46 V., c. 12, s. 200.

237. If within one month after the last posting of the notice, under the next preceding section no claim to the thing seized is duly made, and security for costs is not given in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of the practice of the court, judgment by default for the condemnation of the thing seized may, with the leave of the court or a judge thereof, be entered. 46 V., c. 12, s. 203.

238. Every person who desires to claim any thing seized after proceedings for condemnation thereof have been commenced shall file his claim in the office of the clerk, registrar or prothonotary of the court: and such claim shall state the name, residence and occupation or calling of the person making it, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the claimant or his agent having a knowledge of the facts, setting forth the nature of the claimant's title to the thing seized. 46 V., c. 12, s. 201.

239. Before any such claim can be filed the claimant shall give security to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof by bond in a penal sum of not less than two hundred dollars, or by a deposit of money not less than that sum, for the payment of the costs of the proceedings for condemnation. 46 V., c. 12, s. 202.

240. All prosecutions or suits for the recovery or enforcement of any of the penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Act, or any other law relating to the Customs, may be commenced at any time within three years after the cause of prosecution or suit arose, but not afterwards; and the vessels, vehicles, goods or things forfeited shall be liable to condemnation during the same period. 46 V., c. 12, s. 207.

241. An appeal shall lie from a conviction by any magistrate, judge, justice or justices of the peace under this Act, in the manner provided by law from convictions in cases of summary conviction, in that Province in which the conviction was had, on the appellant furnishing security by bond or recognizance with two sureties to the satisfaction of such An appeal shall also lie from the Exchequer Court of Canada, the superior courts and county courts respectively, in cases where the amount of the penalty or forfeiture is such that if a judgment for a like amount was given in any civil case, an appeal would lie; and such appeal shall be allowed and prosecuted on like conditions and subject to like provisions as other appeals from the same court, in matters of like amount; and an appeal shall lie from the Circuit Court to the Court of Queen's Bench in the Province of Quebec, to be allowed and prosecuted in like manner and on like conditions as appeals from the Superior Court in that Province. 46 V., c. 12, s. 209.

244. In any case in which proceedings have been instituted in any court against any vessel, vehicle, goods or thing, for the recovery or enforcement of any penalty or forfeiture under this Act or any law relating to the Customs, trade or navigation, the execution of any decision or judgment for restoring the thing to the claimant thereof, shall not be suspended by reason of any appeal from such decision or judgment, if the claimant gives sufficient security, approved of by the court or a judge thereof, to render and deliver the thing in question or the full value thereof, to the appellant, in case the decision or judgment so appealed from is reversed. 46 V., c. 12, s. 211.

(p.) For any other purpose for which by this Act, or any other law relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, the Governor in Council is empowered to make orders or regulations:

And the Governor in Council may, if he deems it expedient, make general regulations in any matter in which he may make a special order; and any such general regulation shall apply to each particular case within the extent and meaning thereof, as fully and effectually as if the same referred directly to each particular case within the intent and meaning thereof, and the officers, functionaries and persons had been specially named therein. 46 V., c. 12, s. 280.

246. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, and as occasion requires, make such regulations as to him seem meet, with respect to goods conveyed directly through the Canadian canals or otherwise by land or inland navigation, from one part of the frontier line between Canada and the United States to another, without any intention of unlading such goods in Canada, and with respect to travellers in like manner, passing through a portion of Canada, or coming into it with their carriages, horses or other cattle drawing the same, and personal baggage, with the intention of forthwith returning to the United States, or having gone to the United States from Canada, returning to it with such articles, and may direct under what circumstances duty shall or shall not be paid, and on what conditions it shall be remitted or returned; and he may cause such bonds or other security to be given, or such precautions to be taken at the expense of the importer, whether by placing officers of the Customs on board any such vessel or carriage or otherwise, as to him seem meet; and on the refusal of the importer to comply with the regulations so made, the duty on the goods so imported shall forthwith become payable; and all and every animal, vehicle or goods of any kind, brought into Canada by any traveller, exempted... from duty under such regulations or otherwise, shall, if sold or offered for sale in Canada, and if the duties thereon have not been previously paid, be held to have been illegally imported and shall be seized and forfeited, together with the harness or tackle employed therewith or in the conveyance thereof. 46 V., c. 12, s. 231.

247. The Governor in Council may, under regulations made for that purpose, allow, on the exportation of goods which have been imported into Canada, and on which a duty of Customs has been paid, a drawback equal to the duty so paid with such deduction therefrom as is provided in such regulations: and in cases mentioned in such regulations, and subject to such provisions as are therein made, such drawback or a specific sum in lieu thereof may be allowed on duty-paid goods manufactured or wrought in Canada into goods exported therefrom as aforesaid; and the period within which such drawback may be allowed, after the time the duty was paid shall be limited in such regulations. 46 V., c. 12, s. 242.

248. The Governor in Council may interpret, limit or extend the meaning of the conditions upon which it is provided in any Act imposing duties of Customs, that any article may be imported free of duty for special purposes, or for particular objects or interests; and may make regulations either for declaring or defining what cases shall come within the conditions of such Act, and to what objects or interests of an analogous nature the same shall apply and extend, and may direct the payment or non-payment of duty in any such case, or the remission thereof by way of drawback if such duty has been paid. 46 V., c. 12, s. 78.

249. The Governor in Council may make such regulations as are considered advisable, for the appointment of sufferance wharves and warehouses, at which goods arriving by vessels in transit to other ports or confined to certain days of departure, may be landed and afterward stored before entry—such vessels being duly reported to the Custom House, and the collector's warrant for the purpose being obtained—if such landing is effected between sunrise and sunset, on a day not being Sunday or a statutory holiday, and if the goods on being so landed, are immediately stored in some such approved sufferance warehouse; and such goods shall be thereafter dealt with by the proper officer of Customs as prescribed by law: but nothing in this section shall affect any contract, express or implied, between the master or owner of any such vessel and the owner, shipper or consignee of any such goods as aforesaid, or the rights or liability of any person under such contract:

2. The Governor in Council may make similar regulations for the appointment of sufferance warehouses, in which goods arriving by railway may be stored before entry,—such goods having been duly reported to the collector or proper officer of Customs. 46 V., c. 12, s. 32.

250. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, prohibit the exportation or the carrying coastwise or by inland navigation, of the following goods: arms, ammunition and gunpowder, military and naval stores, and any articles which the Governor in Council deems capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of military or naval stores, provisions or any sort of victual which may be used as food by man; and if any goods so prohibited are exported, carried coastwise or by inland navigation, or waterborne or laden in any railway carriage or other vehicle, for the purpose of being so exported or carried, they shall be seized and forfeited. 46 V., c. 12, s. 233.

251. Any oath or declaration which the Governor in Council deems necessary to protect the revenue against fraud may, in any regulation made by him under this Act, be prescribed, and any person or officer may be authorized to administer the same; and by any such regulation a declaration may be substituted for an oath in any case in which an oath is required by this Act. 46 V., c. 12, s. 232.

252. The Governor in Council may prescribe the forms of oaths required under this Act; such forms may, from time to time, be repealed or amended, and the forms of oaths authorized by statute or by the Governor in Council at the time of the coming into force of this Act shall continue to be the authorized forms until altered or dispensed with by the Governor in Council. 46 V., c. 12, s. 91.

253. All general regulations made by the Governor in Council under this Act, shall have effect from and after the day on which the same are published in the Canada Gazette, or from and after such later day as is appointed for the purpose in such regulations, and during such time as is therein expressed, or if no time is expressed for that purpose, then until the same are revoked or altered. 46 V., c. 12, s. 236, part.

ANNUAL REPORT.

254. The Minister of Customs shall annually make to the Governor General, to be laid before Parliament within fifteen days after the meeting thereof, a report and statement of the transactions and affairs of the department during the year then next preceding. 31 V., c. 48, s. 5.

An Act respecting the Duties of Customs. A. D. 1886.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. In this Act the expression "goods" has the meaning assigned to it in "The Customs Act," and any power conferred upon the Governor in Council by the Act last cited to transfer dutiable goods to the list of goods free of duty is not hereby abrogated or impaired. 42 V., c. 15, s. 1, part.

2. In lieu and instead of all other duties of Customs upon goods imported into Canada, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid upon the goods enumerated in Schedule A to this Act, or referred to as not enumerated therein but charged with duty, imported into Canada or taken out of warehouse for consumption therein, the several duties of Customs set forth and described in the said Schedule A and set opposite to each respectively, or charged on them as not enumerated, subject to the provisions hereinafter made. 42 V., c. 15, s. 1, part.

3. Fish and other products of the fisheries shall be chargeable with and there shall be collected thereon the rates of duty set forth and described in Schedule B to this Act and set opposite to each of them respectively: Provided, that the whole or part of the duties imposed by this section may be remitted as respects either the United States or the Island of Newfoundland, or both, upon proclamation of the Governor in Council, which may be issued whenever it appears to his satisfaction that the Governments of the United States and the Island of Newfoundland, or of either of them, have made changes in their tariffs of duties imposed upon articles imported from Canada, in reduction or repeal of the duties in force in the said countries respectively. 48-49 V., c. 61, s. 4, part.

4. The goods enumerated in Schedule C may, subject to the provisions and conditions therein mentioned, be imported into Canada or taken out of warehouse for consumption therein, without payment of any duty of Customs thereon. 42 V., c. 15, s. 2.
5. The goods enumerated in Schedule D shall not be imported into Canada, under the penalty therein mentioned, and if imported shall be forfeited and forthwith destroyed:

2. Goods manufactured or produced, wholly or in part, by prison labor, or which have been made within or in connection with any prison, gaol or penitentiary, shall not be imported into Canada, under a penalty of two hundred dollars, and if imported such goods and the parcels or packages in which they are contained shall be forfeited.

3. No oleomargarine, butterine or other similar substitute for butter shall be imported into Canada under a penalty of not more than four hundred and not less than two hundred dollars for each offence, and, if imported, the same and the packages within which it is contained shall be forfeited.

24 V., c. 15, s. 3; 42 V., c. 12, s. 3; 48-49 V., c. 61, s. 13; 49 V., c. 37, s. 5, part.

6. There shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, upon the goods enumerated in Schedule E to this Act, the export duties mentioned in the said Schedule E, and such duty shall be paid to the proper officer of Customs, at the intended port of exportation; the export of such goods without payment of the said duty is unlawful, and the collector or any officer of Customs shall prevent the exportation of such goods until such duties thereon are paid; and if any attempt is made to export such goods contrary to the provisions of this Act, they shall be liable to seizure and shall be forfeited and dealt with as other goods forfeited for breach of the Customs laws. 31 V., c. 44, s. 11.

7. The export of deer, wild turkeys, quail, partridge, prairie fowl and woodcock in the carcass or parts thereof, is hereby declared unlawful and prohibited; and any person exporting or attempting to export any such article shall, for each such offence, incur a penalty of one hundred dollars, and the article so attempted to be exported shall be forfeited, and may, on reasonable cause of suspicion of intention to export the same, be seized by any officer of the Customs, and, if such intention is proved, shall be dealt with as for breach of the Customs laws. 46 V., c. 13, s. 9; 48-49 V., c. 61, s. 12.

8. The value of all bottles, flasks, jars, demijohns, carboys, casks, hogsheds, pipes, barrels, and all other vessels or packages, manufactured of tin, iron, lead, zinc, glass or any other material, and capable of holding liquids,—crates, barrels and other packages containing glass, china, crockery or earthenware,—and all packages in which goods are commonly placed for home consumption, including cases in which bottled spirits, wines or malt liquors are contained,—and every package, being the first receptacle or covering inclosing goods for purpose of sale, shall, in all cases not otherwise provided for, in which they contain goods subject to an ad valorem duty or a specific and ad valorem duty, be taken and held to be a part of the fair market value of such goods for duty, and shall be charged with the same rate of ad valorem duty as is to be levied and collected on the goods they contain; and when they contain goods subject to specific duty only, such packages shall be charged with a duty of Customs of twenty per centum ad valorem, to be computed upon their original cost or value; and all or any of the above packages described as capable of holding liquids, when containing goods exempt from duty under this Act, shall be charged with a duty of twenty per centum ad valorem; but all packages not hereinbefore specified, and not herein specially charged with or declared liable to duty under regulations, and being the usual and ordinary packages in which goods are packed for exportation only, according to the general usage and custom of trade, shall be free of duty. 42 V., c. 15, s. 4; —44 V., c. 10, s. 1.

10. If, at any time, any greater duty of Customs is payable in the United States of America on tea or coffee imported from Canada than on tea or coffee imported from any other country, the Governor in Council may impose on tea or coffee imported into Canada from the United States an additional duty of Customs equal to the duty payable in the United States on tea or coffee imported from Canada: Provided, that tea or coffee imported into Canada from any country other than the United States, but passing in bond through the United States, shall be taken and rated as a direct importation from the country in which the tea or coffee was purchased. 42 V., c. 15, s. 7.

11. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that the Governments of France and Spain, or either of them, have made changes in their tariff of duties imposed upon articles imported from Canada, in reduction or... repeal of the duties now in force in the said countries, he may, by proclamation, order the whole or part of the duty of thirty per centum ad valorem imposed by this Act upon wines imported into Canada to be remitted as respects importations from the said countries, or from that one of the said countries by the Government of which such change in its tariff of duties has been made as aforesaid. 42 V., c. 15, s. 12.

When licenses shall expire.

10. Every license shall terminate on the thirtieth day of June in every year, and the same amount shall be paid for every such license whether it has a full year or only a part of a year to run from the date when it is granted; except that in the case of an application for any such license by a person who has not theretofore obtained a license, and who is beginning business, such license, if applied for on or after the first day of January, may be issued to such applicant for the remainder or until the end of the fiscal year, upon payment of one-half only of the annual license duty or fee otherwise payable on such license. 46 V., c. 15, s. 2.

Application for license.

11. Every person requiring a license under this Act shall make application therefor in writing over his signature to the collector of Inland Revenue, or any other officer appointed by the Minister of Inland Revenue, within whose district or Inland Revenue division the business for which such license is required is to be carried on; and every such application shall be made in the form prescribed by the Department of Inland Revenue. 46 V., c. 15, s. 3.

What application must show.

12. Every application for a license shall state the exact locality, in the city, town, village, township or local municipality (as the case may be), where the premises are situated, in which the business for which the license is required is to be carried on, and shall also contain or have annexed thereto a full and particular description, in triplicate, in writing, with such models, diagrams or drawings as are needed for fully understanding the same, of all the machinery, buildings, premises and places where such business is to be carried on, or where any of the materials or commodities used or to be used therein, or any of the products thereof, are or are to be stored or kept, and of the power by which the machinery so used is to be worked; and the description shall also set forth, in detail, every building and every separate room, cellar, vault, shed or other compartment thereof, specifying what use is to be made of each, and stating the designation which is to be placed over the entrance to each, in accordance with the provisions of this Act: 416
2. No license shall authorize a person to keep or use a still, or make wort or wash, low-wines or spirits, or brew malt liquor, or manufacture malt, or tobacco, or cigars, or manufacture in bond, in any other place than the house or premises mentioned in the application for such license:

3. In the case of a manufactory in which no material changes or alterations have been made since the original descriptions, models, diagrams or drawings were furnished, and when the manufacturer certifies in writing, upon application being made for each subsequent license, that the original papers filed with the department still correctly represent his manufactory premises, and that no changes or alterations have been made therein—such certificate bearing the indorsation of the collector of Inland Revenue or other proper officer—the Department of Inland Revenue may accept the application and authorize the issue of the license without new descriptions, models, diagrams and drawings each year. 46 V., c. 15, s. 5.

13. Every such application shall also state the names of the persons proposed by such applicant as his sureties (which sureties shall, in all cases, be residents of Canada), in accordance with the requirements of this Act; and it shall also contain a statement of the maximum quantity of each article which the utensils are capable of mashing, fermenting, distilling or otherwise producing within each month. 46 V., c. 15, s. 6.

(a) The dimensions and capacity of every still, steep cistern, mash-tub, fermenting-tun, cooler, closed spirit-receiver, and of every other utensil, in inches and gallons, the purpose to which each is to be applied, and the locality or position in the building in which it is, or is to be placed or used; and—

(b) A description of every pipe, conduit, trough, hose, valve, pump, cock, and of every means of connection or communication between the several vessels or utensils used in or about the distillery or brewery, with a description and drawing or model showing the exact position of every cock, valve, connection and joint. 46 V., c. 15, s. 7.

15. No license shall be granted for carrying on any business or trade under this Act, until after a survey has been made by officer.
made by the collector of Inland Revenue or an officer instructed for the purpose by him, of the building or place wherein such business is to be carried on, nor until such collector or other officer has certified in writing that the application, descriptions, models, diagrams and drawings correctly represent the premises, and that all the provisions of this Act and any Order in Council or departmental regulation made in virtue thereof, have been complied with as respects such place:

2. No license shall be granted for carrying on any such business in a building or premises which, after careful survey, appear to the department to be so situated with reference to surrounding buildings or places of business, or to be so constructed or arranged, as to embarrass or endanger the full collection of the revenue:

3. Except as hereinafter specially provided, no license shall in any case be granted for carrying on any business in any building which forms part of or is appurtenant to, or which communicates in any way whatever, except by means of a public highway, with any shop or premises wherein any article to be manufactured under such license is sold by retail, or wherein there is kept any broken package of any such article:

4. If any inspector of Inland Revenue reports to the Department of Inland Revenue, that it is not expedient that a license should be granted in respect of any building in connection with which the license is applied for, in view of its proximity to any such shop or premises as in the next preceding sub-section mentioned, the license may not be granted, notwithstanding that the provisions of the said sub-section would not operate to prevent the granting of such license. 46 V., c. 15, s. 8.

16. Every bond entered into under the provisions of this Act shall remain in force so long as any duty upon any articles or commodities subject to excise, or on any license, or any penalty to which the bond relates, remains unpaid by the person to whom such license was granted. 46 V., c. 15, s. 9.

17. Whenever any new license is granted to any person a new bond shall likewise be entered into with reference to such new license:

2. A new bond shall also be given, whenever, during the period for which any license to which the bond first given relates is in force, either of the sureties dies, becomes insolvent or removes permanently out of Canada; and the license shall be void from the time the person to whom it was granted is required by the collector or superior officer of Inland Revenue to enter into a new bond until the time when such new bond is given—during which time the person neglecting to enter into such new bond shall be held to be without a license. 46 V., c. 15, ss. 10 and 11.
18. Whenever the required amount of security, as computed under any provision of this Act, exceeds ten thousand dollars, the amount may be determined by the Governor in Council at such sum not less than ten thousand dollars as to him appears sufficient for the safety of the revenue. 46 V., c. 15, s. 12.

19. Notwithstanding any provision in this Act contained in respect of the number of sureties to any license or other bond entered into under the provisions hereof, the Department of Inland Revenue may, in lieu and instead of such several sureties, in any case, accept the security of any duly incorporated guarantee company doing business and having a domicile in Canada, and approved of by the Governor in Council. 46 V., c. 15, s. 13.

20. Every application for a license under this Act shall be forwarded by the collector of Inland Revenue to the district inspector of Inland Revenue, with such information as is required by any departmental regulation; and so soon as the said application is returned to the collector, indorsed with the approval of the district inspector, and in the case of a bonded manufacturing license by the Department of Inland Revenue also, and upon the due execution of the bond with sureties as herein required, the collector of Inland Revenue shall issue a license to carry on the business and to use the utensils, machinery and apparatus specified in the application, and in the place and premises therein specified, and in such place or premises only, and shall immediately report the issue of such license to the department. 46 V., c. 15, s. 14.

21. Upon application being made, in the form prescribed by the Department of Inland Revenue, by the holder of any license under this Act, the license so held may be transferred from any premises to any other premises of similar capacity situated within the same Inland Revenue division, without payment of additional license fee, if all the requirements of this Act have been complied with by the holder of such license in reference to the premises to which it is proposed to transfer it, and if all obligations imposed by the license have been fulfilled; but whenever any such transfer is made, new bonds shall be taken, as is required upon the issue of a new license. 46 V., c. 15, s. 15.

22. Upon the expiration of every license issued under this Act, the granting of a new license in lieu thereof, except as hereinbefore provided as to diagrams, drawings, models or descriptions, shall be subject to the same restrictions and conditions as the granting of the original license. 46 V., c. 15, s. 16.
23. The burden of proof that any license required by this Act has issued, shall rest upon the person to whom such license is alleged to have been issued. 46 V., c. 15, s. 17.

24. Every person licensed under this Act shall keep his license posted up in a conspicuous place in his manufactory. 46 V., c. 15, s. 18.

26. Licenses to manufacture spirits or other articles subject to excise within the Provinces of Manitoba and British Columbia shall be issued only for the following places, namely:—Victoria and New Westminster, in British Columbia, and Winnipeg in Manitoba, and such other places as are, from time to time, named for the purpose by the Governor in Council. 37 V., c. 7, s. 3.

42. Every account or return rendered as herein provided shall be made and signed by the person carrying on the business to which it relates, or his agent, and shall also be signed by the foreman, clerk, chief workman or other person employed in or about the premises where the business is carried on; and the collector or any superior officer of Inland Revenue may, at any time after the making of such account or return, require any other person employed about such premises, who, in his opinion is best acquainted with the quantity of material used and of goods produced, subject to excise, to testify upon oath before him as to the correctness of such account or return. 46 V., c. 15, s. 35.

43. Every such account or statement shall be attested by the persons signing the same under oath, in the form or other duly authorized officer of Inland Revenue; and the collector or officer before whom it is made, or any superior officer of Inland Revenue may, when the account or statement is made, or at any time thereafter, put to the person or persons making it such questions as are necessary to the elucidation and full understanding of the account, and for ascertaining whether such person has had the means of knowing the same to be correct; and the collector or officer aforesaid may also, when the account or statement is made, or at any time thereafter, examine under oath any person or persons employed, or who have, at any time, been employed in or about the distillery, brewery, malt-house, tobacco manufactory, cigar manufactory or bonded manufactory, or other premises subject to excise, to which such account relates, or any person doing business therewith or selling material thereto or buying goods therefrom, and also any common carrier, agent, clerk or other person who has been concerned in the removal of any such goods or material to or from any distillery, malt-house, brewery, tobacco manufactory, cigar manufactory, or bonded manufactory or other premises subject to excise, or in taking or keeping an account of such removals, as to the truth of all such statements, and may reject all such written statements as are shown by such evidence to be incorrect or unreliable; and such rejection shall render the person making the return liable to the same penalty as he would be liable to if no return whatever had been made:

2. Whenever the Governor in Council deems it expedient so to do, he may authorize the taking of such oath or evidence before a justice of the peace. 46 V., c. 15, s. 37.

45. All notices, lists, descriptions, returns, inventories, statements, accounts and reports required by this Act to be given or made to any person or officer, shall be held to be validly so given or made, if they are received by such person or officer, as the case may be, or if they are left at the usual place of residence of such officer or person, within the period or delay fixed herein in that behalf, without any reference to the mode by which such notice, list, description, account,

47. No goods subject to a duty of excise under this Act, shall be removed from any distillery, malt-house, brewery, tobacco manufactory, cigar manufactory, bonded manufactory or other premises subject to excise, licensed as herein provided, or from any warehouse in which they have been bonded or stored, until the duty on such goods has been paid or secured by bond in the manner by law required; and any goods removed from such distillery, malt-house, brewery, tobacco manufactory, cigar manufactory, bonded manufactory or other premises subject to excise, or from a warehouse, before the duty thereon has been so paid or secured, shall be seized and detained by any officer of excise having a knowledge of the fact, and shall be and remain forfeited to the Crown. 46 V., c. 15, s. 40.

48. Except under departmental authority, in each case specially obtained, no goods subject to a duty of excise under this Act, shall be removed from any distillery, malt-house, brewery, tobacco manufactory, cigar manufactory, bonded manufactory, or from a bonding warehouse or other premises licensed as herein provided, between the hours of six o'clock in the afternoon and seven o'clock on the following forenoon; and any goods removed in violation of this section shall be forfeited to the Crown, and shall be seized by any officer of Inland Revenue having knowledge of the fact, and dealt with accordingly. 46 V., c. 15, s. 41.

49. The amount of duty shall be calculated on the measurements, weights, accounts, statements and returns taken, kept or made, as herein provided, subject to correction and approval by the collector of Inland Revenue or other officer duly authorized thereto; and when two or more methods for determining quantities or the amount of duty to be paid are provided for, that method which yields the largest quantity or the greatest amount of duty shall be the standard; but if the collector of Inland Revenue or any superior officer of Inland Revenue has any reason to doubt the correctness of any statement, account or return, he shall compute the weights, measurements or quantities himself, and levy the duty accordingly; and such computation may be based on any reliable evidence respecting the quantity of material brought into the distillery, malt-house, brewery, tobacco manufactory, cigar manufactory, bonded manufactory or other premises subject to excise, or as to the quantity of the manufactured article removed therefrom, or as to the quantity or strength of any articles used in any of the processes of manufacture; and if the result is disputed, the burden of proof of the error or wrong shall rest with the person who is liable for the payment of the duty. 46 V., c. 15, s. 42.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS AS TO BONDING OR WAREHOUSING.

50. Spirits, malt, tobacco, cigars and other articles subject to duty under this Act may, subject to the following provisions and to such regulations as the Governor in Council makes, be deposited in any suitable excise bonding warehouse licensed for the purpose, without payment of the duty hereby imposed. 46 V., c. 15, s. 43.

51. Before any license is granted to any person for a bonding warehouse, for goods subject to excise duties, such person shall give good and sufficient security by bond for an amount equal to the sum to which it is estimated the duty on the average quantity of goods in the warehouse will amount; and such bond shall be conditioned for the payment of all such duties and all penalties to which the owners of any goods warehoused therein, or the owner of any such warehouse, may become liable under this Act:

2. Whenever the duties on the goods warehoused in such warehouse exceed the amount for which the bond is taken, a new bond may be taken for a sum sufficient to cover the increased amount of duty. 46 V., c. 15, s. 44.

52. The warehouse shall be provided by the owner or bailee of the goods, and shall be licensed in conformity with such departmental regulations as are, from time to time, made in that behalf, and upon being surveyed and approved as to security by the inspecting officer, shall be secured under the joint locks of the Department of Inland Revenue and the owner or bailee of the goods warehoused, so as to be accessible only in the presence of an officer of Inland Revenue and of the owner or bailee of the goods in bond, or his agent. 46 V., c. 15, s. 45.

53. All goods warehoused shall be at the risk of the owner, and, unless destroyed by fire, the duty shall be payable thereon as if they were entered for consumption. 46 V., c. 15, s. 46.

54. Except as herein otherwise provided, no goods shall remain warehoused for a longer period than two years, and at the end of that time the full amount of duty remaining unpaid shall be collected:

2. If the quantity of goods bonded in any warehouse, at any time or by any means, falls short or is deficient of the actual quantity which ought to be or remain warehoused, after deducting the quantities entered ex-warehouse, the owner thereof shall be liable for the full duties on the balance of goods with which the warehouse stands debited; and the goods remaining shall be subject to the duties on the quantity deficient, and shall be sold for payment thereof, by order of the department, and the surplus, if any, shall be payable to the person who warehoused such goods, or his assigns, after deducting all penalties and expenses incurred: except that when the Department of Inland Revenue is satisfied that no goods have been illegally removed from the warehouse, such goods as are actually in the warehouse at the time stock is taken, or at the expiration of two years, may be re-warehoused on payment of the full amount of duty on the ascertained deficiency. 46 V., c. 15, s. 47.

55. At the time of entering the goods for warehouse, the amount of duty shall be computed and ascertained and stated in the entry. 46 V., c. 15, s. 48.

56. Goods warehoused under this Act may be transferred in bond, and may be exported, or removed from one warehouse to another, without payment of duty, under such restrictions and regulations as the Governor in Council deems necessary. 46 V., c. 15, s. 49.

57. When goods are entered for warehouse, the entry shall state the exact quantity of goods in each package or parcel, and the duty to which they are liable; and each package shall be described in the entry paper, and shall also be designated by a distinguishing number. 46 V., c. 15, s. 50.

58. Each package, when originally warehoused by the manufacturer, shall be marked with the date when warehoused, and with the quantity which the package contains, and except in the case of cigars, shall be consecutively numbered and marked with the entry number. 48-49 V., c. 62, s. 2, part.

59. Goods warehoused shall be so stowed or arranged that the casks, boxes or packages contained or described in one entry are placed together in separate lots; and in no case, except in the case of cigars, shall the casks, boxes or packages contained or described in one entry, be intermixed with those contained or described in another. 48-49 V., c. 62, s. 2, part.
60. Whenever the marks or numbers on any goods in warehouse have been omitted, or have been defaced or otherwise become illegible, or whenever such goods are not stowed or arranged in compliance with the requirements of this Act, the owner of such goods shall, on being required so to do, immediately re-mark or arrange or stow them, as the case may be, to the satisfaction of the collector of Inland Revenue, or of any officer inspecting the division; and if the owner of such goods fails to re-mark, arrange or stow them in the manner herein required, for the space of one week after having been required so to do, all such goods shall be forthwith entered for duty ex-warehouse, and the duty thereon collected in accordance with the original warehouse entry; and any failure so to enter for duty ex-warehouse, and to pay the duty thereon, when a demand to that effect has been made by the collector of Inland Revenue, shall be construed as evidence of a deficiency in the said warehouse, and shall be dealt with accordingly. 46 V., c. 15, s. 53.

61. No goods shall be removed from warehouse for consumption unless upon the payment of the full amount of duty accruing thereon. 46 V., c. 15, s. 54.

62. Except as herein otherwise provided the collector or other officer of Inland Revenue or Customs in whose charge goods warehoused under this or any other Act relating to warehousing are placed, shall refuse all entries ex-warehouse until the owner of such goods or his agent has complied with all conditions in respect thereto, required by this or any other Act, or by any regulations made by virtue of this or any other Act. 46 V., c. 15, s. 55.

63. All entry papers, either for warehouse, ex-warehouse for removal, or other purposes, shall be made in such forms, and shall be attested by such affidavits, affirmations or declarations as the Department of Inland Revenue orders. 46 V., c. 15, s. 56.

64. The person in whose favor a license is granted for an excise bonding warehouse, not included in the description of the premises in respect of which a license has been issued to him under this Act, shall pay for one such warehouse the sum of twenty dollars, and for each additional warehouse the sum of ten dollars. 46 V., c. 15, s. 57.

65. The Governor in Council may establish Inland Revenue bonding warehouses at any place or places specified in such order; and such order shall prescribe the storage dues, and the license fee to be paid by persons using such Inland Revenue bonding warehouse, but such license fee shall not exceed ten dollars.

4. If such prosecution is brought before a judge or a junior judge of a county court, or before a police or stipendiary magistrate, or before any two other justices of the peace, no other justice shall sit or take part therein. 46 V., c. 15, s. 69, part.

78. Every such action shall be brought within three calendar months after the cause thereof, and shall be laid and tried in the place or district where the acts were committed; and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is non-suited, or discontinues the action, or if, upon a demurrer or otherwise, judgment is given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover costs, and have such remedy for the same as any defendant has in other cases where costs are given. 46 V., c. 15, s. 72.

whose factor, or agent, or trustee as aforesaid they are, and may be seized and sold in satisfaction of such duty, penalty or forfeiture, under any warrant of distress or writ of execution, or other process for the recovery thereof, and may be removed by the purchaser:

3. Such goods, materials, machinery and apparatus shall be liable to forfeiture to the Crown, under the provisions of this Act, for any violation thereof; and if so forfeited, they may be seized by the collector of Inland Revenue or other officer of Inland Revenue, or any person acting by his authority, at any time after the commission of the offence for which they are forfeited, and may be marked, detained or secured until condemned or released by competent authority, and shall not, while under seizure, be used by the offender; and if condemned, they shall be removed or sold or otherwise dealt with as the Minister of Inland Revenue directs. 46 V.,
c. 15, s. 104.

110. So soon as an information has been filed in any court for the condemnation of any goods or thing seized under this Act, notice thereof shall be posted up in the office of the registrar, clerk or prothonotary of the court, and also in the office of the collector of Inland Revenue or chief officer of Inland Revenue, in the Inland Revenue division wherein the goods or thing have been seized as aforesaid:

2. If the owner or person claiming the goods or thing presents a claim to the same and gives security and complies with all the requirements of this Act in that behalf, the said court, at its sitting next after the said notice has been so posted during one month, may hear and determine any claim which has been validly made and filed in the meantime, and release or condemn such goods or thing, as the case requires; otherwise the same shall, after the expiration of such month, be deemed to be condemned as aforesaid, and may be sold without any formal condemnation thereof:

3. No claim on the behalf of any person who has given notice of his intention to claim before the posting of such notice as aforesaid shall be admitted, unless validly made within one week after the posting thereof; nor shall any claim be admitted unless notice thereof has been given in writing to the collector of Inland Revenue or superior officer of Inland Revenue within one month from such seizure.
46 V., c. 15, s. 105.

111. All vehicles, goods and other things seized as forfeited under this Act or any other Act relating to excise, or to trade or navigation, shall be deemed and taken to be condemned, and may be dealt with accordingly, unless the person from whom they were seized, or the owner thereof, within one month from the day of seizure, gives notice in writing to the seizing officer, the collector of Inland Revenue in the Inland Revenue division in which such goods were seized, or superior officer of Inland Revenue, that he claims or intends to claim the same:

2. The collector of Inland Revenue at the place where the seized articles are secured, or any superior officer of Inland Revenue, may order the delivery thereof to the owner, on receiving security by bond with two sufficient sureties, to be first approved by such collector or superior officer of Inland Revenue, for double the value in case of condemnation—which bond shall be taken to her Majesty's use in the name of the collector or the superior officer of Inland Revenue, and shall be delivered to and kept by such collector or superior officer of Inland Revenue; and if such seized articles are condemned, the value thereof shall be forthwith paid to the collector and the bond cancelled; otherwise the penalty of such bond shall be enforced and recovered. 46 V., c. 15, s. 106.

112. The payment of any penalty or forfeiture incurred under this Act shall not discharge the person paying the same from the obligation to pay all duties due by such person, and the same shall be paid and may be recovered as if such penalty had not been paid or incurred. 46 V., c. 15, s. 107.

113. Every penalty or forfeiture incurred for any offence against the provisions of this Act or any other law relating to excise, may be sued for and recovered or may be enforced before any court of Vice-Admiralty, or any court of record having jurisdiction in the premises, or, if the amount or value of such penalty or forfeiture does not exceed five hundred dollars, the same, whether the offence in respect of which it has been incurred is declared by this Act to be a misdemeanor or not, may be sued for and recovered or may be enforced before a judge of a county court, or before a police or stipendiary magistrate, or any two justices of the peace having jurisdiction in the place where the cause of prosecution arises, or wherein the defendant is served with process; and any such penalty may, if not forthwith paid, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, under the warrant of the court, judge, magistrate or justices having cognizance of the case; or the said court, judge, magistrate or justices may, in its or their discretion, commit the offender to the common gaol for the period of six months, unless the penalty and costs, including those of conveying the offender to such gaol and stated in the warrant of committal, are sooner paid.
2. Any term of imprisonment imposed for any offence against the provisions of this Act, whether in conjunction with a pecuniary penalty or not, may be adjudged and ordered by any court of Vice-Admiralty, or any court of record having jurisdiction in the premises, or if such term of imprisonment does not exceed twelve months, exclusive of any term of imprisonment which may be adjudged or ordered for non-payment of any pecuniary penalty, the same, whether the offence in respect of which the liability to imprisonment has been incurred is declared by this Act to be a misdemeanor or not, may be adjudged and ordered on the oath of one credible witness, by a judge of a county court, or by a police or stipendiary magistrate, or any two justices of the peace having jurisdiction in the place where the cause of prosecution arises, or wherein the defendant is served with process, under the "Act respecting summary proceedings before justices of the peace:"

3. If any prosecution in respect of an offence against any provision of this Act is brought before a judge of a county court, or before a police or stipendiary magistrate, or before any two other justices of the peace, no other justice of the peace shall sit or take part therein. 48-49 V., c. 62, ss. 5, 6 and 7.

114. All forfeitures and penalties under this Act, after deducting the expenses of prosecution, shall, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, belong to Her Majesty for the public uses of Canada; but the net proceeds of such penalty or forfeiture, or any portion thereof, may be divided between and paid to any officer of Inland Revenue holding a rank not higher than that of a special class exciseman, by whom the seizure was made, or the information given on which the prosecution was founded, and to any person having given information or otherwise aided in effecting the condemnation of the goods or thing seized, or the recovery of the penalty, in such proportions as the Governor in Council, in any case or class of cases, directs and appoints; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or affect any power vested in the Governor in Council, with regard to the remission of penalties or forfeitures by this Act or any other law. 46 V., c. 15, s. 109.

115. Every officer of the Customs or of Inland Revenue, or other person employed in the collection of the revenue, shall be a competent witness in any prosecution or suit under this Act, although he has or believes himself to have some expectation of advantage to himself from the successful termination of such prosecution or suit. 46 V., c. 15, s. 110.

116. All sums of money paid or recovered for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, or any part thereof, belonging to Her Majesty, shall be paid to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada. 46 V., c.15, s. 111.

If any article or thing is voluntarily given up or abandoned by the owner to any collector of Inland Revenue or superior officer of Inland Revenue, as forfeited under this Act, or if any sum of money is voluntarily paid to any such collector or officer as the amount of a penalty incurred under this Act, such article or thing may be dealt with as if lawfully condemned, and such sum of money as if lawfully recovered. 46 V., c. 15, s. 112.

If in any case it appears to the Department of Inland Revenue that a seizure has been made through an error in judgment by an officer of Inland Revenue, and that the retention of such seized property would result unfairly in pecuniary loss to the person from whom such property was seized, such seizure may be released by the Minister of Inland Revenue, or in his absence, by the Commissioner of Inland Revenue, without reference of the matter to the Governor in Council. 46 V., c. 15, s. 113.

The Governor in Council may make such regulations for the warehousing and for the ex-warehousing, either for consumption, for removal, for exportation, or otherwise, of goods subject to a duty of excise, and for giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act, and declaring the true intent thereof in any case of doubt, as to him seems meet. 46 V., c. 15, s. 114.

All regulations made under this Act, whether made by the Governor in Council or departmental, shall have the force of law, and any violation of any such regulation shall subject the holder of a license under this Act, or any other person in the said regulations mentioned, to such penalty or forfeiture as is, by the said regulations, imposed for such violation; and the same shall be enforced in like manner as other penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act. 46 V., c. 15, s. 115.

(b) The expression "closed spirit-receiver" means the vessel or vessels into which the spirit is conveyed as hereinafter provided, from the tail of the first worm in which it is condensed for measurement, and in which the quantity and strength upon which the duty is payable is ascertained and determined by the officers of excise;

(c) The expression "rectifier" means and includes any pipe, vessel or still into which the spirit is conveyed after leaving the spirit-receiver, for the purpose of rectification by re-distillation, filtration, or by any other process;

(d) The expression "proof spirits" or "spirits of the strength of proof," means any spirit having the strength of spirits proof by Sikes' hydrometer;

(e) The expression "a distillery" means and includes any place or premises—

   Where any process of fermentation for the production of wash is carried on; or—

   Where any wash is kept or produced for the purpose of distillation; or—

   Where any mash-tub, fermenting-tun, worm or still for the distillation of spirits is set up or used; or—

(g) The expression "chemical still" means any distilling apparatus which has a capacity of less than fifty gallons, and which is kept and used by a manufacturing chemist or druggist for the sole purpose of distilling water or reclaiming alcohol previously used in the preparation or manufacture of chemical, medicinal or pharmaceutical preparations for the preparation or manufacture of such chemical, medicinal or pharmaceutical preparations, or which is used for scientific purposes (in every one of which cases the Department of Inland Revenue shall be sole judge), and which is not used for the manufacture or distillation of spirits for sale: Provided that the Governor in Council may make such regulations as to him seem necessary, for permitting the increase of the capacity of chemical stills, but such capacity shall in no case exceed one hundred gallons:

(h) Any use made of any still, worm, mash-tub or fermenting-tun, rectifying or other apparatus suitable for the manufacture of wash, beer or spirits, or for the distillation or rectification of any spirits, or for fermenting any beer or wash, or the making or commencing to make, or the importation of any such still, worm, rectifying or other apparatus shall be deemed to be a working of a distillery and acting as a distiller within the meaning of this Act. 46 V., c. 15, s. 116.

LICENSES.

122. In addition to the general provisions of this Act respecting licenses, the provisions in the next following section contained apply to distilleries. 46 V., c. 15, s. 117.

123. A license to carry on the business or trade of a distiller may be granted to any person who has complied with the other requirements of this Act, provided that the granting of such license has been approved by the district inspector, and that the person has, jointly with not less than two and not more than six good and sufficient sureties, entered into a bond to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in a sum equal to the amount at which the collector or some superior officer of Inland Revenue estimates the duties to accrue on the products of the distillery for which it is granted (worked to its full capacity), during one month of the time for which the license is to remain in force, and to such further amount as the collector of Inland Revenue deems sufficient to cover the duty on goods remaining in warehouse, from time to time, during the currency of the license about to issue,— which latter amount shall be determined by such means as the Department of Inland Revenue prescribes—the person obtaining the license being bound in the full amount of such estimates, and the sureties each severally for such amount as that the sums for which they are respectively bound shall together be equal to the amount of such estimates; and such bond shall be entered into before the collector of Inland Revenue, his deputy or other officer authorized thereto by the Department of Inland Revenue, who shall cause such sureties to justify as to their sufficiency, each for the sum for which he is bound, by affidavit to be made before such collector, deputy or other officer, and indorsed upon the bond; and such bond shall be conditioned for the rendering of all accounts, inventories, statements and returns prescribed by law, and the payment of all duties and penalties which the person to whom the license is to be granted becomes liable to render or pay under this Act, and that such person will faithfully comply with all the requirements of this Act, according to their true intent and meaning, as well with regard to such accounts, inventories, statements, returns, duties and penalties, as to all other matters and things whatsoever:

2. A license to carry on the trade or business of a rectifier may be granted to any person who has complied with the provisions of this Act, if the granting of such license has been approved by the district inspector, and the person has jointly and severally, with two good and sufficient sureties, entered into a bond to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in the sum of four thousand dollars; and such bond shall be entered into before the collector of Inland Revenue, his deputy or other officer authorized thereto by the Department of Inland Revenue, who shall cause such sureties to justify as to their sufficiency before him by affidavit indorsed upon such bond; and such bond shall be conditioned for the rendering of all accounts and the payment of all duties and penalties which the person to whom the license is to be granted becomes liable to render or pay under the provisions of this Act, and that such person will faithfully comply with the requirements thereof, according to their true intent and meaning, as well with regard to such accounts, duties and penalties as to all other matters and things whatsoever:

3. A license to import or make (apart from the manufacture of beer, wash or spirits, and from the rectification of spirits), stills, worms, rectifying or other apparatus suitable for the manufacture of wash, beer or spirits, or for the rectification of spirits, may be granted to any person who has complied with the provisions of this Act,—provided that the granting of such license has been approved by the district inspector, and that the person has, jointly and severally, with two good and sufficient sureties, entered into a bond.
to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in the sum of one thousand dollars; and such bond shall be entered into before the collector of Inland Revenue, his deputy or other officer authorized thereto by the Department of Inland Revenue, who shall cause such sureties to justify as to their sufficiency before him, by affidavit indorsed upon such bond; and such bond shall be conditioned for the rendering of all accounts, and the payment of all duties and penalties which the person to whom the license is to be granted becomes liable to render or pay under the provisions of this Act, and that such person will faithfully comply with the requirements thereof, according to their true intent and meaning, as well with regard to such accounts, duties and penalties as to all other matters and things whatsoever:

4. An application for a license to have in possession and use the chemical still or stills mentioned in such application, shall contain a full and exact description of such still or stills, and of the capacity of each, and also of the purposes to which they are to be applied, and of the place wherein they are to be used:

5. A license to possess and use a chemical still or stills within the limits of a city, town or village, or within one mile thereof, may be granted to any manufacturing chemist or druggist who has complied with the provisions of this Act,—provided that the granting of such license has been approved by the district inspector and authorized by the Department of Inland Revenue, and that all the apparatus connected therewith are so made and arranged, and the whole so situated, as regards the nature of the building in which it is placed and the location of such building (as to all which the department shall be the sole judge), that such still or stills and apparatus may be kept under such supervision by an excise officer as will prevent their fraudulent use, and that the person shall, before such license is issued, jointly and severally, with two good and sufficient sureties, enter into a bond to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in such sum as in each case or class of cases is decided by the Governor in Council; and such bond shall be entered into before the collector of Inland Revenue, his deputy or other officer authorized thereto by the Department of Inland Revenue, who shall cause such sureties to justify as to their sufficiency before him by affidavit indorsed upon such bond; and such bond shall be conditioned for the rendering of all accounts, and the payment of all duties and penalties which the person to whom the license is granted becomes liable to render or pay under the provisions of this Act, and that such person will comply with the requirements thereof, as well with regard to such accounts, duties and penalties, as to all other matters and things whatsoever. 46 V., c. 15, s. 118.
DUTIES PAYABLE ON LICENSES.

124. The person in whose favor a license is granted for distilling and rectifying, or for either, by any process, shall, upon receiving such license, pay to the collector of Inland Revenue the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. 46 V., c. 15, s. 119.

125. The person in whose favor a license is granted to have and use the chemical still or stills mentioned in his application for a license, shall, upon receiving such license, pay to the collector of Inland Revenue the sum of twenty-five dollars: Provided, that a chemist or druggist using a chemical still of a capacity not exceeding three gallons, may, upon registering the said still at the office of the collector of Inland Revenue of the division in which it is situated, be permitted to use the same without payment of license fee or the giving of bonds; but the possession of any such still without registration shall be deemed a having in possession of a still contrary to the provisions of this Act. 46 V., c. 15, s. 120.

126. Every person who, not being licensed as a distiller, applies for a license to import or manufacture stills, worms, rectifying or other apparatus suitable for the manufacture of wash, beer or spirits, shall, when applying for such license, pay to the collector of Inland Revenue the sum of twenty dollars. 46 V., c. 15, s. 121.

IMPORTATION AND MANUFACTURE OF APPARATUS.

127. Every person who is about to import or make any still, worm, rectifying or other apparatus suitable for the manufacture of wash, beer or spirits, or for the rectification of spirits, shall, before the importation or making thereof is commenced, report in writing his intention in relation thereto, to the nearest officer of Inland Revenue, stating the number of stills, worms, rectifying or other apparatus, or part thereof, suitable for the manufacture of wash, beer or spirits, or for the rectification of spirits, to be imported or about to be manufactured, showing, with reference to each,—

(a.) The capacity of each apparatus or part thereof;
(b) The name and residence of the person for whom such apparatus or part thereof is to be imported or made;
(c.) The time at which every such apparatus or part thereof is to be imported or made;
(d.) The date at which such apparatus or part thereof is to be removed from the place where the same is to be manufactured;
(e.) The material of which such apparatus is or is to be made. 46 V., c. 15, s. 122.
128. In addition to the general provisions of this Act respecting books, accounts and papers, the provisions in the next following section contained apply to distilleries. 46 V., c. 15, s. 123.

129. Every person licensed as a distiller shall keep a book or books, in a form to be furnished, from time to time, by the Department of Inland Revenue, which books shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the collector of Inland Revenue or other officer, and wherein such distiller shall enter, day by day, and upon the same day on which the circumstance, thing or act to be recorded is done or occurs:

(a.) The quantity of grain and other raw material brought into or removed from his distillery premises;

(b.) The date and hour upon which the operations to be carried on in his distillery, and of which notice is required by any departmental regulation, are to be commenced;

(c.) The quantities of grain or other vegetable production, or other substance, put by him into the mash-tub, or otherwise used by him for the purpose of producing beer or wash, or consumed by him in any way for the purpose of producing spirits;

(d.) The quantity of beer or wash fermented or made by him or in his distillery;

(e.) The quantity of spirits distilled, manufactured or made by him or removed or brought into his distillery premises;

(f.) The hours during which his stills are worked on each day;

(g.) The quantity of spirits entered for warehouse and ex-warehouse. 46 V., c. 15, s. 124.

DUTIES OF EXCISE.

130. There shall be imposed, levied and collected on all spirits distilled, the following duties of excise, which shall be paid to the collector of Inland Revenue, as herein provided, that is to say:

(a.) When the material used in the manufacture thereof consists of not less than ninety per cent. by weight, of raw or unmalted grain—on every gallon of the strength of proof by Sikes' hydrometer, and so in proportion for any greater or less strength than the strength of proof, and for any less quantity than a gallon, one dollar and thirty cents;

(b.) When manufactured exclusively from malted barley, taken to the distillery in bond and on which no duty of customs or excise has been paid—on every gallon of the strength of proof by Sikes' hydrometer, and so in proportion for any greater or less strength, and for any less quantity than a gallon, one dollar and thirty two cents;

c.) When manufactured exclusively from molasses, syrup, sugar or other saccharine matter, taken to the distillery in bond and on which no duty of customs has been paid—on every gallon of the strength of proof by Sikes' hydrometer, and so in proportion for any greater or less strength, and for any less quantity than a gallon, one dollar and thirty-three cents. 46 V., c. 15, s. 125;—48-49 V., c. 61, s. 10, part.

131. The duty upon spirits shall be charged and computed as follows:—

(a.) Upon the grain used for its production at the rate of one gallon of proof spirits for every twenty and four-tenths pounds;

(b.) Upon the quantity of beer or wash, fermented or made in the distillery, at the rate of one gallon of proof spirits for every fourteen gallons of beer or wash;

(c.) Upon the quantity of beer or wash fermented or made, in proportion to its alcoholic value;

(d.) Upon the quantity of spirits which passes from the tail of the first worm in which it is condensed into the closed spirit-receivers, subject to the following abatements,—

(1.) An abatement not exceeding three per cent. for such quantity of fusil oil or other refuse as is separated therefrom by a second process of distillation,—the quantity so allowed in abatement being determined and destroyed in the presence of an officer of excise or otherwise accounted for in accordance with such regulations as are approved by the Governor in Council;

(2.) In the case of spirits which are not removed from the distiller's premises within twelve months of the date of their manufacture, an abatement for shrinkage by evaporation while maturing, which shall not exceed six per cent. for the first year, four per cent. for the second year, three per cent. for the third year, and two per cent. for each succeeding year up to seven years in all, after which no further abatement for shrinkage shall be allowed; but no such abatement shall be allowed unless the distiller has complied with all regulations made by the Governor in Council in relation to such abatement, nor unless the spirits have been kept in wood or in ventilated tanks approved by the Governor in Council, during the whole period for which the abatement is claimed; and every such abatement shall be made in respect of each specific package or tank, and shall in no case exceed the actual deficiency found to exist in the package or tank;

(e.) Upon the quantity of spirits sold or removed from any distillery by the distiller, or by his agent or for his account;
And that method of computation which yields the greatest amount of revenue, shall, in all cases, be the one upon which the distiller shall pay the duty:

2. When any distiller is about to use damaged grain or mill offal, and gives the collector of Inland Revenue one week's notice of his intention so to do, such officer as is instructed for that purpose by the collector shall specially inspect the beer or wash made from such damaged grain or mill offal, and test its alcoholic value and the quantity of such material which it contains; and if he reports that the yield of such damaged grain or mill offal is less than one gallon of proof spirits to twenty and four-tenths pounds, the Minister of Inland Revenue may authorize the assessment of the duty on the highest quantity ascertained by any of the other methods, without reference to the quantity of damaged grain or mill offal used by the distiller. 46 V., s. 126;—49 V., c. 39, s. 3.

Directions for computation.

132. For the purpose of computing the duty by the methods prescribed in the next preceding section,—

(a.) The quantity of grain shall be the quantity actually weighed into the mash-tubs and recorded in the books kept under the requirements of this Act; except that whenever there appears to be cause to doubt the correctness of the quantity so entered on the said books, an inquiry may be made by any inspecting officer of Inland Revenue, who may swear and examine witnesses under oath, and inquire as to the quantity of grain taken to the distillery in which such books are kept, and as to the quantity of grain removed therefrom, and generally into the matters referred to, and shall determine, as nearly as may be, the actual quantity of grain consumed in the distillery; and the duty may be assessed and levied on the quantity of grain so determined, in the proportion of one gallon of proof spirits to every twenty and four-tenths pounds of grain:

(b.) The quantity of beer or wash fermented or made in the distillery shall be determined by the distiller, or as often as is directed by any departmental regulation in that behalf, by an officer of Inland Revenue, who shall gauge the quantity in the fermenting-tuns at the time when the fermentation has been completed, or when the beer is in a fit state for distillation; and the quantities so determined shall be recorded by the distiller in a register of fermentation, under such regulations as the Department of Inland Revenue orders,—except that whenever there appears to be cause to doubt the correctness of the quantity entered in the said register of fermentation, an inquiry may be made by any inspecting officer of Inland Revenue in the manner above provided, as to the capacity of the fermenting-tuns used in the distillery, the frequency with which they have been used, and the quantity of beer or wash, from time to time, fermented therein; and the duty may be assessed and collected in the proportion of one gallon of proof spirits for every fourteen gallons of beer or wash determined by such inspecting officer, after such inquiry, to have been fermented in the distillery:

(c.) The alcoholic value of any beer or wash made in any distillery may be determined by any inspecting officer of Inland Revenue or by any collector or other officer of Inland Revenue authorized thereto,—who, as often as he deems necessary, but not more frequently than once in each day, may take out of any beer or wash then in the distillery a quantity not exceeding twenty-eight gallons, as a sample, which he may distil or cause to be distilled, for the purpose of any computation under this Act, and he may calculate the value or strength of the beer or wash used in that distillery according to the result ascertained from the sample so taken; or—

He may, at any time, test the strength of any beer or wash then in the distillery by its attenuation or by running a portion thereof, not exceeding the contents of any one fermenting-tun, through the stills, in the ordinary course of working such distillery, and may require the ordinary operatives of such distillery to do the work, or may introduce other operatives into the distillery for that purpose; and for the purpose of any such computation as aforesaid, he may calculate the alcoholic value or strength of the beer or wash used in that distillery according to the result ascertained from the portion of such beer or wash so distilled; and the alcoholic value of the beer or wash, as determined by either of the above methods, may be applied to or used in the computation and charge of duty on the beer or wash made in that distillery:

(d.) The quantity of spirits which passes from the tail of the first worm into the closed spirit-receivers shall be ascertained and determined by gauging the quantity and testing the strength thereof in such manner, at such periods and by such means as, from time to time, is directed by any departmental regulation in that behalf:

(e.) The quantity of spirits sold or removed from any distillery by the distiller shall be the quantity recorded in the distillery stock books kept under the provisions of this Act; but whenever any inspector of Inland Revenue has cause to doubt the correctness of the quantity so recorded, he may inquire, or cause an inquiry to be made in the manner above provided, as to the quantity of spirits sold by the distiller or by his agent, or for his account, and as to the quantity removed from the distillery by any agency or vehicle whatsoever, and also as to the quantity of duty-paid spirits brought into the distillery; and for the purpose of such inquiry, all shipping notes or bills of lading signed by the distiller or by his agent shall be taken as evidence of the sale or removal by him from his distillery of the quantity therein specified, and the evidence on oath of any railway clerk, station-master or agent, or of any warehouseman or common carrier or shipping agent, as to the truth of the accounts kept by him of shipments or removals of spirits by any distiller, shall be sufficient evidence of the truth of such accounts; and the evidence on oath of any person who has purchased any spirits from a distiller or from his agent, shall be taken as evidence that the spirits so bought were manufactured at the distillery of the distiller selling the same, unless the contrary is shown; and all packages of spirits not otherwise described in the accounts or shipping notes or bills of lading relating thereto, or proved to contain some greater or less quantity, shall be reckoned as puncheons containing each one hundred and fifty gallons of proof spirits; and the difference between the quantity shown by such inquiry to have been sold by the distiller or removed from his distillery, and the quantity of duty paid spirits brought into the distillery, shall be held to be the quantity liable to duty under this Act:

2. The inquiries of any inspecting officer or collector of Inland Revenue as herein provided, may be made for any period not more than one year before the time when the inquiry is commenced; and if it is found that during the said period the returns have been made for, and the duty charged on a less quantity of spirits than is ascertained and determined by the result of such inquiry, the additional duty then determined shall become due and payable within five days after the distiller has been notified of the result of such inquiry; and the payment of such additional duty shall be enforced in the same manner, and under the same conditions and penalties, as the payment of the duty mentioned in the monthly returns in respect of other matters subject to excise as provided by section forty-six of this Act:

3. If the determination of the officer under any provision of this Act is disputed, the burden of proof of the error or wrong shall rest with the person alleging it. 46 V., c. 15, s. 127;—49 V., c. 39, s. 4.

PROVISIONS AS TO SUPERVISION.

133. On or before the tenth day of July in each fiscal year, the capacity of all spirit-receivers, fermenting-tuns, mash-tubs, coolers and other vessels used in or about distilleries, shall be accurately ascertained by gauging or by actual measurement by standard measures of capacity, as the officer of excise determines or directs; and—

2. A correct list thereof shall be made out by the distiller, in triplicate, setting forth the number, use, dimensions and capacity of every such vessel; and the said list shall be attested by the signature of the distiller, and shall be subject to the verification and approval of the officer of excise under whose supervision the gauging or measurement was made;
and every such list when signed by him in testimony of such approval, shall be received as evidence in all courts:

3. Every such list may, at any time, be revised by any Correction superior officer of Inland Revenue, and if any errors are of list found therein, he shall cause the necessary corrections to be made in such list by the distiller:

4. One counterpart of such list shall be kept on record at the distillery,—another at the Department of Inland Revenue; and the third shall be retained by the collector of Inland Revenue within whose district or division the distillery is situated. 46 V., c. 15, s. 128.

134. The spirit-receiver, doubler, low wines-receiver, faints receiver, the safe or apparatus inclosing the tail of the worm or still, and—

Every pump used for removing any spirit, wash or other matter to or from any vessel, or from one vessel to another, and every lock, pipe, valve, duct, conduit, cock or connection used for securing, leading to or from, or between, or for giving access to any of the vessels herein mentioned or referred to, and—

Every valve, pipe, cock, gauge, pump, lock or other apparatus, utensil, appliance or arrangement for securing, gauging, ascertaining, testing or proving the quantity or strength of any spirit, wash or worts manufactured or distilled, or for preventing the undue abstraction of any such spirits, wash or worts,—

Shall be constructed, arranged and applied at the cost of the distiller, in accordance with such plans, designs, drawings and regulations, and of such materials as are, from time to time, approved by the Department of Inland Revenue:

2. Every mash-tub, fermenting-tun, closed spirit-receiver, cooler, tank, vat or other utensil or vessel, for using which a license is required, or which is used for containing any commodity subject to excise, shall have written, stamped or printed on it in white Roman characters, at least two inches in height, on a black ground, the serial number, the name or designation of the vessel or utensil and the contents thereof in gallons and in cubic inches:

3. Every pipe, trough or conduit used for the conveyance of spirits, shall be painted or colored a light blue:

4. Every pipe, trough or conduit used for the conveyance of water, shall be painted or colored white: and—

5. Every pipe, trough or conduit used for the conveyance of beer or wash shall be painted or colored red. 46 V., c. 15, s. 129.

135. On every cask or barrel used in a distillery, or for Casks, how keeping or delivering out any spirits, there shall, at all times, be legibly cut, branded or painted in oil colors, on one head the name of the distiller, and on the other head such marks, numbers and other information as are required by any departmental regulation in that behalf. 46 V., c. 15, s. 130.

136. The tail of every worm in every distillery shall be inclosed in a locked or sealed “safe,” or other suitable apparatus, in which the strength of the spirits and low wines flowing from the worm may be approximately ascertained by the inspection of the hydrometer or other suitable instruments contained therein:

2. Every such safe shall be constructed in such manner and secured by such means and by such mechanism as are approved by the Department of Inland Revenue:

3. From the said closed safe or apparatus all low wines, fainty and spirits, from time to time running from the end of the worm, shall be conveyed to the doubler or closed spirit-receiver, as the case may be, through suitable pipes of such metal as are required by departmental regulations, visible throughout the whole of their length, with stop cocks and other appliances so arranged that the liquid may be conveyed either to the doubler or to the receiver; but so that no portion of the liquid can be abstracted or diverted from the closed spirit-receiver or doubler without the knowledge and consent of the proper officer. 46 V., c. 15, s. 131.

137. In distilleries where the weekly production of spirits is not over six thousand gallons, two closed spirit-receivers shall be provided, each of which shall have sufficient capacity to contain at least one week’s production of spirits:

2. In distilleries where the weekly production of spirits exceeds six thousand gallons, there shall also be two closed spirit-receivers, each of which shall have sufficient capacity to contain at least one day’s production:

3. The quantities of spirits produced shall be gauged and ascertained by the officer of excise in charge of the distillery, at such intervals as are directed by his superior officer. 46 V., c. 15, s. 132.

138. The spirit which passes from the tail of the worm to the closed spirit-receiver shall not be removed from the closed spirit-receiver until the quantity and strength thereof have been ascertained by the collector of Inland Revenue or other officer, and then only with the consent and in the presence of the said collector or other proper officer. 46 V., c. 15, s. 133.

139. The closed spirit-receiver shall be a closed vessel, and all pipes, cocks or valves communicating therewith, as well as all means of access thereto, shall be securely locked or sealed, and the key or keys shall remain in the sole possession of the collector of Inland Revenue or other proper officer. 46 V., c. 15, s. 134.
140. No vessel shall be used as a closed spirit-receiver, high wine-tub, low wine-tub or doubler, in which there has been bored or made any perforation or aperture other than those necessary for its lawful use; and if, at any time, it is discovered that any perforation, aperture or hole has been made in such closed spirit-receiver, high wine-tub, low wine-tub or doubler, or that any such exists therein, although it has been stopped or plugged, the existence of such perforation, aperture or hole, plugged or unplugged, shall be evidence that it has been unlawfully made and used. 46 V., c. 15, s. 185.

141. The internal diameter of every closed spirit-receiver shall be so proportioned to the productive capacity of the distillery wherein it is placed, that the product of one day's work will measure, in the closed spirit-receiver, at least twenty-four inches in depth:

2. Around, above and below every closed spirit-receiver and every apparatus used for gauging or testing the strength of spirits, and every safe or apparatus used for inclosing or guarding the tail of the worm, and around and above every fermenting-tun, still charger, beer pump or spirit pump, there shall be sufficient space to admit of a full and careful examination of every such vessel or apparatus, with the contents thereof, and there shall be sufficient light for the purpose of such inspection:

3. The beer reservoir in every distillery shall be so placed that it and every pipe, trough, hose or conduit leading into or from it may be fully seen and examined; and no pipes, troughs, conduits or hose for the passage of any water, spirits, wash or other fluid, shall be placed near to any such beer reservoir, or so that any fluid whatever can be run into it, except with the knowledge of the officer in charge:

4. Any failure to comply with the requirements or provisions of this section, after one month's notice has been given of such default, shall be sufficient cause for cancelling any license granted to the distiller so in default; and no further license shall be granted to any person for distilling within the premises wherein such default has occurred, until all the requirements of this and the preceding sections have been fully complied with. 46 V., c. 15, s. 186.

142. In every distillery which is not working, all the worms, still-heads, closed spirit-receivers and doublers, with all pipes and cocks leading to or connecting with the same, shall be closed and locked or sealed in such manner as the collector of Inland Revenue or the inspecting officer requires or directs; and the absence from any closed spirit-receiver, still-head, worm, doubler or cock, of the locks or seals herein required, shall subject the distiller in whose distillery the default has occurred, to the same penalties as he would be liable to for working without a license: Pro-

provided, always, that whenever it becomes necessary to execute any repairs to any of the apparatus herein mentioned, the locks and seals may be removed by a proper officer of Inland Revenue, to such extent as is actually necessary for the performance of such repairs, and during the period they are actually in progress. 46 V., c. 15, s. 137.

DUTIES OF EXCISE.

192. There shall be imposed, levied and collected, the following duties of excise on all malt, which shall be paid to the collector of Inland Revenue, as by this Act provided, that is to say:—

(a.) On every pound of malt one cent,—

Except that malt made in a malt-house where malt is not made for any other purpose than for use in a distillery wherein no other material than malt is used for the production of spirits, may be removed from the malt-house to the distillery in bond, and the duty on such malt may be remitted upon proof satisfactory to the Department of Inland Revenue that such malt has been used solely for the production of spirits;

(b.) On every pound of malt imported into Canada and warehoused, when taken out of bond for consumption, an excise duty of one cent:

Malt so imported shall be warehoused in a suitable bonding warehouse provided at the cost of the importer and approved as such by a duly authorized revenue officer, and shall be bonded under the excise regulations then in force in respect of malt made in Canada, and shall be subject to the same restrictions,—and if not so warehoused immediately on importation, shall be forfeited to the Crown, and may be seized by any officer of the revenue and dealt with accordingly. 46 V., c. 15, s. 186.
193. In addition to the general provisions of this Act respecting the obligations of persons holding licenses, the provisions in the next following section contained apply to malting and malt-houses. 46 V., c. 15, s. 187.

194. Every person licensed to carry on business as a maltster shall keep a book or books in a form to be furnished, from time to time, by the Department of Inland Revenue, which book or books shall be open at all reasonable hours to the collector or other officer of Inland Revenue, wherein such maltster shall enter, day by day, and on the same day on which the circumstance, thing or act to be recorded is done or occurs,—

(a.) The quantity of grain or leguminous seeds, and of malt, brought into or removed from his malt-house;

(b.) The quantity by gauge and by weight of dry grain or leguminous seeds placed to steep or wet in any cistern or cisterns;

(c.) The quantity by gauge and (in pounds) by weight, of malt taken from the kilns; and also such other particulars relative to quantity in the various stages of its manufacture as are required by departmental regulations;

(d.) The quantity of malt warehoused and ex-warehoused. 46 V., c. 15, s. 188.

DUTIES ON MALT.

195. All grain or leguminous seeds brought into any malt-house shall be weighed and the quantity shall be stated in all books, returns and accounts kept and made under this Act, in pounds avoirdupois:

2. For comparing the several gauges of grain or leguminous seeds required by this Act, a "malt measure" is hereby established, which shall be a vessel, the capacity of which is one thousand cubic inches:

3. The quantity of grain or leguminous seeds placed in steep in any malt-house shall be stated in pounds and in malt measures:

4. All the quantities of grain or leguminous seeds in process of conversion into malt, as determined by gauging, shall, until the process of malting is completed, be stated in malt measures:

5. The quantity of malt removed from any kiln and chargeable with duty, shall be the quantity determined by gauging and weighing, and shall be stated in all books and returns made under this Act in malt measures and pounds. 46 V., c. 15, s. 189.

196. Every cistern shall be made with its interior truly cylindrical, or it shall be a rectangular vessel, having its bottom truly even and its sides perfectly straight and per-perpendicular (but the bottom may have such an incline as is necessary for drip), or it shall be of such other shape as is approved by the Governor in Council. 46 V., c. 15, s. 190.

197. Every maltster licensed under this Act shall provide a couch-frame; and such couch-frame shall be constructed with the sides and bottom straight and at right angles with each other, and of such strength that they will preserve their true form when the frame is filled with grain. 46 V., c. 15, s. 191.

198. Above and around every such cistern and couch-frame, there shall be sufficient space for conveniently gauging their contents, and they shall be so placed that there shall be sufficient light for that purpose and for examining the contents. 46 V., c. 15, s. 192.

199. The maltster shall, in all cases, when required so to do by any officer of Inland Revenue, deposit the grain in process of manufacture into malt on the malt floor, of an equal depth over the whole surface covered, and shall make the outward edges thereof in straight lines convenient for gauging, as is required by the officer aforesaid. 46 V., c. 15, s. 193.

200. No grain or leguminous seeds shall be placed in any cistern to steep or wet, nor shall any malt be placed in any kiln to be dried, nor moved from any such kiln after the drying is completed, except between the hours of eight o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon. 46 V., c. 15, s. 194.

201. Whenever any maltster is about to place any grain or leguminous seeds in the cistern, to be steeped for the making of malt, he shall first give the proper officer, when the malt-house is within a city or town, twenty-four hours' notice—or if not within a city or town, forty-eight hours' notice—of his intention to steep grain or leguminous seeds as aforesaid, stating in every such notice the day and hour at which he will place the grain or leguminous seeds in the cistern, and describing the cistern, by number or otherwise, in which it is to be placed. 46 V., c. 15, s. 195.

202. Whenever any maltster is about to place any grain or leguminous seeds, then in process of manufacture into malt, on any kiln to be dried, or when he is about to move any dried malt from any such kiln, he shall notify the proper officer of his intention so to do, in the same manner as is provided in the next preceding section; and the notices required to be given by this and the next preceding section shall be in writing, and in such form as is, from time to time, required by departmental regulations. 46 V., c. 15, s. 196.

203. Whenever any maltster requires to add water to any grain or leguminous seeds, after leaving the steep-tub, he shall record in the notice book supplied by the Department of Inland Revenue, his intention so to do, giving in each instance the number of the steep and at what stage it is to be watered. 46 V., c. 15, s. 197.

204. The duty payable on malt shall be computed as follows:—

(a.) The grain or leguminous seeds when about to be placed in steep, and before being run into the cistern, shall be weighed and gauged by or in the presence of the proper officer of Inland Revenue; such gauging of the grain or leguminous seeds may, if desired, be done in the cistern and before the grain or leguminous seeds are wetted, but the quantity in pounds shall, in all cases, be ascertained by actual weighing; and the quantity so ascertained shall be immediately entered by the maltster, or his agent, in a book or books provided for that purpose, and such person shall also attest the correctness of the entry by his signature;

(b.) The maltster or his agent shall also gauge the grain or leguminous seeds while in the cistern, after they have been wetted, and again while in the couch-frame, and also at such other periods during the manufacture as is directed by departmental regulation; and the results of such gauging shall be entered in the book provided for that purpose by the maltster or his agent, and shall be used for computing the quantity of malt manufactured, as herein provided;

(c.) The quantity of malt taken from the kiln after it has been dried, and the process of manufacture completed, shall be gauged and weighed by or in the presence of the proper officer of excise; and the quantity so ascertained shall be immediately entered in the book or books provided for that purpose, both in pounds and in malt measures, by the maltster or his agent, who shall attest every such entry by his signature;

(d) Provided that, at any time when the proper officer of Inland Revenue is not present at the time for which notice has been legally given for any of the above-mentioned operations, the maltster may proceed with the operation or operations, except the weighing of malt removed from the kiln, as if the officer was present, and shall enter the result of the gauging or weighing, or both, of such operation or operations, in the book or books provided for that purpose. 46 V., c. 15, s. 198.

205. In comparing the results of the gaugings, weighings and computations, the following proportions shall form the basis of calculation:—
(a.) One hundred malt measures by gauge of dry barley shall be held to be equivalent to one hundred and seven malt measures by gauge of dry malt:

(b.) Eighty-one and a-half malt measures by gauge of dry barley shall be held to be equivalent to one hundred malt measures (by gauge) of barley properly saturated with water for the purpose of malting; or to eighty-seven and one-fifth malt measures by gauge of dry malt:

(c.) One hundred pounds of barley or other grain weighed into the cistern shall, without any allowance for skimmings, be held to be equal to not less than seventy-five pounds of malt taken from the kiln, and so in proportion for every greater or less quantity:

(d.) The principal gauge and weight whereby the duty shall be computed, shall be that of the malt on its removal of quantity from the kiln; but whenever the quantity computed from any other gauging or weighing, or series of gaugings or weighings, is greater than the final gauge of the malt, then that computation which yields the largest quantity shall be the quantity for duty; and whenever the difference between the results of any two sets of gaugings or weighings, taken as aforesaid, exceeds seven per cent., the return of the quantity of grain placed in steep shall be deemed to have been a fraudulent return, and the maltster shall be liable to all the penalties for making fraudulent or false returns:

(e.) Malt shall be weighed when removed from the kiln, and no less quantity than the whole contents of one kiln shall be placed in the warehouse or taken for use ex-manufactory at any one time. 46 V., c. 15, s. 199.

206. If, at any time, any doubt or question arises as to the manner of determining the quantity of malt liable to duty under this Act, such doubt or question shall be decided and determined by the Minister of Inland Revenue, whose decision shall be final and conclusive. 46 V., c. 15, s. 200.

207. When a maltster licensed under this Act desires to follow a process of malting not therein provided for, and gives notice to that effect, such notice being accompanied by such plans and descriptions as the department deems necessary for fully understanding the proposed process, the Governor in Council may authorize such modes of determining the quantity of malt that shall be held to be produced from a stated quantity of grain or leguminous seeds, as—having reference to the proposed change in the process of manufacture—he deems necessary for insuring an equitable assessment of the duty. 46 V., c. 15, s. 201.

208. The duty imposed upon malt shall be finally computed and charged when it is removed from the kiln, and an account thereof shall then be entered in the stock books kept under this Act, which shall be balanced on the first day of each month for the month next preceding that day, but the duty shall be collected whenever any malt is taken from the malt-warehouse for consumption; and the duty shall, in all cases, be collected on the full quantity of malt entered on the warehouse books as having been placed in such warehouse, notwithstanding any deficiency that may arise or be discovered during its delivery or removal therefrom. 46 V., c. 15, s. 202.

209. An account shall also be kept, in such other form as is required by departmental regulation, of all malt placed in the malt-warehouse and all malt removed therefrom; and the account shall be taken and recorded, at the time of placing such malt in the malt-warehouse and at the time of removing it therefrom, in a book or books to be kept for that purpose, in such form as is required by any departmental regulation made in that behalf. 46 V., c. 15, s. 203.

SUPERVISION.

210. So soon as any malt is dried and ready for removal from the kiln, and the required notice of such removal duly given, the said malt shall be removed to the malt-warehouse and shall be there stored under the lock of the owner thereof and the lock of the department, until the duty thereon has been paid; except that any maltster may remove for use and enter for consumption ex-manufactory any portion of the products of his malt-house, not less than the contents of one kiln, which he does not intend to warehouse. 46 V.,
c. 15, s. 204.

211. Every maltster shall, at his own charge, provide a suitable warehouse for the storage of malt on which the duty has not been paid, subject to the survey of the proper officer of Inland Revenue,—which warehouse shall be included in his licensed premises, and shall, in all cases, be contiguous thereto; and every entrance to such warehouse, as well as every window or other mode of access thereto, shall be secured to the satisfaction of such surveying officer, and also to the satisfaction of the inspecting officers. 46 V.,
c. 15, s. 205.

212. Every principal entrance to the malt-warehouse shall be secured by two locks, one of which shall be supplied by the Department of Inland Revenue, and the key thereof shall be kept by the officer of Inland Revenue; the other lock shall be provided and the key thereof kept by the owner, and all other entrances shall be secured on the inside: and every such malt-warehouse shall be fitted up with such convenient bins or other compartments for storing the malt as are required by the officer of Inland Revenue, so that it may, at any time, be gauged and the quantity therein ascertained. 46 V., c. 15, s. 206.
213. Whenever any maltster ceases from working his malt-house, the kiln and all means of access thereto shall be closed and secured by lock of the department to the satisfaction of the proper officer of Inland Revenue, and the keys of such locks shall remain in the possession of the collector of Inland Revenue; and the kiln shall remain so closed and secured until the maltster gives the required notice of his intention to resume working: Provided always, that the collector of Inland Revenue may, in his discretion, remove the locks while repairs are necessarily and actually in progress, or while the kiln is being used, under departmental regulation, for the purpose of drying damaged grain. 46 V., c. 15, s. 207.

RETURNS.

214. In addition to the general provisions of this Act respecting payment of duties and time and form of returns, the provisions contained in the two sections next following apply to malting and malt-houses. 46 V., c. 15, s. 208.

215. Every person who carries on business as a maltster shall render to the collector of Inland Revenue or other officer whose duty it is to receive the same, a just and true account in writing extracted from the books kept as by this Act provided, which account shall exhibit—

(a.) The quantity of grain, malt or leguminous seeds, in pounds, brought into the malt-house during the preceding month;
(b.) The quantity of grain or leguminous seeds, in malt measures and in pounds, placed in steep or wetted or used for malting on each day during the preceding month;
(c.) The quantity of malt, in malt measures and pounds, malted or made and removed from the kiln on each day during the preceding month;

(e.) The quantity of malt, in pounds, removed from the malt-house;
(f.) The quantity of malt, in pounds, warehoused, ex-warehoused and entered for duty, ex-manufactory, during the preceding month. 46 V., c. 15, s. 209.

216. Every such statement shall be made for and relate to the month next preceding the day on which it is made. 46 V., c. 15, s. 210.

BONDING OR WAREHOUSING.

217. In addition to the general provisions of this Act respecting bonding or warehousing, the provisions contained in the two sections next following apply to malting and malt-houses. 46 V., c. 15, s. 211.
218. No less quantity than two thousand pounds of malt shall be entered for warehouse under one entry; and—

2. Except for exportation, no less quantity than two thousand pounds of malt shall be ex-warehouse for duty by one entry. 46 V., c. 15, s. 212;—48-49 V., c. 62, s. 12.

219. The duty paid on malt taken out of warehouse for consumption, or which has gone directly into consumption, shall not be refunded, by way of drawback or otherwise, upon the exportation of such malt out of Canada. 46 V., c. 15, s. 218.

222. Every person who becomes liable to the penalty provided for in the next preceding section, shall, in addition thereto, forfeit and pay for the use of Her Majesty double the amount of excise duty and license duty which should have been paid by him under this Act. 46 V., c. 15, s. 216.

223. Every person who has in his possession any malt-floor, malt-kiln, or any malting implement, machinery or apparatus, without having made a full and particular list, description, and return thereof as by this Act required, shall incur, for a first offence, a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than fifty dollars, and for each subsequent offence, a penalty of one hundred dollars; and all such implements, machinery or apparatus shall be forfeited to the Crown, and shall be seized by an officer of Inland Revenue and dealt with accordingly. 46 V., c. 15, s. 217.

manner required by this Act, or if any person receives or has any malt so removed, knowing the same to have been so removed, the maltster and person so offending shall, for a first offence, incur a penalty of two hundred dollars, and for each subsequent offence, a penalty of five hundred dolliers; and the malt so removed, together with all the grain, leguminous seeds and malt then in the malt-house from which the malt was so illegally removed, shall be forfeited to the Crown, and shall be seized by an officer of Inland Revenue and dealt with accordingly. 46 V., c. 15, s. 219.

226. Every maltster who adds water to any grain or

LICENSES.

230. In addition to the general provisions of this Act respecting licenses, the provisions contained in the two sections next following apply to bonded manufacturers. 46 V., c. 15, s. 222.

231. The Governor in Council may, in his discretion, authorize the manufacture in bond of such dutiable goods as he, from time to time, sees fit to designate, in the manufacture or production whereinof spirits or other articles subject to duties of customs or excise are used, by persons licensed to that effect, and subject to the provisions herein made and to the regulations made by the Governor in Council in that behalf. 46 V., c. 15, s. 223.

232. Before any person shall be entitled to carry on any such manufacture in bond, he shall obtain a license so to carry on the manufacture of some certain kind or kinds of goods to be mentioned in the application for license, in some certain premises to be therein described: every such license shall be known as a bonded manufacturing license, and no such license shall be granted to any person until the granting thereof has been approved by the district inspector, and authorized by the Department of Inland Revenue, nor until he has, jointly and severally with not less than two nor more than six good and sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of the collector or some superior officer of Inland Revenue, entered into a bond to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in the sum of five thousand dollars, and in a further sum equal to the amount at which the said collector or superior officer of Inland Revenue estimates the maximum amount of duties on the goods to be manufactured by such person during any one month of the time it is to remain in force; and such bond shall be entered into before the said collector or superior officer of Inland Revenue, who shall cause such sureties to justify as to their sufficiency before him, by affidavit indorsed upon such bond; and such bond shall be conditioned for the rendering of all accounts, inventories, statements and returns prescribed by law, and the payment of all duties and penalties which the person to whom the license is granted becomes liable to render or pay under the provisions of this Act, and that such person will faithfully comply with the requirements thereof, according to their true intent and meaning, as well with regard to such accounts, inventories, statements, returns, duties and penalties, as to all other matters and things whatsoever:

Every application to manufacture in bond shall contain a description of all the articles to be used in the manufactory and of the articles to be produced therein, stating the quantity of each of the said articles, respectively, to be used in the production of a stated quantity of the manufactured article to be produced therefrom; and whenever the proportions stated, as herein required, are such as to make an evasion of duty or loss of revenue on any of the said articles possible (of which the Department of Inland Revenue shall judge), the license asked for shall be refused:

3. The person in whose favor a license for manufacturing in bond, for consumption in Canada only, is granted, shall, upon receiving such license, pay to the collector of Inland Revenue the sum of fifty dollars:

DUTIES OF EXCISE.

234. There shall be imposed, levied and collected on goods manufactured in bond within Canada, the following duties of excise, which shall be paid to the collector of Inland Revenue, as by this Act provided, that is to say:—

All goods manufactured in bond shall, if taken out of bond for consumption in Canada, be subject to duties of excise equal to the duties of customs to which they would be subject if imported from the United Kingdom and entered for consumption in Canada; and whenever any article not the produce of Canada, upon which the duty of excise would be levied if produced in Canada, is taken into a bonded manufactory, the difference between the duty of excise to which it would be so liable, and the customs duty which would be levied on such article, if so imported and entered for consumption, shall be paid as a duty of excise when it is taken into the bonded manufactory; but in the case of spirits to be used for any chemical or manufacturing purpose only, the foregoing provisions of this section may be varied, in whole or in part, by the Governor in Council, provided that no increase of duties shall accrue therefrom:

Provided always, that the undermentioned articles, when manufactured in bond, shall, when entered for consumption in Canada, be subject to the following duties of excise, and to no other, that is to say—

Vinegar containing six per cent. of acetic acid, the strength to be determined by tests as are established by Order in Council, and so in proportion for any greater or less strength—on every gallon or less quantity than a gallon, four cents;

Methylated spirits, being composed of alcohol mixed with wood naphtha in such proportions and subject to such regulations as are made by the Department of Inland Revenue, and spirits used in any bonded manufactory in the production of ether and of such other chemical compositions as are determined by the Governor in Council—for every gallon of the strength of proof, by Sikes' hydrometer, and so in proportion for any greater or less strength, and for any less quantity than a gallon—fifteen cents;—49 V., c. 39, s. 8.

236. Every person carrying on business as a bonded manufacturer, shall render to the collector of Inland Revenue or other officer whose duty it is to receive the same, a just and true account, in writing, extracted from the books kept as by this Act provided, which account shall exhibit—

(a.) The quantity of each description of article or commodity brought into the manufactory, to which the account relates, during the preceding month;

(b.) The quantity of each description of article or commodity used in the production of the manufactured articles made in the manufactory during the preceding month;

(c.) The quantity of each description of article or commodity removed from the manufactory, or disposed of otherwise than for the production of the articles therein manufactured or made, during the preceding month;

(d.) The quantity of each description of manufactured article or commodity made or produced on each day during the preceding month, except so far as it may be dispensed with by departmental regulations;

(e.) The quantity of manufactured product removed from the manufactory;

(f.) The quantity entered for warehouse; and—

(g.) The quantity ex-warehoused and the quantity entered for duty, ex-manufactory. 46 V., c. 15, s. 228.

DRAWBACK AND IMPORTATION OF MATERIAL IN BOND.

238. Every person who manufactures any goods in bond under a license granted under this Act, and who exports any of the goods so manufactured by him, in the production whereof any article has been used upon which duties of customs or excise have been paid by him, shall, upon the payment of due proof of such use and payment of duty, be entitled to receive a drawback equal to the duties paid on the articles used in the production of the goods exported; and the amount of such drawback shall be determined in such manner, and the proof of the payment of the duty and export of the goods for which the drawback is claimed shall be of such nature, as are directed or required by any departmental regulation in that behalf. 46 V., c. 15, s. 230.

239. Every person licensed to manufacture in bond may receive into the place for which his license is granted, as into a bonded warehouse, and, except as is herein otherwise provided, without payment of the duty thereon, all such spirits and other articles as are commonly used in the manufacture of the goods for which the license is granted, on a permit for that purpose granted by the collector of Inland Revenue, in such form, and on such bond being entered into, and on such conditions as are prescribed in any Order in Council or departmental regulation in that behalf; but no less quantity of such spirits or other articles shall be so received at any one time than might be taken out of bond for consumption. 46 V., c. 15, s. 231.

SUPERVISION.

240. Except in the case of methylated spirits, goods manufactured in bond shall remain in the place for which the license was granted, in like manner and subject to the like restrictions and to the supervision of the officers of Inland Revenue, as by law provided with respect to other goods manufactured in Canada and subject to excise—and the duty thereon shall be paid in like manner within six days of the close of every month, unless such goods are then exported or warehoused, as they may be, in the manner provided with respect to other goods subject to excise. 46 V., c. 15, s. 232.

241. On the first day of each of the months of October, January, April and July, the inspector of Inland Revenue shall cause to be taken an accurate account of the quantity of each of the articles entered for use in the bonded manufactories under his survey, then in stock, as well as the quantity in process of manufacture; and whenever it appears to his satisfaction—

(a.) That the articles made in any bonded manufactory have been made in conformity with the law;

(b.) That the conditions of the license have been complied with as to the proportion of each article used and produced;

and—

(c.) That the quantities of the several articles then on hand, together with the quantities lawfully taken for use in the manufacturing of the articles for which the license is granted, truly represent the whole quantity of the articles entered into the manufactory, as shown by the returns made and accounts kept in accordance with the law and the regulations made in that behalf—

The collector shall certify the quantity of each article so taken for use, and the account, with the manufacturer's bond, shall be credited with the quantities so certified; but—

2. The Postmaster General may, whenever the same is proper for the accommodation of the public in any city or town, employ letter carriers for the delivery of letters received at the post office in such city or town and for the receipt of letters at such places in such city or town as the Postmaster General directs, and for the deposit of the same in the post office; but letters shall not be so delivered whenever the person to whom they are addressed has requested the postmaster, in writing, to retain them in the post office. 38 V., c. 7, s. 33, part.

38. The person to whom any letter is delivered by a carrier from the post office shall pay for the delivery a sum not exceeding two cents for each letter, and for the delivery of each newspaper and pamphlet one cent,—all of which receipts, by the carriers in any city or town, shall be accounted for to the Postmaster General. 38 V., c. 7, s. 33, part.

39. Each of such carriers shall give a bond, with sureties approved by the Postmaster General, for the safe custody and delivery of all letters, and for the due account and payment of all moneys received by him. 38 V., c. 7, s. 33, part.
Provision for delivery of letters in cities free.

40. The Postmaster General may, with the consent of the Governor in Council, establish in any city, when he deems it expedient, a system of free delivery by letter carrier of letters brought by mail, and he may direct that, from the time that such system is so established, no charge shall be made for the delivery of such letters by letter carriers in such city; and such system of free delivery, when established in any city, shall be subject to such regulations as the Postmaster General, from time to time, sees fit to make. 38 V., c. 7, s. 34.

Parcel post.

41. The Postmaster General may establish and maintain a parcel post; and closed parcels, other than letters and not containing letters, may be sent by such parcel post; and when so sent shall be liable to such charges for conveyance and to such regulations as the Postmaster General, from time to time, sees fit to make. 38 V., c. 7, s. 35.

Franking and free mail matter.

42. All letters and other mailable matter addressed to or sent by the Governor General—or sent to or by any department of the Government at the seat of Government,—shall be free of Canada postage under such regulations as are, from time to time, made in that respect by the Governor in Council:

1. Letters and other mailable matter addressed to or sent by the Speaker or Clerk of the Senate or of the House of Commons at the seat of Government shall be free of Canada postage, and letters and other mailable matter addressed to or by any member of either House at the seat of Government, during any session of Parliament, or to any of the members at the seat of Government as aforesaid, during the ten days next before the meeting of Parliament, shall be free of Canada postage:

3. All books belonging to the library of Parliament may be sent from the same to any member of either House or from any such member addressed to the librarian, during the recess of Parliament, and free of Canada postage in either case:

4. The privilege of free transmission as above given in this section shall apply only to mail matter passing between the seat of Government and places in Canada:

5. Members of either the Senate or the House of Commons may, during the recess of Parliament, send by mail, free of Canada postage, all papers printed by order of either House; and members of the Legislature of any one of the Provinces of Canada may, in like manner, send by mail, free of Canada postage, all papers printed by order of such Legislature:

relating solely to the business of the post office, and addressed to or sent by some officer thereof, shall be free from Canada postage:

7. Petitions and addresses to the Provincial Legislatures of any of the Provinces of Canada, or to any branch thereof, and also votes and proceedings and other papers printed by order of any such Legislatures or any branch thereof, may be sent free of Canada postage under such regulations as the Postmaster General prescribes. 38 V., c. 7, s. 86.

PROPERTY IN POST LETTERS, AND OTHER MAILABLE MATTER.

43. From the time any letter, packet, chattel, money or thing is deposited in the post office for the purpose of being sent by post, it shall cease to be the property of the sender, and shall be the property of the person to whom it is addressed or the legal representatives of such person: and the Postmaster General shall not be liable to any person for the loss of any letter, packet or other thing sent by post:

2. No letter, packet or other mailable matter shall, whilst in the post office or in the custody of any person employed in the Canada Post Office, be liable to demand, seizure or detention, under legal process against the sender thereof, or against the person or legal representatives of the person to whom it is addressed. 38 V., c. 7, s. 87.

DEAD LETTERS.

44. Letters or other articles which, from any cause, remain undelivered in any post office, or which, having been posted, cannot be forwarded by post, shall, under such regulations as the Postmaster General makes, be transmitted by postmasters to the Post Office Department as dead letters, there to be opened and returned to the writers or senders on payment of any postage due thereon with three cents additional on each dead letter to defray the cost of returning the same, less, in the case of insufficiently prepaid letters or other mailable matter posted in Canada, such amount of postage as has been prepaid on the same; or such dead letters may, in any case or class of cases, be otherwise disposed of as the Postmaster General directs:

2. If any such dead letter, of which the writer or sender containing money cannot be ascertained or found, contains money, the Postmaster General may appropriate it as postal revenue, keeping an account thereof; and the amount shall be paid by the Postmaster General to the rightful claimant as soon as he is found. 38 V., c. 7, s. 88.

LETTERS CONTAINING CONTRABAND GOODS.

45. The Postmaster General, or any postmaster by him to that effect duly authorized, may detain any post letter or other article of mail matter suspected to contain any contraband goods, wares or merchandise, or any goods, wares or merchandise on the importation of which into Canada any duties of customs are by law payable, and suspected to have been enclosed therein and sent by post to evade payment of such duties, and forward the same to the nearest collector of Customs, who, in the presence of the person to whom the same is addressed, or in his absence, in case of non-attendance after due notice in writing from such collector requiring his attendance, left at or forwarded by the post according to the address on the letter or other article of mail matter, may open and examine the same:

2. If, on any such examination, any contraband goods wares or merchandise, or any goods, wares or merchandise on the importation of which into Canada any duties of customs are payable are discovered, such collector may detain the letter or other article of mail matter and its contents for the purpose of prosecution; and if no contraband goods, wares or merchandise, or any goods, wares or merchandise on the importation of which into Canada any duties of customs are by law payable, are discovered in such letter or other article of mail matter, it shall, if the person to whom it is addressed is present, be handed over to him on his paying the postage, if any, charged thereon, or if he is not present, it shall be returned to the post office and be forwarded to the place of its address. 38 V., c. 7, s. 39.

TOLLS AND FERRIES.

46. No mail stage, or other winter or summer vehicle carrying a mail, shall be exempted from tolls or dues on any road or bridge in Canada, unless, in the Act or charter authorizing such road or bridge, it is specially so provided:

2. Every ferryman shall, upon request and without delay, convey over his ferry any courier or other person travelling with the mail, and the carriage and horse or horses employed in carrying the same; and the sum to be paid for such service shall be fixed by contract; or if any ferryman demands more than the post office authorities or the contractor for carrying the mail are willing to pay, the amount to be paid shall be fixed by arbitrators,—each party naming an arbitrator, and the two arbitrators naming a third; and the decision of any two of such arbitrators shall be binding:

3. No toll-gate keeper or ferryman shall detain or delay a mail on pretence of demanding toll or ferriage, but the same, if due and not paid, shall be recoverable in the usual course of law from the person liable. 38 V., c. 7, s. 40.

UNITED STATES MAILS PASSING THROUGH CANADA.

47. The Postmaster General may, from time to time, with the approval of the Governor in Council, make any arrangement which he deems just and expedient for allowing the mails of the United States to be carried or transported through any portion of Canada, from any one point in the territory of the said United States to any other point in the same territory, upon obtaining the like privilege for the transportation of the mails of Canada through the United States when required; and whenever the Postmaster General shall have undertaken or agreed to provide for the carriage or transportation of the mails of the United States through any portion of Canada, such mails, when so carried or transported or required by the Postmaster General to be so carried or transported over any Canadian railway, shall, for all the purposes of the sixty-fourth section of this Act, be deemed to be Her Majesty's mails. 38 V., c. 7, s. 41;—41 V., c. 2, s. 2.

48. Every United States mail so carried or transported as last aforesaid shall, while in Canada, be deemed and taken to be a mail of Her Majesty, so far as to make any violation thereof, any depredation thereon, or any act or offence in respect thereto or to any part thereof, which would be punishable under the existing laws of Canada if the same was a Canada mail or part of a Canada mail, an offence of the same degree and magnitude and punishable in the same manner and to the same extent as if the same was a Canada mail or part of a Canada mail; and in any indictment for such act or offence, such mail or part of a mail may be alleged to be, and on the trial of such indictment shall be held to be a Canada mail or part of a Canada mail; and in any indictment for stealing, embezzling, secreting or destroying any post letter, post letter-bag, packet, chattel, money or valuable security sent by post through and by any of the said United States mails as aforesaid, in the indictment preferred against the offender, the property of such post letter, post letter-bag, packet, chattel, money or valuable security sent by post as herein mentioned, may be laid in the Postmaster General,—and it shall not be necessary to allege in the indictment, or to prove upon the trial or otherwise, that the post letter, post letter-bag, packet, chattel or valuable security was of value. 38 V., c. 7, s. 42.

POSTMasters.

49. The Governor in Council may appoint all postmasters having permanent salaries in cities and towns; and all other postmasters may be appointed by the Postmaster General:

2. The Postmaster General shall, upon the appointment of any postmaster, require and take of such postmaster a bond, with good and approved sureties, in such penalty as he deems sufficient, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all the duties of such postmaster required by law, or which are required by any instruction or regulation or general rule for the government of the post office:
3. When any surety of a postmaster notifies to the Postmaster General his desire to be released from his suretyship, or when the Postmaster General deems it necessary, he may require such postmaster to execute a new bond, with sureties—which bond, when accepted by the Postmaster General, shall be as valid as the bond given upon the original appointment of the postmaster; and the sureties in the prior bond shall be released from responsibility for all acts or defaults of the postmaster done or committed subsequent to the acceptance of the new bond,—and the date of the acceptance shall be duly indorsed on such prior bond:

4. Payments made by such postmaster subsequent to the acceptance of a new bond, shall be applied first to the discharge of any balance due by him at the time of such acceptance, unless the Postmaster General otherwise directs:

5. No suit shall be instituted against any surety of a postmaster after the lapse of two years from the death, resignation or removal from office of such postmaster, or from the date of the acceptance of a new bond from such postmaster. 38 V., c. 7, ss. 9, 10, part, and s. 43.

50. The Postmaster General may appoint the periods at which each postmaster or person authorized to receive postage, or any class or number of postmasters or persons respectively, shall render his or their accounts, and the form and manner in which such accounts shall be kept and rendered: and if any postmaster or any such person neglects or refuses to render his accounts, and to pay over to the Postmaster General the balance due by him at the end of any such period, the Postmaster General may cause a suit to be commenced against the person so neglecting or refusing. 38 V., c. 7, s. 44.

51. If any postmaster neglects to render his accounts for one month after the time or in the form and manner prescribed by the Postmaster General's instructions and regulations, he shall forfeit double the value of the postages which have arisen at the same office in any equal portion of time previous or subsequent thereto, which shall be recoverable by the Postmaster General in an action of debt on the bond against the postmaster and his sureties, and for which the sureties shall be liable. 38 V., c. 7, s. 45.

52. No postmaster shall, under any pretence whatsoever, have or receive or retain for himself any greater or other allowance or emolument of any kind, in respect of his office, than the amount of his salary and allowances as fixed and authorized by law or by the Postmaster General. 38 V., c. 7, s. 46.
53. Postmasters whose salaries are not fixed by law may be paid by a percentage on the amount collected by them, or by such salary and allowances as the Postmaster General, having due regard to the duties and responsibilities assigned in respect to each post office, by regulation determines in each case. 38 V., c. 7, s. 47.

MAIL CONTRACTS AND CONTRACTORS.

54. The Postmaster General, before entering into any contract for carrying the mail involving an annual cost of more than two hundred dollars, shall give at least six weeks' previous notice by advertisement in such newspaper or newspapers as he selects in each case, and by public notices put up in the principal post offices concerned in such contract—that such contract is intended to be made, and of the day on which tenders for the same will be, by him, received:

2. The contracts, in all cases in which there is more than one tender, shall be awarded to the lowest tenderer who offers sufficient security for the faithful performance of the contract, unless the Postmaster General is satisfied that it is for the interest of the public not to accept the lowest tender:

3. The Postmaster General shall not be bound to consider the tender of any person who has willfully or negligently failed to execute or perform a prior contract; but in all cases where he does not give the contract to the lowest tenderer, he shall report his reasons therefor to the Governor General for the information of Parliament. 38 V., c. 7, s. 48.

55. When, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, the lowest tender received after public advertisement for the performance of a mail contract is excessive, he shall not be compelled to accept the said tender, but may, in his discretion, either re-advertise the said contract for further competition, or offer to the persons from whom tenders have been received, each in his turn, beginning with the lowest, such sum as he deems a reasonable and sufficient price for the said contract, and may enter into a contract with such of the said persons as will accept such offer. 38 V., c. 7, s. 49.

56. The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, authorize and allow a postmaster to undertake and perform a contract for the transportation of a mail, subject to the regulations applying to all mail contracts, when, in his opinion, the interests of the public service will be thereby promoted. 38 V., c. 7, s. 50.

57. Every tender for carrying the mail shall be accompanied by an undertaking, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the tenderer will, if his tender is accepted, enter into an obligation, within such time as is prescribed by the Postmaster General, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed:

2. If, after the acceptance of a tender and notification thereof to the tenderer, he fails to enter into an obligation within the time prescribed by the Postmaster General, with good and sufficient sureties for the performance of the service, the Postmaster General shall proceed to contract with some other person for the performance of the said service, and may forthwith cause the difference between the amount contained in the tender and the amount for which he has contracted for the performance of the said service, for the whole period thereof, to be charged up against the said tenderer and his surety or sureties; and the same may be immediately recovered in an action of debt, in the name of the Postmaster General, against the tenderer and his sureties, or any of them, and when recovered shall form part of the postal revenue. 38 V., c. 7, s. 51.

58. The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, submit contracts for mail transportation, involving an annual expense of less than two hundred dollars, to public competition in the manner and form prescribed for contracts of a greater annual charge,—or he may direct an agent to receive tenders for and execute such contracts on his behalf,—or he may, in special cases, conclude such contracts by private agreement when he conceives the public interest will be promoted by such a course; but he shall not pay under any such contract made by private agreement, a higher rate of annual payment for the services to be performed than is ordinarily paid for services of a like nature under contracts made after public advertisement. 38 V., c. 7, s. 52.

59. No contract for carrying the mail shall knowingly be made by the Postmaster General with any person who has entered into any combination, or proposed to enter into any combination, to prevent the making of any tender for a mail contract by any other person, or who has made any agreement, or has given or performed or promised to give or perform any consideration whatever, or to do or not to do anything whatever, in order to induce any other person not to tender for a mail contract. 38 V., c. 7, s. 53.

60. The Postmaster General may, with or without previous advertisement, contract with any railway or steamboat company for conveying the mail; but no contract involving the payment of a larger sum than one thousand dollars shall be entered into without the approval of the Governor in Council. 38 V., c. 7, s. 54.

61. The Postmaster General shall keep recorded, in a well bound book, a true and faithful abstract of tenders made to him for carrying the mail, embracing as well those which are rejected as those which are accepted; the said abstract shall contain a description of each contract advertised for public competition, the dates of the tenders made, the dates at which they were received by the Postmaster General, the names of the persons tendering, the terms on which they propose to carry the mail, the sum for which it is offered to contract, and the length of time the agreement will continue; and the Postmaster General shall also put on file and preserve the originals of the propositions of which abstracts are here directed to be made:

2. No contract shall be entered into for a longer term than four years; but the Postmaster General may, in special cases, when in his opinion the service has been satisfactorily performed under an expiring contract, and on conditions advantageous to the public interest, renew the same with the same contractor for a further term not exceeding four years. 38 V., c. 7, s. 55.

62. The Postmaster General may make temporary contracts for such services until a regular letting in the form prescribed can take place. 38 V., c. 7, s. 56.

63. No additional compensation shall be made to any mail contractor so as to make the compensation for additional regular service exceed the exact proportion which the original compensation bears to the original service stipulated to be performed: and no extra allowance shall be made by the Postmaster General to any contractor for an increase of expedition in the transportation of the mail, unless the employment of additional stock or carriers by the contractor is thereby rendered necessary; and in such case, the additional compensation shall never bear a greater proportion to the additional stock or carriers rendered necessary than the sum stipulated in the original contract bears to the stock and carriers necessarily employed in its execution. 38 V., c. 7, s. 57.

64. Her Majesty's mail and persons travelling therewith on postal service, shall, at all times when thereunto required by the Postmaster General, be carried on any railway in Canada, and with the whole resources of the railway company if required, on such terms and conditions and under such regulations as are made by the Governor in Council. 38 V., c. 7, s. 58.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

65. The Postmaster General may, with the consent of the Governor in Council, establish a system of Post Office Savings Banks in connection with a central savings bank, established as a branch of the Post Office Department at the seat of Government. 38 V., c. 7, s. 59.
The Postmaster General may, with the consent of the Governor in Council, authorize and direct such postmasters as he thinks fit, to receive deposits for remittance to the central office, and to repay the same, under such regulations as he, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, prescribes in that respect. 38 V., c. 7, s. 60.

Every deposit received by any postmaster appointed for that purpose shall be entered by him at the time in the depositor's book, and the entry shall be attested by him and by the dated stamp of his office; and the amount of such deposit shall, upon the day of such receipt, be reported by such postmaster to the Postmaster General, and the acknowledgment of the Postmaster General, signified by the officer whom he appoints for the purpose, shall be forthwith transmitted to the depositor:

2. Such acknowledgment shall be conclusive evidence of the claim of the depositor to the repayment of the deposit, with the interest thereon, upon demand made by him on the Postmaster General; and, in order to allow a reasonable time for the receipt of the acknowledgment, the entry by the proper officer in the depositor's book shall also be conclusive evidence of the title, as respects a deposit made in any part of Canada other than the Province of British Columbia or the North-West Territories, for ten days from the making of the deposit, and as respects a deposit made in the Province of British Columbia or the North-West Territories for eighteen days from the making of the deposit; and if such acknowledgment has not been received by the depositor through the post within such ten or such eighteen days respectively, and before or upon the expiry thereof he demands such acknowledgment from the Postmaster General, by letter addressed to him at Ottawa, then the entry in his book shall be conclusive evidence of title during another term of ten or eighteen days respectively, and toties quoties:

3. No deposit shall be received of less amount than one dollar, or of any sum not a multiple thereof. 49 V., c. 21, s. 1, part.

No sum of money deposited under this Act, shall, while in the hands of any postmaster or while in course of transmission to or from the Postmaster General, at any time be liable to demand, seizure or detention, under legal process against the depositor thereof. 49 V., c. 21, s. 1, part.

On demand of the depositor, or person legally authorized to claim on account of the depositor, made in such form as is prescribed in that behalf for repayment of any deposit or any part thereof, the authority of the Postmaster General for such repayment shall be transmitted to the depositor forthwith, and the depositor shall be entitled to repayment of any sum that is due to him with the least possible delay.
after his demand is made at any post office where deposits are received or paid. 38 V., c. 7, s. 62.

70. The postmasters and other officers of the post office engaged in the receipt or payment of deposits shall not disclose the name of any depositor or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying into operation the provisions of this Act in relation to post office savings banks. 38 V., c. 7, s. 63.

71. All moneys so deposited with the Postmaster General shall forthwith be paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall be credited to an account called "Post Office Savings Bank Account;" and all sums withdrawn by depositors, or by persons legally authorized to claim on account of depositors, shall be repaid to them by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, through the Post Office Department, and charged to such account. 38 V., c. 7, s. 64.

72. The interest payable to the persons making such deposits shall be at the rate of four per centum per annum; but such interest shall not be calculated on any amount less than one dollar or some multiple thereof, and shall not commence until the first day of the month next following the day of deposit, and shall cease on the first day of the month in which such deposit is withdrawn. 38 V., c. 7, s. 65.

73. On the thirtieth day of June in every year the interest on deposits shall be added to and become part of the principal money. 38 V., c. 7, s. 66.

74. The Postmaster General may, with the consent of the Governor in Council, whenever it is deemed expedient, issue certificates of deposit in sums of not less than one hundred dollars, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, to depositors who, having like sums at the credit of their ordinary deposit accounts, desire to transfer such sums from such ordinary deposit accounts to a special deposit account represented by such certificates, and bearing the rate of interest specified therein; and such certificate shall not be transferable, but shall be evidence of the depositor's claim upon such special deposit account to the amount expressed in such certificate, with the interest due thereon, and shall be redeemable upon such previous notice as is expressed therein, and in all respects subject to such regulations as are made by the Postmaster General, with the sanction of the Governor in Council. 38 V., c. 7, s. 67.
75. Except as is herein otherwise specially provided the Postmaster General may make and, from time to time as he sees occasion, alter regulations for superintending, inspecting and regulating the mode of keeping and examining the accounts of depositors, and with respect to the making of deposits and to the withdrawal of deposits and interest, and all other matters incidental to carrying the provisions of this Act, in relation to post office savings banks, into execution by him; and all regulations so made shall be binding on the persons interested in the subject matter thereof to the same extent as if such regulations formed part of this Act; and copies of all regulations issued under the authority of this Act, in relation to post office savings banks, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days from the date thereof, if Parliament is then sitting, and if not, then within fourteen days from the next re-assembling of Parliament. 38 V., c. 7, s. 68.

76. As soon as possible after the end of each month, the Postmaster General shall make a return to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General of all moneys received and paid during the preceding month, and of the total amount in deposit at the end of each month, and the said Minister shall cause such monthly statement to be published in the Canada Gazette. 38 V., c. 7, s. 69.

77. An annual account of all deposits received and paid under the authority of this Act, and of the expenses incurred during the year ending the thirtieth of June, together with a statement of the total amount due at the close of the year to all depositors, shall be laid by the Postmaster General before both Houses of Parliament within ten days after the commencement of the next following session thereof. 38 V., c. 7, s. 70.

POSTMASTER GENERAL'S REPORTS.

Every indictable offence against this Act may be dealt with, inquired of, tried and punished, and laid and charged to have been committed, either in the district or county or place where the offence is committed, or in that in which the offender is apprehended or is in custody, as if actually committed therein:

2. When the offence is committed in or upon or in respect of a mail, or upon a person engaged in the conveyance of-mail, in cases of offences committed in respect of such mail, or upon such person engaged in the conveyance of-mail.
or delivery of a post letter bag, or post letter, or chattel or money or valuable security sent by post, such offence may be dealt with and inquired of, tried and punished and charged to have been committed as well within the district, county or place in which the offender is apprehended or is in custody, as in any district, county or place through any part whereof such mail, person, post letter bag, post letter, chattel, money or valuable security passed in the course of conveyance and delivery by the post, in the same manner as if it had been actually committed in such district, county or place:

3. Whenever the side or centre or other part of a highway, or the side, bank, centre or other part of a river or canal, or navigable water, constitutes the boundary between two districts, counties or places, to pass along the same shall be held to be passing through both:

4. Every accessory before or after the fact, if the offence is felony,—and every person aiding or abetting or counselling or procuring the commission of any offence if the same is a misdemeanor, may be dealt with, indicted, tried and punished as if he were a principal, and his offence may be laid and charged to have been committed in any district, county or place where the principal offender may be tried. 38 V., c. 7, s. 75, part. and s. 79.

III. When an offence is committed in respect of a post letter bag, or a post letter, or other mailable matter, chattel, money or a valuable security, sent by post, the property of such post letter bag, post letter, or other mailable matter, chattel, money or valuable security, sent by post, may in the indictment preferred against the offender, be laid in the Postmaster General; and it shall not be necessary to allege in the indictment, or to prove upon the trial or otherwise, that the post letter bag, post letter, or other mailable matter, chattel or valuable security was of any value:

2. The property of any chattel or thing used or employed in the service of the post office, or of moneys arising from duties of postage, shall, except in the cases aforesaid, be laid in Her Majesty, if the same is the property of Her Majesty, or if the loss thereof would be borne by Her Majesty, and not by any person in his private capacity:

3. In any indictment against any person employed in the Post Office of Canada for any offence against this Act, or in any indictment against any person for an offence committed in respect of any person so employed, it shall be sufficient to allege that such offender or such other person as aforesaid, was employed in the Post Office of Canada at the time of the commission of such offence, without stating further the nature or particulars of his employment. 38 V., c. 7, s. 80.

The Postmaster General (subject to the approval of the Governor in Council) may compromise and compound any action, suit or information at any time commenced by his authority, or under his control, against any person for recovering any pecuniary penalty incurred under this Act, on such terms and conditions as he, in his discretion, thinks proper,—with full power to him or any of the officers or persons acting under his orders, to accept the penalty so incurred or alleged to be incurred, or any part thereof, without action, suit or information brought or commenced for the recovery thereof. 38 V., c. 7, s. 81.

113. Every pecuniary penalty imposed by this Act, or by any regulation of the Postmaster General made under it, shall be recoverable with costs by the Postmaster General, by civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall belong to Her Majesty for the public uses of Canada, saving always the power of the Governor in Council to allow any part or the whole of such penalty to the officer or person by whose information or intervention the same was recovered; but no such penalty shall be sued for except within one year after it is incurred:

2. If the penalty does not exceed forty dollars it shall be recoverable before any one justice of the peace in a summary manner, and if not paid, may be levied by distress under warrant of such justice; and if the penalty exceeds forty dollars, the offender may be indicted for a misdemeanor for violating the provisions of this Act, or the regulations made under it, instead of being sued for such penalty, and if convicted, shall be punishable by fine or imprisonment or both, in the discretion of the court. 38 V., c. 7, s. 82.

114. In any action or proceeding for the recovery of postage, or of any penalty under this Act, the same may be recovered on the evidence of any one credible witness, and any postmaster or other officer or servant of the Post Office of Canada shall be a competent witness, although he is entitled to or entertains reasonable expectation of receiving some portion or the whole of the sum to be recovered; and the burden of proof that any thing proved to have been done by the defendant was done in conformity to or without violation of this Act, shall lie upon the defendant. 38 V., c. 7, s. 83.

115. In any action, suit or proceeding against any postmaster or other officer of the Post Office of Canada, or his sureties, for the recovery of any sum of money alleged to be due to the Crown as the balance remaining unpaid of moneys received by such postmaster or officer by virtue of his office, a statement of the account of such postmaster or officer showing such balance, and attested as correct by the certificate and signature of the accountant of the Post Office of Canada, or of the officer then doing the duties of such accountant, shall be evidence that such amount is so due and unpaid as aforesaid; and in every such suit judgment shall be rendered for double the amount appearing by such account to be so due to the Crown by the defendant; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the provisions of "The Consolidated Revenue and Audit Act" from applying to such postmaster or officer. 38 V., c. 7, s. 84.

116. All suits, proceedings, contracts and official acts brought, had, entered into or done by the Postmaster General, shall be brought, had, entered into or done in and by his name of office, and may be continued, enforced and completed by his successor in office as fully and effectually as by himself; and no appointment or authority of any Postmaster General of Canada, or of any postmaster, officer or servant of the Post Office of Canada, shall be liable to be traversed or called in question, in any case, except by those who act for the Crown:

2. All suits for the recovery of debts or balances due to Her Majesty in respect to the postal service, whether they appear by bond or obligation made in the name of the existing or any preceding Postmaster General, or otherwise, may be instituted in the name of "The Postmaster General." 38 V., c. 7, s. 85.

SECURITY BY OFFICERS.

117. Any bond or instrument of guarantee given and executed to Her Majesty, by any person or body corporate, as security for the due performance of the duties of his office, by any officer, employee, clerk or servant employed by or under the Postmaster General, may be expressed to extend to and include as a breach of the conditions thereof, any theft, larceny, robbery, embezzlement, loss or destruction by such officer, employee, clerk or servant, or through his malfeasance, misfeasance or neglect of duty, of any money, goods, chattels, valuables or effects, or of any letter or parcel containing the same, which may come into his custody or possession as such officer, employee, clerk or servant, and although the same does not belong to the Crown and the Postmaster General is not liable for the loss thereof; and Her Majesty may, upon such bond or instrument of guarantee, proceed for, demand and recover the amount or value of any such money, goods, chattels, valuables or effects not otherwise recovered by or for the persons entitled to the same, to the amount of the penalty stipulated in such bond or instrument; and upon the recovery and receipt of the same the Postmaster General shall apportion and pay the same to such person or amongst such persons as he determines to be the owner of or otherwise entitled to receive any such money, goods, chattels, valuables or effects, or the equivalent or value thereof: but nothing herein contained shall create any liability on the part of Her Majesty or the Postmaster General, to any person whomsoever, to indemnify or hold harmless, pay or reimburse such person for the loss of any such money, goods, chattels, valuables or effects, except as herein expressly provided. 38 V., c. 7, s. 78.

PROTECTION OF OFFICERS.

118. All provisions of "The Customs Act," and more especially the provisions for protecting officers and others employed in collecting duties or in preventing the evasion of the laws imposing duties, when in the performance of the duties of their office, or in respect of suits or proceedings against them for things done or alleged to be done in pursuance of any law, shall extend and apply in like manner to officers and persons employed in or under the Post Office of Canada, and to suits or proceedings against them for things done or alleged to be done under this Act. 38 V., c. 7, s. 86.

2. Such Order in Council may contain any conditions, clauses and limitations agreed upon, which, as well as all the provisions of such Order in Council, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act and do not purport to grant any right or power not immediately before the making of such Order in Council vested in the Crown or in the Governor in Council, or in some officer or department of the Government, have force and shall be obeyed as if they had been contained in this Act and had formed part thereof:

3. Any such Order in Council may, with the consent of the grantee, be revoked or amended by any subsequent Order in Council, and the consent of the grantee thereto shall be presumed unless disputed by such grantee, and, if disputed, may be proved by any copy of such Order in Council, on which the consent of the grantee thereto is written and attested by such signature or seal, or both, as would be sufficient to make any deed or agreement the deed or agreement of such grantee. 31 V., c. 12, s. 55.

19. The provisions and conditions of any Order in Council made under this Act may extend—to the mode of adjusting and determining any difference arising between the Crown and any municipal corporation, local authority or company, as to their respective rights under the same,—or to the reservation of the right of re-entry by the Crown into possession of any public work on the default of such corporation, authority or company to perform the conditions agreed upon,—and to the vesting in any sheriff power to give possession of such public work to any public officer for the Crown, on any warrant, under the hand and seal of the Governor General, addressed to such sheriff, reciting such default and commanding him to give possession to such officer for the Crown as aforesaid: 31 V., c. 12, s. 56.

Enactments may be made for enforcing conditions.

21. The Governor in Council may impose and authorize the collection of tolls and dues upon any public work vested in Her Majesty, and under the control or management of the Minister, and may, from time to time, in like manner, alter and change such tolls or dues, and may declare the exemptions therefrom; and all such tolls and dues shall be payable in advance and before the right to the use of the public work in respect of which they are incurred accrues, if so demanded by the collector thereof:

2. All tolls and dues imposed under this Act shall be recoverable, with costs, in any court of competent jurisdiction, by the collector or person appointed to receive the same, in his own name, or in the name of Her Majesty, and by any form of proceeding by which debts to the Crown are recoverable:

carriage or vehicle, and the goods contained therein, to liable for tolls, whomsoever the same belong, shall be liable for any tolls, dues or penalties imposed and levied under this Act, and they, or any of them, may be seized, detained and sold in the same manner as the steamboat, vessel, raft, crib or other craft, carriage or vehicle in which they are or to which they are attached, as if they belonged to the person violating any such regulation, saving the recourse of the real owner thereof against such person who is deemed the owner for the purposes of this Act. 31 V., c. 12, s. 58, part, and s. 62.

22. Her Majesty's officers and soldiers, being in proper uniform, dress or undress, except when passing in any hired or private vehicle, and all carriages and horses employed in Her Majesty's service, when conveying persons or baggage, shall be exempted from payment of any tolls on using or travelling over any road or bridge under the control of the Minister. 31 V., c. 12, s. 60.

REGULATIONS FOR USE OF PUBLIC WORKS.

25. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make such regulations as he deems necessary for the management, maintenance, proper use and protection of all or any of the public works, or for the ascertaining and collection of the tolls, dues and revenues thereon. 31 V., c. 12, s. 65.

Every one who is an officer or servant of, or a person employed by the Minister on any public work under the Minister, and who wilfully or negligently violates any by-law, order or regulation of the department, or any Order in Council lawfully made or in force respecting the public work on which he is employed, and of which a copy has been delivered to him, or has been posted up or open to his inspection in some place where his work or his duties, or any of them, are to be performed,—if such violation causes injury to any property or to any person, or exposes any property or any person to the risk of injury, or renders such risk greater than it would have been but for such violation, although no actual injury occurs,—is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, according as the court before which the conviction is had considers the offence proved to be more or less grave, or the injury or risk of injury to person or property to be more or less great, be liable to a penalty not exceeding four hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both penalty and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. 31 V., c. 12, s. 67.

If such violation does not cause injury to any property or person, or expose any property or person to the risk of injury, or make such risk greater than it would have been but for such violation, the officer, servant or other person guilty thereof shall incur a penalty, not exceeding the amount of thirty days' pay and not less than fifteen days' pay of the offender from the department, in the discretion of the justice of the peace before whom the conviction is had; and such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs, before any one justice of the peace having jurisdiction where the offence has been committed or where the offender is found, on the oath of one credible witness other than the informer. 31 V., c. 12, s. 68.

9. No train shall be allowed to pass over any canal, or over the navigable channel of any river, without such proper flooring being first laid under and on both sides of the railway track over such canal or channel as the Minister deems sufficient to prevent anything falling from the railway into such canal or river, or upon the boats or vessels, or craft or persons navigating such canal or river. 44 V., c. 25, s. 9.
HIGHWAYS AND BRIDGES.

10. The railway shall not be carried along an existing highway, but merely cross the same in the line of the railway, unless leave has been obtained from the proper municipal or local authority therefor; and no obstruction of such highway with the works shall be made without turning the highway so as to leave an open and good passage for carriages, and, on the completion of the works, replacing the highway; but in either case the rail itself, if it does not rise above or sink below the surface of the road more than one inch, shall not be deemed an obstruction; but this section shall not limit or interfere with the powers of the Minister to divert or alter any road, street or way, when another convenient road is substituted in lieu thereof. 44 V., c. 25, s. 49.

11. No part of the railway which crosses any highway without being carried over by a bridge, or under by a tunnel, shall rise above or sink below the level of the highway more than one inch; and the railway may be carried across or above any highway within the limits aforesaid. 44 V., c. 25, s. 50.

2. The Minister, before using higher freight cars than those which admit of such open and clear headway of at least seven feet, shall, after having first obtained the consent of the municipality or of the owners of such bridge or other erection, structure or tunnel, raise every such bridge or other erection, structure or tunnel, and the approaches thereto, if necessary, so as to admit of such open and clear headway of at least seven feet; but this and the next preceding sub-section shall not apply to any bridge, erection, structure or tunnel now existing, which is exempted from the operation thereof by the Governor in Council:

3. Whenever a highway bridge or any other erection, or structure, or tunnel, is constructed over or on the line of a railway, or whenever it becomes necessary to reconstruct any highway bridge or other erection, or structure, or tunnel already built over or on the line of a railway, or to make large repairs to the same, the lower beams, members or portions of the superstructure of any such tunnel, highway or overhead bridge, or of any other erection or structure over any railway, and the approaches thereto, shall be constructed or reconstructed at the cost of the Crown or of the municipality or other owner of the bridge, erection or structure, or tunnel, as the case may be, and shall, at all times, be maintained at a sufficient height from the surface of the rails of the railway, to admit of an open and clear headway of at least seven feet between the top of the highest freight cars then used on the railway and the lower beams, members or portions of such bridge or other erection, or tunnel; and thereafter, the Minister, before using higher freight cars than those used on the railway at the time of the construction or reconstruction of, or large repair to, such bridge or other erection or structure, or tunnel, shall, after having first obtained the consent of the municipality, or of the owners of such highway bridge, or other erection or structure, or tunnel, raise the said tunnel or bridge, or other erection or structure, and the approaches thereto, if necessary, so as to admit, as aforesaid, of an open and clear headway of at least seven feet over the top of the highest freight cars then about to be used on the railway. 44 V., c. 25, s. 53.

15. Signboards stretching across or projecting over the highway crossed at a level by any railway, shall be erected and kept up at each crossing at such height as to leave sixteen feet from the highway to the lower edge of the signboard, and shall have the words “railway crossing” painted on each side of the signboard, in letters not less than six inches in length. 44 V., c. 25, s. 54.

16. Within six months after any lands have been taken for the use of the railway, the Minister, if thereunto required by the proprietors of the adjoining lands, shall erect and maintain, on each side of the railway, fences at least four feet high and of the strength of an ordinary division fence, with swing gates or sliding gates, commonly called hurdle gates, with proper fastenings, at farm crossings of the railway, for the use of the proprietors of the lands adjoining the railway; and also cattle guards at all public road crossings, suitable and sufficient to prevent cattle and animals from getting on the railway. 44 V., c. 25, s. 55.

17. Until such fences and cattle guards are duly made, Her Majesty shall, subject to the provisions of sections twenty, twenty-two and twenty-three, be liable for all damages done by the trains or engines on the railway, to cattle, horses or other animals on the railway, which have gained access thereto for want of such fence and cattle guards. 44 V., c. 25, s. 56.

18. After the fences or guards have been duly made, and while they are duly maintained, no such liability shall accrue for any such damages, unless negligently or willfully done. 44 V., c. 25, s. 57.

19. At every road and farm crossing on the grade of the railway, the crossing shall be sufficiently fenced on both sides so as to allow of the safe passage of trains. 44 V., c. 25, s. 63.

INJURIES TO CATTLE.

20. No horses, sheep, swine or other cattle shall be permitted to be at large upon any highway within half a mile of the intersection of such highway with any railway on grade, unless such cattle are in charge of some person or persons to prevent their loitering or stopping on such highway at such intersection. 44 V., c. 25, s. 60.

21. All cattle found at large in violation of the next preceding section may, by any person finding the same at large, be impounded in the pound nearest to the place where the same are so found, and the pound keeper with whom the same are so impounded shall detain the same in the like manner, and subject to the like regulations as to the care and disposal thereof, as in the case of cattle impounded for trespass on private property. 44 V., c. 25, s. 61.

22. If the cattle of any person, which are at large contrary to the provisions hereinbefore contained, are killed or injured by any train at such point of intersection, he shall not have any right of action or be entitled to compensation in respect of the same, unless the same are killed or injured through the negligence or willfulness of some officer, employee or servant of the Minister. 44 V., c. 25, s. 62.
Non-liability in certain cases.

Neither Her Majesty nor any officer, employee or servant of the Minister (except where the killing or injuring is negligent or wilful) shall be liable for any damage done by any train or engine to cattle, horses or other animals, on the railway, in any of the following cases, that is to say:

(a.) When they are at large contrary to the provisions of section twenty, and are killed or injured by any engine or train at the point of intersection;

(b.) When they gain access to the railway from property other than that of the owner, or other than that in which the owner has a right of pasturage;

(c.) When they gain access to the railway through a gate of a farm or private crossing, the fastenings of which are in good order, unless such gate is left open by an employee of the Minister;

(d.) When they gain access to the railway through or over a fence constructed in accordance with section sixteen;

(e.) When they are at large contrary to the provisions of section twenty, and gain access to the railway from the highway at the point of intersection. 44 V., c. 25, s. 64.

WORKING THE RAILWAY.

Such apparatus and arrangements as best afford good and sufficient means of immediate communication between the conductors and the engine drivers of such trains while the trains are in motion, and good and sufficient means of applying, by the power of the steam engine or otherwise, at the will of the engine driver or other person appointed to such duty, the brakes to the wheels of the locomotive or tender, or both, or of all or any of the cars or carriages composing the trains, and of disconnecting the locomotive, tender and cars or carriages from each other by any such power or means, and also such apparatus and arrangements as best and most securely place and fix the seats or chairs in the cars or carriages, shall be provided and used in and upon trains run for the conveyance of passengers. 44 V., c. 25, s. 65.

68. In the case of lands which were taken for the Intercolonial Railway, under an Act made and passed in the thirty-first year of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act respecting the construction of the Intercolonial Railway," and when plans of such lands were deposited of record in the office of the registrar of deeds for the county or registration division in which the lands were situate, without any description of the land being deposited of record, with such plans thereof as in the seventh section of the said Act required, the filing of the plans only shall be held, taken and construed to have been a sufficient compliance with the provisions of the said section; and the depositing of such plans only shall be held and taken to have operated as a dedication to the public of such lands, whereupon the same became and were vested in Her Majesty:

2. A certified copy of any such plan may be used, and shall be evidence in like manner and effect and under the like circumstances as provided in "The Expropriation Act" in regard to the plans and description therein mentioned. 44 V., c. 25, s. 10, part.

2. A certified copy of any such plans and descriptions, or plans only, as the case may be, may be used and shall be evidence in like manner and effect and under like circumstances as provided in "The Expropriation Act" in regard to the plans and descriptions therein mentioned. 44 V., c. 25, s. 10, part.

Entering lands, &c.

(a.) Enter into and upon any land to whomsoever belonging, and survey and take levels of the same, and make such borings, or sink such trial pits as he deems necessary for any purpose relative to the public work; 31 V., c. 12, s. 22.

the land of which it originally formed a part; 31 V., c. 12, s. 29;—44 V., c. 25, s. 5, sub-s. 8.

(e.) Contract and agree with all persons, seigneurs, guardians, tutors, curators and trustees whatsoever, not only for themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, but also for and on the behalf of those whom they represent, whether infants, absentee, lunatics, married women or other persons otherwise incapable of contracting, for the purchase of any land or other property necessary for the constructing, maintenance and use of the public work, at such prices as are agreed upon; and also contract and agree with all such persons as to the amount of compensation to be paid for any damages sustained by them by reason of anything done under and by authority of this Act, or of any other Act respecting public works or Government railways. 31 V., c. 12, s. 24, part;—33 V., c. 18, ss. 8 and 9, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 5, sub-s. 15.

MANNER OF TAKING LANDS, ETC., TITLES, BOUNDARIES.

5. Land taken for the use of Her Majesty shall be laid off by metes and bounds; and when no proper deed or conveyance thereof to Her Majesty is made and executed by the person having the power to make such deed or conveyance, or when a person interested in such land is incapable of making such deed or conveyance, or when, for any other reason, the Minister deems it advisable so to do, a plan and description of such land signed by the Minister, the deputy of the Minister or the secretary of the department, or by the superintendent of the public work, or by an engineer of the department, or by a land surveyor duly licensed and sworn in and for the Province in which the land is situate, shall be deposited of record in the office of the registrar of deeds for the county or registration division in which the land is situate, and such land, by such deposit, shall thereupon become and remain vested in Her Majesty:
2. In case of any omission, misstatement or erroneous description in such plan or description, a corrected plan and description may be deposited with like effect:

3. Such plan and description may be deposited at any time, either before entry upon the land or within twelve months thereafter:

4. A plan and description of any land now in the occupation or possession of Her Majesty and used for the purposes of any public work may be deposited at any time, in like manner and with like effect as herein provided, saving always the lawful claims to compensation of any person interested therein:

5. In all cases, when any such plan and description, purporting to be signed by the deputy of the Minister, or by the secretary of the department or by the superintendent of the public work, or by an engineer of the department, or by a land surveyor duly licensed as aforesaid, is deposited of record as aforesaid, the same shall be deemed and taken to have been deposited by the direction and authority of the Minister, and as indicating that in his judgment the land therein described is necessary for the purposes of the public work; and the said plan and description shall not be called in question except by the Minister or by some person acting for him, or for the Crown:

6. A copy of any such plan and description, certified by the registrar of deeds, or his deputy, to be a true copy thereof, shall, without proof of the official character or handwriting of such registrar or deputy, be deemed and taken in all courts as \( \textit{prima facie} \) evidence of the original, and of the depositing thereof:

7. A copy of any such plan and description, certified by the registrar of deeds, or by his deputy, as in the next preceding sub-section mentioned, shall be \( \textit{prima facie} \) evidence of the original and of the depositing thereof, although such registrar or deputy, at the time the same is so offered in evidence, is dead, or has resigned or has been removed from office:

8. If the land taken is Crown land, under the control of the Government of the Province in which such land is situate, a plan of such land shall also be deposited in the Crown Land Department of the Province:

9. No surrender, conveyance, agreement or award under this Act shall require registration or enrolment to preserve the rights of Her Majesty under it, but the same may be registered in the registry office of deeds for the place where the land lies, if the Minister deems it advisable. 37 Vol., c. 13, s. 3, \( \textit{part} \);—44 Vol., c. 25, s. 8, \( \textit{part} \), and s. 10, \( \textit{part} \).

6. Every contract or agreement made by any person authorized by this Act to convey land, and made before the deposit of the plans and description, and before the setting out and ascertaining of the land required for the public work, shall be binding at the price agreed upon for the same land, if it is afterwards set out and ascertained within one year from the date of the contract or agreement, and although such land has, in the meantime, become the property of a third person; and possession of the land may be taken, and the agreement and price may be dealt with, as if such price had been fixed by an award of the official arbitrators, as hereinafter provided; and the agreement shall be in the place of an award. 44 V., c. 25, s. 11.

7. Whenever any gravel, stone, earth, sand or water is taken as aforesaid, at a distance from the public work, the Minister may lay down the necessary sidings, water pipes or conduits, or tracks over or through any land intervening between the public work and the land on which such material or water is found, whatever the distance is; and all the provisions of this Act, except such as relate to the filing of plans and descriptions, shall apply and may be used and exercised to obtain the right of way from the public work to the land on which such materials are situate; and such right may be acquired for a term of years, or permanently, as the Minister thinks proper; and the powers in this section contained may, at all times, be exercised and used in all respects, after the public work is constructed, for the purpose of repairing and maintaining the same. 44 V., c. 25, s. 12.

8. Whenever, for the purpose of procuring sufficient lands for railway stations or gravel pits, or for constructing, maintaining and using the public work, any land may be taken under the provisions of this Act, and by purchasing the whole of any lot or parcel of land, of which any part may be taken under the said provisions, the Minister can obtain the same at a more reasonable price, or to greater advantage than by purchasing such part only as aforesaid, he may purchase, hold, use or enjoy the whole of such lot or parcel, and also the right of way thereto, if the same is separated from the public work, and may sell and convey the same, or any part thereof, from time to time, as he deems expedient; but the compulsory provisions of this Act shall not apply to the taking of any portion of such lot or parcel which is not, in the opinion of the Minister, necessary for the purposes aforesaid. 44 V., c. 25, s. 13.

9. The Minister may employ any person duly licensed or empowered to act as a surveyor for any Province in Canada, or any engineer, to make any survey, or establish any boundary and furnish the plans and descriptions of any property acquired or to be acquired by Her Majesty for the public work; and such surveys, boundaries, plans and descriptions shall have the same effect as if the operations pertaining thereto or connected therewith had been per—formed by a land surveyor duly licensed and sworn in and for the Province in which the property is situate; and the boundaries of such properties may be permanently established by means of proper stone or iron monuments, planted by the engineer or surveyor so employed by the Minister, and shall be of the same effect, to all intents and purposes, as if such boundaries had been drawn and such monuments planted by a land surveyor duly licensed and sworn for the Province in which the property is situate; and the boundaries of such properties may be permanently established by means of proper stone or iron monuments, planted by the engineer or surveyor so employed by the Minister, and shall be of the same effect, to all intents and purposes, as if such boundaries had been drawn and such monuments planted by a land surveyor duly licensed and sworn for the Province in which the property is situate; and such boundaries shall be held to be the true and unalterable boundaries of such property, provided they are so established and such monuments of iron or stone are planted, after due notice thereof has been given in writing to the proprietors of the land thereby affected, and that a procès-verbal or written description of such boundaries is approved and signed, in the presence of two witnesses, by such engineer or surveyor, on behalf of the Minister, and by the other person concerned; or that in case of the refusal of any person to approve or to sign the same, such refusal is recorded in such procès-verbal or description; and provided such boundary marks or monuments are planted in the presence of at least one witness, who shall sign the said procès-verbal or description; and provided also, that it shall not be incumbent on the Minister or those acting for him to have the boundaries established with the formalities in this section mentioned, but the same may be resorted to whenever he deems it necessary so to do. 31 V., c. 12, s. 23;—44 V., c. 25, s. 14.

COMPENSATION FOR LAND DAMAGES AND PAYMENT THEREOF.

10. Whenever the Minister, or the person acting for him in that behalf, fails to agree with any person or corporation as to the value to be paid for any lands taken, or for compensation as aforesaid, the Minister, or the person acting for him, may tender the reasonable value, in his estimation, of the same, with a notice that if the offer is not accepted the question will be submitted to the official arbitrators; and in case such person does not reside, or such corporation has not its office on or near the property so required or used, the notice of submission shall be published in the Canada Gazette and in two newspapers published in or near the district or county in which such property is situate:

What shall be a legal tender.

2. or property; and any claim to or incumbrance upon such land or property shall, as respects Her Majesty, be converted into a claim to such compensation money or to a proportionate amount thereof; and shall be void as respects the land or property, which shall, by the fact of the taking possession thereof, or the filing of the plan and description, as the case may be, become and be absolutely vested in Her Majesty—subject always to the determination of the compensation to be paid and to the payment thereof when such conveyance, agreement or award has been made. 37 V., c. 13, s. 1;—44 V., c. 25, s. 18.

12. If the person conveying such land or property could not, without this Act, have conveyed the same or agreed for the compensation to be paid therefor, or if any owner or person to whom the compensation money, or any part thereof, is payable, refuses to execute the proper conveyance or other requisite instrument of transfer of the premises, or if the person entitled to claim the same cannot be found or is unknown to the Minister, or if the Minister has reason to fear any claim or incumbrance, or if for any other reason he deems it advisable—then, if the land or property so acquired or taken is situate in any of the Provinces of Canada other than Quebec, the Minister may pay such compensation money or sum awarded, or if there has been no compensation money agreed upon or amount awarded, then such sum of money as, in the opinion of the Minister, is sufficient compensation for such land or property, into the office of one of the superior courts for the Province in which the land is situate, with the interest thereon for six months, and may deliver to the clerk or prothonotary of the court a copy of the conveyance or of the agreement or award, or a certified copy of the plan and description. 37 V., c. 13, s. 2, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 19.

13. A notice, in such form and for such time as the court appoints, shall be inserted by the clerk or prothonotary in a newspaper, if there is any published in the district or county in which the lands are situate—which shall state that Her Majesty has acquired title under this Act, and shall call upon all persons entitled to the land or to any part thereof, or representing or being the husbands of any persons so entitled, or claiming to hold or represent incumbrances thereon or interests therein, to file their claims to the compensation money or any part thereof; and all such claims shall be received and adjudged upon by the court, and the said proceedings shall forever bar all claims to the compensation money or any part thereof, including any claim in respect of dower as well as in respect of all mortgages or incumbrances upon the same; and the court shall make such order for the distribution, payment or investment of the compensation money and for the securing of the rights of all persons interested, as to right and justice and according to the provisions of this Act and to law appertain. 37 V., c. 13, s. 2, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 20.

14. If the land or property so acquired or taken is situate in the Province of Quebec, the Minister may pay such compensation money or sum awarded, or if there has been none such, then such sum of money as, in the opinion of the Minister, is sufficient compensation for such land or property, into the hands of the prothonotary of the superior court for the district in which the land is situate, with the interest thereon for six months, and deliver to the said prothonotary an authentic copy or a copy verified by him of the conveyance or of the agreement or award, or a certified copy of the plan and description; and the same shall be deemed the title of Her Majesty to the land or property therein mentioned; and proceedings shall be had for the confirmation of such title of Her Majesty in like manner as in other cases of confirmation of title—except that in addition to the usual contents of the notice in such cases, the prothonotary shall state that Her Majesty has acquired title under this Act, and shall call upon all persons entitled to the land or property or any part thereof, or representing or being the husband of any person so entitled, to file their claims to the compensation money or any part thereof; and all such claims shall be received and adjudged upon by the court; and the said proceedings shall forever bar all claims to the compensation or any part thereof (including dower not filed) as well as in respect of any mortgage, hypothec or incumbrance upon the same, and the court shall make such order for the distribution, payment or investment of the compensation money and for the security of the rights of all persons interested, as to right and justice and the provisions of this Act and to law appertain. 37 V., c. 13, s. 2, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 21.

15. The costs of the proceedings or any part thereof, shall be paid by the Minister or by any other person, as the court orders, and if the order of distribution is obtained in less than six months from the payment of the compensation money into the court or to the prothonotary, the court shall direct a proportionate part of the interest to be returned to the Minister; and if, from any error, fault or neglect of the Minister, it is not obtained until after six months have expired, the court shall order the Minister to pay into court or to the prothonotary the interest for such further period as is right. 37 V., c. 13, s. 2, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 22.

16. If the price or compensation money agreed for or awarded does not exceed one hundred dollars, it may, in any Province, be paid to the person who, under this Act, can lawfully convey the lands or property or agree for the compensation to be made in the case, with the same effect as if it had been paid into court under this Act; saving always the rights of any other person to such compensation money as against the person receiving the same. 37 V., c. 13, s. 2, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 23.

17. If any person entitled to any compensation as aforesaid, is dissatisfied with the amount so paid by the Minister into the court or to the prothonotary of the court as aforesaid, the question of the amount of compensation may be referred to the official arbitrators or to one or to any greater number of arbitrators as the Minister sees fit; and the Minister may pay the amount of any award thereon into a court or to the prothonotary of a court, as the case may be, and the court shall make such order as to the same as if it had been paid in as compensation, as hereinbefore mentioned. 37 V., c. 13, s. 2, part;—44 V., c. 25, s. 24.

18. The compensation agreed on between the parties, or appraised and awarded, shall be paid for such land, real property, streams, water and watercourses, timber, stone or other material, to the owners or occupiers of such land or property, or to the persons suffering such damage as aforesaid, or into court as aforesaid, within six months after the amount of such compensation has been agreed on or appraised and awarded. 31 V., c. 12, s. 26;—37 V., c. 13, s. 4;—44 V., c. 25, s. 25;—45 V., c. 36.

OFFICIAL ARBITRATORS.

2. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, appoint any number of persons not exceeding four, who shall be official arbitrators for Canada:
2. Every such arbitrator shall receive such remuneration as is, from time to time, fixed by the Governor in Council. 31 V., c. 12, s. 31, part.

3. Every arbitrator shall take, before the Minister of Public Works or the Minister of Railways and Canals, or some one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace, an oath in the form following, that is to say:—

"I, A. B., do swear that I will well and truly hear, try and examine into such claims as are submitted to me for compensation for land or property taken possession of for the use and purposes of any public work, and that I will also well and truly examine into such claims as are submitted to me for compensation for damages consequent upon the construction of any public work, or for payment or allowance in respect of any contract; and that I will give a true judgment and just award thereon to the best of my knowledge and ability; and that I will take into due consideration the benefits derived and to be derived by the claimants through the construction of such public work as well as the injury done thereby. So help me God." 31 V., c. 12, s. 32;—42 V., c. 7, s. 12, part.

4. The Governor in Council may appoint one or more proper persons to act as clerk or clerks to the arbitrators, and may fix the amount of the remuneration to be allowed to any such clerk. 31 V., c. 12, s. 33.

5. The arbitrators shall arbitrate on, appraise, determine and award the sums which shall be paid to any person for land or property taken for any public work, or for loss or damage caused by such taking, or in respect of any claim arising out of any contract, and with whom the Minister has not agreed, and cannot agree, or in respect of any other claim which may be referred to the said arbitrators under the provisions of this Act or of any other Act of the Parliament of Canada. 31 V., c. 12, s. 31, part.

6. If any person has any claim for property taken, or for alleged direct or consequential damage to property, arising from or connected with the construction, repair, maintenance or working of any public work, or arising out of anything done by the Government of Canada, or arising out of any death, or any injury to person or property on any public work, or any claim arising out of or connected with the execution or fulfilment, or on account of deductions made for the non-execution or non-fulfilment of any contract made and entered into on behalf of Her Majesty, such person may give notice, in writing, of such claim, to the Secretary of State—stating the particulars thereof, and how the same has arisen, which notice the Secretary of State shall refer to the head of the department with respect to which the claim has so arisen: and thereupon the Minister may, at any time within thirty days after such notice, tender what he considers a fair compensation for the same, with notice that the said claim will be submitted to the decision of the arbitrators, unless the sum so tendered is accepted within ten days after such tender. 31 V., c. 12, s. 34, part; —33 V., c. 23, s. 1; —44 V., c. 25, s. 27, part.

7. No arbitration shall be allowed in any case in which, by the terms of the contract therein, it is provided that the determination of any matters of difference arising out of or connected with the same shall be decided by the Minister, or by the architect, or by any engineer or officer of the department. 31 V., c. 12, s. 36; —44 V., c. 25, s. 29.

8. No claim for land or other property alleged to have been taken for or injured by the construction, repair, maintenance or working of any public work, or for damages alleged to have been occasioned, directly or indirectly, to any such lands or other property by the construction, repair, maintenance or working of any such public work, or arising out of anything done by the Government of Canada, or arising out of any death or any injury to person or property on any public work, and no claim arising out of or connected with the execution or fulfilment, or on account of deductions made for the non-execution or non-fulfilment of any contract made and entered into on behalf of Her Majesty, shall be submitted to or be entertained by the arbitrators under this Act, unless such claim and the particulars thereof have been filed with the Secretary of State within twelve months next after the happening of the loss or injury complained of, when such claim relates to the taking of or damage occasioned to land or other property—and when such claim relates to or is alleged to arise out of the execution or fulfilment of any contract or agreement for the construction or maintenance of any public work, unless the same has been filed as aforesaid, within three months next after the date of the final estimate made under such contract; and in other cases, unless the claim has been filed as aforesaid, within six months after the happening of the injury complained of, the breach of the contract or the act or omission upon which the claim is founded. 31 V., c. 12, s. 37; —33 V., c. 23, s. 2, part; —44 V., c. 25, ss. 30 and 108.

9. Every tender by the Minister shall be deemed to be legally made by any written authority for the payment of such sum, given under the hand of the Minister or the person acting for him in that behalf, and notified to the person who has such claim. 31 V., c. 12, s. 34, part; —44 V., c. 25, s. 27, part.

10. The Minister may refer any of the claims aforesaid, or any question which he is authorized to refer, either to one or to any greater number of arbitrators as he sees fit; and except in case of appeal as hereinafter provided, when the claim or question has not been referred to the whole board, the award of the sole arbitrator shall be binding, if there is only one; and the award of the majority of the arbitrators if there are three or more acting in the case, shall be binding as if made by all the arbitrators: and whenever the claim or question is referred to more than one of the arbitrators, any one of them may receive the evidence and hear the parties, and may exercise all the powers of the arbitrators preliminary or incident to the hearing and to the taking of the evidence, which shall thereafter be sub-mited to all the arbitrators to whom the case is referred, and the award of the majority of whom shall be binding, except in case of appeal as aforesaid. 31 V., c. 12, s. 35;—
44 V., c. 25, s. 28.

11. If the Minister, from want of sufficient or reliable information as to the facts relating to any such claim, or on account of conflicting statements of facts, does not consider the case one in which a tender of satisfaction should be made, he may refer the claim to one or more of the arbitrators for examination and report, both as to matters of fact involved, and as to the amount of damages, if any, sustained; and thereupon the arbitrator or arbitrators to whom the claim has been referred shall have all the powers in reference thereto, that he or they would have if such claim had been referred after tender of satisfaction made; but the arbitrators’ duty in such case shall be confined to reporting his or their findings upon the questions of fact, and upon the amount of damages, if any, sustained, and the principles upon which such amount has been computed. 41 V., c. 8,
s. 3;—44 V., c. 25, s. 27, part.

12. Before any claim is arbitrated upon, the claimant shall give security to the satisfaction of the arbitrators, or any one of them, for the payment of the costs and expenses incurred in respect to the arbitration in the event of the award being against such claimant, or of its not exceeding the sum tendered. 31 V., c. 12, s. 34, part;—44 V., c. 25,
s. 27, part.

2. No person shall be compelled to produce any document that he would not be compelled to produce at a trial in any superior court of the Province in which the arbitrators are sitting, or to attend as a witness more than three consecutive days; and every witness shall be allowed, in addition to his reasonable travelling expenses, a sum not exceeding one dollar a day, in the discretion of the arbitrators; and such remuneration shall be paid by the person requiring the attendance of the witness.

14. In the investigation of any claim, the arbitrators shall cause all legal evidence offered on each side to be taken down and recorded in writing, and shall make and keep a list of all plans, receipts, vouchers, documents and other papers produced before them during such investigation; but they may, with the consent in writing of the Minister and of the opposite party, take the evidence of the witnesses adduced on either side, orally, and in such case need not reduce it to writing:

2. With the consent of the Minister or his agent and of the opposite party, the evidence of the said witnesses may be taken down in shorthand by a stenographer, who shall be previously sworn before one of the arbitrators, faithfully to take down and transcribe the evidence, and who shall, at the conclusion of the examination of a witness, read over the same to him; and such evidence shall, when transcribed in ordinary writing and signed by the witness, if he can write, and if not, then attested by the stenographer, form the record of his evidence:

3. The expenses incurred under this section in any case, shall be costs therein, and taxed and paid as such.

16. The arbitrators, in estimating and awarding the amount to be paid to any claimant for injury done to any land or property, and in estimating the amount to be paid for lands taken, shall estimate or assess the value thereof at the time when the injury complained of was occasioned, and not according to the value of the adjoining lands at the time of making their award. 31 V., c. 12, s. 40;—44 V., c. 25, s. 17.

17. In awarding upon any claim arising out of any contract in writing, the arbitrators shall decide in accordance with the stipulations in such contract, and shall not award compensation to any claimant on the ground that he expended a larger sum of money in the performance of his contract than the amount stipulated therein; nor shall they award interest on any sum of money which they consider to be due to such claimant, in the absence of any contract in writing, stipulating payment of such interest; and no clause in any such contract in which a drawback or penalty is stipulated for the non-performance of any condition thereof, or any neglect to complete any work, or to fulfil any covenant in such contract, shall be considered as comminatory, but it shall be construed as importing an assessment by mutual consent, of the damages caused by such non-performance or neglect. 31 V., c. 12, s. 41;—44 V., c. 25, s. 32.

18. The arbitrators shall deliver to the Minister a copy of their award in each case, and to each individual claimant a copy of so much thereof as relates to his particular claim, within one month after they have agreed to the same. 31 V., c. 12, s. 43;—44 V., c. 25, s. 34.

20. In case of such appeal, the appellant shall have no right to adduce further evidence than that already given on the original reference, unless he shows to the satisfaction of the board, that his knowledge of the existence of such further evidence has arisen since the first hearing of the case, or unless the board thinks it right on hearing the claimant, to admit further evidence. 31 V., c. 12, s. 45 ;—44
V., c. 25, s. 36.

21. The clerk or secretary to the arbitrators shall, on payment at the rate of ten cents for every hundred words and

c. 12, s. 46 ;—44 V., c. 25, s. 37.

28. The court may, if it thinks proper, upon the evidence taken before the arbitrators, or upon the same and any further evidence which it orders to be adduced before it, make such final order and determination of the matters referred as it deems just and right between the parties; and such final order and determination shall be ordered to be performed and shall be enforced by the court, and the same shall be taken and dealt with as a final award under the authority hereof. 42 V., c. 8, s. 6;—44 V., c. 25, s. 44.

BALLOTING.

29. At any time when militiamen are required to be drafted in any regimental division, each company division therein shall, subject to the provisions of the two sections next following, contribute its quota according to the number of militiamen on the rolls and liable to serve, of the class or classes from which the men are to be taken; and when militiamen are accepted or taken or balloted to serve in any quota, the company division or divisions furnishing the men shall receive credit therefor; and the active militiamen taken, or accepted and enrolled for service, from time to time, in any company or regimental division, shall be attached or appointed to such companies, corps or battalions of the Active Militia as Her Majesty orders:

2. When a corps, raised by voluntary enlistment in any regimental division, for any cause ceases to exist, Her Majesty may make good the quota of that division by the organization of militiamen from the Reserve Militia to replace such corps:

3. When by reason of death or removal, vacancies occur in any corps of Active Militia, organized under this Act, such vacancies shall be filled by other men drawn from the Reserve Militia, either by voluntary enlistment or by ballot, as circumstances require. 46 V., c. 11, s. 22.

30. When active militiamen are required to be organized at any time, either for drill or for actual service, and enough men do not volunteer in any company division to complete the quota required from that division, the men enrolled in the first class and liable to serve shall be first balloted,—and if the number of men required to be balloted is greater than the whole number of men in the first class, the number requisite to make up the deficiency shall be taken from those in the second class,—and if more men than the whole number in the first and second classes are still required, the number requisite to make up the deficiency shall be taken from the third class,—and in like manner, if more men than are in the first, second and third classes, are still required, the number requisite to make up the deficiency shall be taken from the fourth class; but at no time shall more than one son belonging to the same family residing in the same house, if there is more than one inscribed on the Militia roll, be drawn, unless the number of names so inscribed is insufficient to complete the required proportion of service men:
2. Any man not taken for service for the time being in any corps organized in the regimental division in which he resides, may volunteer to serve in any corps, in any regimental division contiguous thereto, and in such case the company division in which he resides shall have credit for such volunteer; and the man shall, on completing his full period of service, be entitled to the same exemption in his company division, as though he had served with men raised therein for the same period. 46 V., c. 11, s. 23.

31. When any company division has furnished more men than its quota, as compared with other company divisions in the same regimental division, such company division shall not again be called upon in time of peace for more men, until the other company divisions have supplied men to equalize the proportion for each, according to the number of names inscribed on the Militia rolls thereof respectively. 46 V., c. 11, s. 24.

32. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make regulations for taking the enrolment and ballot,—for fixing the day on which the taking of the enrolment shall be commenced in each of the several military districts respectively,—for notifying the men liable to be taken, or those balloted in any company division for service in any quota,—for finally deciding claims of applicants for exemption, and for the administration of oaths before justices of the peace or the commanding officer of a corps, to ascertain any facts in reference to such claim of exemption,—for medical examinations, and for the discharge of such men as are unfit to serve,—and relating to every other matter and thing not inconsistent with this Act, and necessary to be done, in the enrolling, balloting, warning and bringing into service, of such numbers of the reserve militiamen in any company division as are required at any time: but any militiaman balloted and notified for service, may, at any time, be exempt, until again required in his turn to serve, by furnishing an acceptable substitute, on or before the day fixed for his appearance; but if, during any period of service, any man who is serving in the Active Militia as a substitute for another, becomes liable to service in his own person, he shall be taken for such service, and his place as substitute shall be supplied by the militiaman in whose stead he was serving. 46 V., c. 11, s. 25.

33. Every active militiaman who, during any period of service, attains the age of thirty years or forty-five years, according to his class, shall be required to complete the full period for which he volunteered or was balloted to serve. 46 V., c. 11, s. 26.
34. The Active Militia, or any corps thereof, shall be liable to be called out for active service with their arms and ammunition, in aid of the civil power in any case in which a riot, disturbance of the peace, or other emergency requiring such service occurs, or is, in the opinion of the civil authorities hereinafter mentioned, anticipated as likely to occur, and, in either case, to be beyond the powers of the civil authorities to suppress, or to prevent or deal with,—whether such riot, disturbance or other emergency occurs, or is so anticipated within or without the municipality in which such corps is raised or organized:

2. The senior officer of the Active Militia present at any locality shall call out the same or such portion thereof as he considers necessary for the purpose of preventing or suppressing any such actual or anticipated riot or disturbance, or for the purpose of meeting and dealing with any such emergency as aforesaid, when thereunto required in writing by the chairman or custos of the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or by any three justices of the peace of whom the warden, mayor, or other head of the municipality or county in which such riot, disturbance or other emergency occurs or is anticipated as aforesaid, may be one; and he shall obey such instructions as are lawfully given to him by any justice of the peace in regard to the suppression of any such actual riot or disturbance, or in regard to the anticipation of such riot, disturbance or other emergency, or to the suppression of the same, or to the aid to be given to the civil power in case of any such riot, disturbance or other emergency:

3. Every such requisition in writing, as aforesaid, shall express on the face thereof the actual occurrence of a riot, disturbance or emergency or the anticipation thereof, requiring such service of the Active Militia in aid of the civil power for the suppression thereof:

4. Every officer and man of such Active Militia, or any portion thereof, shall, on every such occasion, obey the orders of his commanding officer; and the officers and men, when so called out, shall, without any further or other appointment, and without taking any oath of office, be special constables, and shall be considered to act as such as long as they remain so called out; but they shall act only as a military body, and shall be individually liable to obey the orders of their military commanding officer only:

5. When the Active Militia, or any corps thereof, is so called out in aid of the civil power, the municipality in which their services are required shall pay them, when so employed, the rates authorized to be paid for actual service to officers and men, and one dollar per diem for each horse actually and necessarily used by them, together with an allowance of one dollar to each officer, fifty cents to each man per diem in lieu of subsistence, and fifty cents per diem in lieu of forage for Providing each horse,—and, in addition, shall provide them with proper lodging and stabling, and with stabling for their horses; and the said pay and allowances for subsistence and forage, as also the value of lodging and stabling, unless furnished in kind by the municipality, may be recovered from it by the officer commanding the corps, in his own name, and, when so recovered, shall be paid over to the persons entitled thereto:

6. Such pay and allowances of the force called out, together with the reasonable cost of transport may, pending payment by the municipality, be advanced in the first instance out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada, by authority of the Governor in Council; but such advance shall not interfere with the liability of the municipality, and the commanding officer shall at once, in his own name, proceed against the municipality for the recovery of such pay, allowances and cost of transport, and shall, on receipt thereof, pay over the amount to Her Majesty. 46 V., c. 11, s. 27, part.

35. Whenever a municipality within the limits of which a railway passes whereon Her Majesty's mails are conveyed, has incurred expense by reason of the Militia being so called out in aid of the civil power, for preventing or repressing a riot or disturbance of the peace beyond the power of the civil authorities to deal with, and not local or provincial in its origin, by which riot or disturbance of the peace the conveyance of such mails might be obstructed, the Governor in Council may pay or reimburse out of any moneys which are provided by Parliament for the purpose, such part as seems just of the proper expenses incurred by any municipality, by reason of any part of the Active Militia being so called out in aid of the civil power:

2. An account of any such expenditure shall be laid before Parliament as soon as possible thereafter. 46 V., c. 11, s. 27, part.

66. Such of the officers and men of any corps of the Active Militia as reside within two miles of the place appointed for drill, may assemble or be ordered out by the officer commanding it, for drill or exercise, at other times than when performing the annual drill, under regulations approved by Her Majesty, and without receiving any pay therefor. 46 V., c. 11, s. 50.
67. Her Majesty may, by any General Order, dispense with the drill or training of any corps or part of a corps of the Active Militia, either in any particular year or until further order, and may, in like manner, again direct such drill and training, or either of them, to be resumed if it seems fit; and any such order shall have the force of law according to the terms thereof. 46 V., c. 11, s. 51.

83. The Captain or other officer commanding any company of Active Militia, with the assistance of the officers and non-commissioned officers of his company, shall make and keep at all times a correct roll of the company, in such form as Her Majesty directs; and the Lieutenant-Colonel or other officer commanding any battalion of Active Militia, and under him especially the Adjutant shall see that the company rolls are properly made out and corrected, from time to time, by the Captains or other officers commanding companies in such battalion, and shall report such officers as fail to perform their duty in this respect. 46 V., c. 11, s. 65.

15. The Superintendent General may authorize surveys, plans, reports and subdivision into lots of reserves to be made of any reserve for Indians, showing and distinguishing the improved lands, the forests and lands fit for settlement, and such other information as is required; and may authorize the whole or any portion of a reserve to be sub-divided into lots. 43 V., c. 28, s. 16.

16. No Indian shall be deemed to be lawfully in possession of any land in a reserve, unless he has been or is located for the same by the band, or council of the band, with the approval of the Superintendent General; but no Indian shall be dispossessed of any land on which he has improvements, without receiving compensation therefor, at a valuation approved by the Superintendent General, from the Indian who obtains the land, or from the funds of the band, as is determined by the Superintendent General. 43 V., c. 28, s. 17.

17. When the Superintendent General approves of any location as aforesaid, he shall issue, in triplicate, a ticket granting a location title to such Indian, one triplicate of which he shall retain in a book to be kept for the purpose; and the other two of which he shall forward to the local agent—one to be delivered to the Indian in whose favor it was issued, and the other to be filed by the agent, who shall also cause the same to be copied into a register of the band, provided for the purpose. 43 V., c. 28, s. 18.

General, whose consent and approval shall be given only by the issue of a ticket, in the manner prescribed in the next preceding section. 43 V., c. 28, s. 19.

19. Every Indian and every non-treaty Indian, in the Province of British Columbia, in the Province of Manitoba, in the North-West Territories or in the District of Keewatin, who has, previously to the selection of a reserve, possession of and who has made permanent improvements on a plot of land which is or shall be included in, or surrounded by, a reserve, shall have the same privileges, in respect of such plot, as an Indian enjoys who holds under a location title. 43 V., c. 28, s. 21.

Descent of Property.

20. Any Indian who holds, under location ticket or other duly recognized title, any parcel of land upon the reserve of his band, or upon a reserve of any other band, upon which he, or he and his family, or any of them, resided at the date of his death, may devise the same by will, as well as his personal effects or other property of which he is the recognized owner, to such member or members of his family, or relative or relatives, as to him seems proper; provided the said will, after his death, is consented to by the band owning the said reserve, and approved of by the Superintendent General, and that such devise is not to any relative who is not entitled to reside upon the reserve of the band on which the property devised is situated, or to any relative farther removed than a second cousin:

2. The devise may be made subject to such trusts as to the devisor seems proper, if the same are within the provisions of this Act, or any other Act respecting Indian affairs:

3. If such will is not assented to or approved of, as aforesaid, the Indian shall be deemed to have died intestate:

4. Upon the death of any Indian who holds, under location ticket or other duly recognized title, any parcel of land, and who has died intestate, the right and interest therein of such deceased Indian shall, together with his goods and chattels, devolve one-third upon his widow, if any, if she is a woman of good moral character and was living with her husband at the time of his death, and the remainder upon his children, in equal shares, if they are Indians within the meaning of this Act, and such children shall have a like estate in such land as their father had; but the Superintendent General may, in his discretion, direct that the widow, if she is of good moral character, shall have the right to occupy such parcel of land, and have the use of such goods and chattels during the term of her widowhood:

5. During the minority of such children, the administration and charge of such land and goods and chattels as they are entitled to, as aforesaid, shall devolve upon the widow,
if any, of such deceased Indian, if she is a woman of good moral character and was living with her husband at the time of his death; and as each male child attains the age of twenty-one years, and each female child attains that age or marries before that age, with the consent of the said widow, the share of such male or female child shall be conveyed or delivered, as the case may be, to him or her; but the Superintendent General may, at any time, remove the widow from such administration and charge, and confer the same upon some other person, and, in like manner, may remove such other person and appoint another, and so, from time to time, as occasion requires:

6. If any such Indian dies without issue, leaving a widow of good moral character, such lot or parcel of land, and his goods and chattels, shall be vested in her, and if he leaves no widow, then they shall be vested in the Indian nearest of kin to the deceased; but if he has no heir nearer than a cousin, the same shall be vested in Her Majesty for the benefit of the band:

7. Whatever is the final disposition of the land, the claimant shall not be held to be lawfully in possession until he obtains a location ticket from the Superintendent General, in the manner prescribed in regard to new locations:

8. The Superintendent General may, whenever there are minor children, appoint a fit and proper person to take charge of such children and their property, and may remove such person and appoint another, and so, from time to time, as occasion requires:

9. The Superintendent General may decide all questions which arise respecting the distribution, among those entitled, of the lands and goods and chattels of a deceased Indian, and may also do whatsoever he, under the circumstances, thinks will best give to each claimant his share, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, whether such share is part of the lands or goods and chattels themselves, or is part of the proceeds thereof, if it is thought best to dispose thereof—regard always being had in any such disposition to restrictions upon the disposition of property in a reserve. 47 V., c. 27, s. 5.

TRESPASSING ON RESERVES.

21. No person, or Indian other than an Indian of the band, shall settle, reside or hunt upon, occupy or use any land or marsh, or shall settle, reside upon or occupy any road, or allowance for road, running through any reserve belonging to or occupied by such band; and all mortgages given or consented to by any Indian, and all leases, contracts and agreements made or purporting to be made by any Indian, whereby persons or Indians other than Indians of the band are permitted to reside or hunt upon such reserve, shall be void. 43 V., c. 28, s. 22.
22. If any person, or Indian other than an Indian of the band, without the license of the Superintendent General (which license he may at any time revoke), settles, resides or hunts upon, occupies, uses, or causes or permits any cattle or other animals owned by him, or in his charge, to trespass on any such land or marsh, or fishes in any marsh, river, stream or creek on or running through a reserve, or settles, resides upon or occupies any such road, or allowance for road, on such reserve,—or if any Indian is illegally in possession of any land in a reserve—the Superintendent General, or such officer or person as he thereunto deputes and authorizes, shall, on complaint made to him, and on proof of the fact to his satisfaction, issue his warrant, signed and sealed, directed to any literate person willing to act in the premises, commanding him forthwith—

(a.) To remove from the said land, marsh or road, or allowance for road, every such person or Indian and his family, so settled, or who is residing or hunting upon, or occupying, or is illegally in possession of the same; or—

(b.) To remove such cattle or other animals from such land or marsh; or—

(c.) To cause such person or Indian to cease fishing in any marsh, river, stream or creek, as aforesaid; or—

(d.) To notify such person or Indian to cease using, as aforesaid, the said lands, river, streams, creeks or marshes, roads or allowance for roads;

And such person shall accordingly remove or notify every such person or Indian, or remove such cattle or other animals, or cause such person or Indian to cease fishing, as aforesaid, and for that purpose shall have the same powers as in the execution of criminal process; and the expenses incurred in any such removal or notification shall be borne by the person removed or notified, or who owns the cattle or other animals removed, or who has them in charge, and may be recovered from him as the costs in any ordinary action or suit, or if the trespasser is an Indian, such expenses may be deducted from his share of annuity and interest money, if any such are due to him. 47 V., c. 27, s. 21.

23. If any person or Indian, after he has been removed or notified as aforesaid, or after any cattle or other animals owned by him or in his charge have been removed, as aforesaid, returns to, settles, resides or hunts upon, or occupies or uses, as aforesaid, any of the said land, marsh or lots, or parts of lots, or causes or permits any cattle or other animals owned by him or in his charge, to return to any of the said land, marsh, or lots or parts of lots, or returns to any marsh, river, stream or creek on or running through a reserve, for the purpose of fishing therein, or settles or resides upon or occupies any of the said roads, allowances for roads, or lots or parts of lots, the Superintendent General, or any officer or person deputed and authorized, as aforesaid, upon view, or upon proof on oath made before him, or to his satisfaction, that the said person or Indian has returned to, settled, resided or hunted upon, or occupied or used, as aforesaid, any of the said lands, marshes, lots or parts of lots, or has returned to, settled or resided upon or occupied any of the said roads, or allowances for roads, or lots or parts of lots, or has caused or permitted any cattle or other animals owned by him, or in his charge, to return to any of the said land, marsh or lots or parts of lots, or has returned to any marsh, river, stream or creek, on or running through a reserve, for the purpose of fishing therein, shall direct and send his warrant, signed and sealed, to the sheriff of the proper county or district, or to any literate person therein; and if the said reserve is not situated within any county or district, then to any literate person, commanding him forthwith to arrest such person or Indian, and bring him before any stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, justice of the peace, or Indian agent, who may, on conviction, commit him to the common gaol of the said county or district; or if there is no gaol in the said county or district, then to the gaol nearest to the said reserve in the Province or Territory, there to remain for the time ordered in such warrant, but which shall not exceed thirty days for the first offence, and thirty days additional for each subsequent offence. 43 V., c. 28, s. 24;—45 V., c. 30, s. 3;—47 V., c. 27, s. 6.

24. Such sheriff or other person shall accordingly arrest the said person or Indian, and deliver him to the gaoler or sheriff of the proper county, district, Province or Territory, who shall receive such person or Indian, and imprison him in the said gaol for the term aforesaid. 43 V., c. 28, s. 25.

25. The Superintendent General, or such officer or person aforesaid, shall cause the judgment or order against the offender to be drawn up and filed in his office; and such judgment shall not be appealed from, or removed by certiorari or otherwise, but shall be final. 48 V., c. 28, s. 26.

26. Every person, or Indian other than an Indian of the band to which the reserve belongs, who, without the license in writing of the Superintendent General, or of some officer or person deputed by him for that purpose, cuts, carries away, or removes from any of the said land, roads or allowances for roads, in the said reserve, any of the trees, saplings, shrubs, underwood, timber or hay thereon, or removes any of the stone, soil, minerals, metals or other valuables from the said land, roads or allowances for roads, shall, on conviction thereof before any stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, or any two justices of the peace or Indian agent, incur—

4. All such penalties shall be paid to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall be disposed of for the use and benefit of the band of Indians for whose benefit the reserve is held, in such manner as the Governor in Council directs:

5. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Superintendent General from issuing a license to any person or Indian to cut and remove trees, wood, timber and hay, or to quarry and remove stone and gravel on and from the reserve, if he, or his agent, acting by his instructions, first obtains the consent of the band thereto in the

In all orders, writs, warrants, summonses and proceedings whatsoever made, issued or taken by the Superintendent General, or any officer or person by him deputed as aforesaid, or by any stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, justice of the peace or Indian agent, it shall not be necessary to insert or express the name of the person or Indian summoned, arrested, distrained upon, imprisoned or otherwise proceeded against therein, except when the name of such person or Indian is truly given to or known by the Superintendent General, or such officer or person, or such stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, justice of the peace or Indian agent; and if the name is not truly given to or known by him, he may name or describe the person or Indian by any part of the name of such person or Indian given to or known by him; and if no part of the name is given to or known by him, he may describe the person or Indian as aforesaid, shall incur the penalties provided in the next preceding section in respect to Indians of other bands and other persons, and similar proceedings may be had for the recovery thereof as are provided for in the said section.

SALE OR BARTER OF PRODUCE AND MAPLE TREES GROWN ON RESERVES.

30. The Governor in Council may make such regulations as, from time to time, seem advisable for prohibiting or regulating the sale, barter, exchange or gift, by any band or irregular band of Indians, or by any Indian of any band or irregular band, in the Province of Manitoba, the North-West Territories or the District of Keewatin, of any grain or root crops, or other produce grown upon any Indian reserve in the Province of Manitoba, the North-West Territories or the District of Keewatin; and may further provide that such sale, barter, exchange or gift shall be null and void, unless the same are made in accordance with regulations made in that behalf:

2. Every person who buys or otherwise acquires from any such Indian or band, or irregular band of Indians, any such grain, root crops or other produce, contrary to any such regulations, shall, on summary conviction before a stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, or two justices of the peace or an Indian agent, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both. 44 V., c. 17, s. 1, part, and s. 2;—45 V., c. 30, ss. 3 and 6.

31. If any such grain or root crops, or other produce as aforesaid, are unlawfully in the possession of any person, within the intent and meaning of this Act, and of any regulations made by the Governor in Council under this Act, any person acting under the authority, either general or special, of the Superintendent General, may, with such assistance in that behalf as he thinks necessary, seize and take possession of the same; and he shall deal therewith as the Superintendent General, or any officer or person thereunto by him authorized, directs. 44 V., c. 17, s. 3.

32. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make regulations for prohibiting the cutting, carrying away or removing from any reserve or special reserve, of any hard or sugar-maple tree or sapling; and every person who cuts, carries away or removes from any reserve or special reserve, any hard or sugar-maple tree or sapling, or buys or otherwise acquires from any Indian or non-treaty Indian, or other person, any hard or sugar-maple tree or sapling so cut, carried away or removed from any reserve or special reserve, contrary to any such regulation, shall, on summary conviction before a stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, or two justices of the peace or an Indian agent, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both. 44 V., c. 17; ss. 4 and 5;—45 V., c. 30, s. 3.
33. Indians residing upon any reserve, and engaged in the pursuit of agriculture as their then principal means of support, shall be liable, if so directed by the Superintendent General, or any officer or person by him thereunto authorized, to perform labor on the public roads laid out or used in or through, or abutting upon such reserve,—which labor shall be performed under the sole control of the Superintendent General, or officer or person aforesaid, who may direct when, where and how and in what manner such labor shall be applied, and to what extent the same shall be imposed upon Indians who are resident upon any of the said lands; and the Superintendent General, or officer or person aforesaid, shall have the like power to enforce the performance of such labor by imprisonment or otherwise, as may be done by any power or authority under any law, rule or regulation in force in the Province or Territory in which such reserve is situate, for the non-performance of statute labor; but the labor to be so required of any such Indian shall not exceed in amount or extent what may be required of other inhabitants of the same Province, Territory, county or other local division, under the laws requiring and regulating such labor and the performance thereof. 43 V., c. 28, s. 34.

34. Every band of Indians shall cause the roads, bridges, ditches and fences within its reserve to be put and maintained in proper order, in accordance with the instructions received, from time to time, from the Superintendent General, or from the agent of the Superintendent General; and whenever, in the opinion of the Superintendent General, the same are not so put or maintained in order, he may cause the work to be performed at the cost of such band, or of the particular Indian in default, as the case may be, either out of its or his annual allowances, or otherwise. 43 V., c. 28, s. 85.

Compensation for Portion of Reserve Used for Any Purpose or Trespassed Upon.

35. If any railway, road or public work passes through or causes injury to any reserve belonging to or in possession of any band of Indians, or if any act occasioning damage to any reserve is done under the authority of an Act of Parliament, or of the Legislature of any Province, compensation shall be made to them therefor in the same manner as is provided with respect to the lands or rights of other persons; and the Superintendent General shall, in any case in which an arbitration is had, name the arbitrator on behalf of the Indians, and shall act for them in any matter relating to the settlement of such compensation; and the amount awarded in any case shall be paid to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General for the use of the band of Indians for whose benefit the reserve is held, and for the benefit of any Indian who has improvements thereon. 42 V., c. 9, s. 9, sub-s. 37;—43 V., c. 28, s. 31.

36. In all cases of encroachment upon, or of violation of trust respecting any special reserve, proceedings may be taken in the name of Her Majesty, in any superior court, notwithstanding the legal title is not vested in Her Majesty. 43 V., c. 28, s. 32.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF LANDS IN RESERVE.

37. If, by the violation of the conditions of any such trust as aforesaid, or by the breaking up of any society, corporation or community, or if by the death of any person or persons without a legal succession of trusteeship, in whom the title to a special reserve is held in trust, the said title lapses or becomes void in law, the legal title shall become vested in Her Majesty in trust, and the property shall be managed for the band or irregular band previously interested therein as an ordinary reserve:

2. The trustees of any special reserve may, at any time, surrender the same to Her Majesty in trust, whereupon the property shall be managed for the band or irregular band previously interested therein as an ordinary reserve. 43 V., c. 28, s. 33.

38. No reserve or portion of a reserve shall be sold, alienated or leased until it has been released or surrendered to the Crown for the purposes of this Act, excepting that in cases of aged, sick and infirm Indians and widows or children left without a guardian, or in the cases of Indians engaged in the practice of any one of the learned professions, or in teaching schools, or in pursuing a trade which interferes with their cultivating land on the reserve, the Superintendent General shall have the power to lease, for their support or benefit, the lands to which they are entitled. 43 V., c. 28, s. 36;—47 V., c. 27, s. 8.

39. No release or surrender of a reserve, or portion of a reserve, held for the use of the Indians of any band, or of any individual Indian, shall be valid or binding, except on the following conditions:

(a.) The release or surrender shall be assented to by a majority of the male members of the band, of the full age of twenty-one years, at a meeting or council thereof summoned for that purpose, according to the rules of the band, and held in the presence of the Superintendent General, or of an officer duly authorized to attend such council, by the Governor in Council or by the Superintendent General; but no-
Indian shall be entitled to vote or be present at such council unless he habitually resides on or near and is interested in the reserve in question;

(b.) The fact that such release or surrender has been assented to by the band at such council or meeting, shall be certified on oath before some judge of a superior, county or district court, or stipendiary magistrate, by the Superintendent General, or by the officer authorized by him to attend such council or meeting, and by some one of the chiefs or principal men present thereat and entitled to vote; and when such assent has been so certified, as aforesaid, such release or surrender shall be submitted to the Governor in Council for acceptance or refusal. 48 V., c. 28, s. 37.

40. Nothing in this Act shall confirm any release or surrender which, but for this Act, would have been invalid; and no release or surrender of any reserve, or portion of a reserve, to any person other than Her Majesty, shall be valid. 43 V., c. 28, s. 39.

41. All Indian lands, which are reserves or portions of reserves, surrendered or to be surrendered to Her Majesty, shall be deemed to be held for the same purposes as before the passing of this Act; and shall be managed, leased and sold as the Governor in Council directs, subject to the conditions of surrender and the provisions of this Act. 43 V., c. 28, s. 40.

SALE AND TRANSFER OF LANDS IN RESERVES.

42. Every certificate of sale or receipt for money received on the sale of Indian lands granted or made by the Superintendent General or any agent of his, so long as the sale to which such receipt or certificate relates is in force and not rescinded, shall entitle the person to whom the same is granted, or his assignee, by instrument registered under this or any former Act providing for registration in such cases, to take possession of and occupy the land therein comprised, subject to the conditions of such sale, and thereunder, unless the same has been revoked or cancelled, to maintain actions and suits against any wrongdoer or trespasser, as effectually as he could do under a patent from the Crown; and such receipt or certificate shall be prima facie evidence for the purpose of possession by such person, or the assignee, under an instrument registered as aforesaid, in any such action or suit; but the same shall have no force against a license to cut timber existing at the time of the making or granting thereof. 48 V., c. 28, s. 42.

43. The Superintendent General shall keep a book for registering, at the option of the persons interested, the particulars of any assignment made, as well by the original purchaser or lessee of Indian lands, or his heirs or legal representatives, as by any subsequent assignee of any such lands, or the heirs or legal representatives of such assignee:

2. Upon any such assignment being produced to the Superintendent General, and, except in cases where such assignment is made under a corporate seal, with an affidavit of due execution thereof, and of the time and place of such execution, and the names, residences and occupations of the witnesses; or, as regards lands in the Province of Quebec, upon the production of such assignment, executed in notarial form, or of a notarial copy thereof, the Superintendent General shall cause the material parts of every such assignment to be registered in such book of registry, and shall cause to be indorsed on every such assignment a certificate of such registration, signed by himself, or by the Deputy Superintendent General or any other officer of the department by him authorized to sign such certificates:

3. Every such assignment so registered shall be valid against any assignment previously executed, which is subsequently registered or is unregistered; and no such registration shall be made until all the conditions of the sale, grant or location are complied with or dispensed with by the Superintendent General, and every assignment registered, as aforesaid, shall be unconditional in its terms. 43 V., c. 28, s. 43.

44. If any subscribing witness to any such assignment is dead, or is absent from Canada, the Superintendent General may register such assignment upon the production of an affidavit proving the death or absence of such witness, and his handwriting, or the handwriting of the person making such assignment. 43 V., c. 28, s. 44.

45. Every patent for Indian lands shall be prepared in the Department of Indian Affairs, and shall be signed by the Superintendent General of Indian Affairs or his deputy, or by some other person thereunto specially authorized by order of the Governor General in Council, and when so signed, shall be registered by an officer specially appointed for that purpose by the Registrar General, and then transmitted to the Secretary of State of Canada, by whom, or by the Under Secretary of State, the same shall be counter-signed, and the Great Seal of Canada thereto caused to be affixed: Provided, that every such patent for land shall be signed by the Governor or by the Deputy Governor appointed under this Act for that purpose:

2. On any application for a patent by the heir, assignee or devisee of the original purchaser from the Crown, the Superintendent General may receive proof, in such manner as he directs and requires, in support of any claim for a patent, when the original purchaser is dead; and upon being satisfied that the claim has been equitably and justly established, may allow the same, and cause a patent to issue accordingly; but nothing in this section shall limit the right of a person claiming a patent to land in the Province of Ontario to make application at any time to the Commissioner, under the "Act respecting the Heir, Devisee and Assignee Commission," being chapter twenty-five of the Revised Statutes of Ontario (1877) or the corresponding provision in any subsequent revision of the said Statutes. 43 V., c. 28, s. 45; 49 V., c. 7, s. 2.

46. If the Superintendent General is satisfied that any purchaser or lessee of any Indian lands, or any assignee claiming under or through him, has been guilty of any fraud or imposition, or has violated any of the conditions of sale or lease, or if any such sale or lease has been made or issued in error or mistake, he may cancel such sale or lease, and resume the land therein mentioned, or dispose of it as if no sale or lease thereof had ever been made; and all such cancellations heretofore made by the Governor in Council, or by the Superintendent General, shall continue valid until altered. 43 V., c. 28, s. 46.

47. Whenever any purchaser, lessee or other person refuses or neglects to deliver up possession of any land after revocation or cancellation of the sale or lease, as aforesaid, or whenever any person is wrongfully in possession of any Indian lands and refuses to vacate or abandon possession of the same, the Superintendent General may apply to the judge of the county court of the county, or to a judge of the superior court in the district in which the land lies, in Ontario or Quebec respectively, or to any judge of a superior court, or to any judge of a county court of the county in which the land lies, in any other Province, or to a judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories in the said Territories, or to any stipendiary magistrate in any other Territory or district in which the land lies, for an order in the nature of a writ of habere facias possessionem or writ of possession; and the said judge or magistrate, upon proof to his satisfaction that the right or title of the person to hold such land has been revoked or cancelled, as aforesaid, or that such person is wrongfully in possession of Indian lands, shall grant an order upon the purchaser, lessee or person in possession, to deliver up the same to the Superintendent General, or person by him authorized to receive the same; and such order shall have the same force as a writ of habere facias possessionem, or writ of possession; and the sheriff, or any bailiff or person to whom it has been intrusted for execution by the Superintendent General, shall execute the same in like manner as he would execute such writ in an action of ejectment or a possessory action. 43 V., c. 28, s. 47; 49 V., c. 25, s. 30.
48. Whenever any rent payable to the Crown on any lease of Indian lands is in arrear, the Superintendent General, or any agent or officer appointed under this Act and authorized by the Superintendent General to act in such cases, may issue a warrant, directed to any person or persons by him named therein, in the form of a distress warrant, as in ordinary cases of landlord and tenant, or as in the case of distress and warrant of a justice of the peace for non-payment of a pecuniary penalty; and the same proceedings may be had thereon, for the collection of such arrears, as in either of the said last-mentioned cases; or an action of debt, as in ordinary cases of rent in arrear, may be brought therefor in the name of the Superintendent General; but demand of rent shall not be necessary in any case. 43 V., c. 28, s. 48.

49. When by law or by any deed, lease or agreement relating to any of the lands herein referred to, any notice is required to be given, or any act to be done, by or on behalf of the Crown, such notice may be given and act done by or by the authority of the Superintendent General. 43 V., c. 28, s. 49.

50. Whenever letters patent have been issued to or in the name of the wrong person, through mistake, or contain any clerical error or misnomer, or wrong description of any material fact therein, or of the land thereby intended to be granted, the Superintendent General, if there is no adverse claim, may direct the defective letters patent to be cancelled and a minute of such cancellation to be entered in the margin of the registry of the original letters patent, and correct letters patent to be issued in their stead,—which corrected letters patent shall relate back to the date of those so cancelled, and have the same effect as if issued at the date of such cancelled letters patent. 43 V., c. 28, s. 50.

51. In all cases in which grants or letters patent have issued for the same land, inconsistent with each other, through error, and in all cases of sales or appropriations of the same land, inconsistent with each other, the Superintendent General may, in cases of sale, cause a repayment of the purchase money, with interest; or when the land has passed from the original purchaser or has been improved before a discovery of the error, he may, in substitution, assign land or grant a certificate entitling the person to purchase Indian lands, of such value and to such extent as the Superintendent General deems just and equitable under the circumstances; but no such claim shall be entertained unless it is preferred within five years from the discovery of the error. 43 V., c. 28, s. 51.

52. Whenever, by reason of false survey or error in the books or plans in the department, or in the late Indian branch of the Department of the Interior, any grant, sale or appropriation of land is found deficient, or any parcel of land contains less than the quantity of land mentioned in the patent therefor, the Superintendent General may order the purchase money of so much land as is deficient, with the interest thereon from the time of the application therefor,—or, if the land has passed from the original purchaser, the purchase money which the claimant, if he was ignorant of a deficiency at the time of his purchase, has paid for so much of the land as is deficient, with interest thereon from the time of the application therefor,—to be paid to him in land or money, as the Superintendent General directs; but no such claim shall be entertained unless application is made within five years from the date of the patent, and unless the deficiency is equal to one-tenth of the whole quantity described, as contained in the particular lot or parcel of land granted. 43 V., c. 28, s. 52.

53. Whenever patents for Indian lands have issued through fraud or in error or improvidence, the Exchequer Court of Canada, or a superior court in any Province may, upon action, bill or plaint, respecting such lands situate within its jurisdiction, and upon hearing the parties interested, or upon default of the said parties after such notice of proceeding as the said courts shall respectively order, decree such patents to be void; and upon a registry of such decree in the office of the Registrar General of Canada, such patents shall be void to all intents:

2. The practice in court, in such cases, shall be regulated by orders, from time to time, made by the said courts respectively. 43 V., c. 28, s. 53.

TIMBER LANDS.

54. The Superintendent General, or any officer or agent authorized by him to that effect, may grant licenses to cut trees on reserves and ungranted Indian lands, at such rates, and subject to such conditions, regulations and restrictions, as are, from time to time, established by the Governor in Council, and such conditions, regulations and restrictions shall be adapted to the locality in which such reserves or lands are situated. 43 V., c. 28, s. 56.

55. No license shall be so granted for a longer period than twelve months from the date thereof: and if, in consequence of any incorrectness of survey or other error, or cause whatsoever, a license is found to comprise land included in a license of a prior date, or land not being reserve, or ungranted Indian lands, the license granted shall be void in so far as it comprises such land, and the holder or proprietor of the license so rendered void shall have no claim upon the Crown for indemnity or compensation by reason of such avoidance. 43 V., c. 28, s. 57.
License must describe the lands upon which the trees may be cut, and the kind of trees which may be cut, and shall confer, for the time being, on the licensee the right to take and keep exclusive possession of the land so described, subject to such regulations as are made; and every license shall vest in the holder thereof all rights of property whatsoever in all trees of the kind specified, cut within the limits of the license, during the term thereof, whether such trees are cut by the authority of the holder of such license or by any other person, with or without his consent; and every license shall entitle the holder thereof to seize, in revendication or otherwise, such trees and the logs, timber or other product thereof, if the same are found in the possession of any unauthorized person, and also to institute any action or suit against any wrongful possessor or trespasser, and to prosecute all trespassers and other offenders to punishment, and to recover damages, if any; and all proceedings pending at the expiration of any license may be continued to final termination, as if the license had not expired. 43 V., c. 28, s. 58.

Return to be made by licensee.

Every person who obtains a license shall, at the expiration thereof, make to the officer or agent granting the same, or to the Superintendent General, a return of the number and kinds of trees cut, and of the quantity and description of saw-logs, or of the number and description of sticks of square or other timber, manufactured and carried away under such license; and such statement shall be sworn to by the holder of the license, or his agent, or by his foreman; and every person who refuses or neglects to furnish such statement, or who evades or attempts to evade any regulation made by the Governor in Council, shall be held to have cut without authority, and the timber or other product made shall be dealt with accordingly. 43 V., c. 28, s. 59.

Trees cut and their products to be liable for the payment of dues.

All trees cut, and the logs, timber or other product thereof, shall be liable for the payment of the dues thereon, so long as and wheresoever the same, or any part thereof, are found, whether in the original logs or manufactured into deals, boards or other stuff; and all officers or agents entrusted with the collection of such dues, may follow and seize and detain the same wherever they are found, until the dues are paid or secured. 43 V., c. 28, s. 60.

Security taken for dues not to affect lien.

No instrument or security taken for the dues, either before or after the cutting of the trees, as collateral security, or to facilitate collection, shall in any way affect the lien for such dues, but the lien shall subsist until the said dues are actually discharged. 43 V., c. 28, s. 61.

Sale of seized timber after a certain delay.

If any timber so seized and detained for non-payment of dues remains more than twelve months in the custody of the agent or person appointed to guard the same, without the dues and expenses being paid, the Superintendent General may order a sale of the said timber to be made after sufficient notice; and the balance of the proceeds of such sale, after retaining the amount of dues and costs incurred, shall be handed over to the owner or claimant of such timber, upon his applying therefor and proving his right thereto.

43 V., c. 28, s. 62.

61. If any person, without authority, cuts, or employs or induces any other person to cut, or assists in cutting any trees of any kind on Indian lands, or removes or carries away, or employs, or induces or assists any other person to remove or carry away, any trees of any kind so cut from Indian lands, he shall not acquire any right to the trees so cut, or any claim to any remuneration for cutting or preparing the same for market, or conveying the same to or towards market; and when the trees, or logs or timber, or other product thereof, have been removed, so that the same cannot, in the opinion of the Superintendent General, conveniently be seized, he shall, in addition to the loss of his labor and disbursements, incur a penalty of three dollars for each tree, rafting stuff excepted, which he is proved to have cut or caused to be cut or carried away; and such penalty shall be recoverable with costs, at the suit and in the name of the Superintendent General or resident agent, in any court having jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount of the penalty; and in all such cases it shall be incumbent on the person charged to prove his authority to cut; and the averment of the person seizing or prosecuting, that he is duly employed under the authority of this Act, shall be sufficient proof thereof, unless the defendant proves the contrary.

43 V., c. 28, s. 63.

62. When the Superintendent General, or any officer or agent acting under him, receives satisfactory information supported by affidavit made before a justice of the peace or authority, that any trees have been cut without authority on Indian lands, describing where the trees, logs, timber or other product thereof are to be found, the Superintendent General, officer or agent, may seize, or cause to be seized, the same in Her Majesty's name, wheresover found, and place the same under proper custody, until the matter is decided by competent authority.

43 V., c. 28, s. 64, part.

63. When the trees, timber, logs or other product thereof, so reported to have been cut without authority, on Indian lands, have been made up or intermingled with other trees, timber, logs or other product thereof, into a crib, dram or raft, or in any other manner, so that it is difficult to distinguish the trees, timber, logs or other product thereof, cut on reserves on reserves or Indian land, without license, from that with which it is made up or intermingled, the whole of the trees, timber, logs or other product thereof, so made up or intermingled, shall be held to have been cut without authority on Indian lands, and shall be seized, and forfeited, and sold, by the Superintendent General, or any other officer or agent acting under him, unless evidence satisfactory to him is adduced, showing the probable quantity not cut on Indian lands. 43 V., c. 28, s. 64, part.

64. Every officer or person seizing trees, logs, timber or other product thereof, in the discharge of his duty under this Act, may, in the name of the Crown, call in any assistance necessary for securing and protecting the same. 43 V.,
c. 28, s. 65, part.

65. Whenever any trees, logs, timber or other product thereof are seized for non-payment of Crown dues, or for any other cause of forfeiture, or whenever any prosecution is brought in respect of any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, and any question arises whether the said dues have been paid or whether the trees, logs, timber or other product were cut on lands other than any of the lands aforesaid, the burden of proving payment, or on what land the same were cut, as the case may be, shall lie on the owner or claimant and not on the officer who seizes the same, or the person who brings such prosecution. 43 V., c. 28, s. 66, part.

66. All trees, logs, timber or other product thereof seized under this Act, shall be deemed to be condemned, unless the person from whom the same are seized, or the owner thereof, within one month from the day of the seizure, gives notice to the seizing officer or nearest officer or agent of the Superintendent General, that he claims or intends to claim the same; and in default of such notice, the officer or agent seizing shall report the circumstances to the Superintendent General, who may order the sale of the same by the said officer or agent. 43 V., c. 28, s. 67, part.

67. Any judge of any superior, county or district court, or any stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate or Indian agent, may, in a summary way, under the "Act respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace," try and determine such seizures,—and may, pending the trial, order the delivery of the trees, logs, timber or other product thereof to the alleged owner, on receiving security by bond, with two good and sufficient sureties, first approved by the said agent, to pay double the value of such trees, logs, timber or other product, in case of their condemnation; and such bond shall be taken in the name of the Superintendent General, for Her Majesty, and shall be delivered up to and kept by the Superintendent General: and if such seized trees, logs, timber or other product thereof are condemned, the value thereof shall be paid forthwith to the Superintendent General or agent, and the bond cancelled, otherwise the penalty of such bond shall be enforced and recovered. 43 V., c. 28, s. 67, part;—45 V., c. 30, s. 8.

68. Every one who avails himself of any false statement or false oath to evade the payment of dues under this Act, shall forfeit the timber in respect of which the dues are attempted to be evaded. 43 V., c. 28, s. 68.

MANAGEMENT OF INDIAN MONEYS.

69. All moneys or securities of any kind applicable to the support or benefit of Indians, or any band of Indians, and all moneys accrued or hereafter to accrue from the sale of any Indian lands or of any timber on any reserves or Indian lands, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be applicable to the same purposes and be dealt with in the same manner as they might have been applied to or dealt with but for the passing of this Act. 43 V., c. 28, s. 69.

70. 2. Any children of a probationary Indian, who, being minors and unmarried when the probationary ticket was granted to such Indian, arrive at the full age of twenty-one years before the letters patent are issued to such Indian, may, at the discretion of the Governor in Council, receive letters patent in their own names, subject to the same restrictions and reservations as are contained in the letters patent issued to their parent, for their respective shares of the land allotted under the said ticket, at the same time that letters patent are granted to their parent:

3. If any Indian child who arrives at the full age of twenty-one years, during his or her parent's probationary period, is not qualified for enfranchisement, or if any child of such parent, who was a minor at the commencement of such period, is married during such period, a quantity of land equal to the share of such child shall be deducted, in such manner as the Superintendent General directs, from the allotment made to such Indian parent on receiving his probationary ticket. 43 V., c. 28, s. 101;—47 V., c. 27, s. 18.

91. In allotting land to probationary Indians, the quantity to be allotted to the head of a family shall be in proportion to the number of such family, compared with the total quantity of land in the reserve, and the whole number of the band; but the Superintendent General may determine

CHAPTER 46.

An Act respecting Subsidies and Allowances to the Provinces.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. The Province of New Brunswick, in consideration of the Legislature thereof having passed an Act providing for the repeal of all duties of export on lumber exported from the said Province, shall, so long as no such duties of export are imposed by the said Legislature, be paid in addition to the subsidy to which the said Province is entitled, a subsidy at the rate of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually, as indemnity for the loss of such duties and the right to impose the same. 36 V., c. 41, s. 1.

2. In the accounts between the several Provinces and Canada, the amounts payable to and chargeable against the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec respectively, in so far as they depend on the amount of debt with which each Province entered the Union, shall be calculated and allowed as if the sum fixed by the one hundred and twelfth section of "The British North America Act, 1867," was increased from sixty-two million five hundred thousand dollars, to the sum of seventy-three million six thousand and eighty-eight dollars and eighty-four cents, and as if the amounts fixed, as regards the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, by "The British North America Act, 1867," and as regards the Province of British Columbia by the terms and conditions on which it was admitted into the Dominion, were increased in the same proportion:

2. The increased subsidy to be allowed to the Province of Nova Scotia under this section shall be based upon the sum of nine million one hundred and eighty-six thousand seven hundred and fifty-six dollars, as if that sum had been mentioned in the one hundred and fourteenth section of "The British North America Act, 1867," instead of the sum of eight million dollars. 32-33 V., c. 2, s. 1;—36 V., c. 30, s. 1;—37 V., c. 3, s. 1.

3. In the accounts between the several Provinces and Canada, the amounts by which the yearly subsidy to each calculated on 708 was increased by the Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed in the thirty-sixth year of Her Majesty’s reign, chaptered thirty (as explained by the Act of the said Parliament, passed in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty’s reign, chaptered three, as to Nova Scotia), shall be calculated and allowed to Ontario and Quebec (jointly, as having formed the late Province of Canada), and to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, as if the said Acts had directed that such increase should be allowed from the day of the coming into force of "The British North America Act, 1867," and the total amount of the half yearly payments which would in that case have been made on account of such increase from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, up to and including the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, with interest on each at five per cent. per annum, from the day on which it would have been so paid to the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, shall be deemed capital owing to the said Provinces respectively, bearing interest at five per cent. per annum, which interest shall be payable to them as part of their yearly subsidies from Canada.

47 V., c. 4, s. 1.

4. In the accounts between Canada and the Provinces of British Columbia and Prince Edward Island, the amounts calculated and allowed as the debts of those Provinces respectively, on the nineteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and on which they were then paid interest by Canada, shall be increased by amounts bearing the same proportion to the respective populations of the said Provinces, as ascertained by the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, as the total of the amounts to be added under the next preceding section as capital owing to Ontario and Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, bear to the combined population of the four last named Provinces, as ascertained by the said census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one; and the amounts of such increases, as regards the said Provinces of British Columbia and Prince Edward Island, shall be deemed capital owing to the said Provinces respectively, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, which interest shall be payable to them as part of their respective subsidies from Canada; that is to say, the amount of the increase of the yearly subsidy and the capital on which the same is payable to the several Provinces respectively, under this and the next preceding section, shall be as follows:

5. The following amounts shall be allowed as the annual subsidy to the Province of Manitoba, and shall be paid yearly to the said Province, that is to say:—

(a.) For the support of the Government and Legislature, fifty thousand dollars;

(b.) On an estimated population of one hundred and fifty thousand, at eighty cents per head, one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, subject to be increased as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: a census of the Province shall be taken in every fifth year, reckoning from the general census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one; and an approximate estimate of the population shall be made at equal intervals of time between each quinquennial and decennial census; and whenever the population, by any such census or estimate, exceeds one hundred and fifty thousand, which shall be the minimum on which the said allowance shall be calculated, the amount of the said allowance shall be increased accordingly, and so on, until the population has reached four hundred thousand souls;

(c.) As an indemnity for the want of public lands, one hundred thousand dollars. 45 V., c. 5, s. 1, part;—48-49 V., c. 50, ss. 3, part, 4, and 5, part.

6. The capital sum on which the Province of Manitoba is entitled to receive half yearly payments of interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, as fixed by the Act thirty-third Victoria, chapter three, and as readjusted or increased by any subsequent Act, shall, from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, be calculated on a population of one hundred and twenty-five thousand, at the rate per capita ascertained by dividing by seventeen thousand (that is to say, the estimated population of the Province of Manitoba under the Act thirty-third Victoria, chapter three) the sum of five hundred and forty-seven dollars,—being the amount of capital on which the said Province was entitled to receive interest under and by virtue of section twenty-four of the Act last above cited and the Act thirty-sixth Victoria, chapter thirty;—and shall be charged with such advances as had, up to the twentieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, been made to the Province, and with such expenditure as had been made therein by the Dominion for purposes of a strictly local character, and with a further sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which the Dominion Government may advance to the Province to meet the expenditure of constructing a lunatic asylum, and other exceptional services. 48-49 V., c. 50, s. 6;—49 V., c. 8, s. 1.

7. The grants of land authorized by sections four and five of the Act respecting the Province of Manitoba and the payments to the Province of Manitoba, authorized by the Act.
the foregoing sections of this Act, shall be made as a full settlement of all claims made by the said Province for the reimbursement of costs incurred in the government of the disputed territory, or the reference of the boundary question to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and all other questions and claims discussed between the Dominion and the Provincial Governments, up to the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five. 48-49 V., c. 50, s. 7.

8. The Governor in Council may, in his discretion, advance, from time to time, to any Province of Canada, any sums required for local improvements in the Province, and not exceeding in the whole the amount by which the debt of the Province for which Canada is responsible then falls short of the debt with which the Province was allowed to enter the Union:

2. Such advances shall be deemed additions to the debt of the Province, and the Province may repay them to Canada, on such notice, in such sums and on such conditions as the Government of Canada and that of the Province agree upon; and any amount so repaid shall be deducted from the debt of the Province in calculating the subsidy payable to it: Provided always, that no such advance shall be made to any Province unless it has been previously sanctioned by an Act of the Legislature of that Province. 48-49 V., c. 4, s. 1.

The commissioners shall be guided in their proceedings and report by the justice and equity of the case, without regard to legal forms or to the strict letter of the law, or legal rules of evidence; and they shall report their decision to the Minister of the Interior, who may, if he thinks fit, thereupon cause letters patent to issue, granting the lands in question to the person who has been reported by the commissioners to be entitled to the same, or otherwise, in his discretion, may submit the same for the consideration and approval of the Governor in Council. 38 V., c. 53, s. 10.

16. The commissioners may, from time to time, make and establish such rules and forms, with regard to any proceedings to be had before them, and to such notices, papers and other documents as are required in the conduct of such proceedings, as to them appear expedient, for the better attainment of the purposes of justice. 38 V., c. 53, s. 13.

When inquests may be held.

83. Except as hereinafter provided, no inquest shall be held upon the body of any deceased person by any coroner, unless it has been made to appear to such coroner that there is reason to believe that the deceased died from violence or unfair means, or by culpable or negligent conduct either of himself or of others, under such circumstances as require investigation, and not through mere accident or mischance. 43 V., c. 25, s. 82, part.

2. Provided, that in cases where the claim, dispute or demand arises out of a tort, wrong or grievance, and in which the amount claimed exceeds five hundred dollars, or if for a debt or on a contract in which the amount claimed exceeds one thousand dollars, or for the recovery of the possession of real property, if either party demands a jury, or in any such case in which the judge thinks fit so to direct, he may direct that all questions of fact therein shall be tried and determined by a sworn jury of six in number, summoned in the manner hereinbefore provided as to criminal trials:

3. Provided further, that in cases of disputed accounts, the judge may, in place of a trial by jury, direct the evidence to be taken by the clerk of any court, or by any other competent person; which clerk or other person shall be sworn to take the same truly, and to reduce it to writing:

4. The judge may give judgment on the verdict of the jury or upon the evidence taken by the clerk or other person as aforesaid, or may order a new trial, when justice seems to require the same; and in all cases a judge may give such judgment, and make such orders and decrees, interlocutory and final, as in such cases brought before him appear just and agreeable to equity and good conscience; but no court or judge in the Territories shall have jurisdiction in respect of any action for a gambling debt, or for the price of any intoxicating liquor or intoxicant, or of any action by any person on any promissory note, bill of exchange, cheque, draft or other document or writing whatsoever, the consideration or any part of the consideration for which was a gambling debt or any intoxicating liquor or intoxicant. 47 V., c. 23, s. 4;—49 V., c. 25, s. 30.

89. 90. The proceedings to carry into effect any such judgment, order or decree, whether interlocutory or final, shall be as prescribed by any ordinance of the Lieutenant Governor in Council; or if no such ordinance is in force when any such judgment, order or decree is rendered, then in such manner as the judge who pronounced the same directs. 47 V., c. 23, s. 5;—49 V., c. 25, s. 30.

If any such intoxicating liquor or intoxicant is manufactured or made in the Territories, or is imported or brought into the Territories, or is sold, exchanged, traded or bartered, in violation of the provisions of this Act, such liquor or intoxicant shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the customs or excise, or by any constable or other duly qualified person wheresoever found; and any judge of the Supreme Court, or justice of the peace, on complaint made before him, may, on the evidence of one credible witness, that the provisions of this Act have been violated in respect thereof, order such intoxicating liquor or intoxicant so seized to be forthwith destroyed; or if such liquor or intoxicant has not been seized, such judge or justice of the peace, on complaint as aforesaid, may issue a search warrant, as in cases of stolen goods, and upon the same being found, may cause them to be forthwith destroyed; and the still, machinery, keg, barrel, case, box, package or receptacle whence or in which any intoxicating liquor or intoxicant has been manufactured, imported or made, sold, exchanged, traded or bartered, and as well that in which the original supply was contained as the vessel wherein any portion of such original supply was supplied as aforesaid, and the remainder of the contents thereof, if such still, machinery, barrel, keg, case, box, package, receptacle or vessel aforesaid, respectively, can be identified, may be seized by any officer of the customs or excise or by any constable or other duly qualified person, wheresoever found within the Territories; and any judge of the Supreme Court, or justice of the peace, may, on complaint before him, and on the evidence of one credible witness, that the provisions of this Act have been violated in respect thereof, declare such intoxicating liquor or intoxicant, still, machinery, vessel or receptacle forfeited, and cause the same to be forthwith destroyed; and the person in whose possession any of them are found, shall incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars and not less than fifty dollars, with costs; and a moiety of such penalty shall belong to the informer, and the other moiety thereof shall belong to Her Majesty for the public uses of Canada. 43 V., c. 25, s. 90, part;—49 V., c. 25, s. 30.

All lands in the Territories which, by common law, are regarded as real estate, shall be held to be chattels real and shall go to the executor or administrator of any person or persons dying seized or possessed thereof, as personal estate now passes to the personal representatives. 49 V., c. 26, s. 5.

6. Hereafter no words of limitation shall be necessary in any conveyance of any land in order to convey all or any title therein, but every deed or instrument conveying land shall operate as an absolute conveyance of all such right and title as the grantor has therein at the time of its execution, unless a contrary intention is expressed in such conveyance; but nothing herein contained shall preclude any conveyance from operating by way of estoppel; and hereafter the introduction of any words of limitation into any conveyance or devise of any land, shall have the like force and meaning, as the same words of limitation would have if used by way of limitation of any personal estate, and no other. 49 V., c. 26, s. 6.

58. In every instrument charging, creating or transferring any estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act, there shall be implied the following covenant by the person charging, creating or transferring such estate or interest, that is to say: That he will do such acts and execute such instruments as, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, are necessary to give effect to all covenants, conditions and purposes expressly set forth in such instrument, or by this Act declared to be implied against such person in instruments of a like nature. 49 V., c. 26, s. 58.

59. No instrument, until registered under this Act, shall be effectual to pass any estate or interest in any land (except a leasehold interest for three years or for a less period), or render such land liable as security for the payment of money; but upon the registration of any instrument in manner hereinbefore prescribed, the estate or interest specified in such instrument shall pass, or, as the case may be, the land shall become liable as security, in manner and subject to the covenants, conditions and contingencies set forth and specified in such instrument or by this Act declared to be implied in instruments of a like nature; and if two or more instruments executed by the same owner, and purporting to transfer or encumber the same estate or interest in any land, are presented at the same time to the registrar for registration and indorsement, he shall register and indorse that instrument under which that person claims property, who presents to him the certificate of title of such land; or presents to him the certificate of title of such land for that purpose. 49 V., c. 26, s. 59.

the estate or interest of an owner claiming the same land under a prior certificate of title registered under the provisions of this Act:

2. Such priority shall, in favor of any person in possession of land, be computed with reference to the grant or earliest certificate of title under which he or any person through whom he derives title, has held such possession, notwithstanding the surrender of such certificate, in exchange for a new certificate upon any transfer or dealing. 49 V., c. 26, s. 60.

61. The land mentioned in any certificate of title granted under this Act shall, by implication, and without any special mention in the certificate of title, unless the contrary is expressly declared, be subject to,—

Any municipal charges, rates or assessments for the year current at the date of such certificate, or which are thereafter imposed on the said land, or which have theretofore been imposed for local improvements and which are not then due and payable, and any such charges, rates or assessments in respect of which the right of the municipality to have recourse against the land is not matured, not exceeding three years’ charges, rates or assessments in the whole;

(f.) All public highways embraced in the description of the lands included in any certificate; and—

(g.) Any right of appropriation which may, by statute, be vested in any person or body corporate. 49 V., c. 26, s. 61.

62. Every certificate of title granted under this Act shall (except in case of fraud, wherein the registered owner has participated or colluded), so long as the same remains in force and uncancelled under this Act, be conclusive evidence at law and in equity as against Her Majesty and all persons however that the person named in such certificate is entitled to the land included in such certificate, for the estate or interest therein specified, subject to the exceptions and reservations mentioned in the next preceding section,—except so far as regards any portion of land, by wrong description of boundaries or parcels included in such certificate, and except as against any person claiming under any prior certificate of title granted under this Act in respect of the same land; and for the purpose of this section that person shall be deemed to claim under a prior certificate who is holder of, or whose claim is derived directly or indirectly from the person who was the holder of the earliest certificate granted, notwithstanding that such certificate has been surrendered and a new certificate granted upon any transfer or dealing. 49 V., c. 26, s. 62.

63. A purchaser or encumbrancee for valuable consideration shall not be affected by the omission to send any notice by this Act directed to be given or by the non-receipt thereof. 49 V., c. 26, s. 63.

64. After the registration of the title to any land under the provisions of this Act, no instrument shall be effectual to pass any interest therein or to render such land liable as security for the payment of money as against any bonâ fide transferee of the said land under this Act, unless such instrument is executed in accordance with this Act, and is duly registered thereunder. 49 V., c. 26, s. 64.

TRANSFERS.

65. When land under the provisions of this Act, or any portion of such land, is intended to be transferred, or any right of way or other easement is intended to be created or transferred, the registered owner may execute a memorandum of transfer in the form G in the schedule to this Act, which memorandum shall, for description of the land intended to be dealt with, refer to the grant or certificate of title of such land, or shall give such description as is sufficient to identify the same, and shall contain an accurate statement of the estate, interest or easement intended to be transferred or created, and a memorandum of all leases, mortgages and other encumbrances to which the same are subject; and such transfer, if it is endorsed on the instrument evidencing the title of the transferrer, need not be executed in duplicate. 49 V., c. 26, s. 65.

66. Whenever any easement or any incorporeal right in or over any land under the provisions of this Act, is created for the purpose of being annexed to or used and enjoyed together with other land under the provisions of this Act, the registrar shall also enter a memorial of the instrument creating such easement or incorporeal right upon the folio of the register book constituted by the existing certificate of title of such other land. 49 V., c. 26, s. 66.

67. If the memorandum of transfer purports to transfer the transferrer’s interest in the whole or part of the land when easement is to be enjoyed with other land.
whole or part of the land mentioned in any grant or certificate of title, the transferrer shall deliver up the certificate of title of the said land, and the registrar shall, on payment of the prescribed fees, enter in the register and on the duplicate certificate of title, a memorandum cancelling the same, either wholly or partially, according as the memorandum of transfer purports to transfer the whole or part only of the interest of the transferrer in the land mentioned in such certificate of title, and setting forth the particulars of the transfer. 49 V., c. 26, s. 67.

Duty of registrar in cancelling certificate. The registrar, upon cancelling any certificate of title, either wholly or partially, pursuant to any such transfer, and receiving the prescribed fees, shall make out to the transferee a certificate of title to the land mentioned in such memorandum of transfer; and every such certificate of title shall refer, if practicable, to the original grant, of such land and to the instrument of transfer; and the registrar shall retain every memorandum of transfer and cancelled or partially cancelled certificate of title, and in the case of a partially cancelled certificate of title, shall return the duplicate to the grantee after the memorandum partially cancelling the same has been entered thereupon,—or may, whenever required thereto by the owner of an unsold portion of land included in any such partially cancelled grant or certificate of title, or by a registered transferee of such portion, or of any part thereof, or where such a course appears more expedient, make out to such owner or transferee a certificate of title for such portion or any part thereof, of which he is the owner or transferee, upon the delivery of the partially cancelled certificate of title to the registrar, to be cancelled and retained. 49 V., c. 26, s. 68.

Implied covenants by transferee of estate or interest subject to encumbrance. In every instrument transferring an estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act, subject to mortgage or encumbrance, there shall be implied the following covenant by the transferee, that is to say: That such transferee will pay the interest, annuity or rent charge secured by such mortgage or encumbrance, after the rate and at the time specified in the instrument creating the same, and will indemnify and keep harmless the transferrer from and against the principal sum or other moneys, secured by such instrument, and from and against all liability in respect of any of the covenants therein contained or under this Act implied, on the part of the transferrer. 49 V., c. 26, s. 69.

Form of lease for three years or more. When any land under the provisions of this Act is intended to be leased or demised for a life or lives, or for a term of three or more years, the owner shall execute a lease in the form H in the schedule to this Act, and every such instrument shall, for description of the land intended to be dealt with, refer to the certificate of title of the land, or shall give such other description as is necessary to identify such land; and a right for the lessee to purchase the land therein described may be stipulated in such instrument; and in case the lessee pays the purchase money stipulated, and otherwise observes his covenants expressed and implied in such instrument, the lessor shall be bound to execute a memorandum of transfer to such lessee of the said land, and to perform all necessary acts by this Act prescribed for the purpose of transferring the land to the purchaser: Provided always, that no lease of mortgaged or encumbered land shall be valid and binding against the mortgagee or encumbrancee, unless such mortgagee or encumbrancee has consented to such lease prior to the same being registered, or subsequently adopts the same. 49 V., c. 26, s. 70.

71. In every memorandum of lease, unless a contrary intention appears therein, there shall be implied the following covenants by the lessee, that is to say:—

(a.) That he will pay the rent thereby reserved at the times therein mentioned, and all rates and taxes which may be payable in respect of the demised property during the continuance of the lease;

(b.) That he will, at all times during the continuance of the said lease, keep and, at the termination thereof, yield up the demised property in good and tenantable repair, accidents and damage to buildings from fire, storm and tempest or other casualty, and reasonable wear and tear excepted.

72. In every memorandum of lease, unless a different intention appears therein, there shall also be implied the following powers in the lessor, that is to say:—

(a.) That he may, by himself or his agents, enter upon the demised property and view the state of repair thereof, and may serve upon the lessee, or leave at his last or usual place of abode, or upon the demised premises, a notice in writing of any defect, requiring him within a reasonable time, to be therein mentioned, to repair the same, in so far as the tenant is bound to do so;

(b.) That in case the rent or any part thereof is in arrear for the space of two calendar months, or in case default is made in the fulfilment of any covenant, whether expressed or implied in such lease, on the part of the lessee, and is continued for the space of two calendar months, or in case the repairs required by such notice, as aforesaid, are not completed within the time therein specified, such lessor may enter upon and take possession of such demised premises. 49 V., c. 26, s. 72.

73. In any such case the registrar, upon proof to his satisfaction of recovery of possession by a lessor, or as transfers, in case of re-entry.
Chap. 51. The Territories Real Property Act. 49 Vict.

feree by a legal proceeding, shall make an entry of the same in the register, and the estate of the lessee in such land shall thereupon determine, but without releasing the lessee from his liability in respect of the breach of any covenant in such lease expressed or implied; and the registrar shall cancel such lease, if delivered up to him for that purpose. 49 V., c. 26, s. 73.

74. Whenever, in any lease or mortgage made under this Act, the forms of words in column one of the form in the said schedule to this Act, and distinguished by any number therein, are used, such lease or mortgage shall be taken to have the same effect, and be construed as if there had been inserted therein the form of words contained in column two of the said form and distinguished by the same number; and every such form shall be deemed a covenant by the covenantor with the covenantee and his transferees, binding the former and his heirs, executors, administrators and transferees; but it shall not be necessary in any such lease to insert any such number; and there may be introduced into or annexed to any of the forms in the first column any expressed exceptions from the same or expressed qualifications thereof respectively, and the like exceptions or qualifications shall be taken to be made from or in corresponding forms in the second column. 49 V., c. 26, s. 74.

75. Whenever any lease or demise which is required to be registered by this Act is intended to be surrendered, and the surrender thereof is effected otherwise than through the operation of a surrender in law, there shall be indorsed upon such lease or counterpart thereof the word "surrendered," with the date of such surrender, and such indorsement shall be signed by the lessee and the lessor as evidence of the acceptance thereof, and shall be attested by a witness; and the registrar shall thereupon enter in the register a memorial recording the date of such surrender, and shall likewise indorse upon the lease a memorandum recording the fact of such entry having been so made in the register; and upon such entry having been so made, the estate or interest of the lessee in such land shall vest in the lessor or in the person in whom, having regard to intervening circumstances, if any, the said land would have vested if no such lease had ever been executed; and production of such lease or counterpart bearing such indorsed memorandum shall be sufficient evidence that such lease has been so surrendered: Provided, that no lease subject to mortgage or encumbrance shall be surrendered without the consent of the mortgagee or encumbrancee. 49 V., c. 26, s. 75.

MORTGAGES AND ENCUMBRANCES.

76. Whenever any land or estate, or interest in land, subject to the provisions of this Act, is intended to be charged or made security in favor of any mortgagee, the mortgagor shall execute a memorandum of mortgage in the form of the schedule to this Act, or to the like effect; and whenever any such land is intended to be charged with or made security for the payment of an annuity, rent charge, or sum of money, in favor of any encumbrancee, the encumbrancer shall execute a memorandum of encumbrance in the form of the schedule to this Act, or to the like effect; and every such instrument shall contain an accurate statement of the estate or interest intended to be mortgaged or encumbered, and shall, for description of the land intended to be dealt with, refer to the certificate of title on which such estate or interest is held, or shall give such other description as is necessary to identify such land, together with all mortgages or encumbrances affecting the same, if any.

49 V., c. 26, s. 76.

77. Mortgage and encumbrance under this Act shall have effect as security, but shall not operate as a transfer of the land thereby charged; and if default is made in payment of the principal sum, interest, annuity or rent-charge, or any part thereof thereby secured, or in the observance of any covenant expressed in any memorandum of mortgage or encumbrance registered under this Act, or that is herein declared to be implied in such instrument, and such default is continued for the space of one calendar month, or for such longer period of time as is expressly limited for that purpose in such instrument, the mortgagee or encumbrancee may give to the mortgagor or encumbrancer notice in writing to pay, within a time to be specified in such notice, the money then due or owing on such mortgage or encumbrance, or to observe the covenants therein expressed or implied, as the case may be, and that all competent rights and powers will be resorted to unless such default is remedied,—or where the mortgagor or encumbrancer cannot be found, may give such notice in that behalf to the mortgagor or encumbrancer in such manner as the judge, on summary application ex parte, directs. 49 V., c. 26, s. 77.

78. After such default in payment or in the observance of covenants continuing for the further space of one calendar month from the service of such notice, or for such period as to the judge seems meet, such mortgagee or encumbrancee is hereby authorized and empowered to sell the land so mortgaged or encumbered, or any part thereof, and all the estate or interest therein of the mortgagor or encumbrancer, and, either altogether or in lots, by public auction or by private contract, or by both such modes of sale, and subject to such conditions as the judge thinks fit, and to buy in and re-sell the same, without being liable for any losses occasioned thereby, and to make and execute all such instruments as are necessary for effecting the sale thereof; and all such sales, contracts, matters and things hereby authorized shall be as valid and effectual as if the mortgagor or encumbrancer had made, done or executed the same: and the receipt or receipts in writing of the mortgagee or encumbrancee shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser of such land, estate, or interest, or of any portion thereof, for so much of his purchase-money as is thereby expressed to be received; and no such purchaser shall be answerable for the loss, misapplication or non-application, or be obliged to see to the application of the purchase-money by him paid, nor shall he be concerned to inquire as to the fact of any default having been made or notice having been given as aforesaid; and the purchase-money to arise from the sale of any such land, estate, or interest shall be applied: first, in payment of the expenses occasioned by such sale; secondly, in payment of the moneys which are then due or owing to the mortgagee or encumbrancee; thirdly, in payment of subsequent mortgages or encumbrances, if any, in the order of their priority; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the mortgagor or encumbrancer, as the case may be. 49 V., c. 26, s. 78.

79. Upon the registration of any memorandum or instrument of transfer executed by a mortgagee or encumbrancee, for the purpose of such sale as aforesaid, the estate or interest of the mortgagor or encumbrancer therein described as conveyed, shall pass to and vest in the purchaser, freed and discharged from all liability on account of such mortgage or encumbrance or of any mortgage or encumbrance registered subsequent thereto; and the purchaser shall be entitled to receive a certificate for the same. 49 V., c. 26, s. 79.

80. When default for six calendar months has been made in the payment of the interest or principal sum secured by memorandum of mortgage, a registered mortgagee may make application in writing to the judge for an order for foreclosure; and such application shall state that such default has been made as aforesaid—and that the land, estate or interest mortgaged has been offered for sale at public auction after proper notice given to the mortgagor, as in this Act provided, and that the amount of the highest bid at such sale was not sufficient to satisfy the money secured by such mortgage, together with the expenses occasioned by such sale,—and that notice in writing of the intention of such mortgagee to make such application has been given to the mortgagor, either personally or by leaving the same with an adult at his usual or last known place of abode; and such application shall be accompanied by a certificate of the licensed auctioneer by whom such land was put up for sale, and by such other proof of the matters stated by the application as the judge requires; and the statements made in such application shall be verified by the oath of the applicant. 49 V., c. 26, s. 80.

81. Upon receiving such application the judge shall cause notice to be published once in each of three successive weeks in a newspaper likely to give the best notice, offering such land for sale,—and shall, in such case, limit and appoint a time, not less than one month from the date of the last advertisement of such notice in such paper, upon or after which the judge may issue to such applicant an order for foreclosure, unless, in the interval, a sufficient amount has been realized by the sale of such land to satisfy the principal and interest moneys due and all expenses occasioned by such sale and proceedings; and every such order for foreclosure, under the hand of the judge and entered in the register, shall have the effect of vesting in the mortgagee all the estate and interest of the mortgagor in the land mentioned in such order, free from all right and equity of redemption on the part of the mortgagor or of any person claiming through or under him. 49 V., c. 26, s. 81.

82. Upon the production of any memorandum of mortgage or encumbrance, having thereon an endorsement signed by the mortgagee or encumbrancee, and proved by the affidavit of an attesting witness, discharging the land from the whole or part of the principal sum or annuity secured, or discharging any part of the land comprised in such instrument from the whole of such principal sum or annuity, or upon proof being made to the satisfaction of the judge of the payment of all moneys due on any mortgage or encumbrance, the judge may direct the registrar to make, and the registrar shall thereupon make an entry in the register, noting that such mortgage or encumbrance is discharged wholly or partially, or that part of the land is discharged, as aforesaid, as the case requires; and upon such entry being so made, the land, or the estate or interest in, or the portion of the land mentioned or referred to in such indorsement as aforesaid, shall cease to be subject to or liable for such principal sum or annuity, or, as the case may be, for the part thereof noted in such entry as discharged. 49 V., c. 26, s. 82.

83. Upon proof of the death of the annuitant, or of the occurrence of the event or circumstance upon which, in accordance with the provisions of any memorandum of encumbrance, the annuity or sum of money thereby secured ceases to be payable, and upon proof that all arrears of the said annuity and interest or money have been paid, satisfied, or discharged, the registrar shall, upon the order of the judge, make an entry in the register book, noting that the such annuity or sum of money is satisfied and discharged, and shall cancel such instrument; and upon such entry being made, the land shall cease to be subject to or liable for such annuity or sum of money, and the registrar shall, in any or either such case as aforesaid, indorse on the grant, certificate of title, or other instrument evidencing the title of the mortgagor or encumbrancer to the land mortgaged or encumbered, a memorandum of the date on which such entry as aforesaid was made by him in the register book, whenever such grant, certificate of title or other instrument is presented to him for that purpose. 49 V., c. 26, s. 83.

84. If any mortgagor becomes entitled to pay off the mortgage money, and the registered mortgagee is absent from the Territories and there is no person authorized by registered power of attorney to give a receipt to the mortgagor for the mortgage money after the date appointed for the redemption of any mortgage, the judge, on application to him and proof of the facts and of the amount due for principal and interest upon such mortgage, may direct the payment into a chartered bank having a branch or agency in the district, or, if not in the district, in the Territories, of such mortgage money, with all arrears of interest then due thereon, to the credit of the mortgagee or other person entitled thereto; and thereupon the interest upon such mortgage shall cease to run or accrue:

2. The registrar shall, upon presentation of the judge's order and of the receipt of the manager or agent of such bank for the amount of the said mortgage money and interest, make an entry in the register discharging such mortgage, stating the day, hour and minute on which such entry is made:

3. Such entry shall be a valid discharge of such mortgage and shall have the same force and effect as is hereinbefore given to a like entry when made upon production of the memorandum of mortgage with the receipt of the mortgagee:

4. The registrar shall, when such order and receipt are presented to him, send a notice of the fact to the mortgagee by letter addressed by mail to his last known place of abode:

5. The registrar shall indorse on the certificate of title, or other instrument as aforesaid, and also on the memorandum of mortgage, whenever those instruments are brought to him for that purpose, the several particulars hereinbefore directed to be indorsed upon each of such instruments respectively:

6. After payment as aforesaid of any mortgage money and interest, the mortgagee entitled thereto shall not recover any further sum in respect of such mortgage than the amount so paid. 49 V., c. 26, s. 84.

85. Mortgages, encumbrances and leases may be transferred by a transfer executed in the form L in the schedule to this Act, and the transfer shall be registered in the manner hereinbefore set forth; and transferees shall have priority according to the date and time of registration:

2. Any mortgagee may transfer a part of the sum secured by the mortgage by a transfer executed in the form M in the schedule to this Act, and the part so transferred shall continue to be secured by the mortgage, and may be given priority over the remaining part, or may be deferred, or may continue to rank equally with it under the security of the original mortgage, as stated in the instrument of transfer; and the registrar shall enter on the certificate of title a memorandum of the amount of the mortgage so transferred, the name of the transferee, and how the sum so transferred is to rank and shall notify the mortgagor of the facts. 49 V., c. 26, s. 85.

86. Upon the registration of any transfer of any mortgage, encumbrance or lease, the estate or interest of the transferrer, as set forth in such instrument, with all rights, powers and privileges thereto belonging or appertaining, shall pass to the transferee, and such transferee shall thereupon become subject to and liable for all and every the same requirements and liabilities to which he would have been subject and liable if named in such instrument. 49 V., c. 26, s. 86.

87. By virtue of every such transfer the right to sue upon any mortgage or other instrument, and to recover any debt, sum of money, annuity or damage thereunder (notwithstanding the same may be deemed or held to constitute a chose in action), and all interest at the time of such transfer in any such debt, sum of money, annuity or damages, shall be transferred so as to vest the same in law in the transferee thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any court of competent jurisdiction from giving effect to any trusts affecting the said debt, sum of money, annuity or damages, in case the said transferee shall hold the same as trustee for any other person. 49 V., c. 26, s. 87.

88. In every memorandum of mortgage there shall be implied against the mortgagor remaining in possession, a covenant that he will repair and keep in repair all buildings or other improvements erected and made upon the land, and that the mortgagee may, at all convenient times, until such mortgage is redeemed, be at liberty, with or without surveyors or others, to enter into or upon such land to view and inspect the state of repair of such buildings or improvements. 49 V., c. 26, s. 88.

POWERS OF ATTORNEY.

89. The registered proprietor of any land, estate or interest, may authorize and appoint any person to act for him or on his behalf in respect of the transfer or other dealing. with such land, estate, or interest in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by executing a power of attorney in any form heretofore in use for the like purpose, or in the form N in the schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances permit, and a duplicate or attested copy thereof shall be deposited with the registrar, who shall enter in the register a memorandum of the particulars therein contained and the date, hour and minute it is deposited with him; and until such power of attorney is revoked in the manner provided by the next following section, the right of the registered owner to effect a transfer or to otherwise deal with such land, estate or interest shall be suspended. 49 V., c. 26, s. 89.

90. Any such power of attorney may be revoked by a revocation order in the form O in the schedule to this Act; and after the registration of any revocation of a power the registrar shall not give effect to any transfer or other instrument signed pursuant to such power, unless under any registration abstract outstanding at the time. 49 V., c. 26, s. 90.

TRANSMISSION.

91. Whenever the owner of any land dies, such land shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, vest in the personal representative of the deceased owner, who shall, before dealing with such lands, make application in writing to the registrar to be registered as owner, and shall produce to the registrar the probate of the will of the deceased owner, or letters of administration, or the order of the court authorizing him to administer the estate of the deceased owner, or an office copy of the said probate, letters of administration or order, as the case may be; and thereupon the registrar shall enter in the register a memorial of the date of the will and of the probate or of the letters of administration or order of the court as aforesaid, the date, hour and minute of the production of the same to him, the date of the death of such owner, when the same can be ascertained, with such other particulars as he deems necessary:

3. The title of the executor or administrator to such land shall relate back and take effect as from the date of the death of the deceased owner:

93. Any person registered in place of a deceased owner, shall hold the land in respect of which he is registered upon the trusts and for the purposes to which the same is applicable by this Act or by law, and subject to any trusts and equities upon which the deceased owner held the same, but, for the purpose of any registered dealings with such land, he shall be deemed to be the absolute owner thereof:

2. Any person beneficially interested in any such lands or any estate or interest therein, may apply to a court or judge having jurisdiction, to have the same taken out of the hands of the trustee having charge by law of such property, and transferred to some other person or persons; and the court or judge, upon reasonable cause being shown, shall name some suitable person or persons as owner of the lands, or the estate or interest in question, as the case may be; and upon the person or persons named accepting the ownership and giving approved security for the due fulfilment of the trusts, the court or judge may order the registrar to cancel the certificate to the trustee, and to grant a new certificate to the person or persons so named:

3. The registrar, upon the production of such order, shall cancel the certificate to the trustee, and shall enter in the register a memorandum of the appointment by order of the court or judge of such person or persons as owner in trust, and a certificate of title shall be issued to him or them. 49 V., c. 26, s. 93.

Duty of sheriff, &c., receiving process against land.

94. Every sheriff or other officer charged with the execution thereof, shall, after the delivery to him of any writ or other process affecting land, or lien, mortgage or encumbrance, or other interest therein, deliver a copy of every such writ or process so in his hands or that may thereafter be delivered to him, certified under his hand, together with a memorandum in writing of the lands intended to be charged thereby, to the registrar within whose district such lands are situate; and no land shall be bound by any such writ or other process, until such copy and memorandum have been so delivered; and from and after the delivery of a copy of any such writ or other process and memorandum to the registrar, the same shall operate as a caveat against the transfer by the owner of the land mentioned in such memorandum, or of any interest he has therein; and no transfer shall be made by him of such land or interest therein except subject to such writ or other process. 49 V., c. 26, s. 94.

Sheriff's memorandum to operate as a caveat.

95. Upon production and delivery to the registrar of a certificate by the sheriff (under his seal of office) or other officer, of the satisfaction of or withdrawal from his hands of any such writ or process as aforesaid, he shall enter a memorandum to that effect on the register, and from thenceforth such writ or process shall be deemed to be satisfied. 49 V., c. 26, s. 95.

Satisfaction of writ to be entered on register.

96. No sale by a sheriff or other officer as aforesaid, under process of law, of any land, shall be of any effect until the same has been confirmed by a judge; and upon the production to the registrar of a duly executed transfer of any land so sold, if an order of confirmation of such sale is indorsed on such transfer, the purchaser at such sale shall be entitled to be registered as the owner of the interest purchased by him at such sale, and to a certificate of title to the same. 49 V., c. 26, s. 96.

Sheriff's sale to require confirmation by a judge.

97. The application for the confirmation of a sale made under any process of law, may be made by the sheriff or other officer making such sale, or by any person interested in such sale, on notice to the owner, unless the judge to whom such application is made, dispenses with such notice; and if the sale is confirmed the costs of confirmation shall be borne and paid out of the purchase-money, or as the judge directs; but in case such sale is not confirmed, the purchase-money paid by him shall be refunded to the purchaser; and the judge may make such order as to the costs of all parties to the sale and of the application for its confirmation as he thinks just. 49 V., c. 26, s. 97.
98. When any land is sold under process of law, the registrar shall, upon the production to him of the transfer of the same in the form P in the schedule to this Act, with proof of the due execution thereof, and the order of confirmation of such sale, cause a notice to be mailed to the proper post office address of the person whose interest in such land has been sold,—and after the expiration of four weeks from the mailing of such notice shall register the purchaser as the owner of the interest in the said land so sold, and shall issue to him a certificate in the prescribed form and do all other things necessary for the registration of the vendee as registered owner of the interest in the land purchased by him, unless such registration is in the meantime stayed by the order of some court or judge having jurisdiction,—and in such case the registration shall not be made nor the certificate issued, except according to the order and direction of such court or judge, 49 V., c. 26, s. 98.

CAVEATS.

100. Any person claiming to be interested under any will, settlement or trust deed, or any instrument of transfer or transmission, or under any unregistered instrument, or otherwise howsoever, in any land, may lodge a caveat with the registrar to the effect that no disposition of such land be made either absolutely, or in such manner and to such extent only as in such caveat is expressed, or until notice has been served on the caveator, or unless the instrument of disposition be expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator, as claimed in such caveat, or to any lawful conditions expressed therein:

2. A caveat may be in the form Q in the schedule to this Act, and shall be verified by the oath of the caveator or his agent, and shall contain an address within the registration district at which notices may be served:

3. Upon the receipt of a caveat, the registrar shall make a memorandum thereon of the date, hour and minute of the receipt.
receipt thereof, and shall enter a memorandum thereof in the register and shall forthwith send a notice of such caveat through the post office or otherwise to the person against whose title such caveat has been lodged:

4. So long as any caveat remains in force the registrar shall not enter in the register any memorandum of transfer or other instrument purporting to transfer or otherwise deal with or affect the land in respect to which such caveat is lodged:

5. The owner or other person claiming the land may, by summons, call upon the caveator to attend before a court of competent jurisdiction or a judge thereof, to show cause why the said caveat should not be withdrawn; and the said court or judge may, upon proof that such last-mentioned person has been summoned, and upon such evidence as the court or judge requires, make such order in the premises either ex parte or otherwise as to the said court or judge seems fit:

6. After the expiration of one month from the receipt thereof, such caveat shall lapse, unless, within that time, proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction have been taken to establish the caveator’s title to the estate or interest specified in the caveat, and an injunction or order has been granted, restraining the registrar from issuing a certificate of title or otherwise dealing with the said land:

7. The caveator may, by notice in writing to the registrar, withdraw his caveat at any time; but notwithstanding such withdrawal the court or judge may order the payment by the caveator of the costs of the caveatee incurred prior to such withdrawal:

8. An entry shall be made by the registrar in the register, of the withdrawal, lapse or removal of any caveat or of any order made by the court in connection therewith; and, after such withdrawal, lapse or removal, it shall not be lawful for the same person or for any one on his behalf to lodge a further caveat in relation to the same matter:

9. Any person lodging or continuing any caveat wrongfully and without reasonable cause, shall be liable to make compensation to any person who has sustained damage thereby, and such compensation may be recovered by proceedings at law if the caveator has withdrawn such caveat and no proceedings have been taken by the caveatee as herein provided; but if proceedings have been taken by the caveatee, then such compensation shall be determined by the court or judge acting in the same proceedings:

10. The judge, on application for that purpose, on behalf of any person who is under the disability of infancy, lunacy, unsoundness of mind or absence from the Territories, may, by order directed to the registrar, prohibit the transfer or dealing with any land belonging to any such person, and the dealing with any land in any case in which it appears to him that an error has been made by misdescription of such land or otherwise in any certificate of title or other

104. Any person deprived of land or of any estate or interest in land in consequence of fraud, or by the registration of any other person as owner of such land, estate, or interest, or in consequence of any fraud, error, omission or misdescription in any certificate of title or in any entry or memorial in the register, may, in any case in which such lands have been included in two or more grants from the Crown, bring and prosecute an action at law for the recovery of damages against such person as the judge appoints,—and in any other case against the person upon whose application such erroneous registration was made, or who acquired title to the estate or interest in question through such fraud, error, omission, or misdescription: Provided always, that except in the case of fraud or error occasioned by any omission, misrepresentation, or misdescription in the application of such person to be registered as owner of such land, estate or interest, or in any instrument executed by him, such person shall, upon a transfer of such land bond fide for value, cease to be liable for the payment of any damages which, but for such transfer, might have been recovered from him under the provisions hereinbefore contained, and such damages, with costs of action, may, in such last-mentioned case, be recovered out of the land assurance fund, by action against the registrar as nominal defendant. 49 V., c. 26, s. 104.
105. Nothing in this Act contained shall be so interpreted as to leave subject to action for recovery of damages as aforesaid, or to action of ejectment, or to deprivation of the estate or interest, in respect to which he is registered as owner, any purchaser or mortgagee bonâ fide for valuable consideration of land under this Act, on the plea that his vendor or mortgagor has been registered as owner through fraud or error, or has derived from or through a person registered as owner through fraud or error, except in the case of misdescription, as mentioned in section one hundred and three. 49 V., c. 26, s. 105.

106. The land assurance fund shall be formed by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, by deducting from the gross fees returned and paid in to him by the registrars, twenty per cent. of the fees so received for the purposes of this Act, and investing the same, together with all interest and profits accrued thereon from time to time, in Canadian Government securities. 49 V., c. 26, s. 106, part.

107. If the person against whom such action for damages is directed to be brought as aforesaid, is dead, or cannot be found within the Territories, an action for damages may be brought against the registrar as nominal defendant, for the purpose of recovering the amount of the said damages and costs against the assurance fund; and in any such case, if final judgment is recovered, and also in any case in which damages are awarded in any action as aforesaid, and the sheriff makes a return of nulla bona, or certifies that any portion thereof, with costs awarded, cannot be recovered from such person, the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, upon receipt of a certificate of the court before which the said action was tried, shall pay the amount of such damages and costs as are awarded, or the unrecovered balance thereof as the case may be, and shall charge the same to the account of the assurance fund hereinbefore named. 49 V., c. 26, s. 107.

108. Any person sustaining loss or damage through any omission, mistake or misfeasance of the registrar, or any of his officers or clerks, in the execution of their respective duties under the provisions of this Act, and any person deprived of any land or of any estate or interest in land, by the registration of any other person as owner of such land, or by any error, omission or misdescription in any certificate of title, or in any entry or memorial in the register, and who, by the provisions of this Act, is barred from bringing an action of ejectment or other action for the recovery of such land, estate or interest, may, in any case in which the remedy by action for recovery of damages, as hereinbefore provided, is barred, bring an action against the registrar as nominal defendant, for recovery of damages; and if the plaintiff recovers final judgment against such nominal defendant, the court or judge before whom such action is tried, shall certify to the fact of such judgment and the amount of such damages and costs recovered, and the Minister of Finance and Receiver General shall pay the amount thereof to the person entitled on production of an exemplification or certified copy of the judgment rendered: Provided always, that notice in writing of every such action, and the cause thereof, shall be served upon the Attorney General of Canada, and also upon the registrar, three calendar months at least before the commencement of such action. 49 V., c. 26, s. 108.

109. If, in any such action, judgment is given in favor of the nominal defendant, or the plaintiff discontinues or becomes non-suited, the plaintiff shall be liable to pay the full costs of defending such action; and the same, when taxed, shall be levied in the name of the nominal defendant, by the like process of execution as in ordinary civil cases. 49 V., c. 26, s. 109.

110. No action for recovery of damages sustained through deprivation of land, or of any estate or interest in land, shall lie or be sustained against the registrar, or against the assurance fund, unless the same is commenced within the period of six years from the date of such deprivation: Provided nevertheless, that any person under the disability of infancy, lunacy or unsoundness of mind, may bring such action within six years from the date on which such disability ceases; and the plaintiff in any such action within six years from the date on which such disability ceased, and the plaintiff in any such action at whatever time it is brought, and the plaintiff in any action for the recovery of land, shall be non-suited in any case in which it appears to the satisfaction of the judge before whom such action is tried, that such plaintiff or the person through or under whom he claims title had notice by personal service, or otherwise was aware of such delay, and wilfully or collusively omitted to lodge a caveat or allowed such caveat to lapse. 49 V., c. 26, s. 110.

111. Whenever any amount has been paid out of the assurance fund on account of any person, such amount may be recovered from him, or if dead, from the estate of such person, by action against his personal representatives, in the name of the registrar; and a certificate signed by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General of such payment out of the assurance fund, shall be sufficient proof of such debt; and whenever any amount has been paid out of the assurance fund on account of any person who has absconded, or who cannot be found within the Territories, and has left any real or personal estate within the same, the judge, upon the application of the registrar, and upon the production of a certificate signed by the Minister of Finance and Receiver General that the amount has been paid in satisfaction of a judgment against the registrar as nominal defendant, may allow the registrar to sign judgment against such person forthwith for the amount so paid out of the assurance fund, together with the costs of the application; and such judgment shall be final, subject only to such right to have such judgment opened up, as may be provided in relation to ordinary procedure in the territory in which the real property is situate, in cases of judgment by default; and such judgment shall be signed in like manner as a final judgment by default in an adverse suit, and execution may issue immediately; and if such person has not left real or personal estate within the Territories sufficient to satisfy the amount for which execution has issued as aforesaid, the registrar may recover such amount, or the unrecovered balance thereof, by information against such person at any time thereafter in the Exchequer Court of Canada at the suit of the Attorney General of Canada. 49 V., c. 26, s. 111.

112. The assurance fund shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for compensation for any loss, damage or deprivation occasioned by the breach by a registered owner of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive; nor in any case in which the same land has been included in two or more grants from the Crown; nor shall the assurance fund be liable in any case in which such loss or deprivation has been occasioned by any land being included in the same certificate of title with other land, through misdescription of the boundaries or parcels of any land, unless, in the case last aforesaid, it is proved that the person liable for compensation and damages is dead, or has absconded from the Territories, or has been adjudged insolvent, or the sheriff has certified that he is not able to realize the full amount and costs awarded in any action for such compensation; and the said fund shall be liable for such amounts only as the sheriff fails to recover from the person liable as aforesaid. 49 V., c. 26, s. 112.

REMEDIAL PROCEEDINGS.

113. If any person is dissatisfied with any act, omission, refusal, decision, direction or order of the registrar, such person may require the registrar to set forth, in writing under his hand, the grounds of such act, omission, refusal, decision, direction, or order, and such person may then apply to the judge by petition, setting forth the grounds of his dissatisfaction; and the judge, having caused the registrar to be served with such petition, shall have jurisdiction to hear the said petition, and to make such order in the premises, and as to the costs of the parties appearing upon such petition, as the circumstances of the case require. 49 V., c. 26, s. 113.

Registrar may refer doubtful points to judge.

Whenever a question arises with regard to the performance of any duty, or the exercise of any function by this Act conferred or imposed upon the registrar,—or whenever, in the exercise of any duty of the registrar, a question arises as to the true construction or legal validity or effect of any instrument, or as to the persons entitled, or as to the extent or nature of the estate, right or interest, power or authority of any person or class of persons, or as to the mode in which any entry ought to be made on the register or certificate of title, or as to any doubtful or uncertain right or interest stated, or claimed to be dealt with by the registrar, he may refer the same in the form § in the schedule to this Act, to the judge, who may allow any of the parties interested to appear before him and summon any others of such persons to appear and show cause, either personally or by counsel or attorney, in relation thereto; and the judge, having regard to the persons appearing before him, whether summoned or not, shall decide the question, or direct any proceedings to be instituted for that purpose, and direct such particular form of entry to be made on the register or certificate of title as under the circumstances appears to be just. 49 V., c. 26, s. 114.

Power of registrar, in case of fraud or error, to demand delivery of instrument.

If it appears to the satisfaction of the registrar that any grant, certificate of title, or other instrument has been issued in error, or contains any misdescription of land, or boundaries,—or that any entry or indorsement has been made in error on any grant, certificate of title or other instrument,—or that any such grant, certificate, instrument, entry or indorsement has been fraudulently or wrongfully obtained,—or that any such grant, certificate or instrument is fraudulently or wrongfully retained, he may, by written demand, require the person to whom such grant, certificate or instrument has been so issued, or by whom it has been so obtained or is retained, to deliver up the same, for the purpose of being cancelled or corrected, as the case requires; and in case such person refuses or neglects to comply with such requisition, or cannot be found, the registrar may apply to the court or judge to issue a summons for such person to appear before him and show cause why such grant, certificate or other instrument should not be delivered up to be cancelled or corrected as aforesaid and if such person, when served with such summons, neglects or refuses to attend before such court or judge at the time therein appointed, the court or judge may issue a warrant authorizing and directing the person so summoned to be apprehended and brought before the said court or judge for examination. 49 V., c. 26, s. 115.

117. In any proceeding respecting land or in respect of any transaction or contract relating thereto, or in respect of any instrument, caveat, memorial or other entry affecting land, the court or judge, by decree or order, may direct the registrar to cancel, correct, substitute or issue any certificate of title, or make any memorial or entry in the register, and otherwise to do every such act or make every such entry necessary to give effect to such decree or order. 49 V., c. 26, s. 117.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

118. Upon the application of any owner of lands held under separate certificates of title, or under one certificate of title, and the delivering up of such certificate or certificates of title, the registrar may issue to such proprietor a single certificate of title for the whole of such land, or several certificates, each applying to a portion of such lands, in accordance with such application, and as far as the same may be done consistently with any regulation for the time being in force respecting the parcels of land that may be included in one certificate of title; and, upon issuing any such certificate of title, the registrar shall enter on the new certificate of title all the memorials to which the piece of land is at the time subject, and shall cancel the previous certificate of title of such land so delivered up, and shall endorse thereupon a memorandum, setting forth the occasion of such cancellation and referring to the certificate of title so issued. 49 V., c. 26, s. 118.
119. In the event of a certificate of title of land being lost or destroyed, the owner of such land, together with other persons, if any, having knowledge of the circumstances, may make a declaration, stating the facts of the case, the names and descriptions of the registered owners, and the particulars of all mortgages, encumbrances and other matters affecting such land and the title thereto, to the best of declarant's knowledge and belief; and the registrar, if satisfied of the truth of such declaration and the bona fides of the application, may issue to the owner of such land a provisional certificate of title of such land, which provisional certificate shall contain an exact copy of the original certificate of title bound up in the register, and of every memorandum and indorsement thereon, and shall also contain a statement why such provisional certificate is issued; and the registrar shall, at the same time, enter in the register notice of the issuing of such provisional certificate and the date thereof, and why it was issued; and such provisional certificate shall be available for all purposes and uses for which the grant or certificate of title so lost or destroyed would have been available, and as valid, to all intents, as such lost certificate: Provided always, that the registrar, before issuing such provisional certificate, shall give at least thirty days' notice of his intention so to do, in some newspaper published in the registration district, if there is one, and by posting such notice upon the door of the registry office, and in some other public place. 49 V., c. 26, s. 119.

3. The value shall be ascertained by the oath or solemn affirmation of the applicant, owner or person acquiring such land: if the registrar is not satisfied as to the correctness of the value so affirmed or sworn to, he may require such applicant, owner or person acquiring such land to produce a certificate of such value, under the hand of a sworn valuator, appointed by a judge, which certificate shall be received as conclusive evidence of such value, for the purpose aforesaid. 49 V., c. 26, s. 183, and s. 106 part.

2. Upon the death of the registered owner, the homestead, if held in fee simple, may be sold in satisfaction of his debts as aforesaid, subject to the rights of his widow and minor children or child therein. 41 V., c. 15, s. 6.

9. 10. 12. If the husband dies testate, his widow may take that share of her husband's estate to which she is entitled by descent,—or the property devised to her,—or her life estate in the homestead,—but not more than one of them; and if she elects to take by descent or by devise, she shall notify the registrar of the registration district in which the homestead lands are situate, in the form D in the schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as may be; and the registrar shall recall the certificate of title, and shall cancel the homestead estate registration upon the certificate of title and in the register book, giving the date, hour and minute of such cancellation. 41 V., c. 15, s. 10.

13. All the provisions of this Act shall apply to lands of which a woman is the owner, and on which she resides; and the husband may acquire the same rights in the lands of the wife, by registration effected by her under this Act, as the wife acquires in the lands of the husband, by registration effected by him; and subject to the same conditions and rights of her minor child or children. 41 V., c. 15, s. 11.

24. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, appoint, by commission under the Great Seal, one or more fit and proper persons as stipendiary magistrates within the District, who shall reside at such places as are prescribed by the Governor in Council; and the Governor in Council shall assign to any such stipendiary magistrate a yearly salary, not exceeding three thousand dollars, together with his actual travelling expenses. 36 V., c. 35, s. 1.

Their powers.

25. Every such stipendiary magistrate shall hold office during pleasure,—and shall have and exercise within the District, or within such limited portion of the same as is prescribed by the Governor in Council, the powers appertaining to any justice of the peace, or to any two justices of the peace, under any laws or ordinances which are, from time to time, in force in the District. 36 V., c. 35, s. 2.

As to criminal matters.

26. Any such stipendiary magistrate shall have power to hear and determine, in a summary way and without the intervention of a jury, any charge against any person for having committed in the District any of the offences following, that is to say:

(a.) Simple larceny, larceny from the person, embezzlement, or obtaining money or property by false pretences, or feloniously receiving stolen property, in any case in which the value of the whole property alleged to have been stolen, embezzled, obtained or received, does not, in the opinion of such stipendiary magistrate, exceed one hundred dollars; or—

(b.) Attempting to commit larceny from the person, or simple larceny; or—

(c.) Aggravated assault, by unlawfully and maliciously inflicting upon any other person, either with or without a weapon or instrument, any grievous bodily harm, or by unlawfully and maliciously wounding any other person; or—

(d.) Assault upon any female whomsoever, or upon any male child whose age does not, in the opinion of the magistrate, exceed fourteen years, where such assault, if upon a female, does not, in his opinion, amount to an assault with intent to commit a rape; or—

(e.) Assaulting, obstructing, molesting or hindering any stipendiary magistrate, justice of the peace, commissioner of police, a policeman, constable or bailiff, or officer of customs or excise, or other officer, in the lawful performance of his duty, or with intent to prevent the performance thereof:

2. Upon any such conviction by a stipendiary magistrate, the person so convicted may be sentenced to such punishment as the magistrate thinks fit, by imprisonment for any term less than two years, in any gaol or place of confinement, with or without hard labor, or by fine, or by both fine and imprisonment.

27. When the maximum punishment for a crime which cannot be tried in a summary way under the section next preceding, or under any provision of the criminal law, does not exceed seven years' imprisonment, any such stipendiary magistrate—if the accused assents thereto—may try, in a summary way and without the intervention of a jury, any charge against any person or persons for any such crime; but if the accused does not so consent, the trial shall be had as provided in the next following sub-section:

3. When the punishment for a crime is death, any such stipendiary magistrate and two justices of the peace, with the intervention of a jury of six, may try any charge against any person or persons for any such crime:

4. The procedure upon trials under the two sub-sections shall, as far as possible, be similar to the procedure upon summary trials; but the stipendiary magistrate shall, upon every such trial, take, or cause to be taken, in writing, full notes of the evidence and other proceedings thereat and all persons tried under the said sub-sections, shall be admitted, after the close of the case for the prosecution, to make full answer and defence by counsel learned in the law:

5. When any person is convicted of a capital offence, and is sentenced to death, the stipendiary magistrate shall forward to the Minister of Justice full notes of the evidence, with his report upon the case, and the execution shall be stayed until such report is received and the pleasure of the Governor General thereon is communicated to the Lieutenant Governor:

6. In default of any ordinance in that behalf made under this section, persons required as jurors for a trial under sub-sections two and three hereof, shall be summoned by a stipendiary magistrate from among such male persons as he thinks suitable in that behalf; and the jury required on such trials shall be called from among the persons so summoned as such jurors, and shall be sworn by the stipendiary magistrate who presides at the trial:

7. Any person arraigned for treason or felony may challenge, peremptorily and without cause, any number of jurors not exceeding six:

(a.) Every peremptory challenge beyond the number so allowed shall be void;

(b.) The Crown may peremptorily challenge any number of jurors not exceeding six;

(c.) Challenges for cause shall be the same as provided for under the "Act respecting procedure in criminal cases";

(d.) If, from challenge or otherwise, the number of jurors summoned for the trial is exhausted, the stipendiary magistrate shall direct some constable or other person to summon, by word of mouth, from among the bystanders or from the neighborhood, such number of persons as are necessary to make up a jury,—the persons so summoned being subject to challenge as those summoned by the magistrate in the first instance; and the like proceedings shall be repeated, if necessary, until a jury is obtained, competent to try the case; and any person summoned, as herein provided, to serve as a juror, and who makes default or refuses to serve as such without lawful excuse to the satisfaction of the magistrate, may be fined by him a sum not exceeding ten dollars, and committed to prison until such fine is paid:

8. If imprisonment in gaol for a term of not less than two years, or in the penitentiary, is awarded in any case, the prisoner may be ordered to be imprisoned in the District or to be conveyed to the penitentiary in the Province of Manitoba; in which latter case he shall undergo such punishment therein as if convicted in the Province of Manitoba, and shall be so conveyed by any constable or constables, and received and detained therein by the authorities of the penitentiary on the warrant of the stipendiary magistrate:

9. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, from time to time, make any ordinance in respect to the mode of calling juries, and when, and by whom, and how they may be summoned or taken, and in respect of all matters relating to the same; but no grand jury shall be called in the District:

10. Returns of all trials and proceedings, in criminal matters, shall be made to the Lieutenant Governor, in such form and at such times as he directs. 40 V., c. 7, s. 7, part, and s. 12, part.

28. Every judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories, shall have the same power and authority for trying offences in the District as if he had been appointed a stipendiary magistrate under this Act. 40 V., c. 7, s. 12, part;—49 V., c. 25, s. 30.

29. Any two stipendiary magistrates sitting together as a court, shall have power and authority to hear and determine within the District, in a summary way and without the intervention of any grand or petty jury, any charge against any person for an offence alleged to have been committed within the District, and the maximum punishment for which does not exceed seven years' imprisonment; and such court shall be a court of record; and if imprisonment in a penitentiary is awarded in any such case, the court may cause the prisoner to be conveyed to the penitentiary in the Province of Manitoba; and he shall undergo such punishment therein as if convicted in the Province of Manitoba. 36 V., c. 35, s. 4, part.

30. Any judge of the Court of Queen's Bench of the Province of Manitoba shall have the same power and authority for trying offences in the District as, under this Act, a stipendiary magistrate or two stipendiary magistrates, or a stipendiary magistrate and two justices of the peace have in the District, and the provisions herein made as to trials shall, so far as applicable, apply to trials before such judge sitting in the District; but no such judge shall proceed to any such trial unless requested by the Governor in Council so to do. 40 V., c. 7, s. 12, part.

31. Any judge of the Court of Queen's Bench of the Province of Manitoba, or any justice of the peace, or any stipendiary magistrate, shall have power and authority to commit and cause to be conveyed to gaol in the Province of Manitoba, for trial by the said Court of Queen's Bench, according to the laws of criminal procedure in force in the said Province, any person at any time charged with the commission of any offence against any of the laws or ordinances in force in the District, punishable by death or by imprisonment in the penitentiary; and the said Court of Queen's Bench, and any judge thereof, shall have power and authority to try any person arraigned before the said court on any such charge; and the jury laws and laws of criminal procedure in force in the said Province shall apply to any such trial; except that the punishment to be awarded, upon the conviction of any such person, shall be according to the laws in force in the District; and the sentence may be carried into effect in a penitentiary or other place of confinement in the said Province, as if the same was in the District. 36 V., c. 35, s. 5.

32. Whenever, under this Act, any prisoner or accused person is ordered to be conveyed to gaol or to the penitentiary in Manitoba, any constable or other person in whose charge he is to be so conveyed shall have the same power to hold and convey him, or to re-take him in case of an escape, and the gaoler or warden of the penitentiary in Manitoba shall have the same power to detain and deal with him, in the said Province, as if it was within the District, or as if the said prisoner or accused person had been ordered to be conveyed to such gaol or penitentiary by some competent court or authority in the said Province. 36 V., c. 35, s. 6.

33. When it is impossible or inconvenient, on account of the absence or remoteness of any gaol or other place of confinement, to carry out any sentence of imprisonment, any judge of the Court of Queen's Bench of Manitoba, or any two stipendiary magistrates sitting together as a court, or any stipendiary magistrate or justice of the peace, may sentence such person, so convicted before him or them, to be placed and kept in the custody of the North-West Mounted Police force, with or without hard labor—the nature and extent of which shall be determined by the judge or stipendiary magistrates, or stipendiary magistrate or justice of the peace, by or before whom such person was convicted. 36 V., c. 35, s. 7.

34. The Governor in Council may cause to be erected in any part or parts of the District, any building or buildings, or enclosure or enclosures, for the purposes of the gaol or lock-up, for the confinement of prisoners charged with the commission of any offence or sentenced to any punishment therein; and confinement or imprisonment therein shall be lawful and valid. 36 V., c. 35, s. 8.

35. No intoxicating liquor or other intoxicant shall be manufactured or made in the said District, except by special permission of the Governor in Council,—nor shall any intoxicating liquor or intoxicant be imported or brought into the District from any Province of Canada, or elsewhere, or be sold, exchanged, traded or bartered, except by special permission, in writing, of the Lieutenant Governor. 38 V.,
c. 49, s. 74, part.

36. Intoxicating liquors and intoxicants imported or brought from any place out of Canada into the District, by special permission, in writing, of the Lieutenant Governor, shall be subject to the customs and excise laws of Canada.

10. The townships shall be numbered, in regular order, northerly from the international boundary, or forty-ninth parallel of latitude, and shall lie in ranges numbered, in
From other meridians.

2. Such meridians shall be styled the second, the third, the fourth meridian, and so on, according to their order in number westward from the principal meridian. 46 V., c. 17, s. 6.

Width on base lines.

11. Townships shall be given their prescribed width on the base lines hereinafter mentioned; and the meridians between townships shall be drawn across such bases, northward and southward, to the depth of two townships therefrom, that is to say, to the correction lines hereinafter mentioned. 46 V., c. 17, s. 7.

Base lines of townships.

12. The said forty-ninth parallel, or International boundary, shall be the first base line, or that for townships numbered one; the second base line shall be between townships four and five; the third between townships eight and nine; the fourth between townships twelve and thirteen; the fifth between townships sixteen and seventeen; and so on, northerly, in regular succession. 46 V., c. 17, s. 8.

Correction lines.

13. The correction lines, or those upon which the jog resulting from the convergence of meridians shall be allowed, shall be as follows, that is to say: on the line between townships two and three, on that between six and seven, on that between ten and eleven, and so on, that is to say: they will be those lines running east and west between townships and midway between the bases. 46 V., c. 17, s. 9.

Divisions of a section.

14. Each section shall be divided into quarter sections of one hundred and sixty acres, more or less, subject to the provisions hereinafter made. 46 V., c. 17, s. 10.

Allowances for deficiency or surplus.

15. In the survey of a township, the deficiency or surplus, resulting from convergence of meridians, shall be allowed in the range of quarter sections adjoining the west boundary of the township, and the north and south error in closing on the correction lines from the north or south shall be allowed in the ranges of quarter sections adjoining, and north or south respectively of the said correction lines; but the Governor in Council may order such deficiency or surplus, and such north and south error, or either of them, to be equally distributed among all the quarter sections involved. 46 V., c. 17, s. 11.
16. The dimensions and area of irregular quarter sections shall, in all cases, be returned by the surveyor at their actual measurements and contents. 46 V., c. 17, s. 12.

17. Every given portion of country proposed to be laid out for settlement shall, before it is sub-divided into townships and sections, be laid out into blocks of four townships each, by projecting the base and correction lines, and east and west meridian boundaries of each block:

2. On such lines, at the time of the survey, all township, section and quarter section corners shall be marked, and such corners shall govern, respectively, in the subsequent subdivision of the block. 46 V., c. 17, s. 13.

18. Except as hereinafter provided, only a single row of posts or monuments, to indicate the corners of townships or sections, shall be placed on any survey line thereof; such posts or monuments shall, on north and south lines, be placed in the west limit of the road allowances, and on the east and west lines, in the south limit of road allowances, and in all cases shall fix and govern the position of the boundary corner between the adjoining townships, sections, or quarter sections, on the opposite side of the road allowance:

2. In the case of township, section and quarter section corners on correction lines, posts or monuments shall, in all cases, be planted and marked independently for the townships on either side; those for the townships north of the line, in the north limit of the road allowance, and those for the townships south of the line, in the south limit. 46 V., c. 17, s. 14.

19. The township sub-division surveys of Dominion lands, according to the system above described, shall be performed under contract at a certain rate per township, per mile, or per acre, fixed, from time to time, by the Governor in Council, or by competitive tender, as the Governor in Council, from time to time, directs:

2. In special cases, where circumstances render it advisable to effect otherwise the survey of a township or townships, the Governor in Council may order the same to be done. 46 V., c. 17, s. 15.

20. To facilitate the description for letters patent of less than a quarter section, every section shall be supposed to be divided into quarter quarter sections, or forty acres, and such quarter quarter sections shall be numbered as shown in the following diagram, which is intended to show such sub-divisions of a section, which shall be styled legal subdivisions:
2. The area of any legal sub-division as above set forth shall, in letters patent, be held to be more or less than the exact quantity as given to such sub-division in the original survey. 46 V., c. 17, s. 16.

21. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the lands upon the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, surrendered by the Indians to the late Earl of Selkirk, from being laid out in such manner as is necessary in order to carry out the provisions of section two of the “Act respecting certain claims to lands in the Province of Manitoba,” or to prevent fractional sections or lands bordering on any river, or lake, or other water course, or on a public road, from being laid out and divided into lots of any certain frontage or depth, in such manner as appears desirable, or to prevent the sub-division of sections or other legal sub-divisions into wood lots as hereinafter provided, or the describing of the said lands upon the Red and Assiniboine Rivers, or such sub-divisions of fractional sections or lands bordering as above, or other lots, or wood lots, for patent, by numbers according to a plan of record, or by metes and bounds, or by both, as seems expedient. 46 V., c. 17, s. 17.

DISPOSAL OF DOMINION LANDS.

Lands Reserved by the Hudson’s Bay Company.

22. In every fifth township in the territory surrendered to the Crown by the Hudson’s Bay Company, and described and designated as the “fertile belt,” that is to say: in those townships numbered five, ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, thirty-five, forty, forty-five, fifty, and so on in regular succession northerly from the International boundary, the whole of sections numbers eight and twenty-six, and in each and every of the other townships, the whole of section number eight, and the south half and north-west quarter of section number twenty-six, except in the cases hereinafter provided for, shall be known and designated as the lands of the said company:

2. The company’s one-twentieth of the lands in fractional townships shall be satisfied out of one or other or both, as the case may be, of the sections numbers eight and twenty-six as above, in such fractional townships, and the allotment thereof shall be effected by the Minister and the said company, or by some person duly authorized by them respectively:

3. If, when the survey of a township is effected, the sections so allotted, or any of them, or any portion of them, are found to have been bona fide settled on under the authority of any Order in Council, or of this Act, the company may, if it foregoes its right to the sections settled upon as aforesaid, or any one or more of such sections, select a quantity of land equal to that so settled on, and in lieu thereof, from any lands then unoccupied:

4. When the sections and parts of sections above mentioned are situate in any township withdrawn from settlement and sale, and held as timber lands under the provisions hereinafter contained, the same shall form no part of the timber limit or limits included in such township, but shall be the property of the company:

5. One-twentieth of the revenue derived from timber limits granted in unsurveyed territory within the fertile belt, as hereinafter provided, shall, so long as the townships comprised in the same remain unsurveyed, be annually paid and accounted for to the company; but such one-twentieth shall cease or be diminished in proportion as the townships comprised in such limits, or any of them, are surveyed; and in such case the company shall receive their one-twentieth interest in the lands in such townships in sections eight and twenty-six, as hereinbefore provided:

6. If the said sections, or either of them, when surveyed as aforesaid, prove to have been denuded of timber by the lessee, to the extent of one-half or more, the company shall not be bound to accept such section or sections so denuded, and shall be entitled to select a section or sections of an equal extent, in lieu thereof, from any unoccupied lands in the township:

7. As townships are surveyed, and the respective surveys thereof are confirmed, or as townships or parts of townships are set apart and reserved from sale as timber lands, the Governor of the company shall be duly notified thereof by the Minister, and thereupon this Act shall operate to pass the title in fee simple in the sections or three-quarter parts of sections to which the company is entitled under this clause, as aforesaid, and to vest the same in the company, without the issue of a patent for such lands; and as regards the lands set apart by allotment, and those selected to satisfy the one-twentieth in townships other than the above, as provided in sub-clauses two and three of this clause, returns thereof shall be made in due course by the local agent or agents, to the Dominion lands office, and patents shall issue for the same accordingly. 46 V., c. 17, s. 18.

School Lands.

23. Sections eleven and twenty-nine in every surveyed township throughout the extent of the Dominion lands, are township set apart; hereby set apart as an endowment for purposes of education, and shall be designated school lands; and they are hereby withdrawn from the operation of the clauses of this Act, which relate to the sale of Dominion lands and to homestead rights therein; and no right to purchase or to obtain homestead entry shall be recognized in connection with the said sections, or any part of them. 46 V., c. 17, s. 19.

How to be administered. 24. The school lands shall be administered by the Minister under the direction of the Governor in Council. 46 V., c. 17, s. 20, part.

Sale to be by public auction, and upset price. 25. All sales of school lands shall be at public auction, and an upset price shall be fixed, from time to time, by the Governor in Council; but in no case shall such lands be put up at an upset price less than the fair value of corresponding unoccupied lands in the township in which such lands are situate:

2. The terms of sale of school lands shall be at least one-fifth in cash at the time of sale, and the remainder in four equal successive annual instalments, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, which shall be paid with each instalment on the balance of purchase money, from time to time, remaining unpaid:

8. All moneys, from time to time, realized from the sale of school lands shall be invested in securities of Canada, to form a school fund, and the interest arising therefrom, after deducting the cost of management, shall be paid annually to the Government of the Province or Territory within which such lands are situated, towards the support of public schools therein; and the moneys so paid shall be distributed for that purpose by the Government of such Province or Territory in such manner as it deems expedient. 46 V., c. 17, s. 20, part.

Military Bounty Land Scrip.

Warrants instead of scrip for military services. 26. In all cases in which land scrip has been earned, or is hereafter given by Canada, for military services, warrants therefor shall be granted in favor of the persons entitled thereto, by the Minister of Militia and Defence; and such warrants shall be recorded in the Department of the Interior:

2. Such warrants shall be received at the value shown upon their face, in payment for any Dominion lands open for sale; but no greater area in any township than twenty per cent. of the land, exclusive of school and Hudson's Bay Company's lands, shall be open for entry by military bounty warrants:

3. When warrants are accepted as purchase money, any deficiency shall be payable in cash; but if any payment by warrant or by amount in warrants, is in excess of the amount of the purchase money, the excess shall not be returned by the Crown. 46 V., c. 17, s. 21.

27. Assignments of military bounty warrants, or of the expectancy of the same, shall not be recognized; but the warrants shall, similarly to other land scrip, be considered payable to bearer; the warrantees shall be at all risk of their loss, and no warrant shall be duplicated:

2. If any person entitled to a military bounty warrant dies before it is issued, the warrant shall issue in favor of the legal representative or representatives of such deceased person. 46 V., c. 17, s. 22.

28. All free grants of land made under an order of the Governor in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, by which it was declared that the officers and soldiers of the first or Ontario, and the second or Quebec battalion of rifles, then stationed in Manitoba, whether in the service or in depot companies, and not dismissed therefrom, should be entitled to a free grant, without actual residence, of one quarter section, are hereby confirmed, and the Minister of Militia and Defence shall issue the necessary warrants therefor accordingly:

2. Every assignment of his interest by a person so entitled, duly made and attested, and having the certificate of discharge, in the case of non-commissioned officers or private soldiers attached thereto, and filed in the Dominion lands office before the issue of the warrant, shall be held to transfer in each case the interest of the person so entitled in the warrant when issued—which latter, in every such case, shall be attached, after registry, to the assignment on file, and held for delivery to the person entitled thereto, or for location. 46 V., c. 17, s. 23.

Sale of Dominion Lands.

29. Dominion lands, as the surveys thereof are duly made and confirmed, shall, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, be open for purchase, at such prices, and on such terms and conditions as are fixed, from time to time, by the Governor in Council; but no purchase shall be permitted at a less price than one dollar per acre:

2. Except in special cases in which the Governor in Council otherwise orders, no sale to one person shall exceed six hundred and forty acres:

3. Sales shall be restricted, when the Governor in Council deems it expedient, to the odd-numbered sections in each township:

4. Such unoccupied lands as the Minister deems expedient, from time to time, may, when he so orders, be withdrawn from ordinary sale and settlement, and sold at public auction to the highest bidder,—an upset price being fixed for the same:
5. Every legal sub-division or other portion of Dominion lands, which includes a water power, harbor or stone quarry, shall be reserved from ordinary sale, and shall be disposed of in such manner, and on such terms and conditions, as are fixed by the Governor in Council, on the report of the Minister. 46 V., c. 17, s. 24.

Town Plots, &c.

30. The Minister may withdraw from sale or homestead entry any tract or tracts of land, and may lay the same out into town or village lots; and the lots so laid out shall be sold, either by private sale and for such price as the Minister sees fit, or at public auction,—an upset price being fixed for the same:

2. When the lands withdrawn from sale or homestead entry, to be laid out into town or village lots, are adjacent to lands to which any railway company is entitled, the Minister may arrange with such company that the lands so withdrawn, and such lands of the company in the town or village as are agreed upon, shall be sold on joint account and on such terms as appear just and equitable; and the lands so withdrawn may be granted to the company or to such person as the Government and the company agree upon for the purposes of such sale:

3. A deed from the grantee to the purchaser of any lands so withdrawn and sold, shall give the latter a good and valid title, free from all charges, incumbrances and trusts not expressed in the deed of conveyance executed by the grantee. 46 V., c. 17, s. 25.

31. The Governor in Council may set apart and appropriate such Dominion lands as he deems expedient, for the sites of market places, gaols, court houses, places of public worship, burying grounds, schools, benevolent institutions and squares, and for other similar public purposes, and, at any time before the issue of letters patent therefor, may alter or revoke such appropriation, as he deems expedient; and he may make free grants, for the purposes aforesaid, of the lands so appropriated, the trusts and uses to which they are to be subject being expressed in the letters patent. 46 V., c. 17, s. 26.

Homestead.

32. Every person who is the sole head of a family, and every male who has attained the age of eighteen years, who makes application in the form A in the schedule to this Act, shall be entitled to obtain homestead entry for any quantity of land not exceeding one quarter section, which is of the class of land open, under the provisions of this Act, to homestead entry:
2. Such person may also, in connection with such homestead entry, obtain at the same time, but not at a later date, a pre-emption entry for an adjoining unoccupied quarter section, or part of a quarter section, of land of the said class:

3. The entry for a homestead and for its attached pre-emption, if any, shall entitle the recipient to take, occupy and cultivate the land entered for, and to hold possession of the same to the exclusion of any other person or persons whomsoever, and to bring and maintain actions for trespass committed on the said land; the title to the land shall remain in the Crown until the issue of the patent therefor, and the land shall not be liable to be taken in execution before the issue of the patent:

4. The privilege of homestead and pre-emption entry shall only apply to surveyed agricultural lands; no person shall be entitled to such entry for land valuable for its timber, or for hay land, or for land on which there is a stone or marble quarry, or coal or other mineral having commercial value, or whereon there is any water power which may serve to drive machinery, or for land which, by reason of its position, such as being the shore of an important harbor, bridge site or canal site, or being either an actual or prospective railway terminus or station, it is in the public interest to withhold from such entry. 46 V., c. 17, s. 27.

33. Whenever the survey of any township has been finally confirmed and such township opened for homestead entry, any person who has bond fide settled and made improvements before such confirmed survey on land in such township, shall have a prior right to obtain homestead entry for the land so settled on, if such right is exercised within three months after the land is open for settlement, and if such land has not been reserved or the right to homestead entry is not excepted under the provisions of this Act:

2. No homestead entry shall be granted to any other person in respect of such land until three months after notice in writing has been given by the local agent to such bond fide settler that such land is open for settlement. 46 V., c. 17, s. 28.

34. Every person applying for homestead entry shall appear and make affidavit before the local agent, or, in his absence, the senior clerk performing his duties, according to the form B, C, or D in the schedule to this Act, as the circumstances of the case require; and upon filing such affidavit with such local agent, or senior clerk, and on payment to him of an office fee of ten dollars, such person shall receive a receipt from the local agent, or senior clerk, according to the form E in the schedule to this Act; and such receipt shall be a certificate of entry and shall be authority to the person obtaining: it to take possession of the land described in it:

2. If a person who obtains homestead entry applies for and obtains at the same time a pre-emption entry, he shall pay to the local agent, or senior clerk, a further office fee of ten dollars, and shall receive therefor from him a receipt in like form, and having like effect to that prescribed for homestead entry:

3. The Minister of the Interior or the Dominion Lands Board, upon requisition, may authorize any person named therein to make a homestead entry or homestead and pre-emption entries, on behalf of any person signing such requisition and desiring to obtain such entry or entries:

4. The person so authorized shall, in order to obtain such entry or entries, make application in the form F in the schedule to this Act, on behalf of each of those whom he represents, and shall make an affidavit before the local agent, or, in his absence, the senior clerk performing his duties, according to the form G, H or J, in the schedule to this Act, as the circumstances of the case require; and shall pay for each homestead entry, and for each pre-emption entry, the office fee of ten dollars hereinbefore prescribed for such entry.

35. If a dispute arises between persons claiming the right to homestead entry for the same land, the local agent, or any person thereto authorized by the Minister, shall make investigation and obtain evidence respecting the facts; and his report thereon, together with the evidence taken, shall be referred to the Minister for decision, or to the Dominion lands board, or Commissioner of Dominion Lands, or such person as is appointed by the Governor in Council to consider and decide in cases of such disputes:

2. When two or more persons have settled upon and seek to obtain homestead entry for the same land, the one who settled first thereon shall be entitled to such entry, if the land is of the class open to homestead entry, and if it is not in the opinion of the Minister otherwise inexpedient, in the public interest, to entertain any application therefor:

3. When contending applicants have made valuable improvements on the land in dispute, the Minister may, if the application to acquire the land by homestead entry is entertained by him, order a division thereof in such manner as shall preserve to each of the parties to the dispute, as far as practicable, his improvements; and the Minister may, at his discretion, direct that the difference between the extent of the land so allotted to each of them and a quarter section shall be made up from unoccupied land adjoining, if there is any such of the class open to homestead entry. 46 V., c. 17, s. 30.
36. Every person who has obtained homestead entry shall be allowed a period of six months from its date within which to perfect the entry, by taking, in his own person, possession of the land and beginning continuous residence thereon and cultivation thereof; and if the entry is not perfected within that period, it shall be void, and the land shall be open to entry by another person, or to other disposition under this Act by the Minister:

2. Provided, that every person who obtains entry on or after the first of September in any year, and whose term for perfecting the same expires before the first day of June following, shall be allowed an extension of time to the latter date within which to perfect his entry:

3. Provided further, that in the case of immigrants from elsewhere than the North American continent, the Governor in Council may extend the time for the perfecting of entry to twelve months from the date thereof. 46 V., c. 17, s. 31.

37. If a number of homestead settlers, embracing at least twenty families, with a view to greater convenience in the establishment of schools and churches, and to the attainment of social advantages of like character, ask to be allowed to settle together in a hamlet or village, the Minister may, in his discretion, vary or dispense with the foregoing requirements as to residence, but not as to the cultivation of each separate quarter section entered as a homestead. 46 V., c. 17, s. 32.

38. At the expiration of three years from the date of his perfecting his homestead entry, the settler, or in case of his death, his legal representatives, upon proving, to the satisfaction of the local agent, or, in his absence, the senior clerk performing his duties, that he or they, or some of them have resided upon and cultivated the land during the said term of three years, shall be entitled to a patent for the land, if such proof is accepted by the Commissioner of Dominion lands, or the land board; but the patent therefor shall not issue to any person who is not a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization:

2. In the case of a settler who obtains homestead entry for land occupied by him previous to survey thereof, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, residence upon and cultivation of the land for the three years next preceding the application for patent shall, for the purpose of the issue of patent, be held equivalent to that prescribed in the foregoing sub-clause, if such residence and cultivation are otherwise in conformity with the provisions of this Act:

3. Every person who proves that he has resided on the land for which he has homestead entry for twelve months from the date of his perfecting his entry therefor, and that he has brought under cultivation at least thirty acres thereof, may, before the expiration of the three years defined in sub-clause one of this clause, obtain a patent by paying the Government price at the time for the land:

4. Proof of residence, erection of a habitable house and cultivation, required by this clause, shall be made by the claimant by affidavit, and shall be corroborated by the evidence on oath of two disinterested witnesses, resident in the vicinity of the land to which their evidence relates, and shall be subject to acceptance as sufficient by the Commissioner of Dominion lands or the land board; and such affidavit shall be sworn, and such evidence given, before the local agent, or, in his absence, the senior clerk performing his duties or some other person named for that purpose by the Minister:

5. If, in connection with the homestead entry, the settler has heretofore obtained, or hereafter obtains, a pre-emption entry, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he shall, on becoming entitled to a patent for his homestead, be also entitled to a patent for the land included in such pre-emption entry, on payment of the price fixed, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by the Governor in Council; but such pre-emption right, if not exercised and payment made within six months after the settler becomes entitled to claim a patent under his homestead entry, shall be forfeited, and such pre-emption shall not thereafter be open to homestead entry without the consent of the Minister:

6. In addition to the cases hereinbefore mentioned, any person claiming a patent under a homestead entry, or under a homestead and pre-emption entry, shall be entitled thereto, upon proving—

(a.) That he has erected upon his homestead a habitable house, and has bond fide resided therein for not less than three months next prior to the date of his application for his patent;

(b.) That for the period between the time within which, by clause thirty-six of this Act, it is provided that a person who has obtained a homestead entry shall perfect his entry, and the commencement of his said three months’ residence upon his homestead, he has been bond fide resident within a radius of two miles from his homestead quarter section;

(c.) That within the first year after the date of his homestead entry he broke and prepared for crop not less than ten acres of his homestead quarter section;

(d.) That within the second year he cropped the said ten acres and broke and prepared for crop not less than fifteen acres in addition, making not less than twenty-five acres;

(e.) That within the third year after the date of his homestead entry he cropped the said twenty-five acres and broke and prepared for crop not less than fifteen acres in addition, making in all not less than twenty-five acres of the said homestead cropped, and fifteen acres in addition broken and prepared for crop, within three years of the date of perfecting his homestead entry;

And the residence described in this sub-clause shall be sufficiently fulfilled if the applicant has not been absent from his residence for more than six months in any one year:

7. Any person claiming a patent under a homestead entry or under a homestead and pre-emption entry shall also be entitled thereto upon proving to the satisfaction of the Commission of Dominion Lands or the Dominion Lands Board,—

(a.) That he perfected his homestead entry by commencing the cultivation of the homestead within six months from the date of his homestead entry, or if the entry was obtained on or after the first day of September in any year, before the first day of June following;

(b.) That within the first year after the date of his homestead entry he broke and prepared for crop not less than five acres of his homestead quarter section;

(c.) That within the second year he cropped the said five acres, and broke and prepared for crop not less than ten acres in addition, making not less than fifteen acres in all;

(d.) That he erected a habitable house upon his homestead before the expiration of the second year after his homestead entry, and has bona fide resided therein and has cultivated the land for three years next prior to the date of his application for his patent;

(e.) That at the commencement of the third year after the date of his homestead entry, or previously, he commenced the residence on his homestead required by the next preceding paragraph of this sub-clause:

8. Every person who has obtained a homestead entry, and who purposes to apply for a patent for such homestead, shall give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands of his intention to make such application, and shall produce evidence to the officer who is authorized to receive the application, that such notice has been duly given. 46 V., c. 17, s. 33;—47 V., c. 25, ss. 2 and 3.;—49 V., c. 27, ss. 5 and 6.

39. If it is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister that a settler has not resided upon and cultivated his homestead, except as herein provided for, at least six months in any one year, the right to the land shall be forfeited, and the entry therefor shall be cancelled; and the settler so forfeiting his entry shall not be eligible to obtain another entry except in special cases, in the discretion of the Minister. 46 V., c. 17, s. 34, part.

40. In cases of illness, vouched for by sufficient evidence, or in the cases of immigrant settlers returning to their right by non-residence.
native land to bring their families to their homesteads, or in other special cases, the Minister may, in his discretion, grant an extension of time during which such settler may be absent from his homestead, without prejudice to his right therein; but the time so granted shall not be reckoned as residence. 46 V., c. 17, s. 34, part.

41. Every homestead, the entry of which has been cancelled, may, in the discretion of the Minister, be held for sale of the land with the improvements, if any—or of the improvements only, in connection with homestead entry thereof—to a person other than the person whose entry is cancelled. 46 V., c. 17, s. 35.

42. Every assignment or transfer of homestead or pre-emption right, or any part thereof, and every agreement to assign or transfer any homestead or pre-emption right, or any part thereof, after patent obtained, made or entered into before the issue of the patent, shall be null and void; and the person so assigning or transferring, or making an agreement to assign or transfer, shall forfeit his homestead and pre-emption right, and shall not be permitted to make another homestead entry: Provided, that a person whose homestead or homestead and pre-emption have been recommended for patent by the local agent, and who has received from such agent a certificate to that effect, in the form K in the schedule to this Act, countersigned by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, or, in his absence, by a member of the Dominion Lands Board, may legally dispose of and convey, assign or transfer his right and title therein. 46 V., c. 17, s. 36;—49 V., c. 27, s. 7.

43. No person who has obtained a homestead patent or a certificate countersigned by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, or a member of the Dominion Lands Board, as in the next preceding clause mentioned, shall be entitled to obtain another homestead entry:

2. Nothing contained in this clause shall take away the right of any person who, before the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, had received such certificate or recommendation for a patent. 49 V., c. 17, s. 8.

44. If any person or company is desirous of assisting by advances in money intending settlers to place themselves on homestead lands in Manitoba or the North-West Territories, and of securing such advances, such person or company may make application to the Minister, stating the plan or project intended to be acted upon, the steps to be taken in furtherance thereof, and the amount to be advanced to such settlers; and the Minister may sanction and authorize such plan or project, or refuse his sanction and authority thereto:
2. If such plan or project is so sanctioned, and such person or company thereupon places any settler upon a homestead, a statement of the expense incurred by such person or company in paying the actual bond fide cost of the passage and of providing for the subsistence of such settler and his family, of erecting buildings on his homestead (to which purpose at least one-half of the advance made shall be devoted) and of providing horses, cattle, farm implements and seed grain for him, together with an amount in money sufficient to cover the interest on the amount advanced for a time to be agreed upon, to enable such settler to obtain a return from the cultivation of such homestead, shall be furnished to him, and upon his approval thereof, shall be submitted with proper vouchers in support thereof to the local agent, who shall examine and verify the same both by such vouchers and by an examination of such settler, and of such person or company, or their representative,—and shall certify the result of such verification by a writing upon such statement signed by him; and thereupon such settler may make and execute an acknowledgment in writing of the amount so advanced to him, and may by such writing create a charge upon such homestead for the amount of such advance, not exceeding the sum of six hundred dollars, and for the interest thereon, at a rate not exceeding eight per cent. per annum:

3. Such acknowledgment and charge shall be in the form L in the schedule to this Act, and a duplicate thereof shall be deposited with the local agent, and thereafter the holder of such charge shall have the right to enforce payment of the amount so advanced and of the interest thereon by ordinary legal proceedings: Provided always, that the time to be fixed for the payment of the first instalment of interest upon such advance shall not be earlier than the first day of November in any year, nor shall it be within less than two years from the establishment of such settler upon such homestead; and provided also, that such settler shall not be bound to pay the capital of such advance or any part thereof within a less period than five years from the date of his establishment upon such homestead:

4. Upon such acknowledgment and charge being duly executed and duly registered in the registry office for the registration district in which such homestead is situated, the same shall constitute and be a first charge upon such homestead after the issue of the patent or certificate of patent for such homestead, until duly satisfied and extinguished according to law:

5. If such settler has not performed the conditions of settlement required to entitle him to a patent for such homestead within the time and in the manner provided by this Act, and has thereby forfeited his right to obtain a patent, the holder of the charge created thereon may apply to the Minister for a patent of such homestead, and, upon establishing
The Dominion Lands Act.

Duties of holder in such case.

If the facts to the satisfaction of the Minister shall receive a patent in his name therefor; and such patentee shall be bound to place a bond fide settler on such homestead by the sale thereof to such settler or otherwise within two years from the date of such patent, and in default of so doing within the said period shall be bound and obliged on demand to sell the said homestead, to any person willing to become a bond fide settler thereon, for such sum of money as is sufficient to pay the amount of such charge and interest, and the expenses incurred by the patentee in obtaining such patent and in retaining the homestead, on pain, in case of refusal, of an absolute forfeiture of the said property and of all claims thereto and of the patent or other title thereto. But if the settler has acquired a right to receive a patent for the land so charged and does not apply for the issue of the same, the holder of such charge may obtain such patent, or certificate for patent, in the name of the person entitled to receive the same or of his legal representatives, and thereafter the said charge shall become a statutory mortgage on such homestead. 49 V., c. 27, s. 9, part.

Provision when right to patent has been acquired.

45. Clause seven of the "Act respecting Interest" shall apply to all charges created under the next preceding clause of this Act. 49 V., c. 27, s. 9, part.

Discontinuance of Pre-emptions.

46. The privilege of pre-emption, in connection with a homestead entry, shall be discontinued from and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety. 49 V., c. 27, s. 10.

Mining and Mining Lands.

47. Lands containing coal or other minerals, whether in surveyed or unsurveyed territory, shall not be subject to the provisions of this Act respecting sale or homestead entry, but shall be disposed of in such manner and on such terms and conditions as are, from time to time, fixed by the Governor in Council, by regulations made in that behalf. 46 V., c. 17, s. 42.

48. No grant from the Crown of lands in freehold or for any less estate, shall be deemed to have conveyed or to convey the gold or silver mines therein, unless the same are expressly conveyed in such grant. 46 V., c. 17, s. 43.

49. Every discoverer of minerals upon surveyed or unsurveyed lands, or his assigns and associates, who had applied for a grant of such lands before the passing of the Act passed in the forty-third year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-six, shall be held to have the same rights as if that Act had not been passed. 46 V., c. 17, s. 44.
Grazing Lands.

50. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, grant leases of unoccupied Dominion lands for grazing purposes, to any person, for such term of years, and at such rent, in each case, as is deemed expedient; and every such lease shall contain a condition by which the Governor in Council may authorize the Minister, at any time during the term of the lease, to give the lessee notice of cancellation thereof, and at the end of two years from the service of such notice, such lease shall cease and determine. 46 V., c. 17, s. 40.

Hay Lands.

51. A settler in the vicinity of unoccupied hay lands may obtain a lease for an area thereof not exceeding a quarter section, or forty acres, for such term and at such rent as the Minister deems expedient; but such lease shall not operate to prevent, at any time during its term, the sale or settlement of the land; and in the case of such sale or settlement, the lessee shall be paid by the purchaser or settler, for fencing or other improvement made, such sum as the local agent determines; and the lessee shall be allowed to remove any hay he has cut. 46 V., c. 17, s. 41.

PATENTS.

52. A Deputy Governor may be appointed by the Governor General, who shall have the power, in the absence of or under instructions of the Governor General, to sign letters patent of Dominion lands; and the signature of such Deputy Governor to such patents shall have the same force and virtue as if such patents were signed by the Governor General. 46 V., c. 17, s. 70, part.

53. Every patent for land shall be prepared in the Department of the Interior, and shall be signed by the Minister or the deputy of the Minister of the Interior, or by some other person thereof specially authorized by the Governor in Council, and when so signed shall be registered by an officer specially appointed for that purpose by the Registrar General, and then transmitted to the Secretary of State of Canada, by whom, or by the Under Secretary of State, the same shall be countersigned, and the Great Seal of Canada thereto caused to be affixed: Provided, that every patent for land shall be signed by the Governor General or Deputy Governor, as hereinbefore provided. 46 V., c. 17, s. 70, part.

54. Whenever, through error in survey or in the books or plans of a Dominion lands office, any grant of land is found deficient, the Minister may order a free grant, equal in value, at the time such land was granted or sold, to the ascertained deficiency; or he may order the purchase money of so much land as is deficient, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, from the time of the purchase thereof, to be paid back to the purchaser; but no claim respecting any such deficiency shall be entertained unless it is made within five years from the date of the patent, and unless the deficiency is equal to one-tenth of the whole quantity described in the patent as being contained in the lot or parcel of land granted.

55. Whenever a patent has been issued to, or in the name of, a wrong person, or contains any clerical error, misnomer or wrong or defective description of the land thereby intended to be granted, or there is in such patent an omission of the conditions of the grant, the Minister may, there being no adverse claim, direct the defective patent to be cancelled and a correct one to be issued in its stead—which corrected patent shall relate back to the date of the one so cancelled and have the same effect as if issued at the date of such cancelled patent.

56. In all cases in which, through error, grants or letters patent have issued for the same land, inconsistent with each other, and in all cases of sales or appropriations of the same land, inconsistent with each other, the Minister may order a new grant, to the person thereby deprived, of land of value equal to that of the original grant, at the time the same was granted, or may, in case of sale, cause repayment to be made of the purchase-money, with interest; or when the land has passed from the original purchaser, or has been improved before the discovery of the error, or when the original grant was a free grant, the Minister may assign land, or grant such amount of scrip for the purchase of Dominion lands as to him seems just and equitable under the circumstances; but no claim under this clause shall be entertained unless it is preferred within one year after the discovery of the error.

57. Whenever patents, leases or other instruments respecting lands have issued through fraud, or in error or improvidence, any court having competent jurisdiction in cases respecting real property in the Province or Territory where such lands are situate, may, upon action, bill or plaint respecting such lands, and upon hearing the parties interested, or upon default of the said parties after such notice of proceeding as the said court orders, decree or adjudge such patent, lease or other instrument to be void; and upon the registry of such decree or adjudication in the office of the Registrar General of Canada, such patent, lease or other instrument shall be void.

58. When any settler, purchaser or other person refuses or neglects to deliver up possession of any land after forfeiture of the same under the provisions of this Act, or whenever any person is wrongfully in possession of Dominion land and refuses to vacate or abandon possession of the same, the Minister may apply to a judge of any court of competent jurisdiction in cases respecting real property in the Province or Territory in which the land is situate, for an order in the form of a writ of ejectment or of habe facias possessionem; and the said judge, upon proof to his satisfaction that such land was so forfeited and should properly revert to the Crown, or is wrongfully in possession of such person, shall grant an order upon the settler or person in possession to deliver up the same to the Minister, or to the person by him authorized to receive such possession; and such order shall have the same force as a writ of habe facias possessionem, and the sheriff shall execute the same in like manner as he would execute the said writ in an action of ejectment or a petitory action. 46 V., c. 17, s. 75.

ASSIGNMENTS.

59. The Minister shall cause to be kept, in the Department of the Interior, books for registering, at the option of the persons interested, assignments of any rights to Dominion lands which are assignable under this Act, upon proof to his satisfaction that such assignments are in conformity with this Act; and every assignment so registered shall be valid against any other assignment unregistered or subsequently registered; but any assignment to be registered shall be unconditional, and all conditions on which the right depends shall be performed, or dispensed with by the Minister, before the assignment is registered. 46 V., c. 17, s. 76.

60. On any application for a patent by the legal representative of a person who died entitled to such patent, the Minister may receive proof of the facts in such manner as he sees fit to require; and upon being satisfied that the claim has been justly established, may allow the same and cause a patent to be issued accordingly. 46 V., c. 17, s. 77.

TOWNSHIP PLANS AND PATENT LISTS.

61. The Minister shall transmit to the registrar of every county and registration district or division in Manitoba and the North-West Territories, as early as possible in each year, a certified copy of the map of each township in such county, district or division, surveyed in the year next preceding, together with a certified list of the lands in such county, district or division, patented during such year. 46 V., c. 17, s. 78.

TIMBER AND TIMBER LANDS.

Wood for Settlers.

The Minister may direct that in the sub-division of townships, which consist partly of prairie and partly of timber land, the timber lands shall be divided into wood lots of not more than twenty and not less than ten acres each, in such manner as to afford, as far as practicable, one such wood lot to each quarter section prairie farm:

2. If a quarter section is found to contain timber land which does not exceed in extent twenty-five acres, such timber land shall be appurtenant to such quarter section and shall not be divided into wood lots:

3. Out of any wood lots set apart under the first sub-clause of this clause, the local agent shall, on application, apportion a wood lot to each settler on a homestead quarter section not having on it more than ten acres of woodland; and such wood lot shall be paid for by the applicant at the price for wood lots fixed at the time by the Minister, and shall be entered in the books of the local agent and be given by him, in his returns, as appertaining to such homestead quarter section; and on the homestead claimant fulfilling all the requirements of this Act in that behalf, but not otherwise, a patent shall issue to him for such wood lot: Provided always, that any person to whom a wood lot was apportioned in connection with a homestead, under the provisions of sub-clause five of clause forty-six of "The Dominion Lands Act of 1872," having duly fulfilled the conditions of such homestead grant, shall receive a patent for such wood lot as a free grant, as provided in the said sub-clause, notwithstanding the repeal of the said sub-clause by the Act thirty-seventh Victoria, chapter nineteen:

Provided further, that the cancellation of a homestead entry shall carry with it the cancellation of the entry of the wood lot apportioned thereto, and also the forfeiture of the purchase money of such wood lot:

4. Any holder of a homestead entry who, previously to the issue of the patent, sells any of the timber on either his homestead or pre-emption quarter section, or on the appurtenant wood lot, to saw-mill proprietors or to any other than settlers for their own private use, without having previously obtained permission so to do from the Minister, is guilty of a trespass and may be prosecuted therefor before a justice of the peace; and, upon conviction thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both penalty and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; and further, such person shall forfeit his homestead and pre-emption rights, and the timber so sold shall be subject to seizure and confiscation in the manner hereinafter provided. 46 V., c. 17, s. 45.

Timber Berths.

64. In the twenty-five clauses next following, the expression "timber" means all wood and all products thereof. 46 V., c. 17, s. 46.

65. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, declare districts of territory to be timber districts; and no lease of a timber berth shall be granted except within timber districts so set apart. 46 V., c. 17, s. 47.

66. The Minister may set apart any tract of land in any timber district, and may cause the same to be divided into timber berths not exceeding in area fifty square miles each, and the same shall be reserved from sale and settlement; and, under such regulations as are made by the Governor in Council respecting the ground rents, royalties or other dues which shall be paid in connection therewith, leases of the right to cut timber on such berths may be granted as hereinafter provided. 46 V., c. 17, s. 48.

67. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, order that leases of the right to cut timber on certain timber berths defined in the order shall be offered at public auction at an upset bonus fixed in the order, and awarded to the person bidding, in each case, the highest bonus therefor,—such bonus to be paid in cash at the time of sale:

1. The Governor in Council may also authorize the lease of the right to cut timber on any timber berth to any person who is the sole applicant for such lease,—the bonus to be paid by such applicant to be fixed in the order authorizing the lease to him, and to be paid in cash at the time of its issue:

2. When one or more persons apply for the right to cut timber upon the same berth, the Governor in Council may authorize the Minister to invite tenders from the applicants or the public; and the person tendering the highest cash bonus therefor, shall be entitled to the lease. 46 V., c. 17, s. 49.

68. Leases of timber berths shall be for a term not exceeding one year; and the lessee of a timber berth shall not be held to have any claim whatever to a renewal of his lease unless such renewal is provided for in the Order in Council authorizing it, or embodied in the conditions of sale or tender, as the case may be, under which it was obtained:

2. No lease shall be renewed in any case in which the lessee has failed to pay any ground rent, royalty or other dues in connection therewith. 46 V., c. 17, s. 50.

69. The lease shall describe the lands upon which the timber may be cut, and shall, during its continuance, vest in the lessee all rights of property whatsoever in all trees, timber, wood or other products of wood, cut within the limits of the leasehold, whether such trees, timber and wood or products are cut by his authority or by any person without his consent; and such lease shall entitle the lessee to seize, in replevin, revendication or otherwise, as his property, such timber where the same is found in the possession of any unauthorized person, and also to bring any action or suit against any person unlawfully in possession of any such timber, and to prosecute all persons cutting timber in trespass upon his lease, to conviction and punishment, and to recover damages, if any; and all proceedings pending at the expiration of any such lease may be continued and completed as if the lease had not expired. 46 V., c. 17, s. 51.

70. The lease shall, in addition to such other provisions as are in the Order in Council granting it, or in the conditions of sale or tender under which it was obtained, contain provisions binding the lessee,—

(a.) To erect, in connection with the berth leased, and to have in operation within a time prescribed in the lease, a saw mill or mills, of capacity to cut in twenty-four hours a thousand feet, board measure, for every two and a-half square miles of the area leased, or to establish such other manufactory of wood goods as the Minister accepts as equivalent thereto;

(b.) To pay in advance, in addition to the bonus, an annual ground rent of five dollars for each square mile; and further, to pay in cash, at each time of his making the return prescribed in sub-clause (d) of this clause, a royalty of five per cent. on his sales of the products of the berth, as shown by such return;

(c.) To keep correct books of account of his business, and to submit the same for the inspection of any authorized agent of the Minister, whenever required;

(d.) To make, monthly or at such other intervals of time as they are required of him by regulations made under this Act or by the minister, returns sworn to by him or by his agent or employee cognizant of the facts, declaring the quantities taken from the berth, and those sold, of all timber or products of wood, in whatsoever form the same are sold or otherwise disposed of by him during such month or other period, and the amount received by him therefor;

(e.) To prevent any unnecessary waste of timber in the process of cutting it, and to prevent, when it can be avoided, the destruction of growing trees which have not yet attained a size fitting them to be used for merchantable timber;
(f.) To exercise strict and constant supervision to prevent the origin and spread of fire. 46 V., c. 17, s. 52.

71. If, in consequence of any incorrectness in survey or other error or cause whatsoever, a lease is found to comprise lands included in another lease of prior date, or any lands sold, granted, leased or lawfully set apart for any other purpose under this Act, the later lease shall be void in so far as it interferes with any previous lease, sale, grant or setting apart. 46 V., c. 17, s. 53.

72. Every lease of a timber berth shall be subject to the right of the Crown to deal, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the regulations made under it by the Governor in Council, with any and all coal and other minerals found within the limits of the berth leased; and the Crown shall have the right, in dealing, as above provided, with any coal or other minerals in lands leased as timber limits, to authorize the persons to whom such coal or other minerals are granted, to take possession of and occupy such extent of the land so leased as is necessary to work such coal or other minerals, and to open necessary roads through any such timber berth—paying the lessee of the berth the value of any and all timber necessarily cut in making such roads or in working the mines, and the provisions of this clause shall operate retrospectively, that is to say: they shall apply to all leases of timber berths heretofore granted under any Act respecting Dominion lands, as if they had been contained in such Act when it was passed. 46 V., c. 17, s. 54.

73. Every lease shall be subject to forfeiture for violation of any one of the conditions to which it is subject, or for any fraudulent return; and in such case the Minister may, without any action, suit or other proceeding and without compensation to the lessee, cancel the same and make a new lease or disposition of the limit described therein to any other person, at any time during the term of the lease so cancelled: but the Minister may, if he sees fit, refrain from cancelling such lease for non-payment of dues, and may enforce payment of such dues in the manner by this Act provided. 46 V., c. 17, s. 55.

74. All ground rents, royalties or other dues on timber cut within the limits of any timber berth, which are not paid at the time when they become due, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum until paid, and shall be a lien on any timber cut within such limits; and in case of such non-payment—whether, in consequence thereof, the lease of the berth has or has not been cancelled—the Crown timber agent or other person authorized thereto may, with the sanction of the Minister, seize so much of the timber cut on such berth as will, in his opinion, be sufficient to secure the payment of such rent or royalty, and all interest and expenses of seizure and sale, and may detain the same as security for the payment thereof; and if payment is not made within three months after such seizure, he may, with the sanction of the Minister, sell such timber by public auction,—and, after deducting the sum due to the Crown, the interest thereon and expenses aforesaid, he shall pay over the balance, if any, to the lessee, if the timber was in his possession at the time of seizure, or if it was not, to the person who had possession thereof at that time. 46 V., c. 17, s. 56.

75. All timber cut under lease shall be liable for the payment of the Crown dues thereon, whenever and wherever the said timber, or any part of it, is found, whether it is or is not converted into deals, boards or any other manufacture of wood; and all officers or agents employed in the collection of such dues may follow all such timber and may seize and detain the same wherever it is found, until the dues thereon are paid or secured, as provided in the next preceding clause. 46 V., c. 17, s. 57.

76. If the payment of the Crown dues on any timber has been evaded by any lessee or other person, by the removal of such timber or products out of Canada, or otherwise, the amount of dues so evaded and any expenses incurred by the Crown in enforcing payment of the said dues under this Act, may be added to the dues remaining to be collected on any other timber cut on any timber berth by the lessee or by his authority, and may be levied and collected or secured on such timber, together with such last-mentioned dues, in the manner hereinbefore provided; or the amount due to the Crown, of which payment has been evaded, may be recovered by action or suit in the name of the Minister or his agent, in any court of competent jurisdiction. 46 V., c. 17, s. 58.

77. The Minister may take or authorize the taking of bonds or promissory notes for any money due to the Crown, as aforesaid, or in his discretion, for double the amount of any dues, penalties and costs incurred or to be incurred, and may, if it is under seizure, then release any timber upon which the same would be leviable; but the taking of such bonds or notes shall not affect the right of the Crown to enforce payment of such money, and the debt shall be a lien on any timber cut on the same or on any other berth, by the lessee or by his authority, if the sums for which such bonds or notes are given are not paid when due. 46 V., c. 17, s. 59.

Forest Parks.

78. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, for the preservation of forest trees on the crests and slopes of the Rocky Mountains, and for the proper maintenance throughout the year of the volume of water in the rivers and streams which have their sources in such mountains and traverse the North-West Territories, reserve from sale, lease or license, such portions of the land in the North-West Territories, on, adjacent to, or in the vicinity of the Rocky Mountains, as to him it appears expedient so to reserve, and may define the limits or boundaries of such reserves; and may set aside and appropriate such lands for a forest park, or forest parks, as he deems expedient, and may appoint officers for the preservation of such reserves and forest parks:

2. Statements showing such reserves and appropriations, with the necessary maps, shall be laid before Parliament within fifteen days after the commencement of the session next after such reserves or appropriations have been made:

3. Every one who wilfully cuts down, breaks, barks, roots up, removes or destroys, or causes to be cut down, broken barked, rooted up, removed or destroyed, any tree, sapling, shrub,, underwood or timber, growing in and upon any such reserve or forest park, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than ten dollars, which shall be recoverable, with costs, in a summary manner, before a judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories, a stipendiary magistrate, commissioner of police, or any two justices of the peace, under the "Act respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace;" and in default of immediate payment of such penalty, and of the costs of prosecution, the offender may be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months. 47 V., c. 25, s. 5.

Liability of persons cutting timber without authority.

79. If any person, without authority, cuts, or employs or induces any other person to cut or assist in cutting any timber of any kind on Dominion lands, or removes or carries away, or employs or induces or assists any other person to remove or carry away any timber of any kind so cut, he shall not acquire any right to such timber or any claim for remuneration for cutting the same, preparing the same for market or conveying the same to or towards market; and when the timber has been removed out of the reach of the Crown timber officers, or it is otherwise found impossible to seize it, he shall, in addition to the loss of his labor and disbursements, incur a penalty not exceeding three dollars for each tree which, or any part of which, he is proved to have cut or carried away, or assisted to cut or carry away;
and such sum shall be recoverable, with costs, at the suit and in the name of the Crown, in any court having jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount of the penalty; and in all cases the burden of proof of authority to cut and take the timber shall lie on the person charged; and the averment of the person seizing or prosecuting, that he is duly employed under the authority of this Act, shall be sufficient proof thereof, unless the defendant proves the contrary. 46 V., c. 17, s. 60.

Whenever any Crown timber officer or agent receives satisfactory information, supported by affidavit, made before a justice of the peace or before any other competent officer or person, that any timber has been cut without authority on Dominion lands, or if any Crown timber officer or agent, from other sources of information or his own knowledge, is aware that any timber has been cut without authority on any such lands, he may seize or cause to be seized, in Her Majesty's name, the timber so reported or known to be cut, wherever it is found, and place the same under proper custody, until the matter is decided by competent authority. 46 V., c. 17, s. 61, part.

If the timber, reported or known to have been cut without authority, has been made up with other timber into a crib, dram or raft, or in any other manner has, at any mill or elsewhere, been so mixed up with other timber as to render it impossible or very difficult to distinguish the timber so cut without authority from the other timber, the whole shall be held to have been cut without authority and shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture accordingly, unless the holder separates, to the satisfaction of the Crown timber agent, the timber cut without authority from the other. 46 V., c. 17, s. 61, part.

Whenever any Crown timber agent or other officer or agent of the Minister is in doubt as to whether any timber has or has not been cut without authority, or is or is not liable to Crown dues on the whole or any part thereof, he may inquire of the person or persons in possession or in charge of such timber, as to when and where the same was cut; and if no satisfactory explanation, on oath or otherwise, as he requires, is given to him, he may seize and detain such timber until proof is made to the satisfaction of the Minister or of such Crown timber agent or officer, that such timber was not cut without authority, and is not liable, either in whole or in part, to Crown dues of any kind; and if such proof is not made within thirty days after such seizure, such timber may be dealt with as timber cut without authority, or on which the Crown dues have not been paid, according to the circumstances of the case; and the dues thereon may be recovered as hereinbefore provided. 46 V., c. 17, s. 62.
83. If any timber, or any product thereof, is seized under the provisions of this Act by any Crown timber agent or officer, he may allow such timber or product thereof to be removed and disposed of, on receiving sufficient security, by bond or otherwise to his satisfaction, for the full value thereof or, in his discretion, for payment of double the amount of all dues, penalties and costs incurred or imposed thereon, as the case may be. 46 V., c. 17, s. 63.

2. The Minister may, if he sees cause for so doing, instead of confiscating timber cut without authority on Dominion lands, impose a penalty which, in addition to all costs incurred, shall be levied on such timber; and, in default of payment of the whole on demand, he may, after a notice of fifteen days, sell such timber by public auction, and may, in his discretion, retain the whole proceeds of such sale, or the amount of the penalty and costs only. 46 V., c. 17, s. 64.

85. Whenever any timber is seized for non-payment of Crown dues, or for any cause of forfeiture, or any prosecution is instituted for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, and any question arises whether the said dues have been paid on such timber, or whether the said timber was cut on other than any part of the Dominion lands aforesaid, the burden of proving payment, or of proving on what land the said timber was cut, shall lie on the owner or claimant of such timber, and not on the officer who seize the same or the person instituting such prosecution. 46 V., c. 17, s. 65.

86. Any officer or person seizing timber in the discharge of his duty under this Act may, in the name of the Crown, seize any timber, or any product thereof, is seized under the provisions of this Act by any Crown timber agent or officer, he may allow such timber or product thereof to be released of the provisions of this Act by any Crown timber agent or officer, he may allow such timber or product thereof to be removed and disposed of, on receiving sufficient security, by bond or otherwise to his satisfaction, for the full value thereof or, in his discretion, for payment of double the amount of all dues, penalties and costs incurred or imposed thereon, as the case may be. 46 V., c. 17, s. 63.

84. All timber seized under this Act on behalf of the Crown, as being forfeited, shall be deemed to be condemned, unless the owner thereof or the person from whom it was seized, within one month from the day of the seizure, gives notice to the seizing officer or to the Crown timber agent or officer under whose authority the seizure was made, that he intends to contest the seizure; and if, within fifteen days thereafter, the claimant has not instituted proceedings before a court of competent jurisdiction to contest the seizure, or, if the decision of the court is against him, or if the claimant fails duly to prosecute such proceedings, in the opinion of the judge before whom such case is tried (who may for that cause dismiss the suit on the expiration of three months from the date on which it was instituted—anything to the contrary hereinbefore enacted notwithstanding), the timber may be confiscated and may, after thirty days' notice posted up at the place where the same is confiscated, be sold, by order of the Minister, for the benefit of the Crown:

2. The Minister may, if he sees cause for so doing, instead of confiscating timber cut without authority on Dominion lands, impose a penalty which, in addition to all costs incurred, shall be levied on such timber; and, in default of payment of the whole on demand, he may, after a notice of fifteen days, sell such timber by public auction, and may, in his discretion, retain the whole proceeds of such sale, or the amount of the penalty and costs only. 46 V., c. 17, s. 64.

85. Whenever any timber is seized for non-payment of Crown dues, or for any cause of forfeiture, or any prosecution is instituted for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, and any question arises whether the said dues have been paid on such timber, or whether the said timber was cut on other than any part of the Dominion lands aforesaid, the burden of proving payment, or of proving on what land the said timber was cut, shall lie on the owner or claimant of such timber, and not on the officer who seize the same or the person instituting such prosecution. 46 V., c. 17, s. 65.

ion land surveyor without being subjected to any examination other than with respect to the system of survey of Dominion lands; but it shall rest with the board of examiners to decide whether the qualifications required of a surveyor of Crown lands in such Province are sufficiently similar to those set forth in the said clauses to entitle him, under the foregoing provisions, to such commission; and before any such commission as Dominion land surveyor is granted, it shall be shown that such Province has reciprocated the privilege hereby granted, by granting to Dominion land surveyors, on their application, and without subjecting them to an examination, except with respect to a knowledge of the survey laws of such Province, diplomas, certificates or commissions, as the case may be, as surveyors of lands within such Province. 49 V., c. 27, s. 15, part.

Every graduate in surveying of the Royal Military College of Canada, and every person who has followed a regular course of study in all the branches of education required by this Act for admission as a Dominion land surveyor, through the regular sessions, for at least two years in any college or university where a complete course of theoretical and practical instruction in surveying is organized, and who has thereupon received from such college or university a diploma as civil engineer, shall be exempt from serving three years as aforesaid, and shall be entitled to examination after one year's service under articles with a Dominion land surveyor, (at least six months of which service has been in the field), on producing the affidavit required by the next preceding clause as to such service; but it shall rest with the board to decide whether the course of instruction in such college or university is that required by this clause. 49 V., c. 27, s. 15, part.

112. Every person who desires to be examined before the board shall give due notice thereof in writing to the secretary at least one month previous to the meeting of the board, and shall, with such notice, transmit the fee herein-prescribed. 46 V., c. 17, s. 98.

113. No person shall, unless he is thereto entitled under any other clause of this Act, receive a commission from the board authorizing him to practise as a Dominion land surveyor, unless he has complied with the foregoing provisions of this Act, nor until he has attained the full age of twenty-one years and has passed a satisfactory examination before the board or before a member thereof as hereinbefore provided on the following subjects, that is to say: plane and solid geometry; spherical trigonometry, so far as it includes the solution of triangles; the use of logarithms; measurement of areas, including their calculation by latitude and departure, and the dividing or laying off land; a knowledge of the elements of practical astronomy and the solution of the following elementary problems:—

(a.) To ascertain the latitude of a place from an observation of a meridian altitude of the sun or of a star; (b.) To obtain the local time and the azimuth from an observed altitude of the sun or a star; (c.) From an observed azimuth of a circumpolar star, when at its greatest elongation from the meridian, to ascertain the direction of the latter:

He shall be practically familiar with surveying operations and capable of intelligently reporting thereon, and be conversant with the keeping of field notes, their plotting and representation on plans of survey, in a style of draughtsmanship satisfactory to the board, the describing of land by metes and bounds for title, and with the adjustments and methods of use of ordinary surveying instruments; and shall also be perfectly conversant with the system of survey as embodied in this Act, and with the manual of standing instructions and regulations published by the authority of the minister, from time to time, for the guidance of Dominion land surveyors. 49 V., c. 87, s. 16.

114. The board may examine any candidate on oath,—which oath may be administered by any one of the examiners,—as to his actual practice in the field, and with regard to his instruments. 46 V., c. 17, s. 100.

115. Every person who passes the examination prescribed by this Act, and every person who is entitled to receive a commission under clause one hundred and nine of this Act, shall receive a commission from the board in accordance with the form Q in the schedule to this Act, constituting him a Dominion land surveyor, and shall, jointly and severally with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the board, enter into a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the duties of his office, and shall take and subscribe before a judge of any one of the superior courts in any Province of Canada—who is hereby authorized and required to administer such oaths—or before the board—any member of which may administer the same—the oath of allegiance, and an oath in the form following:

"I, , do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be) that I will faithfully discharge the duties of a Dominion land surveyor according to law, without favor, affection or partiality. So help me God."

2. Until the above formalities have been complied with the said commission of Dominion land surveyor shall have no effect:

3. The said oaths of allegiance and of office shall be deposited in the Dominion lands office:

4. The said bond shall be deposited and kept in the manner prescribed by law with regard to the bonds given for the like purposes by other public officers of Canada, and shall be subject to the same provisions, and shall inure to the benefit of any person who sustains damage by breach of any condition thereof:

5. The commission shall be registered in the office of the Registrar General of Canada. 46 V., c. 17, s. 101;—49 V., c. 27, s. 17.

116. Every Dominion land surveyor who has previously given the notice prescribed in clause one hundred and twelve of this Act, may be examined as to his knowledge of the following subjects relating to the higher branches of surveying, qualifying him, (in addition to the performance of the duties declared by this Act to be within the competence of Dominion land surveyors), for the prosecution of extensive governing or topographic surveys or those of geographical exploration, that is to say:

Mathematics

(a.) Algebra;
(b.) Plane and spherical trigonometry;
(c.) The plane co-ordinate geometry of the point, straight line, circle and ellipse, and the transformation of co-ordinates;

(e.) Differential calculus as far as Taylor's and McLaurin's theorems, with its practical application;
(f.) Methods of trigonometrical surveying, of observing the angles and calculating the sides of large triangles on the earth's surface, and of obtaining the differences of latitude and longitude of points in a series of such triangles, regard being had to the effect of the figure of the earth;
(g.) The theory of the projections and developments used in the delineation of spherical surfaces;
The Dominion Lands Act.

(a.) The portion of the theory of practical astronomy which relates to the determination of the geographic position of points on the earth's surface and the directions of lines on the same;

(b.) The use of the method of least squares in combining direct and indirect observations, the solution of simple equations of condition and the determination of the probable and the mean error;

(c.) The theory of the Dominion lands system of survey, the methods of surveying blocks and township outlines and of making tract, micrometer and exploratory surveys;

(d.) The theory and use of the instruments used in connection with the foregoing, and also of the ordinary meteorological instruments;

(e.) Elementary mineralogy and geology, so far as respects a knowledge of the more common characters by which the mineral bodies that enter largely into the composition of rocks are distinguished, with their general properties and conditions of occurrence; the ores of the common metals and the classification of rocks; and the geology of North America, so far as to be able to give an intelligent outline of the leading geological features of Canada;

(f.) Methods of trigonometrical levelling, of measurement of heights by barometer or by the temperature of boiling water, and the use of the pendulum in determining the compression of the earth;

(g.) The instruments and methods used in determining the magnetic declination, inclination and intensity.

117. Persons who pass the above mentioned examination in the higher branches of surveying, shall receive a certificate to that effect from the board, and shall be designated Dominion topographical surveyors. 46 V., c. 17, s. 103.

118. The following fees shall be paid under the provisions of this Act:

(a.) To the secretary of the board, by each pupil, on giving notice of his desire for examination preliminary to being articled, one dollar;

(b.) To the secretary of the board, as the fee due on such examination, ten dollars, and a further sum of two dollars for the certificate;

(c.) To the secretary of the board, by each pupil, at the time of transmitting to such secretary the indentures or articles of such pupil, two dollars;

(g.) To the secretary of the board by each applicant who obtains a commission as Dominion topographical surveyor, as his fee thereon, two dollars;

(h.) To the secretary of the board for testing a surveyor’s standard of length, two dollars. 46 V., c. 17, s. 104;—49 V., c. 27, s. 19.

119. Every member of the board who attends at the meetings thereof, and the secretary and every member who holds an examination as provided by clause one hundred and one, shall receive five dollars for each day’s sitting, and the actual travelling and living expenses incurred by such member, and consequent upon such attendance,—and the Minister shall pay such sums; but no member of the board, if he has to travel more than one hundred miles in order to be present at the meeting, shall receive any allowance for travelling expenses for attending such meeting, unless such member was previously specially notified to attend the same by the secretary. 49 V., c. 27, s. 20, part.

120. The board may, in its discretion, suspend or dismiss from the practice of his profession, any Dominion land or topographical surveyor whom it finds guilty of gross negligence or corruption in the execution of the duties of his office; but the board shall not suspend or dismiss such surveyor without having previously summoned him to appear in order to be heard in his defence, nor without having heard the evidence offered both in support of the complaint and on behalf of such surveyor; and, if, after being summoned as aforesaid, the surveyor does not appear, the board may appoint a fit and proper person to present the evidence on behalf of the surveyor. 49 V., c. 27, s. 20, part.

121. The Surveyor General shall require every Dominion land or topographical surveyor, in addition to the oath by this Act required to be administered to him on receiving his commission as such, to take and subscribe an oath, or make and subscribe an affirmation, on the return of his surveys of Dominion lands, that the same have been faithfully and correctly executed according to law and the instructions of the Surveyor General; and if it is proved, on satisfactory evidence, before any court of competent jurisdiction, that such surveys, or any part thereof, have not been so executed, the Attorney General of Canada shall, upon the application of the Surveyor General, immediately institute a suit upon the bond of such surveyor; and the institution of such suit shall operate as a lien on any property owned or held by such surveyor, or his sureties, at the time the suit is instituted. 46 V., c. 17, s. 107, part.

122. Every Dominion land surveyor shall keep exact and regular journals and field notes of all his surveys of Dominion lands, and shall file them in the order of time in which the surveys have been performed, and he shall give copies thereof to all persons concerned, when required so to do; and for so doing he shall be paid the sum of one dollar for each copy, if the number of words therein does not exceed four hundred—but if the number of words therein exceeds four hundred, he shall be paid ten cents additional for every hundred words over and above four hundred words. 46 V., c. 17, s. 123.

123. Every Dominion land surveyor summoned to attend any court, civil or criminal, for the purpose of giving evidence in his professional capacity as a surveyor, shall be allowed five dollars for each day he so attends, in addition to his reasonable travelling and living expenses, to be taxed and paid in the manner by law provided, with regard to the payment of witnesses attending such court. 46 V., c. 17, s. 124.

Chain Bearers.

124. Every chain bearer employed in the survey of Dominion lands shall, before he commences his chaining or measuring, take an oath or affirmation that he will discharge such duty with exactness, according to the best of his judgment and ability, and render a true account of his chaining or measuring to the surveyor by whom he has been appointed to such duty; and any Dominion land surveyor may administer such oath or affirmation. 46 V., c. 17, s. 108.

Standard of Measure.

125. The measure of length used in the surveys of Dominion lands shall be the English measure of length; and every Dominion land surveyor shall be in possession of a subsidiary standard thereof—which subsidiary standard, tested and stamped as correct by the Department of Inland Revenue, shall be furnished to him by the secretary of the board on payment of a fee of eight dollars therefor; and all Dominion land surveyors shall, from time to time, regulate and verify, by such standard, the length of their chains and other instruments for measuring; and the said standard measure shall be returned to the secretary of the board as often as it requires to be tested again:

2. Every surveyor who is found performing his duties without being in possession of the standard measure which, by this clause, he is required to have, shall be liable to be suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. 49 Vict., c. 27, s. 21.

Renewal of Lost Corners and Obliterated Lines.

126. Whenever a Dominion land surveyor is employed to run any dividing line or limit between sections or other legal sub-divisions, and the mound, post or monument erected, marked or planted in the original survey, to define the corner of such section or other legal sub-division, cannot be found, he shall obtain the best evidence that the nature of the case admits of, respecting such corner mound, post or monument; but if the position of the same cannot be satisfactorily so ascertained, he shall proceed as follows:—

(a.) If the lost corner mound, post or monument is that of a township corner, he shall report the circumstances of the case to the Surveyor General, who shall instruct him how to proceed;

(b.) If the lost corner mound, post or monument is on one of the outlines of a township, he shall join, by a straight line, the nearest undisputed section or quarter section corners on such outline, and divide such straight line into such number of sections or quarter sections or other legal sub-divisions as the same contained in the original survey,—giving to each an equal breadth;

(c.) If, in re-establishing the east or west boundary of a township, one of the nearest undisputed corners is on a correction line, every quarter section shall be made exactly forty chains, and the deficiency or surplus, as the case may be, shall be left in the quarter section adjoining the correction line;

(d.) If, in re-establishing the north or south boundary of a township surveyed under the first system of survey, one of the nearest undisputed corners is the western corner of the township, every quarter section shall be made exactly forty chains, and the deficiency or surplus, as the case may be, shall be left in the western quarter section;

(e.) When the position of the township corner is also lost, it shall be re-established as aforesaid, previously to re-establishing the outline of the township;

(f.) When the lost corner is in the interior of a township, on the limit of a meridian road allowance, the surveyor shall connect the two nearest undisputed corners on such limit by a straight line, and divide the distance into such number of sections or other legal sub-divisions as the same contained in the original survey, giving to each an equal breadth;

(g.) If one of the nearest undisputed corners is on a correction line, he shall make each quarter section exactly forty chains and leave the deficiency or surplus, as the case may be, in the quarter section adjoining the correction line.
(h.) When the nearest undisputed corners on the said limit of a meridian road allowance are in different townships, the outline between such townships shall be re-established previous to re-establishing the meridian;

(i.) When the lost corner is that of a quarter section on a line running east and west, the surveyor shall join, by a straight line, the opposite section corners on the meridians on each side, and give to each quarter section an equal breadth;

(j.) If, in townships surveyed under the first system of survey, the lost corner is in the western row of sections of a township, the first quarter section shall be made exactly forty chains, and the deficiency or surplus, as the case may be, shall be left in the western quarter section;

(k.) When the position of one of the corners on the meridians is also lost, such meridian shall be re-established previously to re-establishing the east and west line;

(l.) Whenever a surveyor erects, plants or places a mound, post or monument as aforesaid, to renew a lost or obliterated corner, he shall duly take into account any allowance for road or roads; and the corner, or division or limit so established, shall be the true corner, or division or limit of such section or other legal sub-division. 46 V., c. 17, s. 110.

Survey of Legal Sub-divisions.

127. When, in the survey of legal sub-divisions, it is necessary for a Dominion land surveyor to establish the division line between two sections, he shall effect this by connecting, by a straight line, the opposite original section corners, if they exist, and if not, by similarly connecting the points established in renewal thereof, in accordance with the next preceding clause, giving, in either case, the quarter sections involved an equal breadth:

2. In laying out a half section or a quarter section he shall connect the opposite quarter section posts by straight lines:

3. In laying out other and minor legal sub-divisions he shall give to every such sub-division its proportionate share of frontage and interior breadth, and connect the resulting terminal points by a straight line:

4. The lines or limits so drawn on the ground in the manner above prescribed shall, in the respective cases, be the true lines or limits of such section, half section or other legal sub-division, whether the same correspond or do not correspond with the area expressed in the respective patents for such lands. 46 V., c. 17, s. 111.

Division Lines in Fractional Sections.

128. The dividing lines or limits between legal sub-divisions, in fractional sections, shall be drawn from the original corners (or the points representing such corners, as defined on the ground, in accordance with the provisions of this Act), in the section line intended as the front of the lot:

2. Northerly or southerly lines shall be drawn due north or due south:

3. Easterly or westerly lines shall be drawn at an angle with the meridian equal to the mean of the angles formed with the same meridian by the lines which are the northern and the southern boundaries respectively of the section. 46 V., c. 17, s. 112.

Original Boundary Lines.

129. All boundary lines of townships, sections or legal sub-divisions, towns or villages, and all boundary lines of blocks, gores and commons, all section lines and governing points, all limits of lots surveyed, as defined by mounds, posts or monuments, erected, placed or planted at the angles of any townships, towns, villages, sections or other legal sub-divisions, blocks, gores, commons and lots or parcels of land, under the authority of this Act or of the Governor in Council, shall be the true and unalterable boundaries of such townships, towns and villages, sections or other legal sub-divisions, blocks, gores, commons and lots or parcels of land respectively, whether the same, upon admeasurement, are or are not found to contain the exact area or dimensions mentioned or expressed in any patent, grant or other instrument in respect of any such township, town, village, section or other legal sub-division, block, gore, common, lot or parcel of land. 46 V., c. 17, s. 113.

130. Every township, section or other legal sub-division, town, village, block, gore, common, lot or parcel of land, shall consist of the whole width included between the several mounds, posts, monuments or boundaries respectively, so erected, marked, placed or planted as aforesaid, at the several angles thereof, and no more or less—any quantity or measure expressed in the original grant or patent thereof notwithstanding. 46 V., c. 17, s. 114.

131. Every patent, grant or instrument purporting to be for any aliquot part of any section, or other legal sub-division, block, gore, common, lot or parcel of land, shall be construed to be a grant of such aliquot part of the quantity the same contains on the ground, whether such quantity is more or less than that expressed in such patent, grant or instrument. 46 V., c. 17, s. 115.

132. In every town and village in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, surveyed and laid out under the provisions of this Act, all allowances for any road, street, lane, lot or common, laid out in the original survey of such town or village, shall be public highways and commons; and all mounds, posts or monuments, placed or planted in the original survey of such town or village, to designate or define any allowance for a road, street, lane, lot or common, shall be the true and unalterable boundaries of such road, street, lane, lot or common; and all Dominion land surveyors employed to make surveys in such town or village, shall follow and pursue the same rules and regulations in respect of such surveys as are, by law, required of them when employed to make surveys in townships. 46 V., c. 17, s. 116.

Evidence before Surveyors.

133. Every Dominion land surveyor acting in that capacity, may examine witnesses on oath, with respect to all matters relating to the settlement, occupation or possession of Dominion lands, and to the survey of lands, and for better ascertaining the original corner or limits of any township, section or other legal subdivision, lot or tract of land, and may administer such oath or oaths to every person whom he examines in relation to such matters. 46 V., c. 17, s. 117.

134. Whenever any Dominion land surveyor is in doubt as to the true corner, boundary or limit of any township, section, lot or tract of land which he is employed to survey, and has reason to believe that any person is possessed of any important information touching such corner, boundary or limit, or of any writing, plan or document tending to establish the true position of such corner, boundary or limit, and if such person does not willingly appear before, and be examined by such surveyor, or does not willingly produce to him such writing, plan or document, such surveyor may apply to any justice of the peace for an ordinary subpoena, ad testificandum, or a subpoena duces tecum, as the case requires, accompanying such application by an affidavit or solemn declaration made before such justice of the peace, of the facts on which the application is founded; and such justice may issue a subpoena accordingly, commanding such person to appear before the surveyor at a time and place mentioned in the subpoena, and, if the case requires it, to bring with him any writing, plan or document mentioned or referred to therein:

2. Such subpoena shall be served on the person named therein by delivering a copy thereof to him, or by leaving the same for him with some adult person of his family at his residence, exhibiting to him or such adult person the original:

3. If the person required in such subpoena to appear, after being paid his reasonable expenses, or having the same tendered to him, refuses or neglects to appear before the surveyor at the place and time appointed in the subpœna, or to produce the writing, plan or document, if any, therein mentioned or referred to, or to give such evidence and information as he possesses touching the boundary or limit in question, a warrant by the justice for the arrest of such person may be issued, and he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ninety days, or to both, in the discretion of such justice. 46 V., c. 17, s. 118.

185. All evidence taken by a Dominion land surveyor, as aforesaid, shall be reduced to writing and shall be read over to the person giving the same, and shall be signed by such person; or if he cannot write, he shall acknowledge the same as correct before two witnesses, who shall sign the same, as shall also the Dominion land surveyor; and such evidence shall, and any document or plan prepared and sworn to as correct before a justice of the peace, by any Dominion land surveyor, with reference to any survey by him performed, may be filed and kept at the registry office of the place in which the lands to which the same relate are situate, subject to be produced thereafter in evidence in court. 46 V., c. 17, s. 119.

186. Any Dominion land surveyor, when engaged in the performance of his duties as such, may pass over, measure along and ascertain the bearings of any township or section line, or other governing line, and for such purposes may pass over the lands of any person whomsoever, doing no actual damage to the property of such person. 46 V., c. 17, s. 120.

187. Every person who, in any part of the Dominion lands, interrupts, molests or hinders any Dominion land surveyor while in the discharge of his duty as a surveyor, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months, or to both, in the discretion of the court. 46 V., c. 17, s. 121.

188. Every person who, knowingly and wilfully, pulls down, defaces, alters or removes any mound, post or monument erected, planted or placed in any original survey under the provisions of this Act, or under the authority of the Governor in Council, is guilty of felony, and shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding seven years:

2. Every person who, knowingly and wilfully, defaces, alters or removes any other mound or land-mark, post or monument placed by any Dominion land surveyor to mark any limit, boundary or angle of any township, section or other legal sub-division, lot or parcel of land in Manitoba or the North-West Territories, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both, in the discretion of the court. 46 V., c. 17, s. 122, part.

139. Nothing in this Act shall extend to prevent Dominion land surveyors, in their operations, from taking up posts or other boundary marks when necessary, after which they shall carefully replace them as they were before. 46 V., c. 17, s. 122, part.

1. All the lands mentioned in the schedule to this Act, by whatever mode of conveyance the same have been acquired or taken, whether in fee, for life, for years or otherwise, and all the appurtenances thereof, are and shall be and continue absolutely vested in Her Majesty for the purposes of Canada, and shall be subject to the provisions of the laws relating to public lands, so far as they are applicable to the same, and shall be held, used, alienated and dealt with accordingly; subject, nevertheless, to any sales, agreements, leases or agreements to lease, heretofore lawfully entered into respecting the same. C.S. C., c. 24; s. 2, part, —40 V., c. 8, s. 1; —42 V., c. 33, s. 1.

2. Nothing in this Act shall affect any right of any person claiming any of the said lands. C.S. C., c. 24, s. 3; —40 V., c. 8, s. 2; —42 V., c. 33, s. 2.

APPLICATIONS FOR PATENTS.

Who may obtain patents. 7. Any person who has invented any new and useful art, machine, manufacture or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement in any art, machine, manufacture or composition of matter, which was not known or used by any other person before his invention thereof, and which has not been in public use or on sale with the consent or allowance of the inventor thereof, for more than one year previ-sously to his application for patent therefor in Canada, may, on a petition to that effect, presented to the commissioner, and on compliance with the other requirements of this Act, obtain a patent granting to such person an exclusive property in such invention:

What may not be patented. 2. No patent shall issue for an invention which has an illicit object in view, or for any mere scientific principle or abstract theorem. 35 V., c. 26, s. 6, part.

As to inventions for which foreign patents have been taken out. 8. No inventor shall be entitled to a patent for his invention if a patent therefor, in any other country, has been in existence in such country for more than twelve months prior to the application for such patent in Canada; and if, during such twelve months, any person has commenced to manufacture in Canada the invention for which such patent is afterwards obtained, such person shall continue to have the right to manufacture and sell such article, notwithstanding such patent; and under any circumstances, if a foreign patent exists, the Canadian patent shall expire at the earliest date at which any foreign patent for the same invention expires. 35 V., c. 26, s. 7.

Improvements may be patented. 9. Any person who has invented any improvement on any patented invention, may obtain a patent for such improvement; but he shall not thereby obtain the right of vending or using the original invention, nor shall the patent for the original invention confer the right of vending or using the patented improvement. 35 V., c. 26, s. 9.

Oath to be made by inventor. 10. Every inventor shall, before a patent can be obtained, make oath, or, when entitled by law to make an affirmation instead of an oath, shall make an affirmation, that he verily believes that he is the inventor of the invention for which the patent is asked, and that the several allegations in the petition contained are respectively true and correct:

2. In the event of the inventor being dead, such oath or affirmation shall be made by the applicant, and shall state that he verily believes that the person whose assignee or legal representative he is, was the inventor of the invention for which the patent is solicited, and that the several allegations in the petition contained are respectively true and cor-correct:

3. Such oath or affirmation may be made before any justice of the peace in Canada; but if the inventor or the applicant does not at the time in Canada, the oath or affirmation may be made before any Minister plenipotentiary, chargé d'affaires, consul, vice-consul or consular agent, holding commission under the Government of the United Kingdom, or before any judge of a court of record or a public notary, or the mayor or other chief magistrate of any city, borough or town corporate in the country in which the applicant is at the time he makes such oath or affirmation. 35 V., c. 26, s. 11;—36 V.,
c. 44, s. 3.

11. The applicant for a patent shall, for the purposes of this Act, elect his domicile at some known and specified place in Canada and shall mention the same in his petition for a patent. 35 V., c. 26, s. 12.

12. The applicant shall, in his petition for a patent, insert the title or name of the invention, and shall, with the petition, send in a specification in duplicate of the invention.
35 V., c. 26, s. 13.

13. The specification shall correctly and fully describe the mode or modes of operating the invention, as contemplated by the inventor; and shall state clearly and distinctly the contrivances and things which he claims as new and for the use of which he claims an exclusive property and privilege:

2. Such specification shall bear the name of the place where, and the date when it is made, and shall be signed by the inventor, if he is alive, and if not, by the applicant, and by two witnesses to such signature of the inventor or applicant:

3. In the case of a machine the specification shall fully explain the principle and the several modes in which it is intended to apply and work out the same:

4. In the case of a machine, or in any other case in which the invention admits of illustration by means of drawings, the applicant shall also, with his application, send in drawings in duplicate, showing clearly all parts of the invention;
and each drawing shall bear the signature of the inventor, if he is alive, and if not of the applicant, or of the attorney of such inventor or applicant, and shall have written references corresponding with the specification; but the commissioner may require further drawings or dispense with any of them, as he sees fit:

5. One duplicate of the specification and of the drawings, if there are drawings, shall be annexed to the patent, of which it shall form an essential part, and the other duplicate shall remain deposited in the Patent Office:

6. The commissioner may, in his discretion, dispense with the duplicate specification and drawing, and in lieu thereof cause copies of the specification and drawing, in print or otherwise, to be attached to the patent, of which they shall form an essential part. 35 V., c. 26, s. 14;—36 V., c. 44, s. 4.

14. The applicant shall deliver to the commissioner, unless the same is specially dispensed with for some good reason, a neat working model of his invention, on a convenient scale, exhibiting its several parts in due proportion, whenever the invention admits of such model; and shall deliver to the commissioner specimens of the ingredients, and of the composition of matter, sufficient in quantity for the purpose of experiment, whenever the invention is a composition of matter,—if such ingredients and composition are not of an explosive character or otherwise dangerous, in which case they shall be furnished only when specially required by the commissioner, and then with such precautions as are prescribed in the requisition therefor. 35 V., c. 26, s. 15.

15. In the case of withdrawal of any application for a patent, a fresh application, as if no proceeding had taken place in the matter, shall be necessary to revive the claim. 35 V., c. 26, s. 38, part.

REFUSAL TO GRANT PATENTS.

16. The commissioner may object to grant a patent in any of the following cases:—

(a.) When he is of opinion that the alleged invention is not patentable in law;
(b.) When it appears to him that the invention is already in the possession of the public, with the consent or allowance of the inventor;
(c.) When it appears to him that there is no novelty in the invention;
(d.) When it appears to him that the invention has been described in a book or other printed publication before the date of the application, or is otherwise in the possession of the public;
(e.) When it appears to him that the invention has already been patented in Canada or elsewhere, if the case is one within the eighth section of this Act, unless the commissioner has doubts as to whether the patentee or the applicant is the first inventor. 35 V., c. 26, s. 40.

17. Whenever the commissioner objects to grant a patent as aforesaid, he shall notify the applicant to that effect and shall state the ground or reason therefor, with sufficient detail to enable the applicant to answer, if he can, the objection of the commissioner. 35 V., c. 26, s. 41.

18. Every applicant who has failed to obtain a patent by reason of the objection of the commissioner, as aforesaid, may, at any time within six months after notice thereof has been addressed to him or his agent, appeal from the decision of the commissioner to the Governor in Council. 35 V., c. 26, s. 42.

CONFLICTING APPLICATIONS.

19. In case of conflicting applications for any patent, the same shall be submitted to the arbitration of three skilled persons, two of whom shall be chosen by the applicants, one by each, and the third of whom shall be chosen by the commissioner or by the deputy commissioner or by the person appointed to perform the duty of that officer; and the decision or award of such arbitrators, or of any two of them, delivered to the commissioner in writing, and subscribed by them or any two of them, shall be final, as far as concerns the granting of the patent:

2. If either of the applicants refuses or fails to choose an arbitrator, when required so to do by the commissioner, and if there are only two such applicants, the patent shall issue to the opposing applicant:

3. If there are more than two conflicting applications, and if the persons applying do not all unite in appointing three arbitrators, the commissioner or the deputy commissioner or person appointed to perform the duty of that officer, may appoint the three arbitrators for the purposes aforesaid:

4. The arbitrators so named shall subscribe and take, before a judge of any court of record in Canada, an oath in the form following, that is to say:

"I, the undersigned (A.B.), being duly appointed an arbitrator under the authority of 'The Patent Act,' do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that I will well and truly perform the duty of such arbitrator on the conflicting applications of (C.D. and E.F.) submitted to me:"

5. The arbitrators, or any one of them, when so sworn, may summon before them any applicant or other person, and may require him to give evidence on oath, orally or in writing (or on solemn affirmation, if such applicant or person is entitled to affirm in civil cases), and to produce such documents and things as such arbitrators deem requisite to the full investigation of the matters into which they are appointed to examine, and they shall have the same power to enforce the attendance of such applicants and other persons, and to compel them to give evidence, as is vested in any court of justice in civil cases, in the Province in which the arbitration is held: but no such applicant or person shall be compelled to answer any question, by his answer to which he might render himself liable to a criminal prosecution:

6. The fees for the services of such arbitrators shall be a matter of agreement between the arbitrators and the applicants, and shall be paid by the applicants who name them, respectively, except those of the arbitrator or arbitrators named by the commissioner, which shall be paid by the applicants jointly. 35 V., c. 26, s. 43, part.

GRANT AND DURATION OF PATENTS.

20. Every patent granted under this Act shall contain the title or name of the invention, with a reference to the specification, and shall grant to the patentee and his legal representatives, for the term therein mentioned, from the granting of the same, the exclusive right, privilege and liberty of making, constructing and using, and vending to others to be used, the said invention, subject to adjudication in respect thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction:

2. In cases of joint applications, the patents shall be granted in the names of all the applicants. 35 V., c. 26, s. 10, part, and s. 16;—36 V., c. 44, s. 5.

21. Every patent shall be issued under the seal of the Patent Office and the signature of the commissioner or of some other member of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, acting for him, and when duly registered, shall be good, and shall avail the grantee and his legal representatives for the term mentioned in the patent:

2. The commissioner may require that any patent, before it is signed by the commissioner or by any other member of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, acting for him, and before the seal hereinbefore mentioned is affixed to it, shall be examined by the Minister of Justice; and if such examination is so required, the Minister of Justice shall, accordingly, examine it, and if he finds it conformable to law, he shall certify accordingly, and such patent may then be signed, and the seal affixed thereto. 35 V., c. 26, s. 6, part, and s. 18.

22. The term limited for the duration of every patent of invention issued by the Patent Office shall be fifteen years; but at the time of the application therefor it shall be at the option of the applicant to pay the full fee required for the term of fifteen years, or the partial fee required for the term of five years, or the partial fee required for the term of ten years:

2. If a partial fee only is paid, the proportion of the fee paid shall be stated in the patent, and the patent shall, notwithstanding anything therein or in this Act contained, cease at the end of the term for which the partial fee has been paid, unless at or before the expiration of the said term the holder of the patent pays the fee required for the further term of five or ten years, and obtains from the Patent Office a certificate of such payment in the form which is, from time to time, adopted,—which certificate shall be attached to and refer to the patent, and shall be under the signature of the commissioner, or the signature of any other member of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada acting for him:

3. If such second payment, together with the first payment, makes up only the fee required for ten years, then the patent shall, notwithstanding anything therein or in this Act contained, cease at the end of the term of ten years, unless at or before the expiration of such term the holder thereof pays the further fee required for the remaining five years, making up the full term of fifteen years, and obtains a like certificate in respect thereof. 46 V., c.19, s.1, part.

RE-ISSUE OF PATENTS.

23. Whenever any patent is deemed defective or inoperative by reason of insufficient description or specification, or by reason of the patentee claiming more than he had a right to claim as new, but at the same time it appears that the error arose from inadvertence, accident or mistake, without any fraudulent or deceptive intention, the commissioner may, upon the surrender of such patent and the payment of the further fee hereinafter provided, cause a new patent, in accordance with an amended description and specification made by such patentee, to be issued to him for the same invention for any part or for the whole of the then unexpired residue of the term for which the original patent was, or might have been granted:

2. In the event of the death of the original patentee or of his having assigned the patent, a like right shall vest in his assignee or his legal representatives:

3. Such new patent, and the amended description and specification, shall have the same effect in law, on the trial of any action thereafter commenced for any cause subsequently accruing, as if the same had been originally filed in such corrected form before the issue of the original patent:

4. The commissioner may entertain separate applications, and cause patents to be issued for distinct and separate parts of the invention patented, upon payment of the fee for a re-issue for each of such re-issued patents. 35 V., c. 26, s. 19;—38 V., c.14, s. 1.
Patentee may 24. Whenever, by any mistake, accident or inadvertence, disclaim
y anything
not included in patent by mistake.

and without any wilful intent to defraud or mislead the public, a patentee has made his specification too broad, claiming more than that of which he or the person through whom he claims was the first inventor,—or has, in the specification, claimed that he or the person through whom he claims was the first inventor of any material or substantial part of the invention patented, of which he was not the first inventor, and to which he had no lawful right—the patentee may, on payment of the fee hereinafter provided, make disclaimer of such parts as he does not claim to hold by virtue of the patent or the assignment thereof:

Form and attestation of disclaimer. 2. Such disclaimer shall be in writing, and in duplicate, and shall be attested in the manner hereinbefore prescribed in respect of an application for a patent; one copy thereof shall be filed and recorded in the office of the commissioner, and the other copy thereof shall be attached to the patent and made a part thereof by reference, and such disclaimer shall thereafter be taken and considered as part of the original specification:

Not to affect pending suit. 3. Such disclaimer shall not affect any action pending at the time of its being made, except in so far as relates to the question of unreasonable neglect or delay in making it:

In case of death of patentee. 4. In case of the death of the original patentee, or of his having assigned the patent, a like right shall vest in his legal representatives, any of whom may make disclaimer:

Effect of disclaimer. 5. The patent shall thereafter be deemed good and valid for so much of the invention as is truly the invention of the disclaimant, and is not disclaimed, if it is a material and substantial part of the invention, and is definitely distinguished from other parts claimed without right; and the disclaimant shall be entitled to maintain an action or suit in respect of such part accordingly. 35 V., c. 26, s. 20.

Assignments. 25. The patent may be granted to any person to whom the inventor, entitled under this Act to obtain a patent, has assigned or bequeathed the right of obtaining the same, or in default of such assignment or bequest, to the legal representatives of the deceased inventor. 35 V., c. 26, s. 8;—36 V., c. 44, s. 2.

Patents to be assignable. 26. Every patent issued for an invention shall be assignable in law, either as to the whole interest or as to any part thereof, by any instrument in writing; but such assignment, and every grant and conveyance of any exclusive right to make and use and to grant to others the right to make and use the invention patented, within and throughout Canada or any part thereof, shall be registered in the Patent Office.
in the manner, from time to time, prescribed by the commissioner for such registration; and every assignment affecting a patent for invention shall be null and void against any subsequent assignee, unless such instrument is registered as hereinbefore prescribed, before the registration of the instrument under which such subsequent assignee claims.

35 V., c. 26, s. 22.

27. In cases of joint applications or grants, every assignment from one or more of the applicants or patentees to the joint other or others, or to any other person, shall be registered in like manner as other assignments. 35 V., c. 26, s. 10, part.

IMPEACHMENT AND OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDINGS IN RESPECT

OF PATENTS.

28. A patent shall be void, if any material allegation in the petition or declaration of the applicant hereinbefore mentioned in respect of such patent is untrue, or if the specifications and drawings contain more or less than is necessary for obtaining the end for which they purport to be made, when such omission or addition is wilfully made for the purpose of misleading; but if it appears to the court that such omission or addition was an involuntary error, and if it is proved that the patentee is entitled to the remainder of his patent pro tanto, the court shall render a judgment in accordance with the facts, and shall determine as to costs, and the patent shall be held valid for such part of the invention described, as the patentee is so found entitled to; and two office copies of such judgment shall be furnished to the Patent Office by the patentee, one of which shall be registered and remain of record in the office, and the other of which shall be attached to the patent, and made a part of it by a reference thereto. 35 V., c. 26, s. 27.

29. Every person who, without the consent in writing of the patentee, makes, constructs or puts in practice any invention for which a patent has been obtained under this Act or any previous Act, or who procures such invention from any person not authorized by the patentee or his legal representatives to make or use it, and who uses it, shall be liable to the patentee or his legal representatives in an action of damages for so doing; and the judgment shall be enforced, and the damages and costs that are adjudged shall be recoverable, in like manner as in other cases in the court in which the action is brought. 35 V., c. 26, s. 23.

30. Any action for the infringement of a patent may be brought in any court of record having jurisdiction, to the amount of the damages claimed, in the Province in which the infringement is alleged to have taken place, and which is also that one of the said courts which holds its settings nearest to the place of residence or of business of the defendant; and such court shall decide the case and determine as to costs. 35 V., c. 26, s. 24, part.

57 915

Injunction may issue.

31. In any action for the infringement of a patent, the court, if sitting, or any judge thereof if the court is not sitting, may, on the application of the plaintiff or defendant respectively, make such order for an injunction, restraining the opposite party from further use, manufacture or sale of the subject matter of the patent, and for his punishment in the event of disobedience of such order, or for inspection or account, and respecting the same and the proceedings in the action, as the court or judge sees fit; but, from such order, an appeal shall lie under the same circumstances, and to the same court, as from other judgments or orders of the court in which the order is made. 35 V., c. 26, s. 24, part.

Appeal.

32. Whenever the plaintiff, in any such action, fails to sustain his action, because his specification and claim embrace more than that of which he was the first inventor, and it appears that the defendant used or infringed any part of the invention justly and truly specified and claimed as new, the court may discriminate,—and the judgment may be rendered accordingly. 35 V., c. 26, s. 25.

Court may discriminate in certain cases.

33. The defendant, in any such action, may plead specially as matter of defence, any fact or default which, by this Act, or by law, renders the patent void; and the court shall take cognizance of that special pleading and of the facts connected therewith, and shall decide the case accordingly. 35 V., c. 26, s. 26.

Defence in actions for infringement.

34. Any person who desires to impeach any patent issued under this Act, may obtain a sealed and certified copy of the patent and of the petition, affidavit, specification and drawings thereunto relating, and may have the same filed in the office of the prothonotary or clerk of the Superior Court for Lower Canada in Quebec, or of any of the divisions of the High Court of Justice for Ontario, or of the Supreme Court in Nova Scotia, or of the Supreme Court in New Brunswick, or of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Prince Edward Island, or of the Supreme Court in British Columbia, or of the Court of Queen's Bench in Manitoba or of the Supreme Court in the North-West Territories, according to the domicile elected by the patentee, as aforesaid,—which courts, respectively, shall adjudicate on the matter and decide as to costs; and if the domicile elected by the patentee is in the District of Keewatin, the Court of Queen's Bench of Manitoba shall have jurisdiction until there is a superior court in such District, after which such superior court shall have jurisdiction.
2. The patent and documents aforesaid shall then be held as of record in such courts respectively, so that a writ of scire facias, under the seal of the court, grounded upon such record, may issue for the repeal of the patent, for cause as aforesaid, if, upon proceedings had upon the writ in accordance with the meaning of this Act, the patent is adjudged to be void. 35 V., c. 26, s. 29;—37 V., c. 44, s. 1;—38 V., c. 14, s. 8;—49 V., c. 25, s. 14.

35. A certificate of the judgment avoiding any patent shall, at the request of any person filing it to make it of record in the Patent Office, be entered on the margin of the enrolment of the patent in the Patent Office, and the patent shall thereupon be and be held to have been void and of no effect, unless the judgment is reversed on appeal as hereinafter provided. 35 V., c. 26, s. 30.

36. The judgment declaring or refusing to declare any patent void shall be subject to appeal to any court having appellate jurisdiction in other cases decided by the court by which the judgment declaring or refusing to declare such patent void, was rendered. 35 V., c. 26, s. 31.

FORFEITURE OF PATENTS.

37. Every patent granted, under this Act, shall be subject and be expressed to be subject to the condition that such patent and all the rights and privileges thereby granted shall cease and determine, and that the patent shall be null and void at the end of two years from the date thereof, unless the patentee or his legal representatives, within that period, commence, and, after such commencement, continuously carry on in Canada the construction or manufacture of the invention patented, in such manner that any person desiring to use it may obtain it, or cause it to be made for him, at a reasonable price, at some manufactory or establishment for making or constructing it in Canada,—and that such patent shall be void if, after the expiration of twelve months from the granting thereof, the patentee or his legal representatives or his assignee for the whole or a part of his interest in the patent imports or causes to be imported into Canada, the invention for which the patent is granted; and if any dispute arises as to whether a patent has or has not become null and void under the provisions of this section, such dispute shall be decided by the Minister or the deputy of the Minister of Agriculture, whose decision in the matter shall be final:

2. Whenever a patentee has been unable to carry on the construction or manufacture of his invention within the two years hereinbefore mentioned, the commissioner may, at any time not more than three months before the expiration of that term, grant to the patentee an extension of the term.
of two years on his proving to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he was, for reasons beyond his control, prevented from complying with the above condition:

3. The commissioner may grant to the patentee, or to his legal representatives or assignee for the whole or any part of the patent, an extension for a further term not exceeding one year, beyond the twelve months limited by this section, during which he may import or cause to be imported into Canada the invention for which the patent is granted, if the patentee or his legal representatives, or assignee for the whole or any part of the patent, show cause, satisfactory to the commissioner, to warrant the granting of such extension; but no extension shall be granted unless application is made to the commissioner at some time within three months before the expiry of the twelve months aforesaid, or of any extension thereof. 35 V., c. 26, s. 28;—38 V., c. 14,

s. 2;—45 V., c. 22, s. 1.

CAVEATS.

38. Any intending applicant for a patent who has not yet perfected his invention and is in fear of being despoiled of his idea, may file, in the Patent Office, a description of his invention so far, with or without plans, at his own will;
and the commissioner, on payment of the fee in this Act prescribed, shall cause the said document, which shall be called a caveat, to be preserved in secrecy, with the exception of delivering copies of the same whenever required by the said applicant or by any judicial tribunal,—but the secrecy of the document shall cease when the applicant obtains a patent for his invention:

2. If application is made by any other person for a patent for any invention with which such caveat may, in any respect, interfere, the commissioner shall forthwith give notice, by mail, of such application, to the person who has filed such caveat, and such person shall, within three months after the date of mailing the notice, if he wishes to avail himself of the caveat, file his petition and take the other steps necessary on an application for a patent, and if, in the opinion of the commissioner, the applications are conflicting, like proceedings may be had in all respects as are by this Act provided in the case of conflicting applications:

3. Unless the person filing a caveat makes application within one year from the filing thereof for a patent, the commissioner shall be relieved from the obligation of giving notice, and the caveat shall then remain as a simple matter of proof as to novelty or priority of invention, if required.
35 V., c. 26, s. 39.

42. All fees received under this Act shall be paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada, except such sums as are paid for copies of drawings when made by persons not receiving salaries in the Patent Office. 35 V., c. 26, s. 37.

43. No person shall be exempt from the payment of any fee or charge payable in respect of any services performed for such person under this Act; and no fee, when paid, shall be returned to the person who paid it, except,—

(a.) When the invention is not susceptible of being patented; or—(b.) When the petition for a patent is withdrawn:
And in every such case the commissioner may return the fee paid less the sum of ten dollars. 35 V., c. 26, s. 38.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

commissioner reports to be a reasonable compensation for the use thereof. 35 V., c. 26, s. 21.

45. No patent shall extend to prevent the use of any invention in any foreign ship or vessel, if such invention is not so used for the manufacture of any goods to be vended within or exported from Canada. 35 V., c. 26, s. 47.

46. Every person who, before the issuing of a patent, has purchased, constructed or acquired any invention for which a patent is afterwards obtained under this Act, shall have the right of using and vending to others the specific article, machine, manufacture or composition of matter patented and so purchased, constructed or acquired before the issue of the patent therefor, without being liable to the patentee or his legal representatives for so doing: but the patent shall not, as regards other persons, be held invalid by reason of such purchase, construction or acquisition or use of the invention, by the person first aforesaid or by those to whom he has sold the same, unless the same was purchased, constructed, acquired or used, with the consent or allowance of the inventor thereof, for a longer period than one year before the application for a patent therefor—making the invention one which had become public and in public use. 35 V., c. 26,
s. 48.

47. All specifications, drawings, models, disclaimers, judg-

48. Clerical errors which occur in the framing or copying of any instrument in the Patent Office shall not be construed as invalidating the same, but when discovered they may be corrected under the authority of the commissioner. 35 V.,
c. 26, s. 45.

49. If any patent is destroyed or lost, another patent of the like tenor, date and effect may be issued in lieu thereof, upon the person who applies therefor paying the fees herein-before prescribed for office copies of documents. 35 V.,
c. 26, s. 46.

50. Every court, judge and person whomsoever shall take notice of the seal of the Patent Office and shall receive the impressions thereof in evidence, in like manner as the impressions of the Great Seal are received in evidence, and shall also take notice of and receive in evidence, without further proof and without production of the originals, all copies or extracts certified under the seal of the Patent Office to be copies of or extracts from documents deposited in such office. 35
V., c. 26, s. 2, part.

51. No officer or employee of the Patent Office shall buy, sell or acquire or traffic in any invention or patent, or in any right to a patent; and every such purchase and sale, and notice thereof shall be given in the Canada Gazette; and all documents, executed in conformity with the same and accept-to proceedings in the Patent Office. 35 V., c. 26, s. 3.

53. The commissioner shall cause a report to be prepared annually and laid before Parliament of the proceedings under this Act, and shall, from time to time, and at least once in each year, publish a list of all patents granted, and may, with the approval of the Governor in Council, cause such specifications and drawings as are deemed of interest, or essential parts thereof, to be printed, from time to time, for distribution or sale. 35 V., c. 26, s. 5;—36 V., c. 44, s. 1.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

54. Every patentee under this Act shall stamp or engrave on each patented article sold or offered for sale by him the year of the date of the patent applying to such article, thus: "Patented, 1886," or as the case may be; or when, from the nature of the article, this cannot be done, then by affixing to it, or to every package wherein one or more of such articles is or are enclosed, a label marked with a like notice; and any such patentee selling or offering for sale any such patented article not so marked, or not enclosed in a package so marked, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in default of the payment of such penalty, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

casts, carves, engravés, stamps or otherwise marks upon

PATENTS ISSUED UNDER FORMER ACTS.

57. Every patent issued under any Act of the Parliament of Canada, or of the legislature of the late Province of Canada, or of the legislature of any Province now forming part of Canada, shall remain in force for the same term and for the same extent of territory as if the Acts under which they were issued had not been repealed, but subject to the provisions of this Act in so far as the same are applicable to them:

2. The commissioner may, upon the application of the patentee named in any such patent, who is the inventor of the subject matter of the patent, if the subject matter of the patent has not been known or used, and has not, with the consent of the patentee, been on sale in any of the other Provinces of Canada, issue, on payment of the proper fees in that behalf, a patent under this Act, extending such Provincial patent over the whole of Canada, for the remainder of the term mentioned in the Provincial patent. 35 V., c. 26, s. 32;—38 V., c. 14, s. 6.

27. The Minister of Agriculture may refuse to register such designs as do not appear to him to be within the provisions of this Act, or any design which is contrary to public morality or order—subject to appeal to the Governor in Council. 42 V., c. 22, s. 34.

28. On the copy returned to the person registering, a certificate shall be given, signed by the Minister of Agriculture or the deputy of the Minister of Agriculture, showing that the design has been registered, the date of registration, the name of the registered proprietor, his address, the number of such design, and the number or letter employed to denote or correspond to the registration—which said certificate, in the absence of proof to the contrary, shall be sufficient proof of the design, of the name of the proprietor, of the registration, of the commencement and term of registry, of the person named as proprietor being proprietor, of the originality of the design, and of compliance with the provisions of this Act; and generally the writing purporting to be so signed shall be received as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, without proof of the signature. 42 V., c. 22, s. 32.

29. The exclusive right acquired for an industrial design by the registration of the same as aforesaid shall be valid for the term of five years, but may be renewed at or before the expiration of the said term of five years, for a further period of five years or less, on payment of the fee hereinbefore prescribed, so as that the whole duration of the exclusive right shall not exceed ten years in all. 42 V., c. 22, s. 22.

30. Every design shall be assignable in law, either as to the whole interest or any undivided part thereof, by an instrument in writing, which shall be recorded in the office of the Minister of Agriculture, on payment of the fees hereinbefore provided; and every proprietor of a design may grant and convey an exclusive right, under any copyright, to make, use and vend, and to grant to others the right to make, use and vend such design, within and throughout Canada, or any part thereof, for the unexpired term of its duration, or any part thereof,—which exclusive grant and conveyance shall be called a license, and shall be recorded in the same manner and within the same delay as assignments. 42 V., c. 22, s. 25.
31. During the existence of the exclusive right (whether it is of the entire or partial use of such design), no person shall, without the license in writing of the registered proprietor, or of his assignee, as the case may be, apply such design, or a fraudulent imitation thereof, to the ornamenting of any article of manufacture, or other article to which an industrial design may be applied or attached, for the purposes of sale, or shall publish, sell or expose for sale or use any such article as aforesaid, to which such design or fraudulent imitation thereof has been applied; and every one who violates the provisions of this section shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred and twenty dollars, and not less than twenty dollars, to the proprietor of the design, which shall be recoverable, with costs, on summary conviction, by the registered proprietor or his assignee. 42 V., c. 22, s. 26.

32. Every person who places the word “registered,” or the letters “Rd.,” upon any article for which no design has been registered, or upon any article for the design of which the copyright has expired, or who advertises the same for sale as a registered article, or unlawfully sells, publishes or exposes for sale such article, knowing the same to have been fraudulently marked, or that the copyright therefor has expired, shall, for each offence, on summary conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding thirty dollars and not less than four dollars, which shall be recoverable, with costs, by any person who sues for the same; and a moiety of such penalty shall belong to the prosecutor, and the other moiety to Her Majesty, for the public uses of Canada. 42 V., c. 22, s. 27.

33. If any person, who is not the lawful proprietor of a design, is registered as proprietor thereof, the rightful owner may institute an action in any superior court in any Province of Canada, or before a judge of the Supreme Court in the North-West Territories, as the case may be; and the court or judge having cognizance of such suit may, if it appears that the design has been registered in the name of a wrong person, either direct the registration to be cancelled or that the name of the lawful proprietor shall be substituted for the name in the register, with costs, in its or his discretion; and on application by the plaintiff, supported by affidavit, any such court or judge may, pending such action or proceedings, in its or his discretion, issue an order directed to the defendant, prohibiting the use of such design, pending such action or proceedings, under penalty of being held in contempt of such court or judge. 42 V., c. 22, s. 29; —49 V., c. 25, s. 30.

34. The Minister of Agriculture shall, after due service of such order and payment of the fee hereinbefore provided, cause such alteration to be made in the register respecting industrial designs as is directed by the order made under the next preceding section. 42 V., c. 22, s. 30.

35. A suit may be maintained by the proprietor of any design for the damages he has sustained by the application or imitation of the design, for the purpose of sale, against any person so offending—if the offender was aware that the proprietor of the design had not given his consent to such application. 42 V., c. 22, s. 28.

36. All proceedings under the preceding sections of this Act, respecting industrial designs, shall be brought within twelve months from the commission of the offence, and not afterwards; and none of the provisions of the said sections shall apply to protect any design which does not belong to a person resident within Canada, and which is not applied to a subject matter manufactured in Canada. 42 V., c. 22, s. 31.

37. Any person may be allowed to inspect the register of industrial designs; and the Minister of Agriculture may cause copies or representations of industrial designs to be delivered, on the applicant for the same paying the fee which is deemed sufficient for the purpose of having the same copied or represented. 42 V., c. 22, s. 33.

38. Clerical errors which occur in the drawing up or copying of any instrument respecting an industrial design, shall not be construed as invalidating the same, but, when discovered, they may be corrected under the authority of the Minister of Agriculture. 42 V., c. 22, s. 35.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. Every person engaged in the business of lumbering or getting out timber, and floating or rafting the same on the inland waters of Canada, within the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, shall, within one month after he engages therein, select a mark or marks, and having caused such mark or marks to be registered in the manner hereinafter provided, shall put the same in a conspicuous place on each log or piece of timber so floated or rafted:

2. Every one who violates the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of fifty dollars. 33 V., c. 36, s. 1.

2. The Minister of Agriculture shall keep at the Department of Agriculture a book to be called the "Timber Mark Register," in which any person engaged in the business of lumbering or getting out timber as aforesaid, may have his timber mark registered by depositing with the Minister a drawing or impression and description in duplicate of such timber mark, together with a declaration that the same is not and was not in use, to his knowledge, by any other person than himself at the time of his adoption thereof; and the Minister, on receipt of the fee hereinafter provided, shall cause the said timber mark to be examined, to ascertain whether it resembles any other mark already registered; and if he finds that such mark is not identical with, or does not so closely resemble any other timber mark already registered as to be confounded therewith, he shall register the same, and shall return to the proprietor thereof one copy of the drawing and description, with a certificate signed by the Minister or the deputy of the Minister of Agriculture, to the effect that the said mark has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and such certificate shall further set forth the day, month and year of the entry thereof, in the proper register; and every such certificate shall be received in all courts in Canada as evidence of the facts therein alleged, without proof of the signature. 33 V., c. 36, s. 2.
3. The person who registers such timber mark shall thereafter have the exclusive right to use the same, to designate the timber got out by him and floated or rafted as aforesaid. 33 V., c. 36, s. 4.

4. 5. Every timber mark registered at the Department of Agriculture shall be assignable in law; and on the production of the assignment and the payment of the fee hereinafter mentioned, the Minister shall cause the name of the assignee, with the date of the assignment and such other details as he sees fit, to be entered on the margin of the register of timber marks on the folio where such mark is registered. 33 V., c. 36, s. 6.

6. If any person makes application to register, as his own, any timber mark which is already registered, the Minister shall give notice of the fact to such person, who may then select some other mark and forward the same for registration. 33 V., c. 36, s. 7.

7. Every person, other than the person who has registered the same, who marks any timber of any description with any mark registered under the provisions of this Act, or with any part of such mark, shall, on summary conviction before two justices of the peace, be liable, for each offence, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars,—which amount shall be paid to the proprietor of such mark, together with the costs incurred in enforcing and recovering the same: Provided always, that every complaint under this section shall be made by the proprietor of such timber mark, or by some one acting on his behalf, and thereunto duly authorized. 33 V., c. 36, s. 8.

Immigrants—Obligations of Masters of Vessels Bringing Them.

Reports of passengers to be delivered by the master before passengers leave the vessel. 10. No master of any vessel arriving at any port in Canada shall permit any passenger to leave the vessel until he has delivered, to the collector of customs at such port, a certified and correct report in the form of the schedule to this Act, and a certified copy or duplicate of such report to the Dominion immigration agent at the port of landing, nor until such report has been certified to be correct and a certificate of such correctness and a permission to allow his passengers to leave the vessel, and a receipt for the duties payable by him under the provisions of this Act, have been given to him by the collector of customs; and every master of a vessel who violates the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty.

12. Nothing in this Act shall prevent the master of any vessel from permitting any passenger to leave the vessel at the request of such passenger before the arrival of the vessel at her final port of destination; but in every such case, the name of the passenger so leaving shall be entered in the manifest on the list of immigrants made out at the time of the clearing of the vessel from the United Kingdom or other part of Europe as aforesaid, and shall be certified under the signature of the passenger so leaving the vessel; and if the number of passengers remaining on board on the arrival of the vessel at her final port of destination does not correspond with that mentioned in such manifest, after deducting the number who have so left the vessel, the master thereof shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger not found on board or entered on the manifest as having left the vessel as aforesaid. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 6.

Certain particulars to be entered in report.

15. In addition to the particulars hereinbefore required in the report to be delivered on each voyage by the master of any vessel carrying passengers and arriving at any port in Canada to the collector of customs at such port, the master shall report in writing to the collector the name and age of all passengers embarked on board of such vessel on such voyage, who are lunatic, idiotic, deaf and dumb, blind or infirm, stating also whether they are accompanied by relatives able to support them or not:

2. If any master of any such vessel omits to report the particulars herein specified, or makes any false report in any such particulars, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars, for every such passenger in regard to whom any such omission has occurred or any such false report is made,—for which penalty the owner or owners of the vessel shall also be liable jointly and severally. 32–33 V., c. 10, s. 9.

16. The said report shall further contain the name, age and last place of residence of any person who has died during the passage of the vessel, and shall specify whether such passenger was accompanied by relatives or other persons, and the names of such relatives or other persons, who were entitled to take charge of the moneys and effects left by such passenger; and if there were no such relatives or other persons entitled to take charge of the same, then the report shall fully designate the quantity and description of the property, whether money or otherwise, left by such passenger; and the said master shall pay over and fully account for the same to the collector of customs for the port at which the vessel is entered:

2. The collector of customs shall thereupon grant to such master a receipt for all moneys or effects so placed in his hands by the master,—which receipt shall contain a full description of the nature or amount thereof; and if any master of a vessel neglects or refuses to make such report or to pay over and account for any such moneys or effects, as required by this section, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding one thou... sand dollars and not less than twenty dollars, for every such case of neglect or refusal. 82-33 V., c. 10, s. 10.

SPECIAL DUTY OF QUARANTINE OFFICERS.

17. The medical superintendent of every quarantine station shall examine into the condition of the passengers carried on any vessel forthwith after the anchoring at such station of such vessel, in compliance with the requirements of any Act, Order in Council or regulation respecting quarantine then in force; and for that purpose the said medical superintendent, or other competent person thereunto appointed, may go on board and through any such vessel and inspect the list of passengers, and the bill of health, manifest, log book or other papers of the vessel, and, if necessary, take extracts from the same:

2. If, on examination, there is found among such passengers any lunatic, idiotic, deaf and dumb, blind or infirm person, not belonging to any immigrant family, and such person is, in the opinion of the medical superintendent, likely to become permanently a public charge, the medical superintendent shall forthwith report the same officially to the collector of customs at the port at which the vessel is to be first entered, who shall (except in the cases in which it is hereinafter provided that such bond may be dispensed with) require the master of the vessel, in addition to the duty payable for the passengers generally, to execute, jointly and severally with two sufficient sureties, a bond to Her Majesty, in the sum of three hundred dollars for every such passenger so specially reported, conditioned to indemnify and save harmless the Government of Canada and of any Province in Canada and every municipality, municipal corporation, village, city, town, county and charitable institution within the same, from any expense or charge incurred within three years from the execution of the bond, for the maintenance and support of any such passenger:

3. Each of the said sureties shall justify before and to the satisfaction of the said collector, by oath or affirmation (which such collector may administer), that he is a resident of Canada and worth, in real and personal estate, double the amount of the penalty of such bond over and above the amount of his just debts and liabilities:

4. It shall be optional with the master of such vessel either to enter into such bond jointly and severally with sufficient sureties, as aforesaid, or to pay to the collector of customs, who might otherwise require such bond, such sum as has been fixed in that behalf by any instructions from the Government of Canada, as being just and reasonable and sufficient to indemnify Canada, and the Provinces and every municipality, municipal corporation, village, city, town, county, or charitable institution within Canada, against the risk of expense for the care, support and maintenance of such passenger or passengers during the then next ensuing three years:

5. The collector of customs may dispense with such bond, or money in lieu thereof, if it appears by the certificate of the medical superintendent at the proper quarantine station (which certificate the said medical superintendent may give) that the passenger with respect to whom such bond or money is required has become lunatic, idiotic, deaf and dumb, blind or infirm, from some cause not existing or discernible at the time of the departure of the ship from the port where such passenger embarked. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 11;—35 V., c. 28, s. 3.

18. The proper immigration agent may, with the consent of the Minister of Agriculture, make arrangements with the master, owner or charterer of the vessel carrying the lunatic, idiotic, deaf and dumb, blind or infirm person with respect to whom a bond has been given, or money paid in lieu thereof, or with the master, owner or charterer of any other vessel, for the reconveyance of such person to the port from which he was carried to Canada:

2. Money paid in lieu of or on breach of the condition of a bond in any such case, or so much thereof as is necessary, may be applied to pay for such reconveyance of the person with respect to whom it has been paid; and when such person has been so reconveyed, the bond so given may be cancelled, or the money paid in lieu thereof (deducting the passage money if any) may be returned, on the receipt by the said immigration agent of a certificate, under the hand of the chief emigration agent or British consul at the port from which he was brought, of the safe arrival of the lunatic, idiotic, deaf and dumb, blind or infirm person at such port, or on proof satisfactory to such immigration agent of his having died during the voyage without any fault attaching to the owner, master or any of the crew of such vessel. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 12.

19. If any passenger, in respect to whom any bond has been given as aforesaid, becomes at any time within three years from the execution thereof, chargeable upon Canada, or Province, upon any municipality, municipal corporation, village, city, town or county, or upon any charitable institution within Canada, the payment of such charge or expense, incurred for the maintenance and support of such passenger, shall be provided for out of the moneys collected, in respect of such bond. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 13.

20. If the master of any vessel, on board which such passenger specially reported as aforesaid has been carried, neglects or refuses to execute the said bond, or to pay the sum which he may pay instead of giving such bond, forthwith after the said ship has been reported to the collector of customs, such master shall incur a penalty of four hundred dollars; and the said vessel shall not be cleared on her return voyage until the said bond has been executed or the said sum paid, or until the said penalty has been paid with all costs incurred on any prosecution for the recovery thereof. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 14.

21. After any such bond as aforesaid has been executed the collector of customs shall transmit the same to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to be by him kept and held, during the said period of three years from the execution of the said bond, or until the payment of the penalty therein mentioned, if incurred, has been enforced:

2. For the purpose of ascertaining the necessity of such enforcement, each immigration agent, upon representation made to him, shall, in that portion of Canada in respect of which he performs his duties, ascertain the right and claim to indemnity, for the maintenance and support of any such specially reported passenger, and shall report the same to the Governor General, through the Minister of Agriculture; and the said report shall be final and conclusive in the matter, and shall be evidence of the facts therein stated:

3. The said penalty, or so much thereof as is sufficient, from time to time, to defray the expense incurred for the maintenance and support of any passenger for whom the said bond was given as aforesaid, may be recovered by suit or information in Her Majesty's name, in any court in Canada having jurisdiction in civil cases to the amount for which such suit or information is brought. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 15.

22. The medical superintendent at Grosse Isle may, from time to time, with the consent and approval of the Minister of Agriculture, make such regulations as he deems necessary for enforcing order and insuring the health and comfort of immigrants there; and such regulations, when published in the Canada Gazette, shall be in force; and any violation thereof shall be deemed a violation of this Act, and shall be punishable by such penalty not exceeding forty dollars as is assigned by such regulations in each case. 35 V., c. 28, s. 9.

PAUPER IMMIGRANTS, ETC.

23. The Governor General may, by proclamation, whenever he deems it necessary, prohibit the landing of pauper or destitute immigrants in all ports or any port in Canada, until such sums of money as are found necessary are provided and paid into the hands of one of the Canadian immigration agents, by the master of the vessel carrying such immigrants, for their temporary support and transport to their place of destination; and during such time as any such pauper immigrants would, in consequence of such orders, have to remain on board such vessel, the Governor in Council may provide for proper anchorage grounds being assigned to such vessel, and for such vessel being visited and superintended by the medical superintendent or any inspecting physician of the port or quarantine station, and for the necessary measures being taken to prevent the rise or spread of diseases amongst the passengers in such vessel and amongst people on shore. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 16.

24. The Governor General may, by proclamation, whenever he deems it necessary, prohibit the landing in Canada of any criminal, or other vicious class of immigrants designated in such proclamation, except upon such conditions for insuring their re-transportation to the port in Europe whence they came with the least possible delay, as the Governor in Council prescribes; and such conditions may, if the Governor in Council deems it necessary, include the immediate return, or the return with the least possible delay, of the vessel and such immigrants to the said port,—such prohibited immigrants remaining on board until such return of the vessel. 35 V., c. 28, s. 10.

PROVISIONS FOR THE PROTECTION OF PASSENGERS.

25. Every passenger on board any vessel arriving in the port or harbor to which the master, owner or charterer of such vessel engaged to convey him, shall be entitled to remain and keep his luggage on board such vessel during forty-eight hours after her arrival in such port or harbor; and every such master who compels any passenger to leave his vessel before the expiration of the said term of forty-eight hours shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for every passenger he so compels to leave his vessel; and the master of the vessel shall not, before the expiration of the said forty-eight hours, remove any berths or accommodation used by his passengers, under a like penalty, except with the written permission of the medical superintendent at the proper quarantine station. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 17.

26. The master of any vessel having passengers on board, shall land his passengers and their luggage, free of expense to the said passengers, at the usual public landing places at the port of arrival, according to orders which he receives from the authorities of the said port, and at reasonable hours not earlier than six of the clock in the forenoon, and not later than six of the clock in the afternoon; and the vessel shall, for the purpose of landing passengers and luggage, be anchored in such convenient and safe place, or moored at such wharf as is appointed for that purpose by the authorities of the port. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 18;—35 V., c. 28, s. 2, part.
ing at any port in Canada, other than such as are specially excepted in such proclamation, shall be landed,—and may, in and by such proclamation, make such regulations as he thinks proper, for the government of the place so appointed, and for the protection of the immigrants landed thereat; and such proclamation, when published at least twice in the Canada Gazette, with an interval of at least six days between each publication, shall have the force of law, and shall be in force until suspended by a later proclamation for the like purpose, published as aforesaid; and at the place so appointed the Governor in Council may cause proper shelter and accommodation to be provided for immigrants until they can be forwarded to their place of destination; and any violation of any such proclamation as aforesaid, or of any regulation therein contained, shall be deemed a violation of this Act:

2. The master of every vessel arriving at any port in Canada, and having on board the same any passengers to whom any such proclamation as aforesaid then in force applies, shall land such passengers and their luggage free of expense at the place so appointed, and at reasonable hours, not earlier than six in the forenoon nor later than six in the afternoon, and the vessel shall, for the purpose of landing such passengers and their luggage, either be moored at the wharf at the place appointed for such landing, or anchored in the port; and the masters of such vessels, so anchored, shall duly land, within the hours aforesaid, by steam tug or other proper tender, their passengers at such wharf as aforesaid and not elsewhere:

3. Every one who violates any of the provisions of this section or of the next preceding section, shall incur a penalty of forty dollars for each offence. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 19;—35 V., c. 28, s. 2, part.

28. If, during the voyage of any vessel carrying passengers from any port not within the United Kingdom to any port in Canada, the master or any one of the crew of such vessel is guilty of any violation of any of the laws in force in the country in which such foreign port is situate, regarding the duties of such master or crew towards the passengers in such vessel,—or if the master of any such vessel during such voyage commits any breach whatsoever of the contract for the passage made with any passenger by such master, or by the owner or charterer of such vessel,—such master or such one of the crew shall, for every such violation or breach of contract, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars, independently of any remedy which the passenger complaining otherwise has by law. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 20.

29. Proof under this Act of the law of a foreign country may be made by the testimony of any consul for the country from which the vessel sailed; and the proof of the contract for his passage made by any such passenger in any such vessel sailing from any European port not within the United Kingdom, may be made in all cases by the evidence of either of the parties to such contract. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 21.

30. No person shall, at any port or place within Canada, for hire, reward or gain, or the expectation thereof, conduct, solicit or recommend, either orally, or by handbill or placard, or in any other manner, any immigrant, to or on behalf of any steamboat owner or charterer, or to or on behalf of any railway company, or to or on behalf of any lodging house-keeper or tavern-keeper, or any other person, for any purpose connected with the preparations or arrangements of such immigrant for his passage to his final place of destination in Canada or in the United States of America or the territories of either of them; or give or pretend to give to such immigrant any information, oral, printed or otherwise, or assist him to his said place of destination, or in any way exercise the vocation of booking passengers or taking money for their inland fare or for the transportation of their luggage, unless such person has first obtained a license from the mayor of the city or town or chief officer of the municipality in Canada within which such person resides, authorizing him to act in such capacity; and any person so acting without having first obtained such license, shall incur a penalty of not less than fifty dollars:

2. Such mayor or chief officer may grant such license on such person producing a recommendation from the immigration agent nearest to the place where the license is granted, to the effect that he is a proper person to receive such license, and on his giving a satisfactory bond to the mayor or chief officer, with two sufficient sureties in the penal sum of three hundred dollars, as security for his good behavior; and such license shall not be for any period longer than one year from its date; and such person shall pay for such license to the proper officer of such city, town or municipality such sum, not exceeding one hundred dollars, as the council of such city, town or municipality determines. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 22.

31. No licensed immigrant runner or agent or person acting on behalf of any steamboat company, railway company, forwarding company, or hotel or boarding-house keeper or his agent, shall go on board any vessel bringing immigrants into any port, or book or solicit any immigrant passenger by such vessel, before the immigrant passengers are landed from such vessel, unless he is authorized by the immigration agent so to do; and every one who violates any of the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty of twenty-five dollars. 35 V., c. 28, s. 5, part.

32. No such vessel shall be admitted to entry until the immigration agent at the port has visited her, and has notified... the collector of customs that he has done so: and any such vessel arriving in port, shall hoist such signal as is determined on by the immigration agent at the port, who shall communicate it, through the superintendent or other proper officer, to the pilots for the port; and the pilot of the vessel shall see that such signal is hoisted and kept up during daylight, until the immigration agent has visited the vessel.

35 V., c. 28, s. 5, part.

33. Every person licensed under section thirty of this Act, and every person in his employ, who sells to any immigrant a ticket or order for the passage of such immigrant, or the conveyance of his luggage, at a higher rate than that for which it could be purchased directly from the company undertaking such conveyance,—and every person who purchases any such ticket from an immigrant for less than its value, or gives him in exchange for it one of less value, shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars for each such offence.

35 V., c. 28, s. 7.

34. Every keeper of a tavern, hotel or boarding-house in a city, or in any town, village or place to which the Governor General, by proclamation published in the Canada Gazette, declares that this section shall extend, who receives into his house, as a boarder or lodger, any immigrant within three months from his arrival in Canada, shall cause to be kept conspicuously posted in the public rooms and passages of his house and printed upon business cards, a list of the prices which will be charged to immigrants per day and week for board or lodging, or both, and also the prices for separate meals, which card shall also contain the name of the keeper of such house together with the name of the street in which it is situated, and its number in such street:

2. Every keeper of such tavern, hotel or boarding-house, who neglects or refuses to post a list of prices, or to keep business cards, or who charges or receives, or permits or suffers to be charged or received for boarding or lodging, or for meals in his house, any sum in excess of the prices so posted and printed on such business cards, or who omits immediately on any immigrant entering such house as a boarder or lodger for the purpose of taking any meal therein, to deliver to such immigrant one of such printed business cards, shall, upon conviction of any of the said offences, be deprived of his license and incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars and not less than five dollars:

3. No such boarding-house keeper, hotel keeper or tavern keeper shall have any lien on the effects of such immigrant for any amount claimed for such board or lodging, for any sum exceeding five dollars; and every such person who detains the effects of any immigrant after he has been tendered the said sum of five dollars or such less sum as is actually due for board or lodging, shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars and not less than five dollars, over and above the value of the effects so detained, if they are not immediately restored; and a search warrant may be issued for the same. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 23.

35. If any complaint is made to the Minister of Agriculture against any railway company, or other incorporated company, for any offence or violation of this Act or of the Acts of the United Kingdom known as "The Passengers' Act, 1855," and "The Passengers' Act amendment Act, 1863," or of any other law in any matter relating to immigrants or to immigration, the said Minister may cause such inquiry as he thinks proper to be made into the facts of the case, or may bring the matter before the Governor in Council to the end that such inquiry may be made under the "Act respecting inquiries concerning Public Matters"; and if upon such inquiry it appears to the satisfaction of the said Minister, or of the Governor in Council, as the case may be, that the company has been guilty of such violation, the Minister or the Governor in Council may call upon the company to make such compensation to the person aggrieved, or to do such other thing as is just and reasonable, or may adopt measures for causing such proceedings to be instituted against the company as the case requires. 35 V., c. 28, s. 6.

36. If both the immigrant parents, or the last surviving immigrant parent of any child, or children, brought with them in any vessel bound to Canada, dies on the voyage or at Grosse Isle, Lawlor's Island, Partridge Island, or elsewhere in Canada, while yet under the care of any immigration agent, the Minister of Agriculture, or such officer as he deputes for the purpose, may cause the effects of such parents or parent to be disposed of for the benefit of such child or children to the best advantage in his power, or, in his discretion, to be delivered over to any institution or person assuming the care and charge of such child or children. 35 V., c. 28, s. 8.

37. Every master or other officer, seaman or other person employed on board of any vessel, while such vessel is in any waters within the jurisdiction of the Parliament of Canada, who, under promise of marriage, or by threats, or by the exercise of his authority, or by solicitation, or the making of gifts or presents, seduces and has illicit connection with any female passenger, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year: Provided, that the subsequent intermarriage of the persons seducing and seduced, may be pleaded in bar of conviction. 35 V., c. 28, s. 11.

38. No officer, seaman or other person on board of any vessel bringing immigrant passengers to Canada, shall, while such vessel is in such Canadian waters as aforesaid, entice or admit any female immigrant passenger into his apartment, or except by the direction or permission of the master of such vessel first made or given for such purpose, visit or frequent any part of such vessel assigned to female immigants; and every officer, seaman or other person employed on board of such vessel, who violates the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty equal in amount to his wages for the voyage during which the said offence has been committed:

2. Every master or commander who, while such vessel is in such waters as aforesaid, directs or permits any officer or seaman or other person on board of such vessel, to visit or frequent any part of such vessel assigned to immigrant passengers, except for the purpose of doing or performing some necessary act or duty as an officer, seaman or person employed on board of such vessel, shall incur a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each occasion on which he so directs or permits the provisions of this section to be violated by any officer, seaman or other person employed on board of such vessel: Provided always, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to cabin passengers, or to any part of the vessel assigned to their use. 35 V., c. 28, s. 12.

39. The master of every vessel bringing immigrant passengers to Canada shall, while the vessel is in such Canadian waters as aforesaid, post a written or printed notice in the English, French and German languages, containing the provisions of the next preceding section of this Act, in a conspicuous place on the forecastle and in the several parts of the said vessel assigned to immigrant passengers, and keep the same so posted during the remainder of the voyage; and for every violation of this section, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars. 35 V., c. 28, s. 13.

RECOVERY OF DUTIES AND PENALTIES.

40. Every duty or penalty imposed under the authority of this Act, shall be a special lien upon the vessel in respect whereof it has become payable and the master whereof has become liable in such penalty, and may be enforced and collected by the seizure and sale of the vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, under the warrant or process of the justices or court before whom it has been sued for, and shall be preferred to all other liens or hypothecations except mariners' wages.
32-33 V., c. 10, s. 24.

41. Every prosecution for a penalty under section thirty-four of this Act, may be instituted at the place where the offender then is, before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction in such place, at the suit of any Dominion immigration agent in Canada; and the penalties recovered under the said section shall be paid into the hands of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada:

2. The justice of the peace may award costs against the offender as in ordinary cases of summary proceedings, and may also award imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, to terminate on payment of any penalty incurred under the said section,—and may, in his discretion, award any part of the penalty, when recovered, to the person aggrieved by the violation of law complained of. 32-33 Vict., c. 10, s. 25.

42. All penalties, other than those referred to in the next preceding section, imposed by this Act, or by any regulation made by the Governor in Council under the provisions of this Act, and not exceeding eighty dollars in amount, shall be sued for by a collector of customs, or by a Dominion immigration agent, and recovered with costs on the oath of one credible witness other than the prosecutor, in a summary manner, before any two justices of the peace,—and such justices may commit the offender to the common gaol until such penalty and costs are paid; and all such penalties exceeding the sum of eighty dollars may be recovered by civil action by any such officer as aforesaid, on like evidence, in any court of competent jurisdiction:

2. A moiety of every such penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and shall be paid into the hands of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General and form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada; and the other moiety shall belong to the prosecutor:

3. Every offence against the provisions of this Act or any regulation made under it, in respect of which the penalty exceeds the sum of forty dollars, is a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court before which the offender is convicted. 32-33 Vict., c. 10, s. 26.

43. Upon complaint being made before any one justice of the peace, in any case over which two justices have jurisdiction as aforesaid, he shall issue a summons requiring the person complained against to appear on a day and at an hour and place named in such summons; and every such summons shall be served on the person complained against, or shall be left at his place of residence or business, or on board any vessel to which he belongs:

2. Either upon the appearance or default to appear of the person complained against, any two or more justices may proceed summarily, either with or without any written information; and upon proof of the offence or complaint, either by confession of the person complained against, or upon the oath of at least one credible witness other than the prosecutor, the justices may convict the offender, and, upon such conviction, order the offender or person complained against to pay the penalty imposed by this Act, or by any such regulation as aforesaid, according to the nature of the offence, and also to pay the costs attending the prosecution or complaint:

3. If forthwith upon such order the moneys thereby ordered to be paid, are not paid, the same may be levied, with the costs of the distress and sale, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay such moneys,—the surplus, if any, to be returned to him upon demand; and such justices may issue their warrant accordingly, and may also order such person to be detained and kept in safe custody until return can conveniently be made to such warrant of distress, unless such person gives security to the satisfaction of such justices for his appearance before them on the day appointed for such return,—such day not being more than three days from the time of taking such security:

4. If it appears to such justices, by the admission of such person, or otherwise, that no sufficient distress can be had thereon to levy the moneys so adjudged to be paid, they may, if they think fit, refrain from issuing a warrant of distress in the case, or if such warrant has been issued, and upon the return thereof such insufficiency as aforesaid is made to appear to the justices, then such justices shall, by warrant, cause the person ordered to pay such moneys and costs as aforesaid to be committed to gaol, there to remain without bail for any term not exceeding three months, unless such moneys and costs ordered to be paid, and such costs of distress and sale as aforesaid, are sooner paid and satisfied; but such imprisonment of a master of any vessel shall not discharge the vessel from the lien or liability attached thereto by the provisions of this Act. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 27.

44. No conviction or proceeding under the four sections next preceding shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by appeal or certiorari, or otherwise, into any of Her Majesty's superior courts; and no warrant of commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it is thereby alleged that the person has been convicted, and there is a good and valid conviction to sustain the same. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 28.

MONEYS LEVIED AND EXPENDED.

45. All expenses incurred in carrying the provisions of this Act into effect, or under the provisions thereof, shall be paid out of any moneys granted, from time to time, by Parliament for that purpose and for affording help and advice to immigrants, aiding destitute immigrants, visiting and relieving them, procuring medical assistance and otherwise attending to the objects of immigration, as determined by the Parliamentary grants, and by Orders of the Governor in Council for the management of the same. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 29.
The moneys levied under this Act shall be paid by the collector of customs by whom they are received, into the hands of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada.

CHAPTER 66.

An Act respecting Immigration Aid Societies. A. D. 1886.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
   (a) The expression “Minister of Agriculture” includes any deputy or officer authorized to perform the duty or exercise the power in question;
   (b) The expression “immigration,” or “immigrant,” includes “emigration,” or “emigrant,” when it refers to the act of leaving, or to a person about to leave, Europe for Canada;
   (c) The expression “Society” means the immigration aid society which the context indicates or refers to;
   (d) Any negotiable or other instrument authorized by this Act may be drawn in any European language understood by the person executing it, and sums of money mentioned therein may be expressed in any currency used in the country where it is executed, and shall be held to mean equivalent amounts expressed in currency of Canada. 35 V., c. 29, s. 14.

2. The Minister of Agriculture shall, from time to time, for the purposes of this Act, divide each of the several Provinces of Canada into immigration districts; and in each district there shall be an immigration office and an immigration agent:
   2. Notice of such division, and of any alteration thereof, shall be given in the Canada Gazette, and each such district shall be known as the immigration district of the place where the immigration office is kept. 35 V., c. 29, s. 1.

3. An immigration aid society, or immigration aid societies, may be formed in every immigration district for the purpose of assisting immigrants to reach Canada from Europe, and to obtain employment on their arrival in Canada, and of enabling persons in Canada in want of laborers, artisans or servants, to obtain them by such immigration:
   2. Every such society shall consist of at least twenty-five persons, who may or may not be residents of the immigration district, and who have agreed to form such society, and to subscribe, as the capital of the society, at least five hundred dollars, in shares of twenty dollars each, one-half of which at least shall be paid, on subscribing the declaration of membership hereinafter mentioned, into the hands of a person agreed upon as their secretary-treasurer by such persons, not less than twenty-five, as are present at the meeting at which it is agreed to form such society. 35 V., c. 29, s. 2.

4. The persons who agree to form such society shall elect or agree upon a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and board of management, composed of at least five members, including the officers above mentioned, and shall adopt a constitution and by-laws, and shall respectively sign a declaration in the form in the schedule to this Act:

2. There shall be attached to the said declaration the constitution and by-laws of the society, which shall declare the objects of the society to be those mentioned in the next preceding section, and such other special objects, if any, as it is necessary to enumerate:

3. The constitution and by-laws shall set forth the names of the first president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and members of the board of management; the place where the office of the society is to be situate; the time when its meetings will be held; the manner in which the remainder of the stock of the society shall be paid up; the annual subscription to be paid by members, if such subscription is deemed advisable; the manner of admitting new members; the duties and powers of the board of management and officers; the time during which the officers and other members of the board of management shall remain in office; the time and place for and the manner of holding the regular meetings of the society, and the mode of calling and holding special meetings, and the quorum, and mode of voting at such meetings; the mode of filling vacancies among the officers and members of the board of management, or the manner in which their duties shall be performed by others during their absence; the period for which the society shall continue, and the mode of dividing its assets at the end of such period, or its profits, from time to time, during such period; and generally such provisions as are deemed necessary or expedient for the well-working of the society and the attainment of the objects for which it is formed:

4. The signatures of the members shall be attached to the declaration, and in columns opposite thereto, the amounts of stock for which they respectively subscribe, and the amounts paid up shall be stated; and the declaration shall then be dated and attested by the signatures of the president or vice-president and of the secretary-treasurer. 35 V., c. 29, s. 3, part.

5. The declaration shall be made in duplicate, and the duplicates shall be delivered or sent by the secretary-treasurer to the immigration agent of the district, who shall examine the declaration and ascertain whether it is in accordance with this Act, and with the instructions given him on the subject by the Minister of Agriculture; and if the immigration agent has any doubt as to its being conformable to this Act and to such instructions, he may forward it to the Minister for his opinion; and if it is not found so conformable, the immigration agent shall return both duplicates to the secretary-treasurer, informing him of the fact and of the objection to which the declaration is open; but if it is found to be so conformable, he shall certify the fact under his hand on both duplicates, and shall retain one of them in his office, and shall return the other to the secretary-treasurer. 35 V., c. 29, s. 4.

6. If there is no other immigration aid society in his district, the immigration agent shall treat the society as number one, and shall fill the blank left in the declaration for that purpose with that number; but if otherwise he shall give each a number in the order in which he certifies the declarations, and shall fill in the blank in each with its proper number, according to such order. 35 V., c. 29, s. 5.

7. When the declaration is approved and certified as aforesaid, the society shall be a corporation, or body politic and corporate, by the name taken in the declaration, including the number given it by the immigration agent, and shall have all the powers, rights and immunities assigned to corporations by "The Interpretation Act," including the right to have a corporate seal, if it thinks fit; but it shall not be necessary that the corporate seal shall be affixed to any document in order to make it the act or deed of the corporation, but it shall be sufficient for that purpose that the document is signed by the secretary-treasurer, and countersigned by the president or vice-president of the society, as such, or by the person or persons acting pro tempore in their stead; and the authority or capacity of any person who signs the same, or his signature, shall not be called in question by any but the corporation, and if not so questioned, shall be admitted in evidence without proof; and any document purporting to be the duplicate copy of the declaration signed by the proper immigration agent, shall be admitted as evidence of the facts stated therein, without proof of his signature, unless it is called in question by himself, or by the Minister of Agriculture, or by his authority. 35 V., c. 29, s. 6.

8. The society may enter into agreements and contracts, either with its members or with other persons, for any purpose relating to immigration,—and may lend and borrow money, and may take or give any security for the same,—and may become a party to any promissory note, bill of exchange, or other negotiable security or instrument, in the manner hereinbefore provided as to other documents,—and may receive assistance in money or otherwise from municipal or other corporations, or from any institution, society or person, towards enabling it to attain the objects of this Act, on such terms and conditions as are agreed upon, and which are not inconsistent with this Act or with law; but the total amount of the liabilities of the society shall never exceed the amount of its capital subscribed, and not paid up, and the members of the board of management shall be personally liable for any such excess. 35 V., c. 29, s. 7.

9. The society may receive applications from persons desiring to obtain artisans, workmen, servants or laborers from the United Kingdom, or from any part of Europe, and may enter into any lawful contracts with such persons, including the obligation, on the part of such persons, to employ the immigrants referred to on their arrival in Canada, in any manner, at any rate of wages, and for any period, under such penalty as damages for non-performance as are stipulated in such contract, and may receive in advance all or any part of the money to be expended by the society, or may take security for the repayment of all or any part thereof to the society, by instalments or in one sum, as is agreed upon. 35 V., c. 29, s. 8.

10. The secretary-treasurer shall forthwith transmit every such application, with the requisite information and details, to the immigration agent of the district, with the amount the society has undertaken to advance towards defraying the expenses to be incurred in complying with the application, in paying or partly paying the cost of the ocean passage and other necessary travelling expenses of the emigrants from their home in Europe to the place in Canada where they are required. 35 V., c. 29, s. 9.

11. The immigration agent shall forthwith transmit every such application and the money received by reason thereof, to the proper immigration agent or sub-agent of Canada, in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, who shall, thereupon, take the necessary steps for procuring and forwarding to the proper place in Canada, such immigrants as are stated in the application; and the immigration agent shall, from time to time, furnish the Minister of Agriculture with such information and details respecting such applications as the Minister requires. 35 V., c. 29, s. 10.

12. If it is the intention of the society, or of the applicant, that the whole or part of the money advanced towards defraying the expenses of immigration, shall be repaid by the immigrant, either in one sum or by instalments, the immigration agent or sub-agent of Canada in Europe who makes the arrangements for the passage of the intending emigrant to Canada, shall take from such emigrant an instrument in writing binding him to repay such money to the society in Canada... in one sum or by instalments, at certain periods, and with interest or without interest, according to the instruction given by the secretary-treasurer to the district immigration agent, and communicated through the Minister of Agriculture to the immigration agent or sub-agent in Europe, and he shall witness the execution of such instrument:

2. If any sum of money has been advanced to the emigrant for like purposes, by any society, or institution or individual in the United Kingdom, such sum may, with the consent of such society, institution or individual, be included in the amount for which such instrument is given, and may be recovered by the Canadian society aforesaid, and being so or deliver him to the master or any officer of the vessel, to be by him so conveyed, and may in such case order any costs and expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the master, by reason of the offence, to be paid by the offender, and, if necessary, to be deducted from any wages which he has then earned, or which by virtue of his then existing engagement he may afterwards earn. 33 V., c. 16, s. 8.

12. If any person subject to this Act is imprisoned on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or to proceed on any voyage or cruise, in any vessel belonging to the Government of Canada in which he is engaged to serve, or of his having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave, or of his having committed any other breach of discipline, and if during such imprisonment, and before his engagement is at an end, his services are required on board his vessel, any justice of the peace may, at the request of the master or of any officer thereof, cause such person to be conveyed on board his said vessel for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage or cruise, or to be delivered to the master or any officer of the same, to be by him so conveyed, notwithstanding that the term for which he was sentenced to imprisonment has not expired. 33 V., c. 16, s. 9.

13. Whenever a question arises, whether the wages of any person subject to this Act are forfeited for desertion, it shall be sufficient for the person insisting on the forfeiture to show that such person was duly engaged in, or that he belonged to the vessel from which he is alleged to have deserted, and that he quittd such vessel before the completion of the period of his engagement, and that an entry of the desertion has been duly made in the log-book; and thereupon the desertion shall, as far as relates to any forfeiture of wages or emoluments under the provisions hereinbefore contained, be deemed to be proved, unless the person can produce a proper certificate of discharge, or can otherwise show to the satisfaction of the commissioner of police or justice of the peace, hearing the case, that he had sufficient reasons for leaving his vessel. 33 V., c. 16, s. 10.

14. Any justice of the peace for the county or district in which is situated the port where the vessel, on board of which the offence has been committed, touches next after the time of its commission, shall have jurisdiction over an offence committed against the provisions of this Act, and any sentence of imprisonment under this Act may be carried out in the common gaol of such county or district. 33 V., c. 16, s. 13.

2. Nothing in this Act shall apply to ships belonging to Her Majesty. 36 V., c. 128, s. 5.

3. This Act is divided into four parts:
The first part, relating to the measurement and registration of ships;
The second part, relating to the licensing of small ships and other vessels;
The third part, relating to security for advances on ships in course of construction;
The fourth part, relating to the inspection and classification of ships. 36 V., c. 128, s. 6.

PART I.

MEASUREMENT AND REGISTRATION OF SHIPS.

4. The following ships are exempt from the provisions of this part of this Act, that is to say:— (a.) Ships having a whole or fixed deck, not propelled wholly or in part by steam, and not exceeding ten tons burthen;
(b.) Ships not propelled wholly or in part by steam, and not having a whole or fixed deck, whatever their burthen.
36 V., c. 128, s. 7.
5. No ship propelled either wholly or in part by steam, whatever her tonnage, and no ship not propelled wholly or in part by steam, of more than ten tons burthen and having a whole or fixed deck, although otherwise entitled by law to be deemed a British ship, shall, unless she is duly registered in the United Kingdom, or in Canada, or some other British possession under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and the Acts amending the same or under the provisions of this Act, be recognized as a British ship, or be admitted to the privileges of a British ship in Canada; but any ship which was duly registered under the provisions of the "Act respecting the registration of inland vessels," forming chapter forty-one of the Consolidated Statutes of the late Province of Canada, need not be registered in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, except for the purpose of enabling her to proceed to sea as a British ship:

2. No ship which was required to be registered by the said "Act respecting the registration of inland vessels" shall, unless she was duly registered under the provisions of the said Act, be recognized in Canada as a British ship. 36 V., c. 128, s. 8 and s. 14, part.

6. No officer of customs shall grant clearance to any ship required to be registered under the provisions of the Act in the next preceding section mentioned, or of this Act, for the purpose of enabling her to proceed on a voyage, unless the master of such ship, upon being required so to do, produces to him the proper certificate of registry; and if any such ship attempts to proceed on a voyage as a British ship, without a clearance, any officer of customs may detain such ship until such certificate is produced to him. 36 V., c. 128, s. 14, part.

7. When it appears to the Lieutenant Governor of any Province of Canada, that by reason of special circumstances it is desirable that permission should be granted to any British ship to pass, without being previously registered, from any port or place within the Province of which he is Lieutenant Governor, to any other port or place in Her Majesty's Dominions, such Lieutenant Governor may grant a pass accordingly, and such pass shall, for the time and within the limits therein mentioned, have the same effect as a pass granted by the Governor General, or as a certificate of registry; and such Lieutenant Governor shall forward, without delay, to the Governor in Council, a copy of each pass granted by him. 36 V., c. 128, s. 9.

8. The Governor in Council may appoint at and for every port at which he deems it expedient to authorize the registry of ships, the collector or other principal officer of customs, who shall be the registrar for all the purposes of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and the Acts amending the same, and of this Act. 36 V., c. 128, s. 10.
9. The Governor in Council may appoint at every such port, and at any other port in Canada, an officer to superintend the survey and measurement of ships in conformity with the said Acts and this Act; and the same person may be appointed both the registrar and surveyor at any such registry port. 36 V., c. 128, s. 11.

10. Such surveyor shall be entitled to such fees for the measurement of ships about to be registered for the first time under this Act, or requiring measurement for the purposes of registry, and to such travelling expenses, when required to travel for the purpose of making any such measurement, as the Governor in Council, from time to time, sees fit to establish; and such fees and travelling expenses shall be paid to such surveyor by the persons requiring his services; and any surveyor may, in any case, withhold his certificate of measurement, or any other document that is required of him, until his fees and travelling expenses are paid; and such fees shall be in lieu of all salary and other remuneration whatsoever for such services. 36 V., c. 128, s. 12, part.

11. No fees shall be charged in Canada for registering vessels or recording transactions relating to the registry of vessels under this Act or under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," or the Acts amending the same. 36 V., c. 128, s. 12, part.

12. When two or more persons claim to be builders or owners of any ship, or present the builder's certificate to the registrar of shipping at any port in Canada for the purpose of obtaining registry for such ship under the provisions of section forty of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and are not agreed as to who is the builder or owner of the same, such registrar may refuse to grant registry for such ship, and may summon witnesses, administer oaths, demand any books or papers and receive any evidence relating to such ship. 36 V., c. 128, s. 13, part.

13. A copy of such evidence taken, and a report thereon, shall be submitted by him to the Governor in Council, who shall issue such directions in the case as to the giving of security to the other claimant or claimants, or any other matter or thing, as he deems necessary; and registry shall be granted in pursuance of such directions and not otherwise. 36 V., c. 128, s. 13, part.

14. No new certificate of registry of a ship registered in Canada shall be granted in Canada, under section forty-eight of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," without proof on oath that the certificate of registry of such ship has been lost, mislaid or destroyed. 36 V., c. 128, s. 15.

15. If any British or foreign registered ship is either actually or constructively wrecked, and the register thereof is Registration of Ships.

The authority of the Governor in Council.

Closed and the certificate of registry is delivered up to the proper officer and cancelled; or, if any ship, sailing under a pass from the Governor General, or under a pass from a Lieutenant Governor under this Act, is either actually or constructively wrecked on the voyage, and during the time and within the limits mentioned in such pass, the Governor in Council may direct that such ship may be registered as a British ship in any port in Canada at and for which there is a registrar of shipping, on proof being adduced to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that such ship has been thoroughly repaired and made seaworthy, and also that all the transactions connected with the wreck, condemnation and sale of such ship were in good faith, and that all the requirements of the law have been complied with; but no registrar of shipping shall register any such ship without the authority of the Governor in Council. 36 V., c. 128, s. 16.

Proviso.

Access to registers of ships.

Every person may, upon payment of a fee of twenty cents, have access to the register of any ship registered in Canada, at the port of registry of such ship, at any reasonable time during the hours of official attendance of the registrar; and such fees shall, from time to time, as directed by the Governor in Council, be paid by the registrars receiving the same to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada. 36 V., c. 128, s. 17.

Collectors of customs to indorse changes of masters on certificates.

Subject to the provisions of this Act, collectors or other principal officers of customs in Canada, not being registrars of shipping, shall have the same power and be under the same obligation as registrars of shipping under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," to indorse, from time to time, on the certificate of registry of any ship at any port in Canada where the said ship is, any change of master which takes place at that port. 36 V., c. 128, s. 18.

Indorsement of change of master by registrar or collector, on what proof to be made.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the forty-sixth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," if any registrar of shipping or collector or other principal officer of the customs at any port or place in Canada receives conflicting directions from owners of any ship registered in Canada as to a change of the master of such ship, such registrar or collector or other principal officer may refuse to indorse a memorandum of the change of master on the certificate of registry of such ship, until he receives a declaration, according to the form in the first schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances permit, from the registered owners representing a majority of shares in such ship, or from their duly appointed agents, setting forth the name of the person appointed in lieu of the former master, who shall be named in such declaration:
2. The said declaration shall be made and subscribed in the presence of the registrar or collector of customs, if the declarant or declarants reside within five miles of the custom house of the port of registry, but if beyond that distance, in the presence of any registrar or collector of customs in Her Majesty’s dominions, or of any justice of the peace:

3. In addition to such declaration, the registrar of shipping or collector of customs at the port where the change is requested to be indorsed, may require to be produced a certified copy of the register, or such other evidence as he deems necessary, as proof of the ownership of the ship:

4. If the ship is at or near such port, he shall, on the demand of a majority of the owners thereof, require the master or any other person in possession of the certificate of registry to produce and deliver the same to him; and in default of the same being forthwith produced and delivered up to him, he may detain the ship, and not allow her to proceed to sea until the same has been produced and delivered up to him:

5. Every person who has possession of the certificate of registry of a ship registered in Canada, and who refuses or neglects to produce and deliver up the same to any registrar of shipping or collector of customs requiring the same to be produced and delivered up to him, under the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty of five hundred dollars.

19. Every registrar of shipping and every collector of customs shall keep a record of every indorsement of a change of master made by him on the certificate of registry of a ship, and shall specify in such record the date of such indorsement, the name of the ship, the official number of the ship, the port of registry of the ship, the name of the old master, the name of the new master, and whether or not he has a certificate of competency or a certificate of service, and, if he has either of such certificates, the number thereof; and every such record shall be kept in the office of the registrar of shipping or collector of customs making the same, or his successor as such, and shall, at all times during the usual office hours, be open to all persons for inspection, without fee or reward.

20. Whenever the managing owner, or any of the managing owners (if there are more than one) of a ship registered in Canada is changed, or, if there is no managing owner, whenever the ship’s husband is changed, the newly appointed managing owner or owners or ship’s husband shall forthwith give notice of such change to the registrar of the ship’s port of registry, who shall register the same accordingly; and every managing owner or ship’s husband who fails to comply with the requirements of this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.
Registration of Ships.

21. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the names of ships registered in Canada:

(a.) A ship shall not be described by any name other than that by which she is, for the time being, registered;

(b.) No change shall be made in the name of a ship without the previous permission of the Governor in Council, the application for which shall be made in writing; if the application is made on reasonable grounds, the Governor in Council may entertain the same, and may thereupon require notice thereof to be published in such form and manner as he thinks fit; and upon such permission being granted, the ship's name shall forthwith be altered in the register book, in the ship's certificate of registry, and on her bows and stern;

(c.) If, in any case, it is shown to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that the name of any ship has been changed without his previous permission, he may direct that her name be altered to that which she bore before such change, and the name shall be altered in the register book, in the ship's certificate of registry, and on her bows and stern accordingly;

(d.) If a ship which has once been registered has ceased to be so registered, no person, unless he is ignorant of such previous registry (proof of which shall lie on him), shall apply to register, and no registrar shall knowingly register such ship, except by the name by which she was previously registered, unless he has the permission of the Governor in Council:

2. Every person who acts, or suffers any person under his control to act in violation of this section, or who omits to do, or suffers any person under his control to omit to do anything required by this section, shall, for each offence, incur a penalty not exceeding four hundred dollars:

3. Any registrar or principal officer of customs may detain such ship until the provisions of this section are complied with. 36 V., c. 128, s. 22.

22. Whenever a shipping casualty happens anywhere in the case of a ship registered in Canada, or within the limits of Canada in the case of any other British ship, the master, or if the master is dead, the chief surviving officer, and also every such other person belonging to the ship as the Minister, from time to time, directs, shall, within twenty-four hours of his first landing in Canada after the happening of such casualty, attend and submit himself for examination at the office of the principal officer of customs residing at or near the place where such casualty occurred, if the same occurred on or near the coasts of Canada, or any island or place adjacent thereto, but at or near the place of such landing, if the casualty occurred elsewhere, unless he has been previously examined or excused from attending for examination by any other principal officer of customs residing at or near either of such places, or by any receiver of wreck in the United Kingdom; and if any master, officer or other person makes default in obeying the provisions of this section he shall incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars. 36 V., c. 128, s. 23.

23. Whenever the managing owner of any ship registered in Canada has information that such ship is lost, or in consequence of her non-arrival or otherwise has reason to apprehend that she is lost, he shall forthwith send notice of such loss or apprehended loss to the Minister, and shall, upon requisition by the Minister, furnish to him such information as he is required and is able to furnish respecting such ship, and the loss thereof, and the property and persons on board; and if he makes default in obeying the provisions of this section he shall incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars. 36 V., c. 128, s. 24.

24. Every registrar of shipping shall, on or before the twentieth day of January in each year, make and forward to the Minister a return, in such form and containing such particulars as the Minister, from time to time, directs, of all existing ships of which the registry remained in his registry books, on the thirty-first day of December then last. 36 V., c. 128, s. 25.

PART II.

LICENSING OF SMALL SHIPS AND OTHER VESSELS.

25. The master, owner or managing owner, or one of the managing owners (if there are more than one) of every vessel not a ship within the meaning of this Act, which is employed in or owned for the purpose of fishing, trading or carrying loads of any kind in any of the waters of Canada, shall, within one month from the date of her being so employed or owned for such purpose by him, or of her being built or acquired for such purpose,—and the master, owner, managing owner or one of the managing owners (if there are more than one), of every ship exempted from the provisions of the first part of this Act, shall take from the collector or other principal officer of the customs at some port or place in Canada a license, which it shall be the duty of the collector or other principal officer of the customs at every port or place in Canada to furnish, without fee or reward, to every person applying for the same at his custom house or office in office hours, and complying with the provisions of this section in respect of such application; and such license shall be in the form of and shall contain the particulars provided for in form B in the second schedule to this Act. 36 V., c. 128, s. 30.
26. Upon any such application being made to a collector or other principal officer of the customs the following provisions shall take effect:

(a.) The collector or principal officer of customs shall furnish the applicant gratis with a printed blank for a declaration in the form A in the second schedule to this Act;

(b.) The applicant shall fill up the said form with true statements, in their proper places, of the length, breadth, depth and approximate tonnage of the ship or vessel, the names of the owners thereof, and, if the property in the ship or vessel is divided into shares, the number of shares held by each owner, and shall subscribe the same and return it to the officer;

(c.) The officer shall then fill up a license with the particulars stated in the declaration, adding thereto the name of the port and the number of the license, which shall be consecutive for each port, and he shall sign such license and hand the same to the applicant;

(d.) The officer shall record the particulars contained in the license in a book to be kept by him for that purpose.

27. Every ship or vessel so required to be licensed shall, at all times, have the name of the port or place at which she was last licensed, and the number of her last license painted on her bow or stern in letters not less than three inches long, of light color, on a dark ground, and such port or place shall be considered, for the time being, her port of license.

28. Whenever the property in a ship or vessel so required to be licensed passes wholly into new hands, the master or the new owner or managing owner, or one of the new managing owners, if there are more than one, shall, within one month after such change of ownership as aforesaid, take out a new license at some port or place in Canada, and upon receiving the same shall deliver up the former license, if in his possession, to the collector or other principal officer of the customs at such port or place.

29. Every master, owner or managing owner of any ship or vessel so required to be licensed, who neglects, without reasonable cause (the proof of which shall lie upon him), to apply for and take out a license for such ship or vessel within any delay allowed by this Act for that purpose, or who neglects to keep the name of her last port of license and the number of her last license painted on her bow or stern as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars.

30. Every officer of customs authorized by this part of this Act to license ships and vessels, shall, on or before the twentieth day of January in each year, make and forward to the Minister a return in such form and containing such particulars as the Minister, from time to time, directs, of all ships and vessels licensed by him during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December then last. 36 V., c. 128, s. 35.

PART III.

SECURITY FOR ADVANCES ON SHIPS IN COURSE OF CONSTRUCTION.

31. A ship about to be built or being built may be recorded under a temporary name by the registrar of shipping at or nearest to the port at which she is about to be built or is being built; and any builder desirous of raising money by a mortgage on any ship about to be built or being built, shall furnish to the registrar of shipping at the port at or nearest to which she is about to be built or is being built, a full description of such ship, and a statement of the port at which she is intended to be registered, according to the form A in the third schedule to this Act, and shall indicate the ship to be built or being built by painting on a board near the place of such building in his ship yard, on a dark ground, in white or yellow figures and letters of a length not less than four inches, the number given to him by the proper registrar of shipping for that purpose, the temporary name of the ship, and the name of the port at which she is intended to be registered. 36 V., c. 128, s. 36.

32. A ship about to be built or being built, and so recorded as aforesaid, may be made security for a loan or other valuable consideration; and the instrument creating such security, hereinafter termed a "mortgage," shall be in the form B in the third schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances permit; and on the production of such instrument, the registrar of shipping at the port at which the ship is recorded shall enter the same in a record book to be kept by him for that purpose. 36 V., c. 128, s. 37.

33. Every such mortgage shall be recorded by the proper registrar of shipping in the order of time in which the same is produced to him for that purpose; and such registrar of shipping shall, by memorandum under his hand, notify on the instrument of mortgage that the same has been recorded by him, stating the date and hour of such record. 36 V.,
c. 128, s. 38.

34. Whenever any recorded mortgage has been discharged the proper registrar of shipping shall, upon the production of the mortgage deed, with a receipt for the mortgage money indorsed thereon, duly signed and attested, make an entry in the record book to the effect that such mortgage has been discharged; and upon such entry being made, the estate, if any, which passed to the mortgagee shall vest in the said person or persons in whom the same would, having regard to intervening acts and circumstances, if any, have vested if no such mortgage had ever been made. 36 V., c. 128, s. 39.

Priority of mortgages

35. If two or more mortgages are recorded in respect of the same ship, the mortgagees shall, notwithstanding any express, implied or constructive notice, be entitled in priority one over the other, according to the date at which each instrument is recorded in the record book, and not according to the date of each instrument. 36 V., c. 128, s. 40.

36. A mortgagee shall not, by reason of his mortgage, be deemed to be the owner of a ship, nor shall the mortgagor be deemed to have ceased to be owner of such mortgaged ship, except in so far as is necessary for making such ship available as security for the mortgage debt. 36 V., c. 128, s. 41.

Mortgagee not to be deemed owner

37. Every mortgagee may absolutely dispose of the ship in respect of which he is recorded as such mortgagee and give effectual receipts for the purchase money; but if there are more persons than one recorded as mortgagees of the same ship, no second or subsequent mortgagee shall, except under the order of a court capable of taking cognizance of such matters, sell such ship without the concurrence of every prior mortgagee; and every bill of sale, when duly executed, shall be produced to the proper registrar of shipping, who shall enter the particulars thereof in the record book, and shall indorse on the bill of sale the fact of such entry having been made, with the date and hour thereof; and all bills of sale shall be entered in the record book in the order of their production to the registrar of shipping. 36 V., c. 128, s. 42.

Transfer of mortgages

38. A recorded mortgage of any ship may be transferred to any person; and the instrument creating such transfer shall be in the form C in the third schedule hereto; and on the production of such instrument the registrar of shipping shall enter in the record book the name of the transferee as mortgagee of the ship therein mentioned, and shall, by memorandum under his hand, record on the instrument of transfer that the same has been recorded by him, stating the date and hour of such record. 36 V., c. 128, s. 44.

39. If the interest of any mortgagee in any ship recorded under this Act becomes transmitted in consequence of death or insolvency, or in consequence of the marriage of any female mortgagee, or by any lawful means other than by a transfer according to the provisions of this Act, such transmission shall be authenticated by a declaration of the person to whom such interest has been transmitted, made in the form D in the third schedule hereto, and containing a statement describing the manner in which and the party to whom such property has been transmitted; and such declaration shall be made and subscribed in the presence of the registrar of shipping at the port at which such ship has been recorded under this Act, if the declarant resides at or within five miles of the custom house of the port, but if beyond that distance, in the presence of any registrar of shipping, collector of customs or justice of the peace. 36 V., c. 128, s. 45.

40. If such transmission has taken place by virtue of the insolvency of any registered mortgagee, the said declaration shall be accompanied by such evidence as is for the time being receivable in courts of justice as proof of the title of persons claiming under any insolvency; and if such transmission has taken place by virtue of the marriage of a female mortgagee, the said declaration shall be accompanied by a copy of the register of such marriage, or other legal evidence of the cele-boration thereof, and shall declare the identity of the said female mortgagee; and if such transmission has taken place by virtue of any testamentary instrument or by intestacy, then, in any Province of Canada, excepting Quebec, the said declaration shall be accompanied by the probate of the will or the letters of administration, or an official extract therefrom, and in the Province of Quebec, by the will or any copy thereof that is evidence of such will by the laws of that Province, or by any such document as by the laws of such Province is receivable in the courts of justice thereof, as proof of the title of any person entitled upon an intestacy.

41. The registrar of shipping, upon the receipt of such declaration and the production of such evidence aforesaid, shall enter the name of the person or persons entitled under such transmission in the record book as mortgagee or mortgagees of the ship in respect of which such transmission has taken place. 36 V., c. 128, s. 46.

42. Whenever the building of a ship which has been recorded under this Act is duly completed, the first mortgagee whose claim is unsatisfied may furnish the builder's certificate for such ship, and thereupon the proper officer may grant a certificate of registry under the laws in force in Canada for that purpose:

2. All undischarged mortgages recorded under this Act shall be, by the proper registrar of shipping, transferred to and registered under such laws in the register book, in the order and according to the priority in which the same were entered of record under this Act; and the temporary name used for the purposes of this Act, as above provided for, may be changed at the time of granting a certificate of registry:
3. The registry of all such mortgages shall thus appear, according to their priority in the record book, as if the same had been made or granted under the laws providing for the giving of such certificate of registry; and a fresh instrument of mortgage may be granted for that purpose, according to any form prescribed by law, as a substitute for any mortgage granted under this Act. 36 V., c. 128, s. 47.

43. Every person who is a party to any unsatisfied mortgage on any ship under this Act and who takes out, or attempts to take out, a register for such ship at any port other than the port named on the board in the ship yard in which such ship was built, or in the statement and description in the form A in the third schedule of this Act, furnished to the registrar of shipping by whom such ship was recorded under this Act, or in any mortgage on such ship under this Act, shall incur a penalty of two thousand dollars, which shall be recoverable, with costs, by the person who first sues for the same in any court of competent jurisdiction, in any Province in Canada in which the offender is served with process. 36 V., c. 128, s. 48.

44. No surveyor of shipping who is not also a registrar of shipping shall deliver up any certificate of survey of any ship which he has surveyed for measurement to any person except the registrar of shipping at the port at or for which he is surveyor, and at which such ship is recorded under this Act, until the registrar of shipping at such port has indorsed on the back of such certificate either a statement to the effect that there is no undischarged mortgage on such ship recorded in his office under this Act, or a statement of the amount and other particulars, and if more than one, the number of the undischarged mortgages, if any, on such ship recorded in his office under this Act; and every registrar of shipping shall indorse one of such statements, according to the facts of each case, on every certificate of measurement presented to him for that purpose by any surveyor of shipping. 36 V., c. 128, s. 49.

45. If the registrar of shipping at any port at which any ship is recorded under this Act is also surveyor of shipping at or for such port, he shall indorse on every certificate of survey of every ship which he has surveyed for measurement, before he delivers the same to any person, either a statement to the effect that there is no undischarged mortgage on such ship recorded in his office under this Act, or a statement of the amount and other particulars, and, if more than one, the number of the undischarged mortgages, if any, on such ship recorded in his office under this Act. 36 V., c. 128, s. 50.
46. The Governor in Council may establish a scale of fees for recording ships and mortgages and other transactions, and for other services to be performed under this Act prior to the registry of any ship under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," or any Act or Acts amending or applying to the same. 36 V., c. 128, s. 51.

EXAMINATIONS AND CERTIFICATES OF MASTERS AND MATES.

2. Examinations shall be instituted in the several Provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia for persons domiciled in Canada for at least three years, who intend to become masters or mates or second mates of sea-going ships registered in Canada, or who wish to procure certificates of competency for sea-going ships hereinafter mentioned; and persons serving in ships registered in Canada shall be deemed to be domiciled in Canada while so serving.
3. Examinations may be instituted in Canada, for persons domiciled in Canada for at least three years who intend to become masters or mates of ships trading on the inland waters of Canada, or on coasting voyages, or who wish to procure certificates of competency hereinafter mentioned; and persons serving in ships so registered, and British subjects serving in foreign vessels in like trade, shall be deemed to be domiciled in Canada while so serving. 46 V., c. 28, s. 2, part.

4. Subject as herein mentioned, the Minister shall provide for such examinations at such places as he sees fit; and the Governor in Council may appoint an examiner or examiners at any place or places to conduct the examinations, and may regulate the same, and determine the amount of the remuneration of such examiners; but no person shall be appointed an examiner in respect to masters or mates or second mates of sea-going ships, unless he has himself passed a satisfactory examination before two or more examiners, as to his fitness and competency to act as an examiner, and has received from them a certificate to that effect. 33 V., c. 17, s. 1, part; -46 V., c. 28, s. 2, part.

5. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make rules for the conduct of such examinations, and as to the qualifications of the applicants; and such rules shall be observed by all examiners. 33 V., c. 17, s. 2; -46 V., c. 28, s. 3.

6. All applicants for examination shall pay, previous to examination, to such person as the Minister appoints for that purpose, the following fees, that is to say:—for a certificate of competency as master of a sea-going ship, ten dollars; for a certificate of competency as first or second mate of a sea-going ship, five dollars; for a certificate of competency as master of a ship trading on inland waters or on coasting voyages, eight dollars; and for a certificate of competency as mate of a ship trading on inland waters or on coasting voyages, four dollars; and for certificates of service, the fees hereinafter provided: and in the event of any applicant failing to procure his certificate of qualification on his first examination, he shall be entitled to a second examination without payment of any additional fee; but if he fails to procure his certificate of qualification on such second examination, he shall pay the same fee previous to any subsequent examination as is hereby required to be paid previous to a first examination for the certificate he seeks to procure. 33 V., c. 17, s. 3; -42 V., c. 26, s. 2; -46 V., c. 28, s. 4.

7. The Minister may, subject to the proviso hereinafter made, grant to every applicant who is duly reported by any one or more of the examiners to have passed the examination satisfactorily, and to have given satisfactory evidence... of his sobriety, experience, ability and general good conduct on board ship, a certificate (hereinafter called a certificate of competency), to the effect that he is competent to act as master or as first, second or only mate of a sea-going ship, or as master or mate of a ship trading on the inland waters of Canada, or in the coasting trade, as the case may be, and whether for sailing ships or steamships, in the case of ships trading on inland waters or on coasting voyages (stating the class of ships for which he is found competent): but in every case in which the Minister has reason to believe that such report has been unduly made, he may remit the case either to the same or to any other examiner or examiners, and may require a re-examination of the applicant, or a further inquiry into his testimonials and character, before granting him a certificate. 33 V., c. 17, s. 4;—42 V., c. 26, s. 1, part;—46 V., c. 28, s. 5.

8. Certificates of service, differing in form from certificates of competency, may be granted as follows, that is to say:

(a.) Every person who, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, served as master in a sea-going ship, in any Province in Canada, or who has attained the rank of lieutenant, master, passed mate or second master in Her Majesty's Royal Navy, and who produces satisfactory evidence at such examination of his sobriety, experience, ability and general good conduct on board ship, shall be entitled to a certificate of service as master for sea-going ships, on payment of a fee of five dollars;

(b.) Every person who, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, served as mate in a sea-going ship, in any Province in Canada, and who produces satisfactory evidence, in manner aforesaid, of his sobriety, experience, ability and general good conduct on board ship, shall be entitled to a certificate of service as first or only mate for sea-going ships, on payment of a fee of three dollars;

(c.) Every person who, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, served as master in a sea-going ship registered in Canada, and being over one hundred tons, and not over one hundred and fifty tons registered tonnage, and who has produced satisfactory evidence of his sobriety, experience, ability and general good conduct, and has passed the color test, shall be entitled to a certificate as master or mate, as the case may be, for sea-going ships registered in Canada and being over one hundred tons and not over one hundred and fifty tons registered tonnage, on payment of a fee of five dollars for a certificate as master, or three dollars for a certificate as mate;

(d.) Every person who, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, served as master in a ship trading on the inland waters of Canada, or on coasting voyages, or, being a British subject, served in foreign vessels in like trade, and who produces satisfactory evidence at such examination of his sobriety, experience, ability and general good conduct on board ship, shall be entitled to a certificate of service as master for ships trading on the inland waters of Canada, or on coasting voyages, on payment of a fee of four dollars;

(e.) Every person who, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, served as mate in a ship trading on the inland waters of Canada, or on coasting voyages, or, being a British subject, served in foreign vessels in like trade, and who produces satisfactory evidence, in manner aforesaid, of his sobriety, experience, ability and general good conduct on board ship, shall be entitled to a certificate of service as first or only mate, for ships trading on the inland waters of Canada, or upon coasting voyages, on payment of a fee of two dollars:

2. The Minister may thereupon issue such certificates of service to the various persons so respectively entitled thereto; and each of such certificates of service for sea-going ships shall contain particulars of the name, place and time of birth, and of the length and nature of the previous service of the person to whom the same is issued. 33 V., c. 17, s. 5; — 46 V., c. 28, s. 6; — 47 V., c. 19, s. 3.

9. No ship registered in Canada over one hundred tons registered tonnage, shall go to sea from any port or place in Canada, on a voyage to any port or place out of Canada, not being a port or place in Newfoundland, or in the United States of America, unless the master and first mate or only mate thereof have obtained and possess valid certificates either of competency or service for sea-going ships, appropriate to their several stations in such ship, or of a higher grade, from the Minister,—or valid certificates of competency, or service for foreign-going ships, appropriate to their several stations in such ship, or of a higher grade, from the Board of Trade in the United Kingdom,—or valid certificates of competency appropriate to their several stations in such ships, or of a higher grade, granted in any British possession, and declared by order of Her Majesty in Council published in the London Gazette, under the provisions of "The Merchant Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869," or of any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom containing such provisions, to be of the same force as certificates of competency for foreign-going ships granted under the Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom relating to merchant shipping; and every person who, having been engaged to serve as master or first mate or only mate of any sea-going ship registered in Canada, over one hundred tons registered tonnage, goes to sea as aforesaid, as such master or mate, without being at the time entitled to and possessed of such a certificate either of competency or of service for sea-going ships, as hereinbefore required, or who employs any person as master, first mate or only mate of any such sea-going ship as aforesaid, without first ascertaining that he, at the time, is entitled to and possessed of such certificate, shall for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars. 33 V., c. 17, s. 6;—47 V., c. 19, s. 1, part.

10. The master of every sea-going ship registered in Canada, over one hundred tons register, shall produce to every officer of the customs in Canada, to whom he applies for a clearance of such ship on any such voyage by sea as aforesaid, the certificates of competency or service for sea-going ships, which the said master and his first mate, or only mate, are hereby required to possess; and no officer of the customs at any port in Canada, shall clear any such ship, on any such voyage as aforesaid, without such certificates being first produced to him; and if any master, mate or other officer of any such ship attempts to sail, or take such ship to sea, from any port in Canada, on any such voyage as aforesaid, until this requirement of this Act has been fully complied with, such master, mate or other officer, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars: but nothing in this, or the next preceding section contained, shall render it compulsory on the part of any owner to have on his ship a second mate holding a certificate as such, to enable him to clear his ship for sea:

2. Every master of any such ship who, after having produced to the collector or other officer of the customs in Canada to whom he applies for a clearance, a certificate of competency or service required to be possessed by the first or only mate of such ship, and having obtained his clearance by representing that the person possessing such certificate is engaged as first or only mate of the said ship for the voyage for which the clearance is obtained, afterwards proceeds to sea without having the said person or some other duly certificated mate on board as first or only mate, shall incur a penalty of one hundred dollars; and every person who knowingly allows his certificate as mate to be produced as aforesaid, and does not proceed to sea with such ship as first or only mate on the voyage for which the clearance is obtained, or otherwise wilfully aids the master in his offence against this Act, shall incur a like penalty; and the certificate of any master or mate offending against this enactment, may, if issued under Canadian authority, be suspended by the Minister for a period not exceeding twelve months. 33 V., c. 17, s. 7;—42 V., c. 26, s. 3;—47 V., c. 19, ss. 1, part, and 2.

12. Every person who, having been engaged to serve as master or mate of any ship, the master or mate whereof is hereby required to have such certificate of competency or service, goes on any voyage described in the next preceding section as such master or mate, without being at the time entitled to and possessed of such certificate as hereinbefore required, or who employs any person as master or mate of any such ship as aforesaid, on any such voyage, without first ascertaining that he is, at the time, entitled to and possessed of such certificate, shall, for each such offence, incur a penalty of one hundred dollars. 46 V., c. 28, s. 7, part.

2. No officer of the customs at any port in Canada shall clear any such ship or grant a transire coastwise for any such ship on any such voyage as aforesaid, or grant a license for the season in respect of any such ship, without such certificate being first produced to him; and if any master of any such ship attempts to sail, or take such ship from any port in Canada, on any such voyage as aforesaid, for which a clearance or a transire coastwise or a license for the season is required, until the requirements of this section have been fully complied with, such master shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty of one hundred dollars:

19. Every master or mate whose certificate is cancelled or suspended shall deliver it to the Minister, or as he directs, unless he has already delivered it to any court or tribunal before whom his conduct was called in question in the course of the investigation upon which it is cancelled or suspended, and in default thereof, shall incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars; and the Minister may, at any subsequent time, grant to any person whose certificate has been cancelled, a new certificate of the same or of any lower grade. 33 V., c. 17, s. 11;—46 V., c. 28, s. 12.

20. All certificates, whether of competency or service for sea-going ships, shall be made in duplicate, and one part shall be delivered to the person entitled to the certificate, and the other shall be kept and recorded in the Department of Marine; and a record of all certificates of competency or service for ships trading on inland waters or on coasting voyages, granted under this Act, shall be kept in a bound book in the said department, and whenever notice of the cancelling, suspending, altering or otherwise affecting, by competent authority, any such certificate is received by the department, there shall thereupon be made a corresponding entry in the record of certificates. 33 V., c. 17, s. 12, part;—46 V., c. 28, s. 13, part.

23. The Minister shall cause a copy of this Act, with the names of the various ports where boards of examiners have been appointed, and a copy of the rules made by the Governor in Council for the guidance of such examiners, to be lodged in all the principal custom houses in Canada. 46 V., c. 28, s. 15.

24. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make provision for affording facilities for imparting to seafaring men, desirous of becoming applicants for examination for certificates of competency, under this Act, such information as to the theory of navigation as will fit them for such examination, and may defray the expenses incurred for affording such facilities out of any money voted by Parliament for that purpose. 33 V., c. 17, s. 13.

The master of every Canadian home-trade ship, except ships of less than eighty tons registered tonnage, shall enter into an agreement with every seaman whom he carries as one of his crew, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and every such agreement shall be in the form A, in the schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as circumstances permit, and shall be dated at the time of the first signature thereof, and shall be signed by the master before any seaman signs the same, and shall contain the following particulars as terms thereof, that is to say:—

(a.) The nature, and as far as practicable, the duration of the intended voyage or engagement;
(b.) The number and description of the crew, specifying how many are engaged as sailors;
(c.) The time at which each seaman is to be on board or to begin work;

(f.) A scale of the provisions which are to be furnished to each seaman;
(g.) Any regulations as to conduct on board, and as to fines, short allowance of provisions, or other lawful punishments for misconduct which the parties agree to adopt:

2. 3. Any seaman who has signed such agreement may, at the termination of the agreement, if the master thinks fit, be discharged before a shipping master in the manner herein directed with respect to Canadian foreign sea-going ships; and at any period during such engagement, and before its termination, the master may discharge any such seaman on payment of his wages and with his consent, if such discharge is made in the presence of and with the sanction of a duly appointed shipping master. 36 V., c. 129, s. 26.

26. The master of every Canadian foreign sea-going ship shall enter into an agreement with every seaman whom he carries to sea, from any port or place in any of the said Provinces, as one of his crew; and every such agreement shall be in the form A, in the schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances permit, and shall be dated at the time of the first signature thereof, and shall be signed by the master before any seaman signs the same, and shall contain the particulars set forth in the next preceding section as terms thereof:

4. A clause may be inserted in the agreement providing for the sale of the vessel during the voyage intended, and for the discharge of the crew in the event of such sale; but such clause shall state the amount of wages to be paid to the seamen upon such sale. 36 V., c. 129, s. 27.

27. In the case of ships registered in any of the said Provinces making short voyages from any port or place in any of the said Provinces by sea to ports and places out of Canada, averaging less than two months' duration, running agreements with the crew may be made to extend over to two or more voyages, or for a specified time, so that no such agreement shall extend beyond six months from the date of such agreement, or the first arrival of the ship at her port of destination in any of the said Provinces after the termination of such agreement or the discharge of cargo consequent upon such arrival; and every person who enters into such agreement, whether engaged upon the first commencement thereof or otherwise in any of the said Provinces, shall enter into and sign the same in the manner hereby required for other ships trading by sea to ports or places out of Canada, and every person engaged thereunder, if discharged in any of the said Provinces, shall be discharged in the manner hereby required for the discharge of seamen belonging to other ships trading by sea to ports or places out of Canada. 36 V., c. 129, s. 28.

28. Every master of a ship registered in any of the said Provinces, except under eighty tons register, exclusively employed in trading between any port or place in any of the said Provinces, and any port or place in any other of the said Provinces, who carries any seaman to sea, apprentices excepted, without entering into an agreement with him in the form and manner, and at the place and time in such case required, shall, for each such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars. 36 V., c. 129, s. 29.

29. The owner, part owner, master or person in charge of any Canadian foreign sea-going ship, or Canadian home-trade ship, or ship's husband, shall not pay in advance, or give any note or acceptance in writing or otherwise in the nature of, and purporting to be an advance note for any part of the wages of any seaman hired, engaged, supplied or provided to be entered on board the said ship, until after the ship's articles have been duly signed by the said seaman and by the master or owner of the said ship, and then only to the seaman himself; but any such note or acceptance may be made payable to the order of such seaman; and no such note or acceptance shall be made, or be payable at any time sooner than five days after the final sailing of the ship with such seaman on board; and all payments of wages contrary to the provisions of this section shall be null and void, and the amount thereof shall be recoverable by the seaman as if they had not been paid or advanced. 36 V., c. 129, s. 30.

30. The master of every Canadian foreign sea-going ship, of which the crew has been engaged before a shipping master in Canada, shall, before finally leaving Canada, sign and send to the shipping master before whom the crew were engaged, a full and accurate statement of every change which takes place in his crew before finally leaving Canada; and, in default, shall, for each offence, incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars: and such statement shall be admitted as evidence, subject to all just exceptions. 36 V., c. 129, s. 31.
31. The master of every Canadian foreign sea-going ship over one hundred tons register, shall, on signing the agreement with his crew, produce to the shipping master before whom the same is signed, the certificates of competency or service, which the said master and his first mate or only mate, are required by law to possess; and if the shipping master is the chief officer of customs at the port, he shall not clear any such ship of over one hundred tons register without such certificates being first produced to him, and shall not clear any ship of any tonnage register until all the requirements of this Act have been complied with to his satisfaction; and if any master of any ship attempts to go from any port until all the requirements of this Act have been complied with, he shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars:

2. If the shipping master is not the chief officer of customs at the port, then in the case of any ship of any tonnage register, on all the requirements of this Act being complied with to the satisfaction of the shipping master,—and in the case of any such ship of over one hundred tons register, on the production of the said certificates in addition to complying with all the requirements of this Act to the satisfaction of the shipping master, such shipping master shall give the master of the ship a certificate to that effect or to the effect that the agreement is in his office partially signed waiting an engagement of a portion of the crew, as the case may be.

32. No officer of customs shall clear any ship of any tonnage register without the production of the shipping master’s certificate to the effect that all the requirements of this Act have been complied with, or to the effect that the agreement is in his office partially signed waiting an engagement of a portion of the crew, as the case may be, and shall not clear any such ship of over one hundred tons register, without the production of such certificate, and the certificates of competency or service above mentioned; and if any ship of any tonnage register attempts to go to sea without complying with all the requirements of this Act, the master of such ship shall incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars; and at any port at which the chief officer of customs acts as shipping master, such officer of customs shall not clear any ship outwards until all the requirements of this Act have been complied with to his satisfaction. 42 V., c. 27, s. 1, part;—47 V., c. 19, s. 4, part.

33. Every erasure, interlineation, or alteration in any such agreement with seamen, as is required by this Act (except additions so made as hereinbefore directed for shipping substitutes or persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship), shall be wholly inoperative, unless proved to have been made with the consent of all the persons interested in such erasure, interlineation or alteration by the written attestation (if made in Her Majesty's Dominions) of some shipping master, justice of the peace, officer of customs or other public functionary, or (if made out of Her Majesty's Dominions), of a British consular officer, or where there is no such officer, of two respectable British merchants. 36 V., c. 129, s. 33.

34. Every person who fraudulently alters, assists in fraudulently altering, or procures to be fraudulently altered, or makes, or assists in making, or procures to be made, any false entry in, or delivers, assists in delivering, or procures to be delivered, a false copy of any agreement under this Act, is guilty of a misdemeanor. 36 V., c. 129, s. 34.

35. Any seaman may bring forward evidence to prove the contents of any agreement under this Act, or otherwise to support his case, without producing or giving notice to produce the agreement or any copy thereof. 36 V., c. 129, s. 35.

36. Any seaman who has signed an agreement under this Act, and is afterwards discharged before the commencement of the voyage, or before one month's wages are earned, without fault on his part justifying such discharge and without his consent, shall be entitled to receive from the master or owner, in addition to any wages he has earned, due compensation for the damage thereby caused to him, not exceeding one month's wages, and may, on adducing such evidence as the court hearing the case deems satisfactory of his having been so improperly discharged as aforesaid, recover such compensation as if it was wages duly earned. 36 V., c. 129, s. 36.

ALLOTMENT OF WAGES.

37. All stipulations for the allotment of any part of the wages of a seaman during his absence, which are made at the commencement of the voyage, shall be inserted in the agreement, and shall state the amounts and times of payments to be made; and allotment notes may be in the form in the schedule hereto. 36 V., c. 129, s. 37.

38. The wife, or the father or mother, or the grandfather or grandmother, or any child or grandchild, or any brother or sister, of any seaman in whose favor an allotment note of part of the wages of such seaman is made, may, unless the seaman is shown in manner hereinafter mentioned to have forfeited or ceased to be entitled to the wages out of which the allotment is to be paid, and subject as to the wife, to the provision hereinafter contained, sue for and recover the sums allotted by the note when and as the same are made payable, with costs, from the owner or any agent who has authorized the drawing of the note,—either in the summary manner in which seamen are, by this Act, enabled to sue for and recover wages not exceeding two hundred dollars, or in any court in any of the said Provinces having jurisdiction to the amount, within the limits of whose jurisdiction such owner or agent has been served with process, or the agreement and allotment note or either of them were or was made,—such owner or agent having been duly served with process in any place in any of the said Provinces within or without such limits:

2. In any such proceeding it shall be sufficient for the claimant to prove that he or she is the person mentioned in the note, and that the note was given by the owner or by the master or some authorized agent; and the seaman shall be presumed to be duly earning his wages, unless the contrary is shown to the satisfaction of the court, either by the official statement of the change in the crew caused by his absence made and signed by the master, as by this Act is required, or by a duly certified copy of some entry in the log-book to the effect that he has left the ship, or by a credible letter from the master of the ship to the same effect, or by such other evidence, of whatever description, as the court in its absolute discretion considers sufficient to show satisfactorily that the seaman has ceased to be entitled to the wages out of which the allotment is to be paid:

3. The wife of any seaman who deserts her children, or so misconducts herself as to be undeserving of support from her husband, shall thereupon forfeit all right to further payments of any allotment of his wages which has been made in her favor:

4. Every master who makes a wilfully false statement in any such letter, as is in this section mentioned, shall incur a penalty of one hundred dollars. 36 V., c. 129, s. 38.

DISCHARGE AND PAYMENT OF WAGES.

39. All seamen discharged in any of the said Provinces, from ships registered in any of the said Provinces other than Canadian home-trade ships, shall be discharged and receive their wages in the presence of the shipping master duly appointed under this Act, except in cases where some competent court otherwise directs; and any master or owner or consignee of any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, not being a Canadian home-trade ship, who discharges any seaman belonging thereto or, except as aforesaid, pays his wages within any of the said Provinces in any other manner, shall incur a penalty not exceeding forty dollars; and in the case of ships exempted as aforesaid, seamen may, if the owner or master so desires, be discharged and receive their wages in like manner. 36 V., c. 129, s. 39.

40. Every master shall, before paying off or discharging any seaman in any of the said Provinces from a ship registered in any of the said Provinces, not being a Canadian home-trade ship of less than eighty tons, deliver to him, or Slipping of Seamen.

41. Upon the discharge in any of the said Provinces of any seaman belonging to a ship registered in any of the said Provinces, not being a Canadian home-trade ship of less than eighty tons, or upon payment of his wages, the master shall sign and give him a certificate of his discharge in the form in the schedule hereto, specifying the period of his service and the time and place of his discharge, and shall make and sign thereon a report of the conduct, character and qualifications of the person discharged, during the period he has been in his employment; or he may state that he declines to give any opinion upon such particulars or upon any of them; and if any master fails to sign and give to any such seaman requiring the same, such certificate of discharge and report or statement as aforesaid, he shall, for each such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding forty dollars. 36 V., c. 129, s. 41.

42. Every shipping master in Canada may hear and decide any question whatsoever between a master or owner of a ship registered in Canada and any of his crew, which both parties agree in writing to submit to him; and every award so made by him shall be binding on both parties, and shall, in any legal proceedings which are taken in the matter before any court of justice in Canada, be deemed to be conclusive as to the rights of the parties; and any document purporting to be such submission or award shall be primâ facie evidence thereof, and such shipping master may charge a fee not exceeding four dollars as remuneration therefor. 36 V., c. 129, s. 42.

43. In any proceeding relating to the wages, claims or discharge of any seaman belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, carried on before any shipping master under the provisions of this Act, such shipping master may call upon the owner or his agent, or upon the master or any mate or other member of the crew, to produce any log books, papers or other documents in their respective possession or power, relating to any matter in question in such proceedings, and may call before him and examine on oath on any such matter any of such persons then at or near the place; and every owner, agent, master, mate or other member of the crew, who when called upon by the shipping master does not produce any such paper or document as aforesaid, if in his possession or power, or does not appear and give evidence, shall, unless he shows a rea-

46. No right to wages of any seaman or apprentice on board of any ship registered in any of the said Provinces shall be dependent on the earning of freight; and every such seaman or apprentice who would be entitled to demand and recover any wages if the ship in which he has served had earned freight shall, subject to all other rules of law and conditions applicable to the case, be entitled to claim and recover the same, notwithstanding that freight has not been earned; but in all cases of wreck or loss of the ship, proof that he has not exerted himself to the utmost to save the ship, cargo and stores, shall bar his claim. 36 V., c. 129, s. 46.

49. No seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, shall be entitled to wages for any period during which he unlawfully refuses or neglects to work when required, whether before or after the time fixed by the agreement for his beginning work, or, unless the court hearing the case otherwise directs, for any period during which he is lawfully imprisoned for any offence committed by him. 36 V., c. 129, s. 49.

50. Whenever a seaman belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces is, by reason of illness, incapable of performing his duty, and it is proved that such illness has been caused by his own wilful act or default, he shall not be entitled to wages for the time during which he is, by reason of such illness, incapable of performing his duty. 36 V., c. 129, s. 50.

51. The master or owner of every ship registered in any of the said Provinces shall pay every seaman belonging to such ship, his wages, if demanded within three days after the delivery of the cargo or five days after the seaman's discharge, whichever first happens; but this provision shall not apply to cases in which the seaman by the agreement is paid by a share of the profits of the adventure. 36 V., c. 129, s. 51.

MODE OF RECOVERING WAGES.

52. Any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, or any person duly authorized on his behalf, may sue in a summary manner before any judge of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, any judge of the sessions of the peace, any judge of a county court, stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, or any two justices of the peace acting in or near the place at which the service has terminated, or at which the seaman or apprentice has been discharged, or at which any master or owner or other person upon whom the claim is made is or resides, for any amount of wages due to such seaman or apprentice, not exceeding two hundred dollars, over and above the costs of any proceeding for the recovery thereof, as soon as the same becomes payable; and such judge, magistrate or justices may, upon complaint on oath made to him or them by such seaman or apprentice, or on his behalf, summon such master or owner or other person to appear before him or them to answer such complaint. 36 V., c. 129, s. 52.
Shipping of Seamen.

53. Upon appearance of such master or owner, or in default thereof, on due proof of his having been so summoned, such judge, magistrate or justices may examine upon the oath of the respective witnesses of the parties (if there are any), or upon the oath of either of the parties, in case one of the parties requires such oath from the other, before such judge, magistrate, or justices, touching the complaint and amount of wages due, and may make such order for the payment thereof, as to such judge, magistrate or justices appears reasonable and just; and any order made by such judge, magistrate or justices shall be final. 36 V., c. 129, s. 53.

54. If such order is not obeyed within twenty-four hours next after the making thereof, such judge, magistrate or justices may issue a warrant to levy the amount of the wages awarded to be due, by the distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person on whom such order is made,—paying to such person the overplus of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting therefrom all the charges and expenses incurred by the seaman or apprentice in the making and hearing of the complaint, as well as those incurred by the distress and levy, and in the enforcement of the order. 36 V., c. 129, s. 54.

55. If sufficient distress cannot be found, such judge, magistrate or justices may cause the amount of such wages and expenses to be levied on the ship in respect of the service on board which the wages are claimed, or the tackle and apparel thereof; and if such ship is not within the jurisdiction of such judge, magistrate or justices, then they may cause the person on whom the order for payment is made to be apprehended and committed to the common gaol of the locality, or if there is no gaol there, then to that which is nearest to the locality, for a term not exceeding three months and not less than one month, under each such condemnation. 36 V., c. 129, s. 55.

56. No suit or proceedings for the recovery of wages under the sum of two hundred dollars shall be instituted by or on behalf of any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces in any court of Vice Admiralty, or in any superior court in any of the said Provinces, unless the owner of the ship is insolvent within the meaning of any Act respecting insolvency, for the time being in force in Canada,—or unless the ship is under arrest or is sold by the authority of any such court of Vice Admiralty or superior court as aforesaid,—or unless any judge, magistrate or justices, acting under the authority of this Act, refers the case to be adjudged by such court,—or unless neither the owner nor the master is or resides within twenty miles of the place where the seaman or apprentice is discharged or put ashore. 36 V., c. 129, s. 56.
57. If any suit for the recovery of a seaman's wages is instituted against any such ship, or the master or owner thereof, in any court of Vice Admiralty or in any superior court in any of the said Provinces, and it appears to the court, in the course of such suit, that the plaintiff might have had as effectual a remedy for the recovery of his wages by complaint to a judge, magistrate or two justices of the peace under this Act, then the judge shall certify to that effect, and thereupon no costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff. 36 V., c. 129, s. 57.

No seaman belonging to any Canadian foreign sea-going ship, who is engaged for a voyage or engagement which is to terminate in any of the said Provinces, shall be entitled to sue in any court abroad for wages, unless he is discharged with such sanction as herein required, and with the written consent of the master, or proves such ill-usage on the part of the master or by his authority, as to warrant reasonable apprehension of danger to the life of such seaman if he remained on board; but if any seaman on his return to any of the said Provinces proves that the master or owner has been guilty of any conduct or default which, but for this section, would have entitled the seaman to sue for wages before the termination of the voyage or engagement, he shall be entitled to recover in addition to his wages such compensation, not exceeding eighty dollars, as the court hearing the case thinks reasonable. 36 V., c. 129, s. 58.

59. Every master of a ship registered in any of the said Provinces shall, so far as the case permits, have the same rights, liens and remedies for the recovery of his wages, which by this Act or by any law or custom any seaman, not being a master, has for the recovery of his wages; and if, in any proceeding in any court of Vice Admiralty, or court possessing admiralty jurisdiction in any of the said Provinces touching the claim of a master to wages, any right of set-off or counter claim is set up, such court may enter into and adjudicate upon all questions and settle all accounts then arising or outstanding and unsettled between the parties to the proceeding, and may direct payment of any balance which is found to be due. 36 V., c. 129, s. 59.

WAGES AND EFFECTS OF DECEASED SEAMEN.

60. Whenever any seaman or apprentice belonging to or sent home in any Canadian foreign sea-going ship, employed on a voyage which is to terminate in any of the said Provinces, dies during such voyage, the master shall take charge of all money, clothes and effects which he leaves on board, and shall, if he considers it necessary in order to prevent contagion or disease, dispose of the clothes in such way as he thinks fit,—and shall thereupon sign an entry in the log book containing the following particulars, that is to say:—
(a.) A statement of the amount of money and description of the effects so left by the deceased, and if any effects were disposed of to prevent contagion or disease, a statement of such effects and the mode of disposing of them and the amount received for each;

61. If any master fails to take such charge of the money or other effects of any such seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage, or to make such entry thereof, or to procure such attestation to such entries, or to make such payment or delivery of any money, wages or effects of any such seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage, or to give such account in respect thereof as hereinbefore respectively directed, he shall be accountable to the legal representative of such seaman or apprentice and shall pay and deliver the same accordingly; and such master shall, in addition, for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding treble the value of the money or effects not accounted for, or, if such value is not ascertained, not exceeding two hundred dollars: and if any such money, wages or effects are not duly paid, delivered or accounted for by the master, the owner of the ship shall pay, deliver and account for the same, and such money and wages and the value of such effects shall be recoverable from him accordingly; and if he fails to account for and pay the same, he shall, in addition to his liability for the said money and value, incur the same penalty, which is hereinbefore mentioned as incurred by the master for the like offence; and all money, wages and effects of any such seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage, shall be recoverable in the same court and by the same modes of proceeding by which seamen are, by this Act, enabled to recover.

62. Whenever any such seaman or apprentice dies in any of the said Provinces, and is, at the time of his death, entitled to claim from the master or owner of any such ship in which he has served any unpaid wages or effects, such master or owner shall pay and deliver or account for the same to the shipping master at the port where such seaman or apprentice was discharged or was to have been discharged, or to the Minister, or as he directs. 36 V. c. 129, s. 62.

63. In cases of wages or effects of deceased seamen and apprentices who belonged, at the time of their death, to ships registered in any of the said Provinces, received by any shipping master on behalf of the Government of Canada, to which no claims substantiated within six years after the receipt thereof by such shipping master on behalf of the Government of Canada, it shall be in the absolute discretion of the Governor in Council, if any subsequent claim is made, either to allow or to refuse the same; and, subject to the provision hereinafter contained, the Governor in Council may, from time to time, order and direct that any moneys arising from the unclaimed wages and effects of deceased seamen and apprentices, which, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, it is not necessary to detain for the purpose of satisfying claims, shall be paid to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada; and such moneys shall be applied as the Governor in Council directs. 36 V. c. 129, s. 63.

64. Whenever any Canadian foreign sea-going ship is transferred or disposed of at any place out of Her Majesty’s Dominions, and any seaman or apprentice belonging thereto does not, in the presence of some British consular officer, or if there is no such consular officer there, in the presence of one or more respectable British merchants residing at the place and not interested in the said ship, signify his consent in writing to complete the voyage if continued, and whenever the service of any seaman or apprentice belonging to any such ship terminates at any place out of Her Majesty’s Dominions, the master shall give to each such seaman or apprentice a certificate of discharge, and in the case of any certificated mate, whose certificate he has retained, shall return such certificate to him, and shall also, besides paying the wages to which such seaman or apprentice is entitled, either provide him with adequate employment on board some

65. Every master or other person belonging to any Canadian foreign sea-going ship, who wrongfully forces on shore and leaves behind, or otherwise wilfully and wrongfully leaves behind in any place, on shore or at sea, in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, any seaman or apprentice belonging to such ship before the completion of the voyage for which such person was engaged, or the return of the ship to Canada, is guilty of a misdemeanor. 36 V., c. 129, s. 65.

68. Every master of a Canadian foreign sea-going ship, who leaves any seaman or apprentice on shore at any place out of Canada, under a certificate of his unfitness or inability to proceed on the voyage, shall deliver to one of the functionaries aforesaid, or (in the absence of such functionaries) to the merchants by whom such certificate is signed, or if there is but one respectable merchant resident at such place, to him, a full and true account of the wages due to such seaman or apprentice (such account when delivered to a consular officer to be in duplicate), and shall pay the same either in money or by a bill drawn upon the owner,—and by money whenever it is practicable so to do, and not by bill:

2. Whenever payment is made by bill, drawn by the master, the owner of the ship shall be liable to pay the amount for which the same is drawn to the holder or indorsed thereof; and it shall not be necessary in any proceeding against the owner upon such bill to prove that the master had authority to draw the same: and any bill purporting to be drawn in pursuance of this section and to be indorsed as therein required, if produced out of the custody of the Minister, or of any shipping master, shall be received in evidence; and any indorsement on any such bill purporting to be made in pursuance of this section, and to be signed by one of the functionaries herein mentioned, shall also be received in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in such indorsement:

(b.) If the master or any seaman or apprentice of any such ship is, on account of any illness, temporarily removed from his ship for the purpose of preventing infection or otherwise for the convenience of the ship, and subsequently returns to his duty, the expense of such removal and of providing the necessary advice with attendance and medicines, and of his subsistence while away from the ship, shall be defrayed in like manner;

(c) The expense of all medicines and surgical or medical advice and attendance given to any master, seaman or apprentice of any ship, whilst on board his ship, shall be defrayed in like manner;

36 V., c. 129, s. 75.

76. If any such expenses in respect of the illness, injury or hurt of any seaman or apprentice belonging to any Canadian foreign sea-going ship as are to be borne by the owner, are paid by any consular officer or any other person on behalf of Her Majesty, or if any other expenses in respect of the illness, injury or hurt of any seaman or apprentice whose wages are not accounted for to such officer under the provisions hereinbefore contained in that behalf, are so paid, such expenses shall be repaid to the officer or other person by the master of the ship; and if not so repaid, the amount thereof, with costs, shall be a charge upon the ship, and be recoverable from the said master or from the owner of the ship for the time being, as a debt due to Her Majesty; and shall be recoverable by ordinary process of law, or in the manner in which seamen are hereby enabled to recover wages; and in any proceeding for the recovery thereof, the production of a certificate of the facts, signed by such officer or other person, together with such vouchers as the case requires, shall be sufficient proof that the said expenses were duly paid by such consular officer or other person as aforesaid. 36 V., c. 129, s. 76.

(h.) If any such place in any such ship is not kept free from goods and stores as aforesaid, the master shall be deemed to be in fault, and shall, for every such failure to comply with the provisions of this section, pay to each seaman lodged in such place, the sum of twenty-four cents a day for each day after complaint made to him by any two or more of such seamen during which any goods or stores, which are not the personal property of the crew, are stored or kept therein;

78. If any seaman or apprentice whilst on board, in any of the said Provinces, any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, states to the master that he desires to make complaint to a justice of the peace, or naval officer in command of any of Her Majesty's ships, against the master or any of the crew, the said master shall, if the ship is then at a place where there is a justice or any such officer as aforesaid, as soon as the service of the ship will permit, and if the ship is not then at such a place, so soon after her first arrival at such a place in any of the said Provinces, as the service of the ship will permit, allow such seaman or apprentice to go.... ashore or send him ashore in proper custody, so that he may be enabled to make such complaint, and shall, in default, incur a penalty not exceeding forty dollars. 36 V., c. 129, s. 78.

79. Whenever in any proceeding against any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship, registered in any of the said Provinces, for desertion, or for neglecting or refusing to join or to proceed to sea or on any voyage in his ship, or for being absent from or quitting the same without leave, it is alleged by one-fourth the seamen belonging to such ship, or, if the number of men exceeds twenty, by at least five such seamen, that such ship is, by reason of unseaworthiness, overloading, improper loading, defective equipment, or for any other reason, not in a fit condition to proceed to sea or on such voyage, or that the accommodation in such ship is insufficient, the court having cognizance of the case shall take such means as are in its power to satisfy itself concerning the truth or untruth of such allegation, and shall for that purpose receive the evidence of the person or persons making the same, and shall have power to summon any other witnesses whose evidence such court thinks it desirable to hear; and the court shall thereupon, if satisfied that the allegation is groundless, proceed to adjudicate, but if not so satisfied shall cause such ship to be surveyed:

2. No seaman or apprentice charged with desertion, or with quitting his ship without leave, shall have any right to apply for a survey under this section unless previously to his quitting his ship he has complained to the master of the circumstances so alleged in justification:

3. For the purposes of this section, the court may appoint and require any person having no interest in the ship, her freight or cargo, whom the court deems competent to deal with the special circumstances of the case, to survey the ship, and to answer any question concerning her which the court thinks fit to put:

4. Such person shall survey the ship, and make his report in writing to the court, including an answer to every question put to him by the court: and the court shall cause such report to be communicated to the parties, and unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the opinions expressed in such report are erroneous, the court shall determine the questions before it in accordance with those opinions:

5. For the purposes of such survey, the person appointed to make the same may, in the execution of his duty, go on board the ship at any reasonable time, and may inspect the same or any part thereof, or any of the machinery, boats or other equipments, or cargo thereof, or any provisions or other articles on board thereof, the inspection of which appears to him to be requisite for the purpose of the inquiry he is required to make, not unnecessarily detaining or delaying the ship from proceeding to sea or on her voyage; and if for any reason he considers it necessary so to do, he may require the ship to be so dealt with that he may be able to inspect every part of the hull thereof:

6. The costs of the survey shall be determined by the court, and shall be paid by the master or owner of the ship, or by the recognized consignee or agent thereof,—provided such recognized consignee or agent has moneys in his hands received on account of such ship:

7. Every recognized consignee or agent of a ship not being the owner or master of such ship may, out of any moneys in his hands received on account of such ship, retain the amount of the costs so paid by him, together with any reasonable expenses he has incurred by reason of such payment and liability:

8. If it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the ship is in a fit condition to proceed to sea or on her voyage, or, as the case may be, that the accommodation is sufficient, the costs of the survey may be deducted by the master or owner out of the wages due or to become due to the person or persons upon whose demand, or in consequence of whose allegation, the survey was made. 36 V., c. 129, s. 79.

(a.) For desertion he shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve weeks and not less than eight weeks, with hard labor, and also to forfeit all or any part of the clothes and effects he leaves on board, and all or any part of the wages or emoluments which he has then earned; and also, if such desertion takes place abroad, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit all or any part of the wages or emoluments he earns in any other ship in which he is employed until his next return to any of the said Provinces, and to satisfy any excess of wages paid by the master or owner of the ship from which he deserts to any substitute engaged in his place at a higher rate of wages than the rate stipulated to be paid to him;

Whenever, either at the commencement or during the progress of any voyage, any seaman or apprentice neglects or refuses to proceed to sea in any ship registered in any of the said Provinces in which he is duly engaged to serve, or is found otherwise absenting himself therefrom without leave, the master or any mate, or the owner, ship’s husband or consignee, may, in any place in any of the said Provinces, with or without the assistance of the local police officers or constables (who shall give such assistance if required), apprehend him without first procuring a warrant; and may thereupon in any case, and shall in case he so requires, and it is practicable, convey him before some court capable of taking cognizance of the matter, to be dealt with according to law; and may, for the purpose of conveying him before such court, detain him in custody for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, or such shorter time as is necessary, or may, if he does not so require, or if there is no such court at or near the place, at once convey him on board:

1. If any such apprehension appears to the court before which the case is brought to have been made on improper or on insufficient grounds, the master, mate, owner, ship’s husband or consignee, who makes the same or causes the same to be made, shall incur a penalty not exceeding eighty dollars; but such penalty, if inflicted, shall be a bar to any action for false imprisonment in respect of such apprehension. 36 V., c. 129, s. 94.

Whenever any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces is brought before any court in any of the said Provinces, on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or proceed to sea in any ship in which he is engaged to serve, or of having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave,—such court may, if the master or the owner or his agent so requires, instead of committing the offender to prison, cause him to proceed on board for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or deliver him to the master or any mate of the ship or the owner or his agent, to be by him so conveyed, and may, in such case, order any costs and expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the master or owner by reason of the offence, to be paid by the offender, and if necessary to be deducted from any wages which he has then earned, or which, by virtue of his then existing engagement, he may afterwards earn. 36 V., c. 129, s. 95.

96. If any seaman or apprentice is imprisoned in any of the said Provinces, on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or to proceed to sea in any ship registered in any of the said Provinces in which he is engaged to serve, or of his having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave, or of his having committed any other breach of discipline, and if, during such imprisonment and before his engagement is at an end, his services are required on board his ship, any justice may, at the request of the master or of the owner or his agent, cause such seaman or apprentice to be conveyed on board his said ship for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or to be delivered to the master or any mate of the ship, or to the owner or his agent, to be by him so conveyed, notwithstanding that the termination of the period for which he was sentenced to imprisonment has not arrived. 36 V., c. 129, s. 96.

97. Whenever a question arises in any of the said Provinces whether the wages of any seaman or apprentice, belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, are forfeited for desertion, it shall be sufficient for the person insisting on the forfeiture to show that such seaman or apprentice was duly engaged in or that he belonged to the ship from which he is alleged to have deserted, and that he quitted such ship before the completion of the voyage or engagement, and that an entry of the desertion has been duly made in the log-book; and thereupon the desertion shall, so far as relates to any forfeiture of wages or emoluments under the provisions hereinbefore contained, be deemed to be proved, unless the seaman or apprentice can produce a proper certificate of discharge, or can otherwise show to the satisfaction of the court that he had sufficient reasons for leaving his ship. 36 V., c. 129, s. 97.

98. Whenever, in any proceeding in any of the said Provinces relating to seamen's wages, it is shown that any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces has, in the course of the voyage, been convicted of any offence by any competent tribunal, and rightfully punished therefor by imprisonment or otherwise, the court hearing the case may direct a part of the wages due to such seaman or apprentice, not exceeding twelve dollars, to be applied in reimbursing any costs properly incurred by the master in procuring such conviction or punishment. 36 V., c. 129, s. 98.

99. Whenever any seaman belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces contracts for wages by the voyage, or by the run, or by the share, and not by the month or other stated period of time, the amount of forfeiture to be incurred under this Act shall be taken to be an amount bearing the same proportion to the whole wages or share as a month or other the period hereinbefore mentioned in fixing the amount of such forfeiture (as the case may be), bears to the whole time spent in the voyage; and if the whole time spent in the voyage does not exceed the period for which the pay is to be forfeited, the forfeiture shall extend to the whole wages or share. 36 V., c. 129, s. 99.

100. All clothes, effects, wages and emoluments which, under the provisions hereinbefore contained, are forfeited for desertion, shall be applied in the first instance in or towards the reimbursement of the expenses occasioned by such desertion to the master or owner of the ship from which the desertion has taken place,—and may, if earned subsequently to the desertion, be recovered by such master, or by the owner or his agent, in the same manner as the deserter might have recovered the same if they had not been forfeited; and in any legal proceeding relating to such wages the court may order the same to be paid accordingly; and, subject to such reimbursement, the same shall be paid to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada: and in all other cases of forfeiture of wages under the provisions hereinbefore contained the forfeiture shall, in the absence of any specific directions to the contrary, be for the benefit of the master or owner by whom the wages are payable. 36 V., c. 129, s. 100.

101. Any question concerning the forfeiture of or deductions from the wages of any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, may be determined in any proceeding, in any of the said Provinces, lawfully instituted with respect to such wages, notwithstanding that the offence in respect of which such question arises, though hereby made punishable by imprisonment as well as by forfeiture, has not been made the subject of any criminal proceeding. 36 V., c. 129, s. 101.

102. If any seaman, on or before being engaged in any of the said Provinces, in any ship registered in any of the said Provinces, wilfully and fraudulently makes a false statement of the name of his last ship or last alleged ship, or wilfully and fraudulently makes a false statement of his own name, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars; and such penalty may be deducted from any wages he earns by virtue of such engagement as aforesaid, and shall, subject to reimbursement of the loss and expenses, if any, occasioned by any previous desertion, be paid and applied in the same manner as other penalties payable under this Act. 36 V., c. 129, s. 102.

103. Whenever any seaman belonging to any Canadian foreign sea-going ship, commits an act of misconduct for which his agreement imposes a fine, and which it is intended to punish by enforcing such fine, an entry thereof shall be made in the log-book, and a copy of such entry shall be furnished, or the same shall be read over to the offender; and an entry of such reading over, and the reply, if any, made by the offender, shall be made in the manner and subject to the conditions hereinbefore specified with respect to the offences against discipline specified in and punishable under this Act:

2. Such fine shall be deducted and paid over as follows, that is to say:—if the offender is discharged in Canada, and the offences and such entries in respect thereof as aforesaid, are proved to the satisfaction of the shipping master before whom the offender is discharged, the master or owner shall deduct such fine from the wages of the offender, and pay the same over to such shipping master; and if before the final discharge in Canada of the crew of any such ship, any such offender as aforesaid has entered into any of Her Majesty's ships, or has been discharged abroad, and the offence and such entries as aforesaid have been proved to the satisfaction of the officer in command of the ship into which he so enters, or of the consular officer, officer of customs or other person by whose sanction he has been so discharged, and the fine has thereupon been deducted as aforesaid and an entry of such deduction has then been made in the log-book, if any, and signed by such officer or other person, under the provisions of section two hundred and fifty-six of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," then on the return of the ship to Canada, the master or owner shall pay over such fine to the shipping master before whom the crew is discharged:

3. Every master or owner who neglects or refuses to pay over any such fine in manner aforesaid, shall, for each such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding six times the amount of the fine retained by him:

4. No act of misconduct for which any such fine as aforesaid has been inflicted and paid shall be otherwise punished under the provisions of this Act. 36 V., c. 129, s. 103.

Any judge of the Superior Court for Lower Canada judge of the sessions of the peace, judge of a county court, police magistrate or stipendiary magistrate, or any two justices of the peace, may try and determine in a summary way all offences punishable under this Act, whether by fine, penalty or imprisonment, or by both fine and imprisonment, or by both fine and imprisonment.

115. The provisions of the Act intituled "An Act respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace," shall apply to and govern proceedings against any person for any offence against this Act; and any judge of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, judge of the sessions of the peace, judge of a county court, police magistrate or stipendiary magistrate, before whom any proceedings under this Act are taken, shall, for the purposes of the said proceedings, have all the powers of two justices of the peace under the said "Act respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace." 45 V., c. 33, s. 2, part.

116. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered with costs, upon the oath of any one credible witness other than the informer, and shall be paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General to be disposed of as the Governor in Council directs (except in the cases provided for in the next following section,—in which only part of the penalty shall be so paid over and disposed of), and in case of non-payment, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, by warrant under the hand and seal of the convicting judge, magistrate or justices, directed to a constable or other peace officer; and the overplus, if any, after deducting the penalty and costs of suit, together with the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned to the owner: and for want of sufficient distress, the offender shall be committed by warrant, under the hand and seal of the judge, magistrate or justices, to the common gaol of the locality, or if there is no common gaol there, then to that common gaol which is nearest to that locality, for any term not exceeding six months; and such judge, magistrate or justices shall also award and order the imprisonment (if any) to which the offender is liable for the offence whereby the penalty is incurred. 36 V., c. 129, s. 114.

117. In all cases of complaints made by or on behalf of any seaman under this Act, the evidence of such seaman shall be received and taken, notwithstanding that he is interested in the matter; and such seaman shall, in any such case where he has been so examined, receive such part of any penalty imposed as the judge, magistrate or justices before whom the case is heard adjudges him to receive for any moneys or effects which appear to have been deposited by him with any such offender as aforesaid. 36 V., c. 129, s. 115.

118. There shall be no appeal from any conviction or order adjudged or made under this Act, for any offence against this Act; and no conviction under this Act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of Her Majesty's superior courts of record; and no warrant of commitment under this Act shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, if it is therein alleged that the person has been convicted, and there is a good and valid conviction to sustain the same. 36 V., c. 129, s. 116.

119. Any justice of the peace, at any port or place in any of the said Provinces, on complaint before him on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, that any seaman or apprentice in the sea service is concealed or secreted in any dwelling house or out-house, or on board of any ship or elsewhere, shall grant a warrant, under his hand and seal, addressed to a constable or constables there, commanding him or them to make diligent and immediate search, in or about such dwelling house or out-house, or on board such ship, or in such other place or places as are specified in the warrant, and to bring before him every such seaman or apprentice found concealed, whether named in the warrant or not. 36 V., c. 129, s. 117.

120. Any justice of the peace, at any port or place in any of the said Provinces, on information before him, under oath, that any seaman or other person has deserted, or is suspected of having deserted from any of Her Majesty's ships, or from any ship in the merchant service, and is lodged or harbored in any tavern or house of public entertainment, or in any house of ill-fame or in any other house, may issue an order in writing to the master or keeper of such tavern, house of ill-fame or other house, commanding such master or keeper to furnish him with a correct list of every such person, stating his name and surname as far as is known to such master or keeper of such tavern or other house of public entertainment or house of ill-fame, or other person whatsoever, how long he has lodged in the said house, and the name of the ship on board whereof he has declared himself to have arrived at the port or place; and on the refusal or neglect of such master or keeper to comply with such order, within the time specified, or his knowingly delivering a false account of any such person, such master or keeper shall incur a penalty of forty dollars for each such offence. 36 V., c. 129, s. 118.

121. Whenever the person giving such information on oath seeks to obtain such order against any person who is not a master or keeper of such tavern or house of public entertainment or house of ill-fame, such order shall not be given by any justice of the peace unless the person giving the information deposes, on oath, that he verily believes that such person, not so being master or keeper of such tavern or house of entertainment or house of ill-fame, then harbors or conceals such deserter or person suspected of desertion, and also knows that the person who has so deserted, is unlawfully and improperly absenting himself from his duty on board the vessel to which he belongs. 36 V., c. 129, s. 119.

122. Every constable and officer, not being a paid policeman, employed in the execution of any warrant for the apprehension of, or in search of, or for the delivery of any person against whom a warrant is issued by virtue of the foregoing sections of this Act, may demand from the person at whose request such warrant was issued, a reasonable recompense for the time he has been employed, subject to be taxed by the justice of the peace who issued such warrant,—and in cases within the jurisdiction of any court of Vice Admiralty, according to the legal procedure of that court,—and recoverable, on refusal of payment, in a summary way by warrant of distress and sale of such person's goods and chattels; which warrant every such justice of the peace is hereby required to grant, under his hand and seal, on proof of such refusal of payment. 36 V., c. 129, s. 120.

123. In any proceeding before any court under this Act, if an application is made on behalf of the defendant or of the prosecutor, upon sufficient cause, to adjourn the case to a future day, the court, in its discretion, may receive and may cause to be reduced to writing the evidence of such witnesses for the defence or for the prosecution as are then present or can be produced, and may thereupon discharge such witnesses from further attendance, and may continue the case for the completion of the trial thereof to such fur-

[F] REGULATIONS FOR MAINTAINING DISCIPLINE.

(Referred to in the Form of Agreement A.)

All or any of these regulations may be adopted by agreement between a master and his crew, and thereupon the offences specified in such of them as are so adopted will be legally punishable by the appropriate fines or punishments. These regulations are all numbered, and the numbers of such of them as are adopted shall be inserted in the space left for that purpose in the agreement, and a copy of these regulations shall be made to correspond with the agreement by erasing such of the regulations as are not adopted and must then be attached to and kept with the agreement which the master of the ship takes with him. If the agreement is made before a shipping master, his signature shall be placed opposite such of the regulations as are adopted.

For the purpose of legally enforcing any of the following penalties, the same steps shall be adopted as in the case of other offences punishable under the Act,—that is to say, a statement of the offence, shall, immediately after its commission, be entered in the log-book by the direction of the master, and shall, at the same time, be attested to be true by the signatures of the master and the mate or one of the crew; and a copy of such entry shall be furnished, or the same shall be read over, to the offender, before the ship reaches any port or departs from the port at which she is, and an entry that the same has been so furnished or read over, and of the reply, if any, of the offender, shall be made and signed in the same manner as the entry of the offence. These entries shall, upon discharge of the offender, be shown to the shipping master before whom the offender is discharged, or, in the case of a Canadian home-trade ship to some shipping master at or near the place where the crew is discharged; and if he is satisfied that the offence is proved, and that the entries have been properly made, the fine shall be deducted from the offender's wages, and paid over to the shipping master.

If, in consequence of subsequent good conduct, the master thinks fit to remit or reduce any fine upon any member of his crew which has been entered in the log-book, and signifies the same to the shipping master, the fine shall be remitted or reduced accordingly. If wages are contracted for by the voyage or by share, the amount of the fines is to be ascertained in the manner in which the amount of forfeiture is ascertained in similar cases under section 99.

4. The master of every ship subject to the provisions of this Act, shall enter into an agreement with every seaman whom he carries as one of his crew, in the manner herein-
Inland Waters Seamen's Act.

Form of agreement.

after mentioned; and every such agreement shall be in the form of the schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, and shall be dated at the time of the first signature thereof, and shall be signed by the master before any seaman signs the same, and shall contain the following particulars as terms thereof, that is to say:

(a.) The nature and, as far as practicable, the duration of the intended voyage or engagement;

(b.) The number and description of the crew, specifying how many are engaged as sailors;

(c.) The time at which each seaman is to be on board or to begin work;

(d.) The capacity in which each seaman is to serve;

(e.) The amount of wages which each seaman is to receive;

(f.) Any regulations as to conduct on board, and as to fines, or other lawful punishments for misconduct which the parties agree to adopt:

2. Every such agreement shall be so framed as to admit of stipulations, to be adopted at the will of the master and seamen in each case, as to advances, and may contain any other stipulations which are not contrary to law; and every such agreement shall be made and signed in presence of a respectable witness, or a shipping master or chief officer of customs, who shall attest each signature on such agreement:

3. Any seaman who has signed any such agreement may, at the termination of his engagement, if the master thinks fit, be discharged before any shipping master or chief officer of customs in Canada; and at any period during any such engagement, and before its termination, the master may discharge any such seaman on payment of his wages, and with his consent; and any such discharge may be made, if the master thinks fit, before any shipping master or chief officer of customs in Canada. 38 V., c. 29, s. 3.

Duration of agreement.

5. In the case of ships subject to the provisions of this Act making short voyages, running agreements with the crew may be made to extend over two or more voyages, or for a specified time, so that no such agreement shall extend beyond eight months from the date of such agreement, or the first arrival of the ship at her port of destination after the termination of such agreement, or the discharge of cargo consequent upon such arrival; and every person entering into such agreement, whether engaged upon the first commencement thereof, or otherwise, shall enter into and sign the same in the manner hereinbefore required; and every person engaged thereunder when discharged may be discharged in the manner hereinbefore provided for. 38 V., c. 29, s. 4.

Penalty for carrying seamen without agreement.

6. Every master of any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, who carries any seaman as one of his crew without entering into an agreement with him, in the form and manner and at the place and time in such case required, shall, for each such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars. 38 V., c. 29, s. 5.

7. Every erasure, interlineation or alteration in any such agreement with seamen as is required by this Act, except additions made for shipping substitutes or persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship, shall be wholly inoperative, unless proved to have been made with the consent of all the persons interested in such erasure, interlineation or alteration, by the written attestation, if made in Her Majesty's Dominions, of some shipping master, justice of the peace, officer of customs or other public functionary, or, if made out of Her Majesty's Dominions, of a British consular officer, or where there is no such officer, of two respectable witnesses. 38 V., c. 29, s. 6.

8. Every person who fraudulently alters, assists in frauduently altering, or procures to be fraudulently altered, or makes or assists in making or procures to be made, any false entry in, or delivers, assists in delivering, or procures to be delivered a false copy of any agreement under this Act, is guilty of a misdemeanor. 38 V., c. 29, s. 7.

9. Any seaman may bring forward evidence to prove the contents of any agreement under this Act or otherwise to support his case, without producing or giving notice to produce the agreement or any copy thereof. 38 V., c. 29, s. 8.

10. Any seaman who has signed an agreement under this Act, and is afterwards discharged before the commencement of the voyage, or before one month's wages are earned, without fault on his part justifying such discharge and without his consent, shall be entitled to receive from the master or owner, in addition to any wages he has earned, due compensation for the damage thereby caused to him,—not exceeding one month's wages; and may, on adducing such evidence as the court hearing the case deems satisfactory of his having been so improperly discharged, recover such compensation as if it were wages duly earned. 38 V., c. 29, s. 9.

11. Whenever any agreement under this Act is signed before any shipping master or a chief officer of customs as a witness thereto, such officer shall append his title of office to his signature as such witness; and the sum of forty cents shall be payable to every such officer upon each engagement of a seaman before him, and the sum of twenty cents shall be payable to every such officer upon each discharge of a seaman effected before him as hereinbefore mentioned; and any shipping master or chief officer of customs may refuse to sign any such engagement or discharge, as a witness thereto, unless the fee payable thereon is first paid. 38 V., c. 29, s. 10.
12. Whenever the service of any seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, terminates before the period contemplated in the agreement, by reason of the wreck or loss of the ship, and whenever such service terminates before such period as aforesaid, by reason of his being left on shore at any place abroad, under a certificate of his unfitness or inability to proceed on the voyage, granted by competent authority, such seaman shall be entitled to wages for the time of service prior to such termination as aforesaid, but not for any further period. 38 V., c. 29, s. 11.

13. No seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to wages for any period during which he unlawfully refuses or neglects to work when required, whether before or after the time fixed by the agreement for his beginning work, or, unless the court hearing the case otherwise directs, for any period during which he is lawfully imprisoned for any offence committed by him. 38 V., c. 29, s. 12.

14. Whenever a seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, is, by reason of illness, incapable of performing his duty, and it is proved that such illness has been caused by his own wilful act or default, he shall not be entitled to wages for the time during which he is, by reason of such illness, incapable of performing his duty. 38 V., c. 29, s. 13.

15. No seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, who is engaged for a voyage or engagement which is to terminate in Canada, shall be entitled to sue in any court out of Canada for wages, unless he is discharged with the written consent of the master or proves such ill-usage on the part of the master or by his authority, as to warrant reasonable apprehension of danger to the life of such seaman if he remained on board; but if any seaman, on his return to Canada, proves that the master or owner has been guilty of any conduct or default which, but for this section, would have entitled the seaman to sue for wages before the termination of the voyage or engagement, he shall be entitled to recover, in addition to his wages, such compensation, not exceeding eighty dollars, as the court hearing the case thinks reasonable. 38 V., c. 29, s. 14.

16. The master or owner of every ship subject to the provisions of this Act shall, at all times when required so to do by the Minister or by any person in that behalf duly authorized by the Minister, or by any inspector of steamboats or custom house officer or officer of river police, produce and exhibit to the Minister or to such person authorized by him, or to such inspector of steamboats or custom house officer or officer of river police, any agreement then in possession of such master or owner.
force and subsisting between the master of such ship and the seamen whom he carries as his crew; and every such owner or master who fails to comply with the requirements of this section shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars. 38 V., c. 29, s. 15.

DISCIPLINE.

17. Every master of and every seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, who, by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, does any act tending to the immediate loss, destruction or serious damage of such ship, or tending immediately to endanger the life or limb of any person belonging to or on board of such ship, or who, by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, refuses or omits to do any lawful act, proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving such ship from immediate loss, destruction or serious damage, or for preserving any person belonging to or on board of such ship from immediate danger to life or limb, is guilty of a misdemeanor. 38 V., c. 29, s. 16.

18. Whenever any seaman, who has been lawfully engaged or bound to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, and has duly signed an agreement as required by this Act, commits any of the following offences, he shall be liable to be punished summarily as follows, that is to say:—

(a.) For desertion, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve weeks and not less than four weeks, with hard labor, and also to forfeit all or any part of the clothes and effects he leaves on board, and all or any part of the wages or emoluments which he has then earned, and also, if such desertion takes place abroad, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit all or any part of the wages or emoluments earned in any other ship in which he is employed until his next return to Canada, and to satisfy any excess of wages paid by the master or owner of the ship from which he deserts to any substitute engaged in his place at a higher rate of wages than the rate stipulated to be paid to him;

(b.) For neglecting or refusing, without reasonable cause, to join his ship, or to proceed on any voyage in his ship, or for absence without leave at any time within twenty-four hours of the ship’s sailing from any port, either at the commencement or during the progress of any voyage, or for absence at any time without leave and without sufficient reason from his ship or from his duty, not amounting to desertion or not treated as such by the master, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding ten weeks and not less than four weeks, with or without hard labor, and also, in the discretion of the court, to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding the amount of two days’ pay, and in addition, for every twenty-four hours of absence, either a sum not exceeding six days' pay, or any expenses which have been properly incurred in hiring a substitute;

(c.) For quitting the ship without leave after her arrival in her port of delivery, and before she is placed in security, he shall be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding one month's pay;

(d.) For wilful disobedience to any lawful command, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding four weeks and not less than two weeks, with or without hard labor, and also, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding two days' pay;

(e.) For continued wilful disobedience to lawful commands, or continued wilful neglect of duty, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve weeks and not less than four weeks, with or without hard labor, and also, in the discretion of the court, to forfeit, for every twenty-four hours' continuance of such disobedience or neglect, either a sum not exceeding six days' pay, or the amount of any expenses which have been properly incurred in hiring a substitute;

(f.) For assaulting any master or mate, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve weeks and not less than six weeks, with hard labor;

(g.) For combining with any other or others of the crew to disobey lawful commands, or to neglect duty, or to impede the navigation of the ship or the progress of the voyage, he shall be liable to imprisonment, with hard labor, for any term not exceeding twelve weeks and not less than six weeks;

(h.) For wilfully damaging the ship, or embezzling or wilfully damaging any of her stores or cargo, he shall be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum equal in value to the loss thereby sustained, and also, in the discretion of the court, to imprisonment, with hard labor, for any term not exceeding twelve weeks and not less than six weeks;

(i.) For any act of smuggling of which he is convicted, and whereby loss or damage is occasioned to the master or owner, he shall be liable to pay to such master or owner such a sum as is sufficient to reimburse the master or owner for such loss or damage; and the whole or a proportionate part of his wages may be retained in satisfaction or on account of such liability, without prejudice to any further remedy. 38 V., c. 29, s. 17.

19. Whenever, either at the commencement or during the progress of any voyage, any seaman neglects or refuses to proceed in any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, in which he is duly engaged to serve, or is found otherwise absenting himself therefrom without leave, the master or any mate, or the owner, ship's husband or consignee may, in any place in Canada, with or without the assistance of the
and may thereupon in any case, and shall, in case he so requires and it is practicable, convey him before some court capable of taking cognizance of the matter, to be dealt with according to law—and may, for the purpose of conveying him before such court, detain him in custody for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, or such shorter time as is necessary, or may, if he does not so require, or if there is no such court at or near the place, at once convey him on board; and if any such apprehension appears to the court before which the case is brought to have been made on improper or on insufficient grounds, the master, mate, owner, ship's husband or consignee who makes the same or causes the same to be made, shall incur a penalty not exceeding eighty dollars; but such penalty, if inflicted, shall be a bar to any action for false imprisonment in respect of such apprehension. 38 V., c. 29, s. 18.

20. Whenever any seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, is brought before any court in Canada on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or proceed in any ship in which he is engaged to serve, or of having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave, such court may,—if the master or the owner or his agent so requires,—instead of committing the offender to prison, cause him to proceed on board for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or deliver him to the master or any mate of the ship, or the owner or his agent, to be by him so conveyed, and may, in such case, order any costs and expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the master or owner by reason of the offence, to be paid by the offender, and, if necessary, to be deducted from any wages which he has then earned, or which, by virtue of his then existing engagement, he afterwards earns. 38 V., c. 29, s. 19.

21. If any seaman is imprisoned on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or to proceed in any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, in which he is engaged to serve, or of his having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave, or of his having committed any other breach of discipline, and if, during such imprisonment, and before his engagement is at an end, his services are required on board his ship, any justice of the peace may, at the request of the master or of the owner or his agent, cause such seaman to be conveyed on board his said ship for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or to be delivered to the master or any mate of the ship, or to the owner or his agent, to be by him so conveyed, notwithstanding that the termination of the period for which he was sentenced to imprisonment has not arrived. 38 V., c. 29, s. 20.
22. Whenever a question arises whether the wages of any seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, are forfeited for desertion, it shall be sufficient for the person insisting on the forfeiture to show that such seaman was duly engaged in or that he belonged to the ship from which he is alleged to have deserted, and that he quitted such ship before the completion of the voyage or engagement; and thereupon the desertion shall, so far as relates to any forfeiture of wages or emoluments under the provisions hereinbefore contained, be deemed to be proved, unless the seaman can produce a proper certificate of discharge, or can otherwise show, to the satisfaction of the court, that he had sufficient reasons for leaving his ship. 38 V., c. 29, s. 21.

23. Whenever, in any proceeding relating to seamen's wages, it is shown that any seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, has, in the course of the voyage, been convicted of any offence by any competent tribunal, and rightfully punished therefor by imprisonment or otherwise, the court hearing the case may direct a part of the wages due to such seaman, not exceeding twelve dollars, to be applied in reimbursing any costs properly incurred by the master in procuring such conviction or punishment. 38 V., c. 29, s. 22.

24. Whenever any seaman belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, contracts for wages by the voyage, or by the run or by the share, and not by the month or other stated period of time, the amount of forfeiture to be incurred under this Act shall be taken to be an amount bearing the same proportion to the whole wages or share, as a month or other the period hereinbefore mentioned in fixing the amount of such forfeiture, as the case may be, bears to the whole time spent in the voyage; and if the whole time spent in the voyage does not exceed the period for which the pay is to be forfeited, the forfeiture shall extend to the whole wages or share. 38 V., c. 29, s. 23.

25. All clothes, effects, wages and emoluments which, under the provisions hereinbefore contained, are forfeited for desertion, shall be applied, in the first instance, in or towards the reimbursement of the expenses occasioned by such desertion to the master or owner of the ship from which the desertion has taken place; and may, if earned subsequently to the desertion, be recovered by such master, or by the owner or his agent, in the same manner as the deserter might have recovered the same if they had not been forfeited; and in any legal proceeding relating to such wages, the court may order the same to be paid accordingly; and, subject to such reimbursement, the same shall be paid to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada; and in all other cases of forfeiture of wages under the provisions hereinbefore contained, the forfeiture shall, in the absence of any specific directions to the contrary, be for the benefit of the master or owner by whom the wages are payable. 38 V., c. 29, s. 24.

26. Any question concerning the forfeiture of or deductions from the wages of any seaman, belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, may be determined in any proceeding in Canada, lawfully instituted with respect to such wages, notwithstanding that the offence in respect of which such question arises, though hereby made punishable by imprisonment as well as forfeiture, has not been made the subject of any criminal proceeding. 38 V., c. 29, s. 25.

27. If any seaman, on or before being engaged in any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, wilfully and fraudulently makes a false statement of the name of his last ship or last alleged ship, or wilfully and fraudulently makes a false statement of his own name, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars; and such penalty may be deducted from any wages he earns by virtue of such engagement as aforesaid, and shall, subject to reimbursement of the loss and expenses, if any, occasioned by any previous desertion, be paid and applied in the same manner as other penalties payable under this Act. 38 V., c. 29, s. 26.

ENTICING TO DESERT AND HARBORING DESERTERS.

28. Every person who, by any means whatsoever, persuades or attempts to persuade any seaman, belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, to neglect or refuse to join or to desert from his ship, or to absent himself from his duty, shall, for the first offence in respect of each such seaman, be liable to imprisonment, with hard labor, for a term not exceeding six months and not less than one month, and for any subsequent offence, in respect to each such seaman, be liable to imprisonment, with hard labor, for a term not exceeding twelve months and not less than two months: and every person who wilfully harbors or secretes any such seaman who has deserted from his ship, or who has wilfully neglected or refused to join his ship, knowing or having reason to believe such seaman to have so done shall, for every such seaman so harbored or secreted, be liable to imprisonment, with hard labor, for a term not exceeding six months and not less than one month, and for any subsequent offence, for a term not exceeding twelve months and not less than two months. 38 V., c. 29, s. 27.

CHANGE OF MASTER.

29. If, during the progress of a voyage, the master of any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, is superseded in 1097
Inland Waters Seamen's Act.

Canada, or, for any other reason, quits the ship and is succeeded in the command by some other person, he shall deliver to his successor the certificate of registry and the various documents relating to the navigation of the ship and to the crew thereof, which are in his custody, and shall, in default, incur a penalty not exceeding four hundred dollars. 38 V., c. 29, s. 28.

MODE OF RECOVERING WAGES.

30. Any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, or any person duly authorized on his behalf, may sue in a summary manner before any judge of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, judge of the sessions of the peace, judge of a county court, stipendiary magistrate, police magistrate, or any two justices of the peace acting in or near the place at which the service has terminated, or at which the seaman or apprentice has been discharged, or at which any master or owner or other person upon whom the claim is made is or resides, for any amount of wages due to such seaman or apprentice not exceeding two hundred dollars over and above the costs of any proceeding for the recovery thereof, as soon as the same becomes payable; and such judge, magistrate or justices may, upon complaint on oath made to him or them by such seaman or apprentice, or on his behalf, summon such master or owner, or other person to appear before him or them to answer such complaint. 45 V., c. 34, s. 2, part;—36 V., c. 129, s. 52.

31. Upon appearance of such master or owner, or in default thereof, on due proof of his having been so summoned, such judge, magistrate or justices may examine upon the oath of the respective witnesses of the parties, if there are any, or upon the oath of either of the parties, in case one of the parties requires such oath from the other, before such judge, magistrate or justices, touching the complaint and amount of wages due, and may make such order for the payment thereof, as to such judge, magistrate or justices appears reasonable and just; and any order made by such judge, magistrate or justices shall be final. 45 V., c. 34, s. 2, part;—36 V., c. 129, s. 53.

32. If such order is not obeyed within twenty-four hours next after the making thereof, such judge, magistrate or justices may issue a warrant to levy the amount of the wages awarded to be due, by the distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person on whom such order is made,—paying to such person the overplus of the produce of the sale, after deducting therefrom all the charges and expenses incurred by the seaman or apprentice in the making and hearing of the complaint, as well as those incurred by the distress and levy, and in the enforcement of the order. 45 V., c. 34, s. 2, part;—36 V., c. 129, s. 54.
33. If sufficient distress cannot be found, such judge, magistrate or justices may cause the amount of such wages and expenses to be levied on the ship in respect of the service on board which the wages are claimed, or the tackle and apparel thereof; and if such ship is not within the jurisdiction of such judge, magistrate or justices, they may cause the person on whom the order for payment is made to be apprehended and committed to the common gaol of the locality, or if there is no gaol there, then to that which is nearest to the locality, for a term not exceeding three months and not less than one month, under each such condemnation. 45 V., c. 34, s. 2, part;—36 V., c. 129, s. 55.

34. No suit or proceedings for the recovery of wages under the sum of two hundred dollars shall be instituted by or on behalf of any seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship subject to the provisions of this Act, in any court of Vice Admiralty, or in the Maritime Court of Ontario, or in any superior court, unless the owner of the ship is insolvent within the meaning of any Act respecting insolvency, for the time being in force in Canada, or unless the ship is under arrest or is sold by the authority of any such court as aforesaid, or unless any judge, magistrate or justices, acting under the authority of this Act, refer the case to be adjudged by such court, or unless neither the owner nor the master is or resides within twenty miles of the place where the seaman or apprentice is discharged or put ashore. 45 V., c. 34, s. 2, part;—36 V., c. 129, s. 56.

35. If any suit for the recovery of a seaman’s wages is instituted against any such ship, or the master or owner thereof, in any court of Vice Admiralty, or in the Maritime Court of Ontario, or in any superior court in Canada, and it appears to the court, in the course of such suit, that the plaintiff might have had as effectual a remedy for the recovery of his wages by complaint to a judge, magistrate or two justices of the peace under this Act, then the judge shall certify to that effect, and thereupon no costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff. 45 V., c. 34, s. 2, part;—36 V., c. 129, s. 57.

LEGAL PROCEDURE.

36. The time for instituting summary proceedings under this Act, shall be limited as follows, that is to say:

(a.) No conviction for any offence shall be made in any summary proceeding under this Act, unless such proceeding is commenced within six months after the commission of the offence, or—if both or either of the parties to such proceeding happen, during such time, to be out of Canada, or not to be within the jurisdiction of any court capable of dealing with the case—unless the same is commenced within two months after they both first happen to arrive or to be at one time within Canada, or within such jurisdiction;
(b.) No order for the payment of money shall be made in any summary proceeding under this Act, unless such proceeding is commenced within six months after the cause of complaint arises, or—if both or either of the parties happen, during such time, to be out of Canada—unless the same is commenced within six months after they both first happen to arrive or to be at one time within Canada. 38 V., c. 29, s. 29.

37. Any judge of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, judge of the sessions of the peace, judge of a county court, police magistrate, stipendiary magistrate or any two justices of the peace, shall have authority and jurisdiction to try and determine in a summary way all offences punishable under this Act, whether by fine, penalty or imprisonment, or by both fine and imprisonment, or by penalty and imprisonment.

38. The provisions of the Act intituled "An Act respecting summary proceedings before justices of the peace," shall apply to and govern proceedings against any person for any offence against this Act, and a judge of the Superior Court, a judge of the sessions of the peace, a judge of a county court, a police magistrate or stipendiary magistrate, before whom any proceedings under this Act are taken, shall, for the purposes of the said proceedings, have all the powers of two justices of the peace.

39. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered, with costs, upon the oath of one credible witness other than the informer, and shall be paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to be disposed of as the Governor in Council directs, and in case of non-payment, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, by warrant under the hand and seal of the convicting judge, magistrate or justices of the peace, directed to a constable or other peace officer; and the overplus, if any, after deducting the penalty and costs of suit, together with the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned to the owner; and for want of sufficient distress, the offender shall be committed, by warrant under the hand and seal of the judge, magistrate or justices, to the common gaol of the locality, or if there is no common gaol there, then to that common gaol which is nearest to that locality, for any term not exceeding six months; and such judge, magistrate or justices shall also award and order the imprisonment, if any, to which the offender is liable for the offence whereby the penalty is incurred. 38 V., c. 29, s. 30.

40. In all cases of complaints made by or on behalf of any seaman under this Act, the evidence of such seaman shall be received and taken, notwithstanding that he is interested in the matter. 38 V., c. 29, s. 31, part.
41. There shall be no appeal from any conviction or order adjudged or made under this Act, by or before any judge of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, judge of the county court, judge of the sessions of the peace, police magistrate, stipendiary magistrate or any two justices of the peace, for any offence against this Act; and no conviction under this Act shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari.

42. Any justice of the peace, at any port or place in Canada, on complaint before him on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, that any seaman under this Act is concealed or secreted in any dwelling house or outhouse, or on board of any ship or elsewhere, shall grant a warrant under his hand and seal, addressed to a constable or constables there, commanding him or them to make diligent and immediate search, in or about such dwelling house or out-house, or on board such ship, or such other place or places as are specified in the warrant, and to bring before him every such seaman found concealed, whether named in the warrant or not. 38 V., c. 29, s. 32.

43. Any police officer or constable required under the provisions of this Act to give assistance to the master or any mate, or the owner, ship's husband or consignee of any ship in apprehending, with or without a warrant, any seaman duly engaged to serve in such ship, and neglecting or refusing to proceed to sea therein, or being found otherwise absenting himself therefrom without leave, may, at any time, enter into any tavern, inn, ale house, beer house, seamen's boarding house, or other house or place of entertainment, or into any shop or other place wherein liquors or refreshments are sold or reputed to be sold, whether legally or illegally, or into any house of ill fame; and any person being therein, or having charge thereof, who refuses, or after due demand fails to admit such police officer or constable into the same, or offers any obstruction to his admission thereto, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars and not less than ten dollars. 38 V., c. 29, s. 34.

CHAPTER 76.

An Act respecting sick and distressed Mariners. A. D. 1896.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a.) The expression "sick mariner" includes any master, mate, engineer, seaman, sailor, steward, fireman or other person employed on board of any vessel on which duty has been paid under this Act, who, from sickness, accident or any other cause, is in need of medical or surgical assistance and treatment;

(b.) The expression "vessel" means any vessel used in navigation, not propelled by oars;

(c.) The expression "year," when used in this Act in relation to the duty thereby imposed, means the calendar year commencing on the first day of January and ending on the thirty-first day of December. 31 V., c. 64, ss. 1 and 2;—38 V., c. 31, s. 2.

2. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, designate and appoint any hospital in Canada receiving aid from the public funds of Canada, but not longer than such hospital continues to receive such aid, to be, during pleasure, an hospital for the reception, care and medical or surgical treatment, or both, of sick mariners, under this Act. 31 V., c. 64, s. 3, part.

3. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, with the consent of the governors, trustees, directors or other persons having the control and management of any hospital not receiving aid from the public funds of Canada, designate and appoint such hospital to be, during pleasure, an hospital for the reception, care and medical or surgical treatment, or both, of sick mariners under this Act. 31 V., c. 64, s. 3, part.

4. There shall be levied and collected on every vessel arriving in any port in the Provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island or British Columbia, a rate or duty of two cents for every ton which such vessel.
Sick and Distressed Mariners.

measures, registered tonnage, which shall be paid by the master or person in command of such vessel or by some person on his behalf, to the collector or other chief officer of the customs at the port at which such vessel is entered, and at the time of making such entry, which shall contain on the face of it the tonnage of such vessel; and no entry shall be validly made, or have any legal effect whatsoever, unless the rate or duty is so paid, save and except as hereinafter mentioned; and no collector or other chief officer of the customs shall grant a clearance to any vessel on which such rate or duty or any part thereof is due and unpaid; and the moneys so received shall be paid by such collector or chief officer to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall form a fund to be called and known as "The Sick Mariners' Fund," for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, and no other: 31 V., c. 64, s. 4, part;—37 V., c. 27, part.

2. Vessels of the burthen of one hundred tons or less, shall be liable to the payment of the said duty once in each year, but not oftener: 31 V., c. 64, s. 4, part.

3. Vessels of the burthen of more than one hundred tons register, shall be liable to the payment of the said duty three times in one year, but not oftener: 38 V., c. 31, s. 1.

4. No vessel arriving at any port in any one of the Provinces of Canada from any port not within the same Province, except in the case of a vessel arriving at a port in Quebec from a port in Ontario, shall be exempt from the payment of the said duty unless it has been paid at some other port on the same voyage, by reason merely of her voyage being one not requiring entry or clearance at the custom house; and if she does not require entry the duty shall be paid immediately on her arrival: 33 V., c. 19, s. 1, part.

5. No vessel engaged in the coasting trade of Canada, and arriving at any port in any of the said Provinces, from any other port in the same Province, or arriving at any port in the Province of Quebec from any port in the Province of Ontario, shall be subject to the payment of the said duty: Provided always, that no vessel arriving at any port in Canada from any place out of Canada, and afterwards continuing her voyage to another port in Canada, shall be exempt from the payment of the said duty at the last mentioned port, unless she has paid it at the first mentioned or some other port on the same voyage: 33 V., c. 19, s. 1, part.

6. The master or person in charge of any fishing vessel registered in Canada may pay in any year such rate or duty in respect to such vessel before leaving on a fishing voyage at its first port of outfit in respect to such voyage:

(a.) If such vessel is of the burthen of one hundred tons registered tonnage or less, such payment shall entitle the master or person in charge of such vessel and the mariners employed thereon, if they are sick, to the rights and benefits conferred by the two sections next following, during such year, in any port where there is a collector of customs;
Sick and Distressed Mariners.

(b.) If such vessel is of the burthen of more than one hundred tons registered tonnage, such payment shall entitle to the said rights and benefits only the master and mariners employed upon the voyage in respect to which such payment has been made; but the payment of the said rate or duty three times in any calendar year in respect to such vessel, shall entitle the master and mariners thereof to the said rights and benefits during the remainder of such year in any such port: 47 V., c. 21, s. 1.

7. Every collector or other chief officer of the customs shall transmit quarterly, on the thirtieth day of September, the thirty-first day of December, the thirty-first day of March and the thirtieth day of June in each year, to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, accounts of the sums received by him and paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General under this Act. 31 V., c. 64, s. 5, part.

5. The master or person in command of any vessel paying such rate or duty, may send to the marine hospital at Quebec, or to the marine or seamen’s hospital at or for any other port in any of the Provinces aforesaid, or to any hospital so designated and appointed as aforesaid, at any hour of the day (and in case of accident or emergency, at any hour of the night), any sick mariner belonging to his vessel; and such sick mariner, so sent with a written recommendation from such master or person in command of such vessel, indorsed as “approved” by the collector of the customs at the port, or other officer appointed for the purpose by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, shall be gratuitously received into such hospital, and receive therein such medical and surgical attendance and such other treatment as the case requires, so long as the same is required. 31 V., c. 64, s. 5.

6. At any port at which such rate or duty as aforesaid is received, and at or for which there is no marine or seamen’s hospital, or other hospital so designated and appointed as aforesaid, the collector or other chief officer of the customs upon being required so to do at any hour of the day (and in case of accident or emergency, at any hour of the night), by the master or person in command of any vessel paying such rate or duty at such port, shall make without delay the best provision in his power for the medical or surgical assistance, or both, and treatment of every sick mariner belonging to such vessel, at the nearest public hospital if there is one at a safe and convenient distance, and if not, then at some public or private house. 31 V., c. 64, s. 7.

7. The two sections next preceding shall not apply to sick mariners belonging to vessels exempted from or not paying the duties mentioned in this Act, and no mariner belonging to any such vessel shall be gratuitously received and treated in any hospital designated and appointed for such mariners' vessels.

 provision be made by any collector or other chief officer of customs for their medical or surgical care or treatment in any other hospital or house, out of any money collected under this Act, unless by the special authority of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. 33 V., c. 19, s. 2.

8. The Governor in Council may, by warrant under his hand, pay, from time to time, for the purposes of this Act, and out of any moneys paid under it into the hands of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, to the managers or directors of the marine hospital at Quebec, and to the mangagers or directors of any hospital designated and appointed as hereinbefore provided, for the reception, care and medical or surgical treatment, or both, of sick mariners under this Act, but not exclusively devoted to that purpose, such sum or sums as he deems a reasonable compensation for the care and treatment of the sick mariners sent to such hospital.
31 V., c. 64, s. 6.

9. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, for the purposes of the sixth section hereof and out of any moneys paid under this Act into the hands of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, pay to the collector or chief officer of the customs at any such port as is described in the said section, such sum or sums of money as such collector or other chief officer of the customs, from time to time, proves to his satisfaction that he has lawfully and in good faith expended or become liable for, under and in pursuance and for the purposes of the said section. 31 V., c. 64, s. 8.

10. The Governor in Council may, whenever he deems it necessary, appropriate from the fund arising from the duties imposed under this Act, such sums as he deems requisite towards the temporary relief, in such manner as he deems advisable, of shipwrecked, destitute or otherwise distressed seamen not entitled to relief under any of the provisions of the reception, care and treatment of sick mariners. 31 V.,

c. 64, s. 9, part.

12. All expenses incurred in any one of the Provinces aforesaid, for the care and medical and surgical treatment of sick mariners, including the cost of the maintenance and support of marine and seamen's hospitals, devoted exclusively to such purposes, shall be defrayed out of "the Sick Mariners' Fund;" and the Governor in Council shall appoint.
the superintendents and other officers of such hospitals, who shall receive such salaries or remuneration as the Governor in Council, from time to time, directs. 31 V., c.64, s.10.

13. Every person intrusted with the expenditure of any portion of the moneys hereby appropriated shall make up detailed accounts of such expenditure, showing the sum advanced to the accountant, the sum actually expended, the balance, if any, remaining in his hands, and the amount of the moneys hereby appropriated to the purpose for which such advance has been made, remaining unexpended in the hands of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General; and every such account shall be supported by vouchers, therein distinctly referred to by numbers corresponding to the numbering of the items in such account, and shall be made up to and closed on the thirtieth day of September, the thirty-first day of December, the thirty-first day of March and the thirtieth day of June in each year during which such expenditure is made, and shall be attested before a judge of a superior court or a justice of the peace, and shall be transmitted to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries within ten days next after the expiration of the said periods respectively. 31 V., c.64, s.11.

14. Subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, the Minister of Marine and Fisheries shall have the management of all marine and seamen's hospitals and pest houses for the use of sick mariners, and may renew leases of lands on which any such hospitals or pest houses are erected, and may make all necessary contracts for repairing and maintaining the same, and for the cure, care, attendance and support of the patients therein, and may also make such regulations as he deems advisable for the government of the same, for regulating the visiting of seamen ill of any infectious diseases, and for their removal to any pest house or other building; and until proper buildings are erected at the several ports, the said Minister may hire and make use of any building which is convenient for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them. 31 V., c.64, s.13.

15. All marine and seamen's hospitals, devoted exclusively to the reception, care and treatment of sick mariners shall be vested in Her Majesty, and under the exclusive control and management of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. 31 V., c.64, s.14.

16. The Minister of Marine and Fisheries shall make an annual report and statement to the Governor General of the receipts and expenditures under this Act, to be laid before Parliament within the first fifteen days of the next session thereof. 31 V., c.64, s.12.
CHAPTER 77.

An Act respecting the Safety of Ships and the Prevention of Accidents on board thereof.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
   (a.) The expression "the Minister," means the Minister of Marine and Fisheries;
   (b.) The expression "ship" includes every description of vessel used in navigation not propelled by oars;
   (c.) The expression "ships belonging to Her Majesty," includes ships the cost of which has been defrayed out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada, and ships described as the property of Canada by the one hundred and eighth section of "The British North America Act, 1867;"
   (d.) The expression "master" includes every person who has command or charge of any ship.

2. Nothing in this Act shall apply to ships belonging to Her Majesty.

UNSEAWORTHY SHIPS.

3. If complaint is made to the Minister that any ship registered in Canada is, by reason of the defective condition of her hull or equipments, or by reason of her being overloaded or improperly loaded, unfit to proceed to sea, or on any voyage on any waters within the limits of Canada, the Minister may cause such ship to be surveyed by a person appointed by him,—first exacting from the complainant, if he thinks fit so to do, a deposit of money to defray the expenses of the survey, and to pay any loss which may be sustained by the owner on account of any detention, or such security for the payment of such expenses and loss as he deems sufficient; and if such person reports that the hull or equipments of such ship is or are in such a state, or that such ship is so loaded that she could not proceed to sea or on any such voyage, as the case may be, without serious danger to human life, the Minister may declare such ship to be unseaworthy, and thereupon any principal officer of customs may detain such ship.
2. Every such complaint shall be in writing, and shall state the name and address of the complainant; and a copy of the complaint, including the name and address of the complainant, shall, before or during such survey, be given by the Minister to the master or to the owner or one of the owners of the ship:

3. If, upon such survey, such ship is found to be seaworthy, the expenses of the survey shall be paid to the Minister by the person making the complaint, without prejudice to any right of suit or action against him by any person aggrieved by the complaint:

4. If, upon such survey, such ship is found to be unseaworthy, the expenses of the survey shall be paid to the Minister by the owner of the ship. 36 V., c. 128, s. 26.

4. Any shipowner who is dissatisfied with the decision of any person appointed by the Minister under the next preceding section may appeal to the court of Vice Admiralty having jurisdiction in the place where such ship was surveyed, if there is any, and if there is not then to the court of Vice Admiralty holding its sittings nearest to the place where such ship was surveyed, or if in Ontario, to the Maritime Court of Ontario, and such courts respectively may, if they think fit, appoint a competent person or competent persons to survey such ship anew:

2. Upon any such appeal such court may make such order as to the detention or discharge of the ship, as to the payment (whether by the Crown or otherwise) of any costs or damages occasioned by her detention, and as to the payment of the expenses of the original survey, and of the survey anew, as to such court seems just. 36 V., c. 128, s. 27.

5. Any person so appointed either by the Minister or by any court of Vice Admiralty, or by the Maritime Court of Ontario, to survey a ship, may, in the execution of his duty, go on board such ship at all reasonable times and inspect the same or any part thereof, or any of the equipments, cargo or articles on board thereof, or the certificate of registry thereof, not unnecessarily detaining or delaying the ship in proceeding on her voyage; and if such person considers it necessary so to do, he may require the ship to be so dealt with that he may be able to inspect every part of the hull thereof; and every person who hinders any person so appointed from going on board any ship, or otherwise impedes him in the execution of his duty under this Act, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars. 36 V., c. 128, s. 28.

6. Every person who, having authority as owner or otherwise to send a ship registered in Canada to sea, or on any voyage on any waters within the limits of Canada, from any port or place in Canada, sends her to sea or on any such voyage from any such port or place in an unseaworthy state, so as to endanger the life of any person belonging to her on board the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor, unless he proves that he used all reasonable means to make and keep the ship seaworthy, and was ignorant of such unseaworthiness, or that her going to sea or on such voyage in an unseaworthy state was, under the circumstances, reasonable and unavoidable; and for this purpose he may give evidence in the same manner as any other witness. 36 V., c. 128, s. 29, part.

DECK LOADS.

7. No master of any ship, when sailing after the first day of October or before the sixteenth day of March in any year, on a voyage from any port in Canada to any port in Europe, and during the voyage while within Canadian jurisdiction, shall place, or cause or permit to be placed or to remain upon or above any part of the upper deck of such ship, not included within the limits of any break or poop, or any other permanently closed in space thereon and available for cargo, the tonnage of which forms part of the registered tonnage of such ship,—

(a.) Any square, round, waney or other timber;
(b.) Any more than five spare spars, or store spars made, dressed and finally prepared for use, or not so dressed and prepared;
(c.) Any cargo of any other description, except live stock, to any height exceeding three feet above the deck:

Provided always, that if the master of any such ship considers that it is necessary, in consequence of the springing of a leak, or of other damage received or apprehended during the voyage, he may remove and place upon any part of the upper deck not included within the limits of any break or poop or any other permanently closed in space thereon and available for cargo, the tonnage of which forms part of the registered tonnage of such ship, any other or greater portion of such cargo than is hereby permitted to be placed upon such part of the upper deck of such ship, and permit the same to remain there for such time as he considers expedient: 36 V., c. 56, ss. 2 and 4, part;—41 V., c. 12, s. 1.

2. Before any officer of the customs permits any ship, subject to the provisions of the next preceding sub-section, to clear out from any port in Canada, he shall ascertain that there is not piled, or stored or placed upon any part of the upper deck of such ship, not included within the limits of any break or poop, or any other permanently closed in space thereon, available for cargo, and the tonnage of which forms part of the registered tonnage of such ship,—

(a.) Any square, round, waney or other timber;
(b.) Any more than five spare spars, or store spars, as hereinbefore mentioned;
(c.) Any cargo of any other description, except live stock, to any height exceeding three feet above the deck;
And he shall give the master of such ship a certificate to that effect; and no master of any ship shall sail in such ship when subject to the provisions of the next preceding sub-section from any port in Canada until he has obtained such certificate: 36 V., c. 56, ss. 5 and 7.

3. No master of any ship, when sailing after the fifteenth day of November or before the sixteenth day of March in any year, on a voyage from any port in Canada to any port in the West Indies, and during the voyage while within Canadian jurisdiction, shall, if she is a single decked vessel, place or cause or permit any cargo whatever to be placed or remain upon or above the deck to a height exceeding by more than six inches that of the main rail, or in any case greater than four feet six inches above the deck,—nor if she has a spar deck, shall he place or cause or permit to be placed or remain, any cargo on or above any part of such spar deck; but this provision shall not prevent such master from carrying two spare spars or store spars, made, dressed and finally prepared for use, on the deck or on the spar deck of such ship: Provided always, that if the master of any such ship considers that it is necessary in consequence of the springing of a leak or of other damage received or apprehended during the voyage, he may remove and place upon the upper deck or on the deck or spar deck of such ship, any part of the cargo, and permit the same to remain there for such time as he considers expedient: 36 V., c. 56, ss. 3 and 4, part.

4. Before any officer of the customs permits any ship subject to the provisions of the next preceding sub-section, to clear out from any port in Canada, he shall ascertain that no provision of the said sub-section is violated in respect of such ship and the cargo thereof, and shall give the master of such ship a certificate to that effect; and no master of any ship shall sail in such ship, when subject to the provisions of such sub-section, from any port in Canada, until he has obtained such certificate: 36 V., c. 56, ss. 6 and 7.

5. Nothing in this section contained shall apply to any vessel sailing from British Columbia. 36 V., c. 56, s. 13.

8. Every master of a ship subject to the provisions of the next preceding section, who violates any of the provisions of the said section, shall, for each such violation, incur a penalty not exceeding, except as hereinafter provided, eight hundred dollars; and every master of a ship who, with intent to evade any of the provisions of the said section, sails in such ship after the first day of October or before the sixteenth day of March in any year, from any port in Canada to any port in Europe, without the certificate therein mentioned, and with any cargo on any part of the upper deck of such ship, not included within the limits of any break or poop, or any other closed in space thereon available for cargo, and the tonnage of which forms part of the registered tonnage of such ship,—or who sails in such ship, after the fifteenth day of November or before the sixteenth day of March in any year, from any port in Canada to any port in the West Indies with any cargo upon the dock, or on the spar deck of such ship, as the case may be, which would prevent his rightfully obtaining such certificate, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding eight hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years and not less than three months, or to both. 36 V., c. 56, ss. 8, 9 and 10.

9. Every ship in respect of which any of the penalties mentioned in the next preceding section is incurred, may be seized and detained by order of the court by or before which such penalty is imposed or recovered until such penalty is paid, or security given for the payment thereof; and unless payment is made or satisfactory security is given within thirty days, such ship may, at the expiration thereof, be sold by order of the court, and the said penalty and all the costs paid out of the proceeds; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid over to the owner of the ship. 36 V., c. 56, s. 11.

DISORDERLY PASSENGERS.

10. If any of the following offences are committed on board any vessel registered in Canada, propelled wholly or in part by steam, and carrying passengers to or from any place or places in Canada to or from any place or places out of Canada, not being in the United Kingdom, or between any places in Canada (which vessels alone are in the following sections of this Act included in the expression "steamers"), that is to say:—

(a.) If any person being drunk or disorderly has been on that account refused admission into a steamer by the owner or any person in his employment, and nevertheless persists in attempting to enter the steamer;

(b.) If any person being drunk or disorderly on board a steamer is requested by the owner or any person in his employment to leave the same at any place in Canada, being a reasonably convenient place to leave the same, and does not comply with such request;

(c.) If any person on board a steamer, after warning by the master or other officer of the steamer, molests or continues to molest any passenger;

(d.) If any person, after having been refused admission into a steamer by the owner or any person in his employment on account of the steamer being full, and having had the amount of his fare, if he has paid it, returned or tendered to him, nevertheless persists in attempting to enter the steamer;

(e.) If any person on board a steamer, without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him), fails, when requested by the master or other officer thereof, either to pay his fare or exhibit such ticket or other receipt, if any, showing the payment of his fare, as is usually given to persons travelling by and paying their fare on steamers.—

The person so offending shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding ten dollars; but this liability shall not prejudice the recovery of any amount payable by him as fare. 36 V., c. 57, s. 2.

Injuring or obstructing the steamer.

11. Every person on board a steamer, who without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him), does or causes to be done, anything in such manner as to obstruct or injure any part of the machinery or tackle of the steamer, or to obstruct, impede or molest the crew, or any of them, in the navigation or management of her, or otherwise in the execution of their duty on or about the steamer, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars. 36 V., c. 57, s. 3.

Master of a steamer may detain offender.

12. The master or other officer of any steamer, and all persons called by him to his assistance, may detain any offender against any of the provisions of the two sections next preceding, whose name and address are unknown to such master or officer, and may convey such offender with all convenient despatch before some justice or justices of the peace; and any offender so conveyed before such justice or justices under this section, shall be dealt with as if arrested, and brought before them on his or their warrant, under the “Act respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace.” 36 V., c. 57, ss. 4 and 5, part.

Arrest by master valid.

Disorderly persons on board steamers; how to be treated.

13. The master or officer in command of any steamer may refuse to receive on board thereof any person who is drunk or disorderly, or who causes, or is in a condition to cause, annoyance or injury to passengers on board; or if any such person is on board, the master or officer may put him on shore at any convenient place. 36 V., c. 57, s. 1.

DANGEROUS GOODS.

Sending dangerous goods in ships, unmarked.

14. Every person who sends or attempts to send by, or not being the master or owner of the ship, carries or attempts to carry in any ship registered in Canada, from any port or place in Canada, any dangerous goods, that is to say, aquafortis, oil of vitriol, gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, naphtha, benzine, lucifer matches or any other goods of a dangerous nature, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, and giving written notice of the nature of such goods, and of the name and address of the sender thereof, to the master or owner of the ship, at or before the time of sending the same to be shipped or taking the same on board the ship, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars. 38 V., c. 8, s. 6, part.

15. If such person shows that he was merely an agent in the shipment of any such goods as aforesaid, and was not aware, and did not suspect, and had no reason to suspect that the goods shipped by him were of a dangerous nature, the penalty to which he is liable shall not exceed forty dollars. 36 V., c. 8, s. 6, part.

16. Every person who knowingly sends, or attempts to send by, or carries or attempts to carry in any ship registered in Canada, from any port or place in Canada, any dangerous goods, or goods of a dangerous nature, under a false description, or falsely describes the sender or carrier thereof, shall incur a penalty not exceeding two thousand dollars. 36 V., Penalty.

17. The master or owner of any ship registered in Canada may refuse to take on board any package or parcel which he suspects to contain goods of a dangerous nature, and may require it to be opened to ascertain the fact. 36 V., c. 8, s. 8.

18. When any dangerous goods, as defined in this Act, or any goods which, in the judgment of the master or owner, are of a dangerous nature, are sent on board any ship registered in Canada, within the limits of Canada, without being marked, as aforesaid, or without such notice having been given, as aforesaid, the master or owner of such ship may cause such goods to be thrown overboard; and neither the master nor the owner of the ship shall, in respect of such throwing overboard, be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, in any court in Canada. 36 V., c. 8, s. 9.

19. When any dangerous goods are sent or attempted to be sent, or carried or attempted to be carried, on board any ship registered in Canada, from any port or place in Canada, without being marked as aforesaid, or without such notice having been given as aforesaid, and when any such goods are sent or attempted to be sent under a false description, or the sender or carrier thereof is falsely described, any court of record, on application by or on behalf of the owner, charterer or master of the ship, may declare such goods forfeited, and when forfeited they shall be disposed of as the court directs. 36 V., c. 8, s. 10.

PENALTIES.

20. Every penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered or enforced with costs before any two justices of the peace or any magistrate having the powers of two justices of the peace, under the “Act respecting summary proceedings before Justices of the Peace,” if such penalty does not exceed one hundred dollars, and if it exceeds one hundred dollars, before any court of competent jurisdiction:

2. Any justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction under the tenth and eleventh sections of this Act, either in the place where the offence was committed, or, if committed while the steamer is under way, then in the place where it next stops. 36 V., c. 57, s. 5, part.

21. The whole of every pecuniary penalty recovered under this Act shall belong to Her Majesty, and shall be paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General by the officer or person receiving the same, and shall be thereafter appropriated in such manner as the Governor in Council directs in each case. 36 V., c. 56, s. 12, and c. 57, s. 5, part.

22. So much of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and of any other Act amending the said Act and forming part of the same, as is inconsistent with this Act, is hereby repealed so far as relates to ships registered in Canada. 36 V., c. 8, s. 3;—36 V., c. 128, s. 2.

EXTENT AND APPLICATION OF ACT.

3. This Act shall not apply to steam-boats belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, or to steam-boats registered in Great Britain and Ireland or in any foreign country, and plying between any port or place in Canada and any port or place out of Canada. 45 V., c. 85, s. 4, part.

4. All steam yachts, used exclusively for pleasure or private use without hire or remuneration of any kind, all tug boats, all freight boats under one hundred and fifty tons gross, and all steam-boats used only for fishing purposes or the carrying of fish, and under one hundred and fifty tons gross, and steam dredges and elevators or vessels of like kind, shall be exempt from the requirements of this Act, except as regards the inspection of their boilers and machinery, to which they shall be subject at least once in each year, and oftener if required, under the same provisions and penalties for neglect as other steam-boats, and except also as to the obligation to carry one life-buoy hereinafter imposed on all steam-boats. 45 V., c. 35, s. 4, part.

5. The Governor in Council may direct that any steam-boat not registered in Canada, but employed in Canada in carrying mails, passengers or troops, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act. 45 V., c. 35, s. 5.

APPOINTMENT AND QUALIFICATION OF INSPECTORS.

6. The Governor in Council shall, from time to time, appoint at each of such places and to act respectively within such local limits as he deems advisable, in Canada, a skilled person or persons competent to inspect the boilers and machinery employed in steam-boats, who shall not be interested in the manufacture of steam engines, boilers or other machinery belonging to steam-boats, and whose duty it shall be to make such inspection as hereinafter prescribed, and to give to the owner or master two of the triplicate certificates of such inspection,—and also a skilled person or persons competent to inspect the hulls and equipment of steam-boats, who shall not be interested in the building or construction of hulls of steam-boats, or of any article or thing hereinafter mentioned as part of the equipment required by this Act for steam-boats, or properly belonging to or connected with such equipment according to the intent of this Act, and whose duty it shall be to make such inspection, and to give triplicate certificates of such inspection. 45 V., c. 35, s. 6.

7. No person shall be appointed an inspector of boilers and machinery of steam-boats unless he has passed a satisfactory examination before the board of steam-boat inspection, as to his knowledge on the subject of boilers and machinery of steam-boats, and the working of the same; and no person shall be appointed an inspector of the hulls and equipment of such vessels, unless he has passed a satisfactory examination as to his competency for the office, before a board of three practical shipbuilders appointed by the Governor in Council, or unless he is a certified surveyor of a recognized society for the classification of shipping; and no one shall be appointed an inspector for either purpose unless he has received from the chairman of the board, or from such practical shipbuilders (as the case may be) a certificate in writing that he has satisfactorily passed such examination, or unless he is a certified surveyor as aforesaid:

2. Every such inspector, before entering upon his duties as such, shall take and subscribe an oath, before a judge of a court of record, well, faithfully and impartially to execute the duties assigned to him by this Act, in the form or to the effect following:

I, A.B., do solemnly swear that I will well, faithfully and impartially, to the best of my judgment, skill and understanding, execute the duties assigned to the office of inspector of boilers and machinery (or hulls and equipment, as the case may be) of steam-boats under "The Steam-boat Inspection Act." So help me God:

3. The oath taken by every inspector shall be forwarded forthwith by such judge to the Department of Marine. 45 V., c. 35, s. 7, part.

BOARD OF STEAM-BOAT INSPECTION.

8. The inspectors shall form a board, to be called the "Board of Steam-boat Inspection," of which board the Governor in Council shall name the chairman; three of the members shall form a quorum, and the chairman shall have the right to vote; and in the case of an equal division he shall also have a casting vote:

2. The minutes of the proceedings of the board shall be kept by such chairman,—and a copy thereof, certified by him, Steamboat Inspection Act.

shall be transmitted to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries:

3. The board shall meet at least once every year, at such place as they agree upon, and may make rules and regulations for their own conduct, and for the uniform inspection of steam-boats, the selection of ports of inspection, and for prescribing the duties of engineers, and for such other purposes as are necessary under this Act; and such rules and regulations shall not come into force until after they are approved by the Governor in Council:

4. In the Provinces of Manitoba and British Columbia, and in the North-West Territories and the District of Keewatin, the Minister of Marine and Fisheries may, when he sees fit, dispense with the appointment of an inspector of hulls and equipment; and in such case and in case of the non-appointment of such inspector in any inspection district, or of vacancy in the office therein, the said Minister may assign the duties of such inspector to the inspector of boilers and machinery, or such other person as he temporarily employs—who shall then and so long as such order remains in force, have all the powers and perform all the duties hereby assigned to the inspector of hulls and equipment, under the like obligations and like penalties in case of default,—the forms of certificate being altered to suit the case. 45 V., c. 35, s. 8;—49 V., c. 34, s. part.

INSPECTION.

9. The chairman of the board of steam-boat inspection, who shall also be the supervising inspector, may at any time inspect or examine the hull, equipment, boiler and machinery of any steam-boat, and if he suspects any inspector of having neglected his duty in relation to such steam-boat, or in any other respect, he may call a meeting of the board to investigate the case, or may himself investigate it; and the result of such investigation shall be forthwith communicated, in writing, to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries; he shall receive and examine all reports and accounts of inspectors, and report fully to the Minister upon all matters pertaining to his official duties, so as to ensure, as far as possible, a uniform and efficient administration of the inspection laws, rules and regulations. 45 V., c. 35, s. 9;—49 V., c. 4, s. 5.

10. The master or owner of every steam-boat liable to inspection under this Act, shall cause the boiler and machinery and the hull and equipment thereof, to be inspected at least once every year, and shall deliver to the chief officer of customs at the port where such inspection is made, or at which such steam-boat arrives next after such inspection, when it has not been made in such port, one of the certificates thereof; and for every neglect to cause such inspection to be made, and a certificate thereof to be delivered to the proper officer of customs, such master or owner shall incur a penalty of four hundred dollars, and such steam-boat shall be liable for the same and chargeable therewith:

2. Every such certificate, unless sooner revoked, shall be good for a period of twelve months from the date thereof, or for such less period as is stated by the inspector in the certificate. 45 V., c. 35, s. 10.

11. The master, owner or engineer of every steam-boat, or the person in charge thereof, shall, at the earliest opportunity after the occurrence of any event whereby the hull, or the machinery or boiler thereof, or any part of any or either of the same is, in any material degree, injured, strained or weakened, report such occurrence to the inspector by whom the same was last inspected, or to the proper inspector at the port or place where the steam-boat is, or first arrives after such event occurs; and in case of omission to give such notice, the owner of the steam-boat shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars for every day during which such omission continues; and if the injury is in respect to the machinery or boiler or any part of the same, the license of the engineer shall be revoked. 45 V., c. 35, s. 11.

12. Every inspector may, at all times when inspecting, visiting or examining any boilers and machinery or the hull of any steam-boat, ask of any or all of the owners, officers or engineers of such steam-boat, or other person on board thereof and in charge or appearing to be in charge of such steam-boat, or of the boiler or machinery thereof, such pertinent questions concerning the same, or concerning any accident that has happened thereto, as he thinks fit; and every such person shall fully and truly answer every such question so put to him; and every person who refuses to answer or falsely answers such question, or who prevents any such inspection or obstructs any inspector in making such inspection, shall incur a penalty of forty dollars. 45 V., c. 35, s. 12.

13. Every inspector of steam-boats may demand of the owner or master of any steam-boat which he is inspecting the production of the certificate of registry of such steam-boat, and such owner or master shall thereupon produce and exhibit the same to such inspector. 45 V., c. 35, s. 13.

14. When the inspector finds it necessary to open up the hull of a vessel for the purpose of examining her condition, the expense thereby incurred shall be chargeable to the owner of such vessel. 45 V., c. 35, s. 14.

15. The inspector may require that the engine and machinery under inspection by him shall be put in motion; and every inspector shall be carried free of expense on any steam-boat which he desires to inspect while under way, and during such period as is necessary for such inspection, and for his return to the port at which he embarked on such steam-boat for such purpose, or for his disembarkation at any port at which such steam-boat touches on her voyage.

45 Vict., c. 85, s. 15.

Certificate of inspection of hull and equipment.

If the inspector of hulls and equipment, who inspects any steam-boat in the manner required by this Act, approves the hull and equipment of such steam-boat, he shall make and sign, in triplicate, a certificate according to the form A, in the schedule to this Act,—and such triplicates shall be delivered by him to the inspector of boilers and machinery for the same district, who, when he has inspected and approved the boilers and machinery of the steam-boat, shall make and sign, in triplicate, upon the same sheets of paper on which the certificate in triplicate of the inspector of hulls and machinery is written, a certificate according to the form A, in the said schedule, and shall deliver two of the triplicates of the said certificate to the owner or master of the steam-boat,—who shall deliver one triplicate to the chief officer of customs as aforesaid, and shall cause the other to be posted up, framed and protected by glass, in some conspicuous part of the steam-boat for the information of the public; and the inspector of boilers and machinery shall retain the other triplicate for the purposes of this Act:

2. If the steam-boat is one of which the boiler and machinery only are subject to inspection under this Act, the inspector of boilers and machinery shall sign a certificate in the form B in the said schedule, in duplicate, and deliver the duplicates to the master or owner of the steam-boat, who shall deliver one to the chief officer of customs and cause the other to be posted up in some conspicuous part of the steam-boat for the information of the public:

3. Every inspector of steam-boats shall, whenever he visits and inspects any steam-boat, examine whether such steam-boat is properly furnished with lights and with means of making fog-signals, in pursuance of the rules prescribed by the "Act respecting the Navigation of Canadian Waters," and shall refuse to grant any certificate with respect to any steam-boat which he finds is not so provided, and shall report such steam-boat as unsafe to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. 43 Vict., c. 29, s. 10;—45 Vict., c. 35, s. 16, part;—49 Vict., c. 34, s. 6.

Decision of disputes in certain cases.

17. Any matter in dispute arising under this Act, between an inspector or the board of steam-boat inspection and the master or owner of any steam-boat, and also any dispute between an inspector or the said board and an engineer, may be referred by either party to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who shall finally decide the same. 45 Vict., c. 35, s. 16, part.
18. Each inspector shall keep a register of the inspections and certificates made and granted by him, in such form and with such particulars respecting them as the chairman of the board of steam-boat inspection, from time to time, requires, and shall furnish copies thereof to the chairman when required. 45 V., c. 35, s. 16, part;—49 V., c. 34, s. 7.

BOILERS AND MACHINERY.

19. Any inspector may, whenever he deems it necessary so to do, and one inspector shall, at least once in every year, subject the boiler of every steam-boat to a test by hydrostatic pressure, and shall satisfy himself by examination and experimental trials that such boiler is well made of good and suitable materials; the limit of such pressure shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch, in the case of a boiler made of iron plates, or one hundred and ninety pounds to the square inch, in the case of a boiler made of steel plates; for the purposes of such test the owner of the steam-boat shall provide the necessary hand-pump and apparatus, and the same shall be worked by the crew of the steam-boat: and no inspector shall make or deliver to the owner or master of any steam-boat, any certificate unless he has first subjected the boiler of such steam-boat to such test by hydrostatic pressure:

2. Before a boiler is subjected to a test by hydrostatic pressure, it shall be opened up for inspection, the man-hole doors and mud-plates removed, and the outside and inside of the boiler cleaned, the furnace grates removed and the furnace swept out clean, so that satisfactory and efficient inspection may be made; when bulkheads are so placed as to prevent a close examination of the plates of the boiler, they shall be removed; and the owner or master of the steam-boat shall see that the foregoing requirements are complied with before applying for inspection:

3. In any case in which the test is not satisfactory, the defects shall be made good and the boiler re-tested satisfactorily, before a certificate is granted:

4. When the outside of the bottom of a boiler cannot be otherwise perfectly inspected, the boiler shall be lifted for inspection once at least in every four years:

5. In subjecting boilers made of iron plates to the hydrostatic test aforesaid, the inspector shall assume one hundred pounds to the square inch as the maximum pressure allowable as a working power for a new boiler forty-two inches in diameter, made of the best refined iron, at least one-quarter of an inch thick, in the best manner and of the quality herein required,—and shall rate the working pressure of all iron boilers, whether of greater or less diameter, according to their strength compared with this standard; and in all such cases the test applied shall exceed the working pressure allowed, in the ratio of one hundred and fifty pounds to one hundred, using the water in such tests at a temperature not exceeding sixty degrees Fahrenheit:

6. In subjecting boilers made of steel to the hydrostatic test aforesaid, the inspector shall assume one hundred and twenty-five pounds as the maximum pressure allowable as a working power for a new boiler forty-two inches in diameter, made in the best manner, of the best quality of steel plates, at least one-quarter of an inch thick, with all the rivet holes drilled in place, the plates being then taken apart and the burrs removed, the longitudinal seams in the shell being fitted with double butt steel straps cut across the grain of the plate, and each of five-eighths the thickness of the plates they cover, and all the seams being at least double riveted and having at least seventy per cent. of the strength of the solid plate, and all the flat surfaces stayed in the best manner and all the seams double riveted,—and they shall rate the working pressure of all steel boilers so made, whether of greater or less diameter, according to their strength compared with this standard; and in all such cases the test applied shall exceed the working pressure allowed for such boilers in the ratio of one hundred and ninety pounds to one hundred and twenty-five pounds, using the water in such tests at a temperature not exceeding sixty degrees Fahrenheit:

7. If the inspector is of opinion that any boiler, whether made of iron or steel plates, by reason of its construction or material, will not safely allow so high a working pressure as that hereinbefore specified for each such description of boiler respectively, he may, for reasons to be stated specifically in his certificate, fix the working pressure of such boiler at less than two-thirds of the test pressure:

8. The foregoing rules shall be observed in all cases, unless the proportion between such boilers and the cylinders, or some other cause, renders it manifest that their application would be unjust,—in which case the inspector may depart from the said rules if it can be done with safety; but in no case shall the working pressure allowed exceed the proportion hereinbefore mentioned, as compared with the hydrostatic test:

9. The external working pressure to be allowed on plane circular iron furnaces and flues subjected to such pressure, when the longitudinal joints are welded or made with a butt strap, shall be determined by the following formula:

The product of 90,000 multiplied by the square of the thickness of the plate in inches,—divided by the length of the flue or furnace in feet plus 1, multiplied by the diameter in inches,—shall be the allowable working pressure per square inch in pounds,—provided it does not exceed that found by the following formula:

The product of 8,000 multiplied by the thickness of the plate in inches, divided by the diameter of the furnace or flue in inches, shall be the allowable working pressure per square inch in pounds,—

The length of the furnace to be used in the first formula being the distance between the rings, if the furnace is made with rings; and that one of the two formulae which gives the lowest pressure being the one by which the inspector shall be guided:

10. On flat surfaces the allowable working pressure shall not exceed six thousand pounds to each effective square inch of sectional area of the stays supporting it; the pressure to be allowed on plates forming flat surfaces shall be that found by the following formula:

\[ C \times \frac{(T+1)^2}{S-6} \]

Where—

- C: 100;
- T: Thickness of plate in sixteenths of an inch;
- S: Surface supported in square inches;

but when the plates are exposed to the impact of heat or flame, and steam only is in contact with the plates on the opposite side, C is to be reduced to 50.

11. In order to satisfy himself as to the strength and condition of a boiler, the inspector may, if he deems it necessary, order holes to be cut in it, and may also demand that such information shall be furnished him in respect to the interior construction of the boiler as will enable him to judge correctly of its strength:

12. In no case shall a certificate be granted for a boiler when drift pins have been used in bringing the holes in the sheets together:

13. Man-hole openings shall be stiffened with compensating rings of at least the same effective sectional area as the plate cut out, and in no case shall such rings be of less thickness than the plates to which they are attached; all openings in the shells of cylindrical boilers shall have their short axes placed longitudinally:

14. When bars or angle irons are used for sustaining the crown sheet of a boiler, three-fifths of the working pressure allowable upon the crown sheet shall be sustained by hanging stays from the shell of the boiler attached to the crown sheet:

15. Donkey boilers on steam-boats shall be provided with a safety-valve, which may be locked up:

16. Boilers in which the longitudinal seams in the cylindrical shell are single riveted, in place of being double riveted, shall be subject to a reduction in the working pressure allowable for a boiler made in the best manner (as prescribed by sub-sections five and six of this section), and the limit of pressure in boilers so made shall not exceed eighty pounds to the square inch in place of one hundred pounds or one hundred and twenty-five pounds, as mentioned in the said sub-sections. 45 V., c. 35, s. 17.;—49 V., c. 34, ss. 8 and 9.
20. No boiler made and placed on board shall be made of boiler plate, whether iron or steel, which has not been stamped with the mark or name of the maker thereof; and no certificate shall be granted with respect to any boiler made wholly or in part of plate not so marked; and before a certificate shall be granted with respect to any boiler, a declaration on oath by the maker of the boiler, stating the name of the maker of the plates, their quality, and the quality of all materials used in the construction thereof, shall be furnished to the inspector; such oath may be taken before any justice of the peace in Canada, or before a notary public, and certified under his official seal, if taken out of Canada: Provided always, that in any case where such declaration on oath by the maker of the boiler cannot be obtained owing to the death of the maker, or from other cause deemed sufficient by the inspector, the affidavit of two practical boiler makers who have examined the boiler and reported upon the quality of the materials in it and its workmanship and strength, shall, if satisfactory to the inspector, be deemed sufficient in lieu of such declaration by the maker of the boiler:

2. During the construction of every boiler made in Canada, the maker of such boiler shall notify the inspector of the district in which it is being made, that it is open to his inspection, and shall, at all times during such construction, allow the inspector access to such boiler:

3. No boiler or pipe shall be approved which is made in whole or in part of bad material, or is unsafe in its form, or dangerous from defective workmanship, age, use or any other cause. 45 V., c. 35, s. 18.

SAFETY VALVES, STEAM GAUGES, ETC.

21. Every inspector, when inspecting, visiting or examining the boiler or machinery of any steam-boat, shall satisfy himself that the safety valves attached thereto are of suitable dimensions, sufficient in number, well managed and in good working order, and only loaded so as to open at or below the certified working pressure; and he may, if he thinks proper, order and cause one or more of such safety valves (which together shall be of sufficient dimensions to discharge all the steam the boiler can generate, and of such construction as he approves), to be locked up and taken wholly away from the control of the engineer when the steam is up; but the engineer shall have access to the safety valves when the steam is not up, and shall see that they are kept in working order, and the master of the steamboat shall see that the engineer has access to them for that purpose, and keeps them in proper working order:

2. The boiler cocks and valves attached to the boilers shall be substantially made, and in no case shall they be attached to the boilers by screwing into the plate, unless, as an addi-
Steamboat Inspection Act.

1. In addition to such attachment:

3. No valve, under any circumstances, shall, at any time, be so loaded or so managed in any way, as to subject a boiler to a greater pressure than that allowed by the inspector at the then last inspection thereof:

4. The lock-up safety valves shall be of a construction approved by the board of steam-boat inspection, such valves shall be tested and proved by an inspector before use; and no inspector shall grant a certificate to any steamboat unless the boiler, or each boiler, if more than one, of such steamboat is provided with a safety-valve:

5. Every safety valve made or placed on board of a steamboat after the seventeenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, or attached to a boiler made after that date, shall have a lift equal to at least one-fourth of its diameter; the openings for the passage of steam to and from the valve shall each have an area not less than the area of the valve, as shall also the waste steam pipe, and the valve box shall have a waste water pipe; if the lever of a lever safety valve is not bushed with brass the pin shall be of brass, iron and iron working together shall not be allowed; every such safety valve shall be fitted with lifting gear so that it can be worked by hand, either from the engine room or the fire hold, or by the master or person in charge on deck; every such safety valve shall be so attached to the boiler, that the valve chest shall be as close to the boiler as possible. 45 V., c. 35, s. 19;—49 V., c. 34, ss. 10 and 11.

22. The area of any locked safety valve or the joint areas of any locked safety valves to any boiler, made or placed on board after the said date, shall not be less than half a square inch for each square foot of grate surface in or under the boiler. 45 V., c. 35, s. 20.

23. Whenever the engine of any steam-boat is stopped for any purpose, the engineer or the master or person in charge of such steam-boat shall open the safety valve, so as to keep the steam in the boiler down to ten pounds below the pressure limited by the inspector's certificate if the engine is a high pressure engine, and to five pounds below the pressure limited as aforesaid if the engine is a low pressure engine, and every person who violates any provision of this section shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars. 45 V., c. 35, s. 21.

24. There shall be, in a conspicuous and easily accessible place in each steam-boat, a steam gauge properly constructed and open to the view of all passengers and others on board such steam-boat, and showing at all times the true pressure of the steam in the boiler thereof. 45 V., c. 35, s. 22.
25. Every master and engineer of any steam-boat who, at any time, allows the pressure of steam to which the boiler of such steam-boat is subjected, to exceed that limited by her certificate, or who alters or conceals or otherwise deals with the said steam gauge, so as to prevent the real pressure of steam from being seen and ascertained by any passenger, shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars for every such offence. 45 V., c. 35, s. 23.

26. The steam gauge required by this Act to be open to the view of all passengers and others on board any steam-boat, shall be that known as "the Bourdon Gauge," or shall be of such construction and shall be put in such place and position, as the inspector visiting, examining or inspecting such steam-boat, from time to time, directs. 45 V., c. 35, s. 24.

27. Each boiler of every steam-boat shall be provided with a suitable water gauge, capable of showing the water level within each boiler at all times; and all steam-boats navigating in brackish or salt water, shall be provided with surface blow-off valves, such as are commonly used on board sea-going steam-boats. 45 V., c. 35, s. 25.

28. Every steam-boat carrying passengers and having a condensing engine, shall be provided with a bilge injection valve and pipe of suitable dimensions, leading from the floor frames of the steam-boat into the condenser of the engine. 45 V., c. 35, s. 26.

BOATS.

29. The following provisions shall be observed with respect to boats to be carried by steamers:

1. No steam-boat with passengers on board shall proceed to sea from any port or place in Canada, or depart from any port or place on any of the Lakes Memphremagog, Ontario, Erie, Huron, Simcoe or Superior, or on the River St. Lawrence, or on the River Ottawa, or St. John, or any lake or river in Manitoba, British Columbia, or the North-West Territories, or the District of Keewatin, which is, at any point on the route of such steamer, more than one mile broad,—

(a.) Unless there are on board thereof, or attached to such steam-boat, good, suitable, sufficient and properly equipped boats, in good condition, each having not less than seventeen feet length of keel, and at least six oars and other necessary tackle, and sufficient capacity to carry not less than twelve adult persons exclusive of the crew of such boat;

Which boats shall be in the following proportion to the registered tonnage of such steam-boat, that is to say:—

At least one boat for every steam-boat of less than fifty tons;

At least two boats for every steam-boat of fifty tons and upwards, but less than three hundred tons;
At least three boats for every steam-boat of three hundred tons and upwards; and—

(b.) If such steam-boat is of the registered tonnage of one hundred tons or upwards, unless, in addition to the boats hereinbefore required, there is on board thereof or attached thereto,—

   (b.) The expression "ship" includes every description of "Ship." vessel not propelled by oars;
   (c.) The expression "steam-ship" or "steam-boat" includes "Steam-boat" or "steam-ship." every vessel propelled wholly or in part by steam or by any machinery or power other than sails or oars;

REGULATIONS FOR PREVENTING COLLISIONS.

2. The following rules with respect to lights, fog signals, steering and sailing and rafts, shall apply to all the rivers, lakes and other navigable waters within Canada, or within the jurisdiction of the Parliament thereof: that is to say:—

Preliminary.

Art. 1. In the following rules every steam-ship which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing ship; and every steam-ship which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a ship under steam.

Rules concerning Lights.

Art. 2. The lights mentioned in the following Articles, numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, from sunset to sunrise.
Art. 3. A steam-ship when under way shall carry—

(a.) On or in front of the foremast, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the breadth of the ship exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass,—so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the ship, viz., from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side,—and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles;

(b.) On the starboard side, a green light so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass,—so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side,—and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles;

(c.) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass,—so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side,—and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles;

(d.) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

Art. 4. A steam-ship, when towing another ship, a raft or rafts, shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line, one over the other, not less than three feet apart, so as to distinguish her from other steam-ships: each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light which other steam-ships are required to carry.

Art. 5. A ship, whether a steam-ship or a sailing-ship, when employed either in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, or which from any accident is not under command, shall at night carry, in the same position as the white light which steam-ships are required to carry, and, if a steam-ship, in place of that light, three red lights in globular lanterns, each not less than ten inches in diameter, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart: and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, in front of but not lower than her foremost head, three black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter;

(a.) These shapes and lights are to be taken by approaching ships as signals that the ship using them is not under command, and cannot therefore get out of the way;
(b.) The above ships, when not making any way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

Art. 6. A sailing ship under way, or being towed, shall carry the same lights as are provided by Article 3 for a steamship under way, with the exception of the white light,—which she shall never carry.

Art. 7. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for use; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side:

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with proper screens.

Art. 8. A ship, whether a steam-ship or a sailing ship, when at anchor, shall carry, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a globular lantern of not less than eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear, uniform and unbroken light visible all around the horizon, and at a distance of at least one mile.

Art. 9. A pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall not carry the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes:

(a.) A pilot vessel, when not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other ships.

Art. 10. (a.) Open fishing boats and other open boats when under way shall not be obliged to carry the side lights required for other vessels; but every such boat shall, in lieu thereof, have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other side; and on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side;

(b.) A fishing vessel, and an open boat, when at anchor, shall exhibit a bright white light;

(c.) A fishing vessel, when employed in drift net fishing, shall carry on one of her masts two red lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart;

(d.) A trawler at work shall carry on one of her masts two lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, the upper light red, and the lower green, and shall also either carry the side lights required for other vessels, or, if the side lights cannot be carried, have ready at hand the colored lights as provided in Article 7, or a lantern with a red and a green glass as described in paragraph (a) of this Article;

(e.) Fishing vessels and open boats shall not be prevented from using a flare-up light in addition, if they desire so to do;

(f.) The lights mentioned in this Article are substituted for those mentioned in the 12th, 13th and 14th Articles of the Convention between France and England scheduled to the "British Sea Fisheries Act, 1868";

(g.) All lights required by this Article, except side lights, shall be in globular lanterns, so constructed as to show all round the horizon.

Art. 11. A ship which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned ship a white light or a flare-up light.

Sound Signals for Fog, &c.

Steam-ships to have certain sound signals.

Art. 12. A steam-ship shall be provided with a steam whistle or other efficient steam sound signal, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and also with an efficient bell. A sailing-ship shall be provided with an efficient fog horn, to be sounded by a bellows or other mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell:

In fog, mist, or falling snow, whether by day or night, the signals described in this Article shall be used as follows; that is to say:

(a.) A steam-ship under way shall make with her steam whistle or other steam sound signal, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast;

(b.) A sailing-ship under way shall make with her fog horn, at intervals of not more than two minutes, when on the starboard tack one blast, when on the port tack two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam, three blasts in succession;

(c.) A steam-ship and a sailing-ship, when not under way shall, at intervals of not more than two minutes, ring the bell.

Speed of Ships to be moderate in Fog, &c.

Art. 13. Every ship, whether a sailing-ship or steam-ship, shall, in a fog, mist, or falling snow, go at a moderate speed.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

Art. 14. When two sailing-ships are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, that is to say:—
(a.) A ship which is running free shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled;
(b.) A ship which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled on the starboard tack;
(c.) When both are running free with the wind on different sides, the ship which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other;
(d.) When both are running free with the wind on the same side, the ship which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward;
(e.) A ship which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other ship.

Art. 15. If two ships under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other:
(a.) This Article only applies to cases where ships are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two ships which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other;
(b.) The only cases to which it does apply are, when each of the two ships is end on, or nearly end on, to the other; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each ship sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and by night, to cases in which each ship is in such a position as to see both the side lights of the other;
(c.) It does not apply by day, to cases in which a ship sees another ahead crossing her own course, or by night, to cases where the red light of one ship is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one ship is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

Art. 16. If two ships under steam are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the ship which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

Art. 17. If two ships, one of which is a sailing-ship and the other a steam-ship, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam-ship shall keep out of the way of the sailing ship.

Art. 18. Every steam-ship, when approaching another ship, so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed or stop and reverse, if necessary.

Art. 19. In taking any course authorized or required by these regulations, a steam-ship under way may indicate that course to any other ship which she has in sight by the following signals on her steam whistle, that is to say:—

One short blast to mean “I am directing my course to starboard”;
Two short blasts to mean "I am directing my course to port";
Three short blasts to mean "I am going full speed astern."
The use of these signals is optional; but if they are used, the course of the ship must be in accordance with the signal made.

Art. 20. Notwithstanding anything contained in any preceding Article, every ship, whether a sailing-ship or a steamship, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken ship.

Art. 21. In narrow channels every steam-ship shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or midchannel which lies on the starboard side of such ship.

Art. 22. When by the above rules one of two ships is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course.

Art. 23. In obeying and construing these rules, due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

No ship, under any circumstances, to neglect proper precautions.

Art. 24. Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

Reservation of Rules for Harbors and Inland Navigation.

Art. 25. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule, duly made by local authority, relative to the navigation of any harbor, river or inland navigation.

Special Lights for Squadrons and Convoys.

Art. 26. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war or for ships sailing under convoy.

Rafts and Harbor of Sorel.

Art. 27. Rafts, while drifting or at anchor on any of the waters of Canada, shall have a bright fire kept burning on them from sunset to sunrise. Whenever any raft is going in the same direction as another which is ahead, the one shall be so navigated as not to come within twenty yards of the other, and every vessel meeting or overtaking a raft shall keep out of the way thereof. Rafts shall be so navigated and anchored as not to cause any unnecessary impediment or obstruction to vessels navigating the same waters.

Art. 28. Unless it is otherwise directed by the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal, ships and vessels entering or leaving the harbor of Sorel shall take the port side, anything in the preceding articles to the contrary notwithstanding.

Art. 29. The rules of navigation contained in Articles 27 and 28, shall be subject to the provisions contained in Articles 23 and 24. 43 V., c. 29, s. 2; — 44 V., c. 21, s. 2; — 49 V., c. 4, s. 2 and schedule.

LOCAL BY-LAWS, PENALTIES, &C.

3. No rule or by-law of the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal or the Trinity House of Quebec, or Quebec Harbor Commissioners, or other local rule or by-law inconsistent with this Act, shall be of any force or effect; but so far as it is not inconsistent with this Act, any such rule or by-law made by the said Harbor Commissioners of Montreal or Trinity House of Quebec, or Quebec Harbor Commissioners, or other competent local authority, shall be of full force and effect within the locality to which it applies. 43 V., c. 29,
s. 4.

4. All owners, masters and persons in charge of any ship, vessel, or raft, shall obey the rules prescribed by this Act, and shall not carry and exhibit any other lights or use any other fog signals than such as are required by the said rules; and in case of wilful default, such master or person in charge, or such owner, if it appears that he was in fault, shall, for each occasion on which any of the said rules is violated, incur a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars. 43 V., c. 29, s. 5.

5. If, in any case of collision, it appears to the court before which the case is tried, that such collision was occasioned by the non-observance of any of the rules prescribed by this Act, the vessel or raft by which such rules have been violated shall be deemed to be in fault; unless it can be shown to the satisfaction of the court that the circumcstances of the case rendered a departure from the said rules necessary. 43 V., c. 29, s. 6.

6. If any damage to person or property arises from the non-observance by any vessel or raft of any of the rules prescribed by this Act, such damage shall be deemed to have been occasioned by the wilful default of the person in charge of such raft, or of the deck of such vessel at the time, unless the contrary is proved, or it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the circumstances of the case rendered a departure from the said rules necessary; and the owner of the vessel or raft, in all civil proceedings, and the master or person in charge as aforesaid, or the owner,—if it appears that he was in fault,—in all proceedings, civil or criminal, shall be subject to the legal consequences of such default.
43 V., c. 29, s. 7.

7. In any cause or proceeding for damages arising out of a collision between two vessels, or a vessel and a raft, if both vessels or both the vessel and the raft are found to have been in fault, the rules heretofore in force in the Court of Admiralty in England, and now in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, under the “Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873,” so far as they are at variance with the rules in force in the courts of common law, shall prevail, and the damages shall be borne equally by the two vessels, or the vessel and the raft, one half by each. 43 V., c. 29, s. 8.

8. Unless herein otherwise provided, all penalties incurred under this Act may be recovered in the name of Her Majesty, by any inspector of steam-boats, or by any person aggrieved by any act, neglect or wilful omission by which the penalty is incurred, before any two justices of the peace, on the evidence of one credible witness; and in default of payment of such penalty, such justices may commit the offender to gaol for any term not exceeding three months; and, except as hereinafter provided, all penalties recovered under this Act shall be paid over to the Minister of Finance and Receiver General, and shall be by him placed at the credit of and shall form part of the Steam-boat Inspection Fund: Provided always, that all penalties incurred for any offence against this Act shall, if such offence is committed within the jurisdiction of the Quebec Harbor Commissioners, or of the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal, be sued for, recovered, enforced and applied in like manner as penalties imposed for the violation of the by-laws of the said Harbor Commissioners within whose jurisdiction the offence is committed. 43 V.,
c. 29, s. 9.

9. Whenever foreign ships are within Canadian waters, shall, without delay, deliver it to the pilotage authority of the pilotage district for which he was licensed: and if any person, without reasonable cause (proof whereof shall lie on him), fails to comply with any requirement of this section, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding forty dollars; and any court of competent jurisdiction may, in addition to imposing such penalty, by summary order direct such license to be forthwith delivered up to such authority. 36 V., c. 54, s. 35.

32. Every licensed pilot shall, on attaining the age of sixty-five years, produce and deliver up his license or branch to the pilotage authority of the district to which it extends, and such authority may grant him a new license for one year, and so on from year to year. 36 V., c. 54, s. 36.

33. The board of directors of the corporation of pilots for and below the harbor of Quebec, may make any agreement and compromise respecting the withdrawal of the license of any pilot for and below the said harbor, and the conditions of such withdrawal. 45 V., c. 32, s. 9.

34. The pilotage authority for any district (except the pilotage districts of Quebec, Montreal and St. John, respectively), may, if it sees fit, limit the period during which any license to a pilot granted by it shall be in force to any term not less than two years from the date thereof, and may, in its discretion after the end of such period, renew such license for a further limited term not less than two years; and may also, in its discretion cancel any license to a pilot heretofore granted, and substitute for it a license limited and renewable as aforesaid; and in such cases the form of the license shall be altered by inserting after the word "capacity" in the first schedule to this Act, the words "until A.D. , unless "in the meantime this license is cancelled." 45 V., c. 32, s. 5.

35. All pilots shall pay to the pilotage authority of the respective districts for which they are licensed, or as such authority directs, such fees upon such renewals as are, from time to time, fixed for that purpose by such authority with the consent of the Governor in Council; and such fees shall be applied in the manner prescribed by section seventy-one of this Act. 45 V., c. 32, s. 6.

36. The names and addresses of all licensed pilots shall be published in the following manner:—

(a.) Every pilotage authority shall, from time to time, and at least once in every year, prepare a list of the pilots holding licenses for their pilotage district, specifying the name and usual place of abode of every pilot holding such license, and the limits within which he is licensed to act; and shall transmit such list to the collector of customs at the principal port within such district;
(b.) Every collector of customs, to whom any such list is so transmitted, shall, immediately after the receipt thereof, cause the same to be posted up, and shall always keep the last received of such lists posted up at the custom house of the port. 36 V., c. 54, s. 37.

37. Each of the pilotage authorities of Quebec, Montreal, Halifax and St. John shall cause every pilot's license granted by such authority to be registered in a book to be kept for that purpose in the office of such pilotage authority; and every such book shall, at all times, during the usual office hours, be open to all persons for inspection without fee or reward. 36 V., c. 54, s. 37.

RIGHTS OF PILOTS GENERALLY.

38. Every pilot compelled to retire under the provisions of this Act on account of age or of mental or bodily infirmity, and every widow and child of a deceased pilot shall be entitled to such pension or assistance as the pilotage authority of the district, in and for which such pilot was licensed, deems it proper to grant to him or her out of the pilot fund of such district. 36 V., c. 54, s. 39.

39. No pilot shall, without his consent, be taken to sea or beyond the limits for which he is licensed, in any ship whatsoever; and every pilot so taken shall be entitled to cabin passage, and over and above the pilotage dues otherwise payable to him, to the sum of two dollars a day, to be computed from, and inclusive of the day on which the ship passes the limit up to which he was engaged to pilot her, and up to and inclusive of, either the day of his being returned in the said ship to the place where he was taken on board, or if he is discharged from the ship at a distance from such place, such day as will allow him sufficient time to return thereto; and in such last mentioned case he shall be entitled to his reasonable travelling expenses by cabin passage or first class conveyance by land, as the case may be, over and above such pilotage dues and other sums. 36 V., c. 54, s. 40.

40. If a licensed pilot is placed in quarantine, owing to his having been taken on board any ship, he shall be entitled to suitable board and accommodation, and over and above the pilotage dues payable to him, to the sum of three dollars a day, from and inclusive of the day on which he is placed in quarantine up to and inclusive of either the day on which he is discharged therefrom, or, if he is discharged at a distance from the place where he was taken on board, such day as will allow him sufficient time to return thereto; and in such last mentioned case, he shall be entitled to his reasonable travelling expenses over and above such pilotage dues and other additional sums. 36 V., c. 54, s. 41.
41. Any licensed pilot may quit a ship which he has undertaken to pilot as soon as such ship is finally anchored or moored after completion of her voyage or removal, as the case may be, or as soon as she passes out of the pilotage district to which his license extends, whichever first happens; whereupon the service for which he was hired shall be held to be performed. 36 V., c. 54, s. 42.

42. A pilot deprived of his license, or suspended or condemned to pay a penalty for having caused damage to a ship, shall not be entitled to any pilotage dues if the amount of such damage is equal to or exceeds that of such dues, or, if it is less, to more than the excess of the amount of such dues over that of such damage; and the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be referred to in section twenty-six of the Act of the legislature of the late Province of Canada, passed in the twenty-third year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-three, intituled "An Act to incorporate the Pilots for and below the Harbor of Quebec." 36 V., c. 54, s. 43.

43. No licensed pilot shall be hereafter appointed to act, or shall act, as harbor master of any port unless he first surrenders his license. 45 V., c. 32, s. 7.

RIGHTS OF PILOTS IN PILOTAGE DISTRICTS IN WHICH THE PAYMENT OF PILOTAGE DUES IS FOR THE TIME BEING COMPULSORY.

44. If any boat or ship having on board a licensed pilot leads any ship which has not a licensed pilot on board when such last mentioned ship cannot, from particular circumstances, be boarded, the pilot so leading such last mentioned ship shall be entitled to the full pilotage dues for the distance run, as if he had actually been on board and piloted such ship; and such pilot while leading such last mentioned ship, shall keep his pilot flag flying, and such last mentioned ship, shall, while being so led, show the ensign of such ship at her fore. 36 V., c. 54, s. 44.

45. If any person pilots a ship in any pilotage district for which he is not a licensed pilot, under any circumstances not provided for in the next following section of this Act, he shall be liable to a penalty of forty dollars. 36 V., c. 54, s. 45.

46. Any person may, within any pilotage district for which he is not a licensed pilot, without subjecting himself or his employer to any penalty, pilot a ship under any of the following circumstances:—

(a.) When no licensed pilot for such district has offered to pilot such ship, or made a signal for that purpose, although the master of the ship has displayed and continued to display the signal for a pilot in this Act provided, whilst within the limits prescribed for that purpose;

(b.) When a ship is in distress, or under circumstances making it necessary for the master to avail himself of the best assistance which can be found at the time. 36 V., c. 54, s. 46.

47. A licensed pilot may, in any such district upon showing his proper signal and exhibiting his license, supersede an unlicensed pilot, but the master shall pay to such unlicensed pilot a sum in proportion to the distance run for his services, and deduct the same from the charge of the licensed pilot; and in case of dispute, the pilotage authority of the district for which the licensed pilot is licensed, shall determine the proportionate sum to which each person is entitled; and if not so superseded, the unlicensed pilot shall be entitled to be paid the full pilotage dues. 36 V., c. 54, s. 47.

48. Every unlicensed pilot who continues in the charge of a ship in any such district after a licensed pilot has offered as aforesaid to take charge of her, shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month. 36 V., c. 54, s. 48.

49. If any master of a ship which is not an exempted ship, removes such ship or causes such ship to be removed from one place to another within the harbor of Quebec, without the assistance of a licensed pilot for and below the harbor of Quebec, he shall pay to the corporation of pilots for and below the harbor of Quebec the same pilotage dues as he would have been liable to pay if he had obtained the assistance of one of such licensed pilots; but this provision shall not apply to the master of any ship actually proceeding to Montreal or elsewhere above the harbor of Quebec, in charge of a pilot for and above the harbor of Quebec. 36 V., c. 54, s. 49.

PILOTAGE DUES.

50. Whenever, under the provisions of this Act, any pilotage dues are made payable by or in respect of any ship, the following persons shall be liable to pay such dues; that is to say,—the owner, the master and the recognized consignee or agent thereof, if such recognized consignee or agent has moneys in his hands received on account of such ship. 36 V., c. 54, s. 50.

51. Every recognized consignee or agent of a ship not being the owner or master of such ship may, out of any moneys in his hands received on account of such ship retain the amount of pilotage dues so paid by him, together with any reasonable expenses he has incurred by reason of such payment and liability. 36 V., c. 54, s. 51.
Recovery of pilotage dues.

52. All pilotage dues may be recovered as a debt due to the pilot or corporation of pilots or pilotage authority, as the case may be, to whom the same are payable; and all sums made payable to a pilot over and above the pilotage dues, shall be payable by the same persons, and recoverable in the same manner as if they were part of the pilotage dues payable to such pilot; but the mode of payment of pilotage dues in the pilotage districts of Quebec and Montreal shall remain the same as before the commencement of this Act. 36 V., c. 54, s. 52.

No clearance until such dues, if payable, are paid or settled for.

53. No clearance shall be granted to any ship liable to pilotage dues at any port in Canada where there is a duly constituted pilotage authority which collects the pilotage dues, and at which pilotage dues are payable, until there has been produced to the customs officer granting such clearance, a certificate from the pilotage authority of the district or some officer or person authorized by such authority to grant the same, that all pilotage dues in respect of such ship have been paid or settled for to the satisfaction of such authority. 40 V., c. 20, s. 4.

Settlement of difference as to draught of ship.

54. Whenever any difference arises between the master and the licensed pilot of any ship trading to or from any port in Canada, as to her draught of water, the pilotage authority at such port shall, upon application by either party made,—in case of a ship inward bound either within twelve hours after her arrival or at some time before she begins to discharge her cargo, and in the case of a ship outward bound before she quits her moorings—appoint some proper person who shall measure the ship, and settle the difference accordingly; and there shall be paid to the person measuring such ship, by the party against whom he decides, such remuneration for his services as the pilotage authority appoints. 36 V., c. 54, s. 53.

Penalty for making a false declaration of draught of ship.

55. If, upon any licensed pilot offering or beginning to pilot a ship, the master thereof refuses or neglects to declare to such pilot her draught of water, or makes or is privy to any other person making a false declaration to such pilot as to such draught, he shall incur a penalty for every such offence, not exceeding double the amount of pilotage dues payable by such ship to such pilot or to any corporation of pilots of which such pilot is a member. 36 V., c. 54, s. 54.

Penalty for falsifying marks on ship.

56. Every master or person interested in a ship who makes or is privy to the making of a fraudulent alteration in the marks on the stern or stem post of such ship, denoting her draught of water, is guilty of a misdemeanor. 36 V., c. 54, s. 55.
EMPLOYMENT OF PILOTS NOT COMPULSORY.

57. No owner or master of any ship shall, in any case, be compelled to employ or to give his ship into the charge of a pilot, either on the ground of his being compelled to pay pilotage dues to any person or otherwise; and nothing in this Act shall exempt any owner or master of any ship from liability for any loss or damage occasioned by his ship to any person or property, on the ground either of such ship being in the charge of a licensed pilot, or of such loss or damage being occasioned by the act or default of a licensed pilot, or on any other ground. 36 V., c. 54, ss. 56 and 69.

COMPULSORY PAYMENT OF PILOTAGE DUES, AND EXEMPTIONS THEREFROM.

58. Every ship which navigates within either of the pilotage districts of Quebec, Montreal, Halifax or St. John, or within any pilotage district within the limits of which the payment of pilotage dues is, for the time being, made compulsory by Order in Council under this Act, shall pay pilotage dues, unless either—

(a.) Such ship is on her inward voyage and no licensed pilot offers his services as a pilot, or—

(b.) She is exempted under the provisions of this Act, from payment of such dues:

2. If such ship is on her outward voyage and the owner or master of such ship does not employ a pilot or give his ship into the charge of a pilot, such dues shall be paid, if in the pilotage district of Quebec, to the corporation of pilots for and below the harbor of Quebec, and if in any other pilotage district, to the pilotage authority of such district. 36 V., c. 54, s. 57, part.

59. The following ships, called in this Act exempted ships, shall be exempted from the compulsory payment of pilotage dues:

(a.) Ships belonging to Her Majesty;

(b.) Ships wholly employed in Her Majesty's service, while so employed, the masters of which have been appointed by Her Majesty's Government, either in the United Kingdom or in Canada;

(c.) Ships propelled wholly or in part by steam employed in trading from port to port in the same Province, or between any one or more of the Provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia or Prince Edward Island, and any other or others of them, or employed on voyages between any port or ports in the said Provinces or any of them and the port of New York or any port of the United States of America on the Atlantic, north of New York; except only in the ports of Halifax, Sydney pilotage district, Miramichi and Pictou,—as respects each of which ports the pilotage authorities of the district may, from time to time, determine, with the approval of Her Majesty's Government, either in the United Kingdom or in Canada.
of the Governor in Council, whether any, and which, if any, of the steam-ships so employed shall or shall not be wholly or partially, and, if partially, to what extent and under what circumstances, exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage dues;

(d.) Ships of not more than eighty tons, registered tonnage;

(e.) Any ship of which the master or any mate has a certificate granted under the provisions of this Act and then in force, authorizing him to pilot such ship within the limits within which she is then navigating;

(f.) Ships of such description and size, not exceeding two hundred and fifty tons, registered tonnage, as the pilotage authority of the district, with the approval of the Governor in Council, from time to time, determines to be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage in such district: Provided always, that this paragraph shall not apply to the river St. Lawrence, where all ships registered in Canada, if not more than two hundred and fifty tons registered tonnage, shall be exempt. 36 V., c. 54, s. 57, part;—38 V., c. 28, s. 1 ;—40 V., c. 20, s. 3.

60. When a ship arrives at the limits of any district in which the payment of pilotage dues is, for the time being, compulsory and within any part of which she is an exempted ship under paragraph (e) of the next preceding section of this Act, or is at a distance of five miles at least from the mouth of the harbor in any such district mentioned in the certificate of her master or mate (whichever first happens), such master or mate shall hoist a white flag not less than four feet by six feet at the main top mast head, with the number of his certificate, in black figures six inches long, in the centre as a signal that the ship has a certificated master or mate on board; and every master or mate hoisting such flag without being authorized so to do at the time and place and on board the ship when and where he hoists the same, and every master or mate neglecting to hoist such flag when and where he is authorized so to do and not accepting the services of a licensed pilot, shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars; and every ship in respect of which such penalty is incurred shall be liable to pay as pilotage dues the same sum as would have been payable to a licensed pilot if the services of a licensed pilot had been obtained or accepted; and all such penalties shall be payable to and recoverable by the pilotage authority of the district. 36 V., c. 54, s. 58.

61. If the master of an exempted ship not belonging to Her Majesty, or not wholly employed in Her Majesty’s service, arriving within the limits of a pilotage district in which the payment of pilotage dues is, for the time being compulsory,—

(a.) Displays and continues to display the signal for a pilot in this Act provided, whilst within the limits prescribed for that purpose; and does not accept the services of any licensed pilot offering them in consequence of such signal; or—

(b.) Without displaying or continuing to display the signal for a pilot, in this Act provided, whilst within the limits prescribed for that purpose, employs any person not belonging to his crew and not being a licensed pilot, to pilot or guide such ship, whether or not a licensed pilot has offered his services.—

Such ship shall be liable to pay, if in the pilotage district of Quebec, to the corporation of pilots for and below the harbor of Quebec, and if elsewhere, to the pilotage authority of the district as pilotage dues the same sum as would have been payable to such licensed pilot if his services had been accepted. 36 V., c. 54, s. 59.

62. When a ship arrives at the limits of any district, in which the payment of pilotage dues is, for the time being, compulsory (unless she is an exempted ship or does not require the services of a pilot), the following provisions shall have effect:—

(1.) Until a licensed pilot has come on board, or until the ship has passed a point, line or place, from time to time fixed in this behalf by the pilotage authority of the district, the ship shall display such signal for a pilot as in this Act provided; and the master thereof, upon sighting a pilot boat carrying the pilot flag or pilot lights shall, by lying to if the weather permits, or by shortening sail, or heaving to, or, if the ship is a steamer, stopping his engines or by any other practicable means, facilitate the coming on board of the pilot or one of the pilots of such boat; and in default, such ship shall be liable to pay as pilotage dues to the pilotage authority of the district, if such district is not the district of Quebec, and if it is, then to the corporation of pilots for and below the harbor of Quebec, a sum not exceeding the amount of pilotage dues which would be payable for piloting such ship:

(2.) If the master of such ship—

(a.) Does not accept the services of the first licensed pilot who, by signal or otherwise, offers his services; or—

(b.) If there are two or more pilots offering their services at the same time, does not accept the services of such one of them as is entitled by the law or regulations for the time being in force in such district to have his services accepted; or—

(c.) Having signalled for a pilot, does not accept the services of any licensed pilot offering them in consequence of such signal—

Such ship shall be liable to pay, if in the pilotage district of Quebec, to the corporation of pilots for and below the harbor of Quebec, and if elsewhere, to the pilotage authority of the district, as pilotage dues, the same sum as would have been payable to such licensed pilot if his services had been accepted:
(3.) All sums received by any pilotage authority in pursuance of this and the next preceding section, shall be applied by it as follows:—

(a.) In paying all expenses incurred in obtaining payment of the same;
(b.) In paying to the pilot who offered his services to the ship, and if two pilots offered, to that one who was entitled to have his services accepted, such amount, if any, as it, by any by-laws made under this Act from time to time, makes payable to such pilot;
(c.) The residue shall be carried to and form part of the pilot fund of the district. 36 V., c. 54, s. 60.

If any ship requires the services of a pilot, or, not having a pilot, has entered or is in any district or part of a district where such ship is subject to a compulsory payment of pilotage dues, the master of such ship shall display the following signals, that is to say:—

(1.) In the day time, the Jack or other national color usually worn by merchant ships, having round it a white border one fifth of the breadth of the flag, hoisted at the fore;
(2.) At night,—
(a.) A blue-light every fifteen minutes; or—(b.) A bright white light, flashed or shown at short or frequent intervals, just above the bulwarks, for about a minute at a time. 36 V., c. 54, s. 61.

Every master of a ship who—

(a.) Displays such signals for any other purpose than that of summoning a pilot; or—(b.) Uses any other signal for a pilot,— shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars. 36 V., c. 54, s. 62.

No ship shall be exempt on any ground whatever from the liability to pay pilotage dues earned by any licensed pilot voluntarily taken on board of such ship by the master for the purpose of piloting her, whether the payment of pilotage dues is or is not, for the time being, otherwise compulsory in the district in which such pilotage dues are earned. 36 V., c. 54, s. 63.

Every master of an exempted ship, when navigating such ship without a pilot in any pilotage district, or part of a pilotage district, within the limits of which she is for the time being an exempted ship, shall, as regards the conduct and management of such ship within such limits, have all the powers and duties which are by law or usage possessed by or imposed upon any licensed pilot for such district. 36 V., c. 54, s. 64.
LICENSING OF MASTERS AND MATES.

67. A master or mate of any ship registered in Canada may, upon giving due notice and consenting to pay the usual expenses, apply to any pilotage authority (other than the pilotage authority of either of the pilotage districts of Quebec, Montreal, Halifax or St. John) to be examined as to his capacity to pilot the ship of which he is master or mate within any part of the district over which such pilotage authority has jurisdiction; and such master or mate shall thereupon be examined, and, if found competent, a pilotage certificate shall be granted to him, containing his name, a specification of the ship or ships in respect of which he has been examined, and a description of the limits within which he is to pilot the same,—which limits shall be within such jurisdiction. 36 V., c. 54, s. 65, part;—42 V., c. 25, s. 1, part.

68. Such certificate shall enable the person therein named to pilot the ship or any of the ships therein specified, of which he is acting as master or mate at the time, but no other, within the limits therein described, as if he was a licensed pilot, and may be in the form of the second schedule to this Act, or any like form:

2. No master or mate of any ship not registered in Canada shall be examined, or receive a pilotage certificate, under the next preceding section, or act as a pilot under this Act. 36 V., c. 54, s. 65, part;—42 V., c. 25, s. 1, part.

69. Such pilotage certificate shall not be in force for more than one year, unless the same is renewed, which may, from time to time, be done by an indorsement under the hand of the secretary or other officer of the authority by whom such certificate was granted. 36 V., c. 54, s. 66.

70. All masters or mates to or for whom any such pilotage certificates as aforesaid are granted or renewed by any pilotage authority, shall pay to such authority or as they direct, such fees upon their respective certificates and upon the renewals thereof, as are, from time to time, fixed for that purpose by such authority, with the consent of the Governor in Council. 36 V., c. 54, s. 67, part.

71. Such fees shall, in the case of certificates granted or renewed by a pilotage authority, be applicable either to paying the expense of the examinations, or any other general expenses connected with pilotage incurred by such authority, or to the pilot fund of the district, if any, or otherwise for the benefit of the pilots licensed by such authority, as such authority thinks fit. 36 V., c. 54, s. 67, part.

72. If at any time it appears to any pilotage authority that any master or mate to whom a pilotage certificate has been granted by such authority, has been guilty of drunkenness or misconduct, or has shown himself incompetent to pilot his ship, they may thereupon withdraw his certificate; and such certificate shall thenceforth cease to be of any effect whatever, and shall be forthwith produced and delivered up by such master or mate to such pilotage authority; in default of which such master or mate shall incur a penalty of forty dollars; and any court of summary jurisdiction may, besides imposing such penalty, by summary order direct such license to be forthwith delivered up to such pilotage authority. 36 V., c. 54, s. 68.

(a) Commits any fraud or offence in respect to the revenues of customs or inland revenue or the laws relating thereto,

75. A pilot shall be liable to suspension or dismissal by the pilotage authority of the district, for any of the offences mentioned in the next preceding section of this Act, upon such evidence as the said authority deems sufficient, and whether he has or has not been convicted of or indicted for such offence:

76. Whenever the pilotage authority of Quebec has power to dismiss or suspend a branch pilot for and below the harbor of Quebec, it may, instead of such punishment, fine such a pilot in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, if it deems it advisable so to do in lieu of dismissing or suspending him. 40 V., c. 51, s. 7.

Penalty on pilot demanding or receiving more than his legal dues.

Every licensed pilot who demands or receives any sum in respect of pilotage services greater than the dues for the time being demandable by law shall, for each offence, incur a penalty not exceeding forty dollars. 36 V., c. 54, s. 73.

21. All damage sustained by any owner or occupier in consequence of any such passing, repassing or deposit as aforesaid, shall be a charge on the vessel or wreck in respect of or by which such damage was occasioned, and shall, in default of payment, be recoverable in the same manner as salvage is by this Act made recoverable; and the amount payable in respect thereof shall, in case of dispute, be deter-minded in the same manner as the amount of salvage is by this Act, in case of dispute, directed to be determined: Proviso, that no such compensation shall be recoverable in respect of damage to any gate, wall, fence or other obstruction which has been unreasonably erected or placed by such owner or occupier so as to impede such passing, repassing or deposit. 36 V., c. 55, s. 7, part.

PROCEDURE IN SALVAGE.

44. Disputes as to salvage, whether of life or property, shall be heard and determined as follows, and not otherwise, that is to say:—

(a.) If either the amount claimed does not exceed one hundred dollars, or the value of the property liable or alleged to be liable for the salvage does not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, or if the parties consent in writing, the dispute shall be heard and determined by the receiver of the district where the services were rendered or where the property liable is, at the time of the making of the claim, and his award shall include fees and costs: but if any party feels aggrieved by the award of such receiver, the party so aggrieved may appeal to the Minister, within thirty days after the decision of the receiver from which the appeal is made: Provided always that the appellant shall, within seven days after the cause of appeal has arisen, give notice to the other party and to the receiver of his intention to appeal, and of the grounds of such appeal:

(b.) In other cases, the dispute may be heard and determined by any court having jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount of the claim or value of the property liable, in the place where the services were rendered, or where the property is at the time of the making of the claim:

2. If in any suit or proceeding for salvage in any court the claimant recovers an amount less than the maximum amount which might be claimed before the receiver, then, unless the court certifies that such suit or proceeding was unfit to be determined by the receiver, the claimant shall have no costs, charges or expenses incurred by him in the prosecution of his claim, and shall pay to the other party such costs, charges and expenses, if any, as the court directs:

3. The amount of the claim means, for the purposes of this section, the amount claimed in the proceeding or suit before the receiver, or in the court in which the suit or proceeding is taken; and the value of the property liable means the value of the property when first brought into safety by the salvors. 36 V., c. 55, s. 25.

45. Every dispute as to salvage which arises in Canada, when the services have been rendered therein, may be heard and determined, on the application either of the salvor or of the owner of the property liable to the claim for salvage, or when the property is in the custody of the receiver, on his application; and if no proceedings have been brought by the salvor, the owner may make application as aforesaid to the receiver or court having jurisdiction, according to the value of the property liable. 36 V., c. 55, s. 26.

46. When any dispute as to salvage arises in Canada, the receiver of the district where the property liable is situate shall, on the application of either party, appoint a valuer to value such property, and shall give copies of the valuation to both parties; and any copy of such valuation, purporting to be signed by the valuer, and to be certified as a true copy by the receiver, shall be admissible as evidence in any subsequent proceeding, and shall, for the purpose of giving jurisdiction in salvage, be conclusive evidence of the value at the time of such valuation; and there shall be paid in respect of such valuation such fee as the Minister, from time to time, directs. 36 V., c. 55, s. 27.

47. A receiver may seize any property found within his district and alleged to be liable for salvage; and may detain such property until either the salvage, fees and costs due thereon are ascertained and paid, or process is issued for the arrest or detention thereof by some competent court, or security is given to his satisfaction for such salvage, fees and costs. 36 V., c. 55, s. 28, part.

48. If the value of the property does not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, any question as to the amount of the security to be given, or as to the sufficiency of the sureties, may be determined by the receiver; or if such value exceeds two hundred and fifty dollars, any such question may be determined upon the application either of the owner of the property or of the salvors or any of them, or of such receiver, by any court having, in the district of such receiver, jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount of the value of the property in question:

2. If the property has not been valued, the value for the purposes of this section shall be determined by such receiver, or by a valuer appointed by him as aforesaid. 36 V., c. 55, s. 28, part.

49. Security given for salvage in pursuance of the two sections next preceding may be enforced by a court competent to entertain a suit for such salvage, in the same manner as if bail had been given in such court; and whenever under the provisions of this Act, the determination of disputes as to such salvage is to be made by a receiver, any such security may be enforced in the manner aforesaid by any court competent to entertain a suit for such salvage, having jurisdiction in the district of such receiver. 36 V., c. 55, s. 28, part.

50. Whenever any dispute as to salvage arises before a receiver under the provisions of this Act, the receiver shall hear and determine the same; and if, after he has made and published his award, the salvage, fees and costs by him awarded to be paid, are not paid within fourteen days, he may sell the property liable for such salvage, fees and costs, or a sufficient part thereof, and out of the proceeds defray the expenses of the sale and the salvage, fees and costs awarded, and shall pay or deliver up the surplus, if any, to the owners of the property or other persons entitled thereto. 36 V., c. 55, s. 29.

51. Whenever the aggregate amount of salvage payable in respect of any services has been finally determined by a receiver or court, or by admission or agreement, such amount may be apportioned and distributed as follows, that is to say:

(a.) If the amount has been determined by a receiver, the receiver may apportion the same among the persons entitled thereto in such manner as he thinks just; but any person aggrieved may appeal from his decision to the Minister;

(b.) If the amount has been determined by any court having jurisdiction, such court may direct the amount to be apportioned among the persons entitled thereto in such manner as such court thinks just, and may appoint any person to carry the apportionment into effect; and such court may compel any person in whose hands or under whose control such amount is, to distribute the same, or to bring the same into court, to be dealt with as the court directs, and may for the purposes aforesaid issue such orders as the court thinks fit,

(c.) If the amount has been finally ascertained by admission or agreement, but a dispute arises or is apprehended as to the apportionment thereof among several claimants, the person liable to pay such amount may pay the same, if it does not exceed one hundred dollars (or in any case if the claimants so agree), to a receiver, or, if it exceeds one hundred dollars, into any court having jurisdiction; and such receiver or court shall receive and apportion the same, and shall grant to the person paying the same a certificate of the amount paid and of the services in respect of which it is paid; and such certificate shall be a full discharge and indemnity to such person, and to all his property liable in respect of such services, against all persons, parties to or bound by such admission or agreement. 36 V., c. 55, s. 30.

52. When any salvage, fees, charges or costs, in relation to salvage, are awarded or declared to be due by a receiver or any court having jurisdiction in salvage, and the property liable or the proceeds thereof is or are under arrest in a different suit, in a court not being the same court by which such salvage, fees, charges or costs have been awarded, then such salvage, fees, charges and costs shall be enforced against the property or proceeds so under arrest, by the court in which the same is or are under arrest. 36 V., c. 55, s. 31.

FEES OF RECEIVERS OF WRECK.

53. There shall be paid to every receiver the expenses properly incurred by him in the performance of his duties, and also in respect of the several matters specified in the schedule to this Act, such fees, chargeable as therein mentioned, and not exceeding the amounts therein mentioned, as are, from time to time, directed by the Governor in Council; and the receiver shall, in addition to all other rights and remedies for the recovery of such expenses or fees, have the same rights and remedies which a salvor has in respect of salvage due to him; and may, if the property in respect of which any such expenses or fees are due, is not under arrest in any court, seize or detain such property until the same are paid, or until security is given for the same to his satisfaction. 36 V., c. 55, s. 32, part.

54. Whenever any dispute arises in any part of Canada as to the amount payable to any receiver in respect of expenses or fees, such dispute shall be determined by the Minister, whose decision shall be final; and all fees received by any receiver appointed under this Act, in respect of any of the matters in the schedule to this Act mentioned, may be retained by him for his own remuneration. 36 V., c. 55, s. 32, part.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

55. The jurisdiction conferred by this Act on any civil court may be exercised either by proceedings in rem or by proceedings in personam. 36 V., c. 55, s. 34.

56. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the jurisdiction of any court of Vice Admiralty in Canada in any matter or case, civil or criminal. 32-33 V., c. 38, s. 13;—36 V., c. 55, s. 35.

57. The Ministers of Customs and of Inland Revenue may permit all goods saved from any vessel stranded or wrecked within the limits of Canada on its inward voyage to be forwarded to the port of its original destination, and all goods saved from any ship stranded or wrecked within Canada on her outward voyage to be returned to the port at which the same were shipped,—taking such security for the due protection of the revenue in respect of such goods as they think proper. 36 V., c. 55, s. 36.

CHAPTER 91.

An Act respecting the Protection of Navigable Waters. A.D. 1886.

H ER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
   (a.) The expression "vessel" includes every description of ship, boat or craft of any kind, and whether propelled by steam or otherwise, and whether used as a sea-going vessel or on inland waters only;
   (b.) The expression "owner" means the registered owner.

2. If the navigation of any navigable water, over which the Parliament of Canada has jurisdiction, is obstructed, impeded or rendered more difficult or dangerous by the wreck, sinking, lying ashore or grounding of any vessel or part thereof or other thing, the owner, master or person in charge of such vessel or other thing, by which any such obstruction or obstacle is caused, shall forthwith give notice of the existence thereof to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, or to the collector of customs at the nearest or most convenient port, and shall place and, as long as such obstruction or obstacle continues, shall maintain, by day a sufficient signal and by night a sufficient light to indicate the position thereof,—and in default of giving such notice and placing and maintaining such signal and light shall, on summary conviction before two justices of the peace, be liable to a penalty of forty dollars for every day during which he neglects so to do without lawful or reasonable excuse. 49 V., c. 36, s. 2.

3. The Minister of Marine and Fisheries may cause such signal and light to be placed and maintained, if the owner, master or person in charge of such vessel or other thing by which the obstruction or obstacle is caused fails or neglects so to do. 49 V., c. 36, s. 3.

4. If, in the opinion of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, the navigation of any navigable water as aforesaid is obstructed, impeded or rendered more difficult or dangerous by reason of the wreck, sinking or lying ashore or grounding of any vessel or of any part thereof, or other thing, the said Minister may, under the authority of the Governor in Council (if such obstruction or obstacle continues for more than twenty-four hours), cause the same to be removed or destroyed in such manner and by such means as he thinks fit,—and may use gunpowder or other explosive substance for that purpose if he deems it advisable,—and may cause such vessel, or its cargo, or any thing causing or forming part of such obstruction or obstacle to be conveyed to such place as he thinks proper, and to be there sold by auction or otherwise as he deems most advisable,—and may apply the proceeds of such sale to make good the expenses incurred by him in placing and maintaining any signal or light to indicate the position of such obstruction or obstacle, or in the removal, destruction or sale of such vessel, cargo or thing,—paying over any surplus of such proceeds to the owner of the vessel or thing sold, or other persons entitled to such proceeds or any part thereof, respectively. 49 V., c. 36, s. 4.

5. Whenever, under the provisions of this Act, the Minister of Marine and Fisheries has caused any signal or light to be placed and maintained to indicate the position of any obstruction or obstacle, or has, with the authority of the Governor in Council, caused to be removed or destroyed any obstruction or obstacle to the navigation of any navigable water occasioned by the wreck, sinking or lying ashore or grounding of any vessel, or part thereof, or other thing, and the cost of placing and maintaining such signal or light or of removing or destroying such vessel or part thereof or other thing has been defrayed out of the public moneys of Canada,—and the net proceeds of the sale under this Act of such vessel or its cargo, or the thing, which caused or formed part of such obstruction, are not sufficient to make good the expenses incurred for the purposes aforesaid and the costs of sale, the amount by which such proceeds fall short of the expenses so defrayed as aforesaid, and such costs—or the whole amount of such expenses, if there is nothing which can be sold as aforesaid—shall be recoverable with costs by the Crown from the owner of such vessel or other thing or from the managing owner or from the master or person in charge thereof at the time such obstruction or obstacle was occasioned, or from any person through whose act or default, or through the act or default of whose servants such obstruction or obstacle was occasioned or continued; and any sum so recovered shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada. 49 V., c. 36, s. 5.

6. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to exempt any owner, master or person from any obligation or responsibility with respect to any obstruction or obstacle imposed on him by any other law, or to derogate from or impair any power or right vested by any such law in the Quebec Harbor Commissioners, or Montreal Harbor Commissioners, or other authority, with respect to such obstruction or obstacle, and not incompatible with the powers hereby vested in the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. 49 V., c. 36, s. 6.

7. No owner or tenant of any saw-mill, or any workman therein or other person shall throw or cause to be thrown, or suffer or permit to be thrown, any sawdust, edgings, slabs, bark or rubbish of any description whatsoever, into any river, stream or other water, any part of which is navigable or which flows into any navigable water; and every person who violates the provisions of this section shall, on summary conviction, be liable, for a first offence, to a penalty of not less than twenty dollars, and for each subsequent offence, to a penalty of not less than fifty dollars:

2. The several fishery officers shall, from time to time, examine and report on the condition of such rivers, streams and waters, and prosecute all persons violating the provisions of this section; and for enforcing the said provisions, such officers shall have and exercise all the powers conferred upon them for like purposes by "The Fisheries Act:"

3. The Governor in Council, when it is shown to his satisfaction that the public interest would not be injuriously affected thereby, may, from time to time, by proclamation published in the Canada Gazette, declare any such river, stream or water, or part or parts thereof, exempted from the operation of this section, in whole or in part, and may, from time to time, revoke such proclamation. 49 V., c. 36, s. 7.
CHAPTER 92.

An Act respecting certain works constructed in or over A.D. 1880.
Navigable Waters.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
   (a.) The expression "work" means and includes any bridge, boom, dam, aboiteau, wharf, dock, pier or other structure, and the approaches or other works necessary or appurtenant thereto;
   (b.) The expression "lawful work" means and includes any "work" not contrary to the law in force at the place of the construction thereof at the time of such construction.

2. No bridge, boom, dam or aboiteau shall be constructed so as to interfere with navigation, unless the site thereof has been approved by the Governor in Council, and unless such bridge, boom, dam or aboiteau is built and maintained in accordance with plans approved by the Governor in Council.

3. Any bridge to which this Act applies, which is built upon a site not approved by the Governor in Council, or which is not built in accordance with plans so approved, or which, having been so built, is not maintained in accordance with such plans, may, in so far as the same interferes with navigation, be lawfully removed and destroyed under the authority of the Governor in Council.

4. The provisions of the two sections next preceding shall not affect any bridge constructed before the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, which hereafter requires to be rebuilt or repaired, if such bridge, when so rebuilt or repaired, does not interfere to a greater extent with navigation than on the said day or theretofore.

5. The local authority, company or person proposing to construct any work in navigable waters, for which no sufficient sanction otherwise exists, may deposit the plans thereof.
and a description of the proposed site with the Minister of Public Works, and a duplicate of each in the office of the registrar of deeds for the district, county or province in which such work is proposed to be constructed,—and may apply to the Governor in Council for approval thereof,—and shall give one month's notice of the said deposit of plans and application, by advertisement in the Canada Gazette, and in two newspapers published in or near the locality where such work is to be constructed. 49 V., c. 35, s. 2.

6. Any local authority, company or person may proceed in like manner to obtain the approval by the Governor in Council of the site and plans of any work heretofore constructed. 49 V., c. 35, s. 3.

7. No approval shall be given under this Act of the site or plans of any bridge over the river St. Lawrence. 49 V., c. 35, s. 4.

8. Any lawful work may be rebuilt or repaired if the interference with navigation is not increased by such rebuilding or repairing. 49 V., c. 35, s. 5.

9. Parliament may, at any time, annul or vary any order of the Governor in Council made under this Act; and any action of Parliament in that behalf shall not be deemed an infringement of the rights of the local authority, company or person concerned. 49 V., c. 35, s. 6.

10. Nothing hereinbefore contained, except the provisions of the first and eighth sections hereof, shall apply to any work constructed under the authority of any Act of the Parliament of Canada, or of the legislature of the late Province of Canada, or of the legislature of any Province now forming part of Canada, passed before such Province became a part thereof. 49 V., c. 35, s. 7.

11. The Governor in Council may, from time to time, make such orders or regulations as he deems expedient for the purpose of maintaining existing facilities for navigation, or for securing better facilities therefor, respecting any work to which this Act applies, or of which the plan and site have been or are hereafter approved under any Act of the Parliament of Canada; and the local authority, company or person constructing, owning or in possession of any such work shall be subject to such orders or regulations. 49 V., c. 35, s. 8.
CHAPTER 93.

An Act respecting Bridges.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the A.D. 1886.

Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

INTERPRETATION.

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

   (a.) The expression "bridge" means and includes every bridge to which this Act applies;

   (b.) The expression "railway committee" means the railway committee of the Privy Council appointed under "The Railway Act." 35 V., c. 25, s. 2, part.

   (c.) The expression "engineer" includes engineers, when more than one are appointed.

APPLICATION OF ACT.

2. This Act applies to every bridge and the approaches thereto, and the appliances or works appurtenant thereto, built or constructed, whether before or after the passing of this Act, by any company incorporated under the authority of, or which is within the jurisdiction of the Parliament of Canada, and which is not a railway company or subject to the control of the railway committee of the Privy Council, under "The Railway Act." 35 V., c. 25, s. 2, part.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

3. No bridge shall be opened for public use, until one month after notice in writing of the intention to open the same has been given by the company to whom the bridge belongs, to the railway committee, nor until ten days after notice in writing has been given by the company to the railway committee, of the time when the bridge will, in the opinion of the company, be sufficiently completed for the use thereof with safety, and ready for inspection. 35 V., c. 25, s. 3.

4. The railway committee, upon receiving such notice, shall direct an engineer attached to or employed by the Department of Public Works, to examine the bridge proposed to be opened; and if the inspecting engineer reports, in writing, to the railway committee, that, in his opinion, the opening of the bridge would be attended with danger to the public using the same, by reason of incompleteness or insufficiency thereof, together with the ground of such opinion, the railway committee, with the sanction of the Governor in Council (and so on, from time to time, as often as such engineer, after further inspection thereof, reports to the same effect) may order the company to whom the bridge belongs to postpone such opening for a period not exceeding one month at any one time, until it appears to the committee that such opening may take place without danger to the public. 35 V., c. 25, s. 5.

5. No such order shall be binding upon any bridge company unless a copy of the report of the inspecting engineer on which the order is founded is delivered to the company with the order. 35 V., c. 25, s. 7.

6. The railway committee, whenever it receives information to the effect that any bridge is dangerous to the public using the same, through want of repair, insufficiency, or erroneous construction, or from any other cause, or whenever circumstances arise which, in its opinion, render it expedient, may direct any such engineer, as aforesaid, to examine and inspect the bridge, and upon the report of the engineer, may condemn the bridge or any portion thereof, or any of the works or appliances connected therewith,—and, with the approval of the Governor in Council, may require any change or alteration therein, or in any part thereof, or the substitution of a new bridge or of any portion thereof, or the use of any materials for any part of the said bridge; and thereupon the company to which such bridge belongs, or the company using or controlling the same, shall, after notice thereof in writing, signed by the chairman of the railway committee, and countersigned by the secretary thereof, proceed to make good or remedy the defects in the bridge, or portions of the bridge which have been reported as insufficient, or shall make the change, alteration or substitution required as aforesaid by the committee. 35 V., c. 25, s. 8.

7. Any engineer authorized to inspect any bridge may, at all reasonable times, upon producing his authority, if required, enter upon and examine such bridge. 35 V., c. 25, s. 11.

8. Every bridge company, and the officers and directors thereof, shall afford to the inspecting engineer such information as is within their knowledge and power, in all matters enquired into by him, and shall submit to such inspecting engineer, all contracts, plans, specifications, drawings and documents relating to the construction, repair, or state of repair of such bridge. 35 V., c. 25, s. 12.

9. The production of instructions in writing signed by the chairman of the railway committee and countersigned by the secretary thereof, shall be sufficient evidence of the authority of any such inspecting engineer. 35 V., c. 25, s. 13.

10. If, in the opinion of the inspecting engineer, it is dangerous for railway trains (if the bridge is intended for the passage of such trains) or vehicles, or passengers to pass over the bridge until alterations, substitutions or repairs are made therein, the engineer may forthwith forbid the running of any railway train or vehicle, as the case may be, or the passage of any passenger over such bridge, by delivering, or causing to be delivered to the president, managing director or secretary, or superintendent of the company owning, using or controlling such bridge, a notice in writing to that effect, and his reasons therefor, in which he shall distinctly specify the defects or the nature of the danger to be apprehended. 35 V., c. 25, s. 9.

11. The inspecting engineer shall forthwith report the circumstances of the case to the railway committee, who, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, may either confirm, modify or disallow the act or order of the inspecting engineer, and notice of such confirmation, modification or disallowance shall be duly given to the bridge company affected thereby. 35 V., c. 25, s. 10.

12. No inspection had under this Act, nor anything in this Act contained or done, or ordered, or omitted to be done, or ordered under or by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall relieve or be construed to relieve any bridge company of or from any liability or responsibility resting upon it by law, either towards Her Majesty or towards any person, or the wife or husband, parent or child, executor or administrator, tutor or curator, heir or personal representative of any person, for anything done or omitted to be done by such company, or for any wrongful act, neglect or default, misfeasance, malfeasance or non-feasance of such company, or in any manner or way to lessen such liability or responsibility, or in any way to weaken or diminish the liability or responsibility of any such company, under the laws in force in the Province in which such liability or responsibility arises. 35 V., c. 25, s. 14.

13. Every bridge company shall be deemed to have received sufficient information of any order of the railway committee, if a notice thereof, signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary of the committee, is delivered to the president, vice-president, managing director, secretary or superintendent of the company, or at the office of the company; and every such company shall be deemed to have received sufficient information of any order of the inspecting engineer, if a notice thereof signed by the engineer, is delivered, as hereinbefore provided. 35 V., c. 25, s. 15.
14. Every bridge company shall, as soon as possible and within at least forty-eight hours after the occurrence, upon the bridge belonging to such company, of any accident attended with serious personal injury to any person using the same, or whereby its bridge has been broken or so damaged as to render its bridge impassable or unsafe or unfit for immediate use, give notice thereof to the railway committee. 35 V., c. 25, s. 16, part.

15. Every bridge company shall, within one month after the first days of January and July, in each year, make to the railway committee, under the oath of the president, secretary or superintendent of the company, a true and particular return of all accidents and casualties (whether to life or property) which have occurred on the bridge of the company during the half year next preceding each of the said periods respectively, setting forth,—

(a.) The causes and natures of such accidents and casualties;

(b.) Whether they occurred by night or by day;

(c.) The full extent thereof, and all the particulars of the same:

And the company shall also, at the same time, transmit a true copy of the existing by-laws of the company, and of its rules and regulations for the management of the company and of its bridge. 35 V., c. 25, s. 17.

16. The railway committee may, from time to time, order and direct the form in which such return shall be made up, and may order and direct any bridge company to make up and deliver to such committee, from time to time, in addition to the said periodical returns, returns of serious accidents occurring in the course of the public traffic upon the bridge belonging to such company, whether attended with personal injury or not, in such form and manner as the committee deems necessary and requires for its information, with a view to the public safety. 35 V., c. 25, s. 18.

17. All such returns shall be privileged communications, and shall not be evidence in any court whatsoever. 35 V., c. 25, s. 20.

PENALTIES.

18. Every bridge company which opens its bridge contrary to the provisions of the third section of this Act, shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars for every day during which the same continues open until the notices have been duly given and have expired. 35 V., c. 25, s. 4.

19. Every bridge company which opens its bridge contrary to an order of the railway committee, issued under the fourth section of this Act, shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars for every day during which the same continues open contrary to such order. 35 V., c. 25, s. 6.

20. Every bridge company which wilfully omits to give the notice to the railway committee required by this Act of an accident on or to its bridge, shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars for every day during which the omission to give such notice continues. 35 V., c. 25, s. 16, part.

21. Every bridge company which neglects to deliver any return required by this Act, verified as herein provided, within the respective times herein prescribed, or within fourteen days after the same have been so required by the railway committee, shall incur a penalty of one hundred dollars for every day during which the company neglects to deliver the same. 35 V., c. 25, s. 19.
